SATURDAY, DECEMBER 4, 1819.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 3d of December 1819,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

HIS Royal Highness having been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to appoint Henry Lascelles, Esq. commonly called Viscount Lascelles, to be Lord Lieutenant of the west riding of the county of York, and of the city of York and county of the same, his Lordship this day took the oaths appointed to be taken thereupon, instead of the oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to Viscount Sidmouth, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, have been presented by His Lordship to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The dutiful and loyal Address of the Lord Provost, Dean of Guild, Bailies, and Town Council of the Ancient Metropolitan City of St. Andrews, in Common Hall assembled.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Lord Provost, Dean of Guild, Bailies, and Town Council of the City of St. Andrews, consider it our duty, on the present occasion, to approach the Throne with the renewed expression of our firm attachment to our glorious Constitution, and to the sacred Person of His Majesty, and that of your Royal Highness.

We cannot but view with horror the atrocious attempts that have been lately made to overturn both the Government and the Religion of the State; but we trust that the good sense and well-known patriotism which have heretofore overcome every danger, will, through the blessing of Divine Providence, enable the people most effectually to resist the insidious designs of those who would dare to deprive them of their temporal privileges and eternal hopes.

We entreat your Royal Highness to be persuaded that our utmost efforts shall be used for the maintenance of that peace and good order in this district, for which, we are proud to say, it has all along been so eminently distinguished.

And we desire to assure your Royal Highness that we entertain the most perfect confidence that His Majesty's Government, aided by the wisdom of Parliament, will devise the means best calculated for allaying the existing ferment, and for restoring and establishing inviolably the security and liberty of this great empire.

Signed, in our presence, in our name, and by our appointment, at St. Andrews, the 20th day of November 1819. Robt. Meldrum, Provost.

[Transmitted by Archibald Campbell, Esq. M. P. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, the Chancellor, Rector, Principals, and Professors of the University of St. Andrews, at a time when profane attempts are made to bring upon our native land the miseries of anarchy, are anxious to unite with all loyal subjects in presenting to your Royal Highness the expression of our deep-rooted veneration for the British Constitution, and our devoted attachment to His Majesty's Person, Family, and Government.

Happily resident in a district of the kingdom where we are shocked by no such appearances of disaffection, where all classes of His Majesty's subjects have borne inevitable privations with becoming peaceful submission, we yet grieve that in any
