

regulations, and directions before mentioned, on pain of Our high displeasure.

Given at Our Court at Carlton-House, this twentieth day of November one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, in the sixtieth year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 20th of November 1819.

PRESENT.

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT, in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by the Orders of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council of the twenty-eighth May and the twelfth July last, for prohibiting the exportation of gunpowder, arms, or ammunition, to the places therein specified, will expire on the thirtieth day of this instant November; and whereas it is expedient that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, doth hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons, whatsoever, (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth day of this instant November), presume to transport any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place within the dominions of the King of Spain, or to any port or place on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places within the dominions of the King of Spain, or into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of salt-petre, and to enforce the law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores; and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council."

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Chetwynd.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to Viscount Sidmouth, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, have been presented by His Lordship to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, &c. &c. &c.:

The humble, dutiful and loyal Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Harwich, in the County of Essex, and other Inhabitants of the same Borough.

When provoked by the tumultuary and dangerous meetings of malicious, or misguided men, so large a portion of the subjects of our beloved and venerable Sovereign are zealously expressing their unshaken attachment to their Constitutional Laws, we, the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses and other loyal Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of Harwich, intreat permission of your Royal Highness, to be graciously reckoned among those, who are most sensibly grateful for the blessing of that excellent Government they enjoy, and who are determined with their lives and fortunes to make every loyal exertion necessary for its lasting preservation and support.

Placed, as we are, at the extremity of a peaceable maritime and agricultural County, we learn only by public report the existence of those meetings, that seditious spirits have organized to disturb the public peace.

Happily, as yet, we have had in this loyal and tranquil town, no itinerant orators, moving revolutionary resolutions, and operating upon poverty and distress to produce discontent and disaffection to the State.

We have however, though not immediately exposed to the contagion, perceived its pernicious effects upon other less fortunate parts of this Kingdom, with indignation and abhorrence. Nor have we failed to observe the intimate sympathy between those mischievous men that incessantly labour to disturb our mild and paternal Government, and those who impiously attempt to destroy our Christian Faith; and are forcibly warned against all the deceitful delusions of the seditious Reformer, when
