Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or Our High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland for the time being, and they are hereby empowered to lodge Mediterranean passes of the same form with the new passes for ships and vessels belonging to Gibraltar and Malta, in the hands of Our Lord High Commissioner of the Ionian Islands, and to empower our said Lord High Commissioner of the Ionian Islands to issue and deliver out such passes to any of the inhabitants of the said Islands, to be applied to ships actually belonging to the said Islands, and none other, provided the person or persons applying for the same do comply with and conform to the several rules and regulations now in use, or that may be required to be observed by Our subjects, or that may be directed to be observed by the said inhabitants of the Ionian Islands by Our Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or Our High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland for the time being.

And We do hereby order, that the Commissioners of Our Customs in Great Britain and Ireland do cause to be carried into execution such parts of the said Order of Council, of the fourteenth day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, concerning passes as relate to themselves and the proper Officers under them, so far as the same remains now in force, and of Our Orders aforesaid made in Council on the twenty-eighth day of August one thousand seven hundred and seventy-six, on the thirty-first day of December one thousand seven hundred and eighty-three, and the third day of November one thousand eight hundred and two, or Our Order in Council of this day's date, that they do direct their Officers in the several parts of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland to demand of the masters of all merchant ships, so soon as they shall return into port from a foreign voyage, all passes granted as aforesaid which shall be in their possession to be produced to the said respective Officers of Our Customs; and if the same shall appear to be of an older date than the periods herein before severally and respectively mentioned for the return of the passes of the present form, then such passes shall be delivered up to the said respective Officers of Our Customs, and be by them returned to the Office of the Admiralty of Great Britain. And in case the master of any such ship or vessel shall refuse to produce or deliver up such passes according to the true intent of Our said Order, then the said Officer shall certify the name of every such master, and of the ship or vessel, to Our Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or to Our High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland for the time being, to the end that directions may be given for putting the bond entered into on the granting any such pass, in suit. And all Our Governors, Lieutenant-Governors, and Commanders in Chief of any of Our islands, colonies, or plantations, Consuls residing in foreign parts, and all other Our Officers and Ministers whatsoever, and all other Our loving subjects whom it may concern, are hereby expressly required and commanded to yield due obedience unto, and strictly to observe all the orders, instructions, regulations, and directions before mentioned, on pain of Our high displeasure.

Given at Our Court at Carlton-House, this twentieth day of November one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, in the sixtieth year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.
