SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 1819.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS the Parliament stands prorogued to Tuesday the second day of November next, We, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, do hereby publish and declare, that the said Parliament shall be further prorogued on the said second day of November to Tuesday the twenty-third day of said month; and We have given order to the Lord High Chancellor of that part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called Great Britain, to prepare a Commission for proroguing the same accordingly. And We do further hereby, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice aforesaid, publish and declare, that the said Parliament shall, on the twenty-third day of November next, be held and sit for the dispatch of divers urgent and important affairs: And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their attendance accordingly, at Westminster, on the said twenty-third day of November next.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, the eleventh day of October one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, in the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to Viscount Sidmouth, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, have been presented by His Lordship to His Royal Highness the Prince

Regent, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Assistants, and Inhabitants at large, of the Town of Penzance.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, Assistants, and Inhabitants at large, of the Town of Penzance, beg leave, with dutiful respect, to express to your Royal Highness our sorrow and indignation at the daring attempts lately made, by evil-minded men, to seduce His Majesty's subjects from their loyalty and allegiance; to assure your Royal Highness of our steady attachment to your Royal House and Person, and of our veneration for that Constitution which has been formed by the wisdom and true patriotism of many ages, and is admired by wise and good men in every part of the World. We profess ourselves to be untainted with the prevailing rage for innovation; and we will, to the utmost of our power, discountenance every attempt to lessen the respect due to our holy religion, and to the institutions and government of the country, and use every exertion for the maintenance of public order and tranquillity.—Dated the 26th day of October in the year of our Lord 1819.

Edw. C. Giddy, Mayor.

[Transmitted by Viscount Fulmouth, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's faithful subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the Burgh of Haddington, approach the throne with the renewed assurance of our duty and loyalty.

We deplore the distresses which, produced by causes incontroulable by human wisdom, have
