THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to Viscount Sidmouth, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, have been presented by His Lordship to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Noblemen, Deputy Lieutenants, Freeholders, Justices of Peace and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Aberdeen, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with the expression of our unalterable loyalty to His Sacred Majesty the King, of most dutiful respect to your Royal Highness, and of firm attachment to the just and free Constitution, under which we have the happiness to live.

While we feel ourselves called upon, by the circumstances of the times, to profess in the strongest manner our abhorrence of the audacious endeavours to poison with blasphemous and seditious doctrines, the minds of the people; we have great satisfaction in being able to assure your Royal Highness, that those destructive principles have made no progress here, and that the conduct of the people of this County has been, as we trust it will ever continue, perfectly peaceable and orderly.

Most deeply lamenting the distress unfortunately prevailing in many places among the manufacturing classes, we feel the utmost detestation of the cruel artifice of those profligate and unprincipled demagogues who make use of that distress to excite and propagate a blind spirit of turbulence and discontent, obviously tending to aggravate those sufferings, and equally hostile to public tranquillity, to our happy Constitution, and to every thing valuable in society.

That, in the mercy of God to this nation, every effort of irreligion and sedition may be utterly frustrated; and that your Royal Highness may long be preserved to a faithful people, is our sincere and earnest prayer.

Signed, in our name and by our appointment, this 22d November, 1819.

To His Royal Highness the Prince REGENT.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Fife.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Fife, venture to approach the Throne, at the present alarming crisis, when our civil and religious institutions are assailed by wicked and designing men, who, under the specious mask of reform, are endeavouring, for base and selfish purposes, to subvert our glorious Constitution in Church and State, and to involve the Empire in the greatest of all misfortunes,—a civil war.

We had hoped that the blessings of peace, purchased by so protracted and desolating a war, would not have been interrupted, and the national character tarnished by conduct so unworthy of Britons; but we have the satisfaction of assuring your Royal Highness, that although these bad principles, religious and political, which have of late been so industriously propagated, have unfortunately reached this County, we are convinced that the great body of its inhabitants remain faithfully attached to the Throne, the Constitution and the laws; and that while we rely upon the continuance of this good spirit we shall nevertheless be vigilant, and prepared to do all within our power to put down any movements that may tend to disturb the public tranquillity, or endanger the peace of the Realm, and to animate those around us to obedience of the laws, and a reverence for the institutions of our holy religion, in the full assurance that it is by these means that our country has attained to a height of moral and political greatness unexampled in modern times.

We deeply lament the privations and distress to which the manufacturing classes have been exposed, which we trust are only for a season; and at the same time we most gratefully acknowledge the bountiful hand of the Almighty in the abundant crops he has sent us, by which these privations have been so materially alleviated.

We avail ourselves of this opportunity of renewing our assurance of loyalty to and our veneration for our revered Sovereign, and of our attachment to His Majesty's Government, and we conclude by expressing our confident hope that such measures will be adopted as your Royal Highness and Parliament may see meet, in order to thwart the machinations of those wicked and designing men who have for a short while too well succeeded in spreading the banners of irreligion, anarchy and revolution throughout a great portion of the Kingdom.

Signed by our Preses, in our name, at Cupar, this 18th day of November 1819 years.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Lord Lieutenant, Bishop of the Diocese, the High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Carnarvon, beg leave to present to your Royal Highness a dutiful and loyal address at this crisis, when such unprincipled and audacious attempts are openly avowed against our Religion, our Laws, and Institutions. We declare ourselves in uniform hostility to principles and practices which have a tendency to disturb the peace of society, and to overthrow our long venerated and established Constitution. We presume to hope that, by due firmness, mixed with due consideration on the part of your Royal Highness and of your Government, aided by the support of Parliament, and by the good sense of the nation, these blasphemous and seditious opinions may be deprived of their venom, and that our Constitution and Religion may be preserved unimpaired to our latest posterity.

Signed in the name and at the request of the Meeting,

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, &c. &c. &c.

SIR,

WE, the Lieutenant, Justices of the Peace, Freeholders, Magistrates, Ministers, and Yeomanry of Nairnshire, called together by His Majesty's Lieutenant and Convener of that County, most respectfully approach your Royal Highness.

We view with horror and detestation the wicked attempts of many infatuated and designing men in different parts of the kingdom, to overturn our Constitution, our Liberties, and most sacred Religion, under the mask of radical reform.

Such attempts have made no progress in this part of the country, we do, therefore, with confidence assure your Royal Highness, of our sincere attachment to our venerable Sovereign and his family, our highest respect for the British Constitution, our most reverential persuasion in the truth of the Christian Religion, and that, actuated by these sentiments, we are ready, if called upon, to confirm our assertions with our lives and fortunes.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Right Worshipful the Master, Wardens, and other Members of the Nairn Saint Ninian operative Lodge,

Sheweth,

THAT the Members of this Lodge have seen with the most sincere regret, the reports of various meetings held in many parts of the United Kingdom, and the trials for blasphemous publications; each tending to undermine our divine Religion, and overturn the happiest Constitution in Europe.

This Lodge has only to repeat to your Royal Highness, their firm attachment to the present Constitution; and their fixed resolve to support the illustrious House of Brunswick by every mean in their power.

Unto His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland

The humble and dutiful Address of the Magistrates and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Kirkcudbright, in Council assembled.

WE, the Magistrates and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Kirkcudbright, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with sentiments of fidelity to our venerable Sovereign, and to your Royal Highness's person and government.

Warmly attached to the Constitution of our Country, which has been consolidated by the wisdom of ages, and been the wonder, pride and envy of an admiring world; and devoted to the principles which placed your Royal Highness's family on the Throne of these Realms, and fully sensible of the many privileges, both civil and religious, which as a people we enjoy, we cannot view without indignation and abhorrence, the attempts of artful and designing men, who, under pretence of reform, and by means of seditious and blasphemous publications, are endeavouring to overthrow all we hold dear and valuable, and by sapping the foundations of religion and virtue, to destroy the happiness of the people both in this world and that which is to come.

From the vigour and energy of your Royal Highness's Counsels, and the wisdom of Parliament in devising means for removing, principally among the lower orders, those distresses consequent on a change to peace, after a long protracted war, we look forward with confidence to the restoration of order and tranquillity.

While we thus humbly approach the Throne, we beg leave at the same time to assure your Royal Highness of the loyal and peaceable dispositions of the inhabitants of this Burgh, and of our best exertions to maintain this happy state of tranquillity, and contribute by all the means in our power to the general good.

That your Royal Highness's Family may ever reign over a free, loyal and happy people, sensible of the many advantages they enjoy, is our most ardent desire.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and other Heritors of the County of Cromarty, assembled by public notice in general meeting, consider it our bounden duty at this alarming period to approach your Royal Highness with the warmest expressions of our unshaken and unalterable attachment to our revered Sovereign, and to that unrivalled Constitution under which we and our forefathers have hitherto lived in security and happiness.

While we express our utmost detestation of the insidious and shameless efforts of factious and turbulent individuals who, with a degree of industry hitherto unexampled, strive to subvert all law and order, we, in common with all the friends of revealed religion cannot without horror, contemplate the truly audacious and wicked attempts to undermine the Christian Faith by a regular system of the most impious falsehoods levelled at those divine revelations on which all our hopes and interests both temporal and eternal alike depend.

We rejoice, however, in being able to assure your Royal Highness, that as yet not even the appearance of disaffection to the constituted authorities of the State, nor irreverence towards the established religion of the land, has been in the smallest degree evinced by the inhabitants of this county and its neighbourhood; at the same time should such a misfortune befall us, we most respectfully beg leave to assure your Royal Highness of our warmest and most cordial co-operation in suppressing whatever may tend to endanger the Constitution either in Church or State, as by law established, and of our steadfast loyalty to our venerable Sovereign, your Royal Highness, and your illustrious Family.

Signed in our name, presence, and by our appointment, at Cromarty, the 19th day of November 1819 years, by His Majesty's Lieutenant for the County, our Preses.

[Transmitted by R. B. Æneas Macleod, Esq. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs and Citizens of the City of Carlisle, in Council assembled feel it our duty, at this time, to approach the Throne with a declaration of our attachment to the established Institutions of these Kingdoms, and our unfeigned sentiments of loyalty and duty.

We have witnessed with the greatest grief the sufferings of many of our manufacturing poor; but we cannot contemplate, without feelings of the strongest abhorrence, the arts by which designing and unprincipled men have aggravated those sufferings, and endeavoured to exasperate the passions and mislead the minds of the labouring classes.

In common with the rest of our countrymen, we deeply deplore circumstances which have flowed from these erroneous proceedings; but we do not think it either constitutional or becoming to pre-judge a case which waits the decision of a legal tribunal, being perfectly satisfied that the judicial authorities of the land will not fail impartially to enforce the existing laws in the detection and punishment of delinquency wherever it may exist.

We, at the same time, deem it our imperious duty to express to your Royal Highness our firm and unalterable attachment to the Constitution of this country, and our determined purpose to oppose every measure which may threaten its subversion. Being sensible of the inestimable blessings which we enjoy, we esteem it incumbent upon us to support the Throne, and the two Houses of Parliament, to maintain the public peace, to discountenance notions of a spurious liberty, and to inculcate upon those who are connected with us a due submission to the laws of the country.

Considering these matters of obvious duty on our part, as good subjects, as true Britons, and as christian men, we cheerfully commit the welfare of our beloved country to the good providence of God, and the wisdom of the great Council of the Nation about to be assembled in Parliament. And we devoutly hope, that, under the divine guidance and blessing, such measures may be adopted as will tend to relieve the distresses of the poor, to open the eyes of the deluded, to allay the spirit of the disaffected, and to promote the security and happiness of all. That Almighty God may long preserve your Royal Highness, and that you may live to see this nation great, happy and prosperous beyond the example of former years, is the sincere prayer of us, His Majesty's, and your Royal Highness's dutiful subjects.

Given under the Common Seal of the said City, this 11th day of November in the year of our Lord 1819. Thomas Blamire, Mayor.

[Transmitted by the Mayor, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates and Council of the City of Aberdeen.
May it please your Royal Highness.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Lord Provost, Magistrates and Town Council of the City of Aberdeen, in Council assembled, beg leave, in the present disturbed state of some parts of the United Kingdom, to express our ardent loyalty to our venerable and beloved Sovereign, and our stondest and most unalterable sentiments of respect and attachment to your Royal Highness's Persons, Family and Government.

Venerating the unparalleled excellence of our happy Constitution in Church and State; a Constitution gradually matured by the wisdom of our ancestors; and under which we have enjoyed such inestimable blessings as have fallen to the lot of few nations upon earth, our most earnest wish is, that it may descend inviolate to the latest posterity.

We therefore contemplate with the deepest concern; the evil-minded and disaffected men, under the specious but delusive pretence of Reform, assembling numerous and often tumultuous conventions of the people; and, by seditious harangues, inflaming their minds against the rulers of our country, and impressing them with political opinions, obviously tending to the destruction of their best interests, and subversive of the mild government and salutary laws under which our nation has risen to distinguished pre-eminence.

With equal abhorrence we view these demagogues defying our laws, insulting our judges in open court, and with unblushing effrontery employing that most powerful engine of mischief, a profligate and licentious press, not only to calumniate our Government; but even in blasphemous language to revile the scriptures of truth, and to sap the very foundations of our most holy religion; without the awful sanctions of which civil society could not exist upon earth, and without the animating assurances of which all our cheering hopes of futurity would vanish into darkness. Instead of being deterred by the dreadful example of revolutionary France, so recently before their eyes, we lament, that by similar means they endeavour, too successfully, to spread their deadly delusions among the people, to efface from their minds every moral and religious restraint, and thus to prepare them for accomplishing their dangerous and daring innovations by physical force.

But though these evils have appeared chiefly among the lower classes of the community, yet in our apprehension they have made an alarming progress; and if they meet with no timely and effectual check, they may lead to consequences which we tremble to anticipate. For that check we look with confidence to the prudence and vigour of your Royal Highness's Government, to the wisdom of Parliament, and to the sound principles and determined loyalty, not only of the higher and more enlightened orders of society in general, but even of a vast majority of those who earn their bread by the labour of their hands.

And we beg leave to assure your Royal Highness that our most strenuous efforts to repress the machinations of seditious, disloyal and irreligious men shall never be wanting.

Signed in name, and by appointment of the said Magistrates and City Council, in Council assembled, and the City Seal hereto affixed, at Aberdeen the 23d day of November in the year 1819, by

A. Brebner, Provost.

[Transmitted by the Provost, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, His Majesty's dutiful subjects, Inhabitants of the Town and neighbourhood of Bolton-le-Moors beg leave to express to your Royal Highness, at this eventful period, an assurance of our loyal attachment and unshaken fidelity to your Royal Highness's Family and Government.

We have observed with deep concern, the spread of disaffection and sedition through a large portion of the community, and the turbulent means by which this evil has been produced and multiplied, justly excite in us feelings of the strongest indignation.

The general organization of secret and corresponding Committees, active by night and by day—the ferment raised in the minds of the people, partly by the intemperate effusions of their designing leaders imposing upon ignorance and credulity, partly by a regular system of menace and intimidation, and still more by the unbounded circulation of papers and pamphlets from an inflammatory and a treasonable press,—the expectation of plunder and property which has been too frequently holden out to the abettors of radical reform,—the manufacture of arms for the avowed purpose of resisting all interference of the civil or military power,—the shameless institution of schools for the corruption and perversion of the youth of the Empire; these evils, and such as these, loudly call for the avowal of our most decided and unqualified reprobation.

And there is yet another evil of still more alarming magnitude, which we are desirous of marking with peculiar, with utter detestation; we allude to the systematic attempts which are openly and impudently made to undermine and subvert the fundamental principles of Christianity. The impious efforts of our enemies are not exclusively directed against any particular religious establishment, but against revelation itself.

The bolder apostates hesitate not to proclaim and to propagate, in the face of day, their infidelity and blasphemy; and their designs have been thoughtlessly, not to say criminally, countenanced by those whose talents and characters should have kept them, as we think, at an immeasurable distance from such a degrading combination.

Nor should we omit to mention in terms of condemnation the very indiscreet and blameable encouragement, which has been afforded to the cause of disloyalty by many respectable persons, both individually and collectively, who yet abhor the pernicious doctrines of popular reform: jealous ever of the imagined invasion of constitutional rights, and forward in arraigning every object of ministerial sanction and favour, they have not only overstepped the bounds of common justice and decorum, but have coalesced for the prosecution of their political purposes with a dangerous party, which holds them in contempt, and sets them at defiance, and meditates their ruin.

That there does exist, in the manufacturing districts, real distress; we perceive with unfeigned sympathy and sorrow, and anxious should we be to concur in any measures that could be devised for the relief of the industrious and peaceably inclined of His Majesty's subjects, especially when we consider that many of those who endure the greatest privations, have still retained their true British spirit, and have strenuously refused to join in the commotions around them. But it is obvious that the machinations of seditious leaders, have materially tended to aggravate the sufferings of the labouring classes, as the most effectual means of promoting the accomplishment of their own daring designs.

We are most grateful to your Royal Highness for the firm and energetic measures which have already been taken by your Royal Highness's Government, for the suppression of these portentous and increasing evils, and we humbly trust that such further regulations and enactments will be promptly made as shall conduce not only to secure our present tranquillity, but to eradicate those pestilent principles, which are relaxing all the bonds of civil society, and are threatening the country with anarchy and destruction.

We shall be ready at all times to prove our loyal and devoted allegiance to your Royal Highness, and your illustrious House, by a cordial and active co-operation with the constituted Authorities of the Realm, by uniting to protect our laws from revolutionary outrage, our liberty from the inroads of licentiousness, and our religion from the attacks of the infidel and profane.

[Transmitted by Mr. Dobson the Boroughreeve, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

Unto His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Freeholders, Clergy, Justices of the Peace and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Caithness.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Freeholders, Clergy, Justices of the Peace and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Caithness, humbly beg permission, at this critical period, to renew the expression of our loyalty and attachment to the illustrious House of Brunswick, and our earnest desire for the maintenance of that happy Constitution which has preserved to us, amidst the troubles of surrounding nations, the blessings of civil and religious liberty.

We regret with mingled feelings of horror and detestation the wicked attempts that have been recently made in different parts of this kingdom to alienate the minds of the people from the established Government.

The agents in this mischievous conspiracy against the peace and happiness of these realms, have well considered that they could no otherwise so successfully accomplish their nefarious purpose, as by disseminating principles which serve to loosen all the bonds of moral obligation; they have accordingly, with an impiety and audacity which must shock the feelings of every thinking man, spread far and wide the poison of their doctrine, and by setting their deluded followers free from all the restraints of religion, have too well prepared them for the violation of every civil obligation.

Under circumstances so awful and alarming we conceive it to be the imperious duty of every man, who has any just value for the blessings he enjoys, to stand boldly forward in defence of the Throne and of the Altar, to resist, by every possible means, that torrent of infidelity which, in its desolating progress, threatens to subvert the very foundations of civil society, and to involve, in one common destruction, all that is valuable to man in time and throughout eternity.

Impressed with these feelings, though happily as yet removed from those scenes of disorder which have called them forth, we pledge ourselves to exercise all the influence or authority we may possess in resisting the progress of that system of delusion which has so successfully been practiced upon the minds of misguided men to seduce them from their allegiance, and to plunge them at once into the extremes of misery and guilt; and we shall deem no sacrifice too great that may secure to us and to our posterity the civil and religious privileges we enjoy.

That Almighty God may aid and direct your Royal Highness and your Councils in the present emergency is our earnest prayer.

Signed in presence and by appointment of a general meeting by Ja. Traill.

To His Royal Highness, George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The dutiful and loyal Address of the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Perth, in a general meeting of the said County assembled.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Perth, conceive it to be our indispensable duty, at the present moment, to renew to your Royal Highness our assurances of unabated loyalty and unshaken attachment to the religious and civil institutions of our country.

We have viewed with abhorrence the daring attempts of the wicked and factious, to deprive men of the consolations of religion, and the blessings which experience has proved to flow from our admirable Constitution, by disseminating the most blasphemous attacks on our faith, and the most chimerical notions of political freedom,

But it is our pride to be enabled to assure your Royal Highness, that in this country such attempts have hitherto proved abortive.

Our manufacturers and labourers have indeed suffered many and distressing privations, the result of the confusion of commercial relations incident on a general and prolonged war, and which time alone can reduce to order. But severe and distressing as these privations have been, our religious and intelligent countrymen, in this part of the kingdom, have submitted to them as became men and christians, receiving with gratitude the aid which their more fortunate fellow subjects were enabled to afford them, and to which their own meritorious conduct gives them so just a claim. It is not among men actuated by such principles that the infidel and demagogue can hope to find disciples.

But when we observe the increased audacity with which sentiments of the most disgusting profligacy and most appalling blasphemy are industriously circulated, and the effects already produced in some parts of the empire by exciting to acts of sedition and turbulence, we feel ourselves called upon to address your Royal Highness expressing our hope and trust, that your Royal Highness, aided by the wisdom of Parliament, will devise such measures as shall repress the diabolical machinations of those who, aiming at our glorious Constitution, find it first necessary to destroy our sense of religious duty.

As friends of freedom, as valuing to the fullest extent the privileges of British subjects, as jealous of any infringement on our birth rights we yield to none. But we declare ourselves prepared to give our firm support by every means in our power, to any measures which the Legislature in its wisdom shall devise for repressing those evils with which we are surrounded. And we pledge ourselves that our lives and fortunes shall be devoted to the support of the religion and laws of our country, and to guard against that despotism which has, from the experience of ages, been ever found the certain consequence of democratical anarchy.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION,

Requiring Passes, formerly granted to Ships and Vessels trading in the way of the Cruizers belonging to the Governments on the Coast of Barbary, to be returned into the Office of the Admiralty of Great Britain, and other Passes of different Forms to be issued.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS by Our Royal Proclamation, bearing date the third day of November, in the forty-third year of Our reign, We did charge and command all Our loving subjects who then were, or should be, possessed of any passes for ships and vessels belonging to Our subjects trading to Portugal, the Canaries, Guinea, the Indies, into the Mediterranean, or elsewhere, in the way of the cruizers belonging to the Governments on the Coast of Barbary (except such passes as had been granted to ships gone or going to the East Indies, or other remote voyages where they could not be timely furnished with new passes), that they should, before the thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and three, return the same and furnish themselves with passes of a new form, under the hands and seals of the Commissioners for executing the office of High Admiral of Great Britain and Ireland, in lieu thereof, for their several ships and vessels, in such manner as by the said recited Proclamation was directed: and whereas it hath been humbly represented unto Us, that there is the greatest reason to believe that many of Our passes may, either by accident or undue means have fallen into the hands of foreigners, who by the clandestine use of such passes may carry on their trade; We, taking the premises into Our Royal consideration, and judging it necessary to put a speedy stop to all such indirect practices, which do not only tend to the prejudice of Our trading subjects, but may occasion a misunderstanding between Us and the Governments on the Coast of Barbary, for preventing thereof have thought fit, by the advice of Our Privy Council, to publish this Our Royal Proclamation, and do hereby declare, that the passes of the present form shall continue in force for all vessels sailing from the ports of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland during the present year, in order to give sufficient time to Our trade to be furnished with passes of the new form, and that after the expiration of that time, no passes but those of the new form shall be considered as valid, except in the case of vessels returning from foreign voyages, where they cannot be timely furnished with new passes; and We do hereby further declare, that in the case of vessels returning from foreign voyages, passes of the present form shall continue in force during the terms hereinafter mentioned, that is to say,

For vessels returning from the ports to the northward of the Streights of Gibraltar, or from the ports within the Mediterranean, to the thirty-first of March one thousand eight hundred and twenty.

For vessels returning from the West Indies, North America, and the western coasts of Africa, to the thirtieth of June one thousand eight hundred and twenty.

For vessels returning from the East Indies and all other distant parts, to the thirtieth of June one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one.

And We do hereby strictly charge and command all Our loving subjects, who are, or shall be possessed of any such passes, that they do, on or before the expiration of the periods herein before mentioned respectively, return the same into the office of the Admiralty of Great Britain, or to the respective Collectors of Our Customs at the out ports of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or to the Governors of some of Our foreign plantations or dominions, in order to their being cancelled; and that they do furnish themselves with passes of the new form, under the hands and seals of Our Commissioners for executing the office of High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in lieu thereof, for their several ships and vessels, according to the Treaties subsisting between Us and the said Governments on the Coast of Barbary, and the regulations made by Our Royal predecessor King George the First, by Order in His Privy Council on the fourteenth day of June in the year one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, so far as the same remains unaltered, by the regulations made by Us by Our Orders in Council, bearing date respectively on the twenty-eight day of August one thousand seven hundred and seventy-six, on the thirty-first day of December one thousand seven hundred and eighty-three, and the third day of November one thousand eight hundred and two, or Our Order in Council of this day's date, and according to the further regulations then there made, and our instructions given to Our said Commissioners for executing the office of High Admiral of Great Britain and Ireland touching the same. and whereas many ships and vessels belonging to Our loving subjects continue several years trading from port to port in the Mediterranean without returning home, whereby they cannot so conveniently procure their passes to be exchanged: We do hereby, for the ease of Our trading subjects, publish and declare, Our pleasure, that upon the application of any owner of any ship or vessel, or other substantial merchant, to the office of the Admiralty of Great Britain, and oath made by him of the property of such ship or vessel, and that three fourths of the company are our subjects, according to an Act made in the twelfth year of the reign of Our Royal predecessor King Charles the Second (intituled "An Act for encouraging and increasing of shipping and navigation)," or such other proportion as may be authorised by Act of Parliament, and upon entering into a bond for the return of such pass at the end of the period therein specified: it shall and may be lawful for Our Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or Our High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland for the time being, and they are respectively empowered to make out a new pass for such ship or vessel, and send the same to such of Our Consuls in the Mediterranean as the said owner or merchant shall desire, with directions to such Consul, that, upon application to him from the master of the ship, for which the pass is made out, and surrendering up his old pass, and entering into bond for the return of such new pass, he shall deliver out the said new pass to such master, and transmit the old one with the bond to the office of the Admiralty of Great Britain.

And in order more effectually to hinder, for the future, any abuses that may be attempted by foreigners, relating to the new passes to be issued as aforesaid, we do hereby further declare Our Royal will and pleasure, that the new form of passes, marked A, as recommended to Us by Our Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in their memorial, bearing date the eighth day of September last, and approved by Us by Our Order in Council, of this day's date, shall be issued from and after the first day of January next, within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; and as soon after in His Majesty's colonies, as the same may be received at each colony respectively; and that passes issued in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, of the above-mentioned form, shall be in force during the voyage for which the said passes shall be taken out, and no longer, and shall be returned, at the termination of such voyage, to the Commissioners of our Customs, or to their Chief Officer at one of the outports, provided such voyage shall terminate in the United Kingdom of Great and Ireland, or to the Governor or Lieutenant-Governor in any of the islands of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, or Man; and in case such voyage shall terminate in any of our possessions abroad, then that such passes shall be delivered up to the Governor or other person having chief authority there; but if such voyage shall terminate at any place out of our dominions, then such pass shall be delivered up to our Consul or his Deputy at such place, or who may be nearest thereto; and that passes to be issued in our colonies or possessions abroad shall, in like manner, be in force during the voyage or voyages for which they shall be taken out respectively, and no longer, and shall be returned at the termination of such voyage or voyages respectively, in the manner hereinbefore directed, according to the port or place in which such voyage or voyages shall terminate respectively; and that in all cases whatever of passes to be issued, such surety, by way of bond, shall be given, to secure the due return of the passes, and to guard against any fraudulent or improper use of them, as hath been usual, or as our Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or Our High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, for the time being, may deem necessary to require according to the circumstances of the case.

And whereas it has been recommended to Us, by our Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; that for the more effectual prevention of abuses, and for the diminution of expence it may be convenient, in certain cases, that passes to be granted for the purposes aforesaid should be united with the ship's certificate of registry, Our will and pleasure is, that if any person shall be desirous of having the Mediterranean pass annexed to the certificate of registry of his ship, such pass so annexed may be issued agreeably to the form B, recommended to Us by Our Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in their memorial as aforesaid; and that such pass shall not be separated from such certificate of registry, but shall be returned at the same time when such certificate of registry shall be delivered up to be cancelled, and as often as any new certificate of registry shall be granted, an annexed pass shall also be granted under the same conditions, if the party shall be desirous thereof.

But whereas the laws for the registry of British shipping do not apply to ships belonging to Gibraltar and Malta, and whereas it is expedient that passes granted to the ships of the said places should be accompanied by some document proving that they belong to His Majesty's subjects in His Majesty's said possessions respectively, it is Our further will and pleasure, that the Governors or Deputy-Governors of the said possessions respectively, who shall be authorised to issue passes, shall issue them only in the form marked C, as recommended to us by Our Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in their memorial as aforesaid, and that the said Governors or Deputy-Governors shall issue them only to such ships as shall be certified (in such manner as We shall be pleased by any Order or Orders in Council to direct), to belong to Our subjects, and to the possessions under their respective Governments, except that when any ship having a pass issued in the United Kingdom, or in any of His Majesty's Colonies, the time of which pass shall have expired, and which by these regulations ought to be returned, or where the owner or master of a ship having a British certificate of registry shall be desirous of obtaining a Mediterranean pass; the Governors or Deputy-Governors as aforesaid may grant for such ship a pass of the form aforesaid marked C, to be in force to the end of the ships then voyage, and no longer, and to be returned to be cancelled at the end of such voyage as hereinafore directed in other cases respectively; and the said Governors or Deputy-Governors shall sign their names in the margin of all passes issued by them respectively as specified in the said form; and in all cases the Governors or Deputy-Governors issuing such passes shall take a bond (as above directed), for the delivery up of such pass on the first ensuing arrival of such ship in any port of the United Kingdom, or of a British possession, of which the Governor or Deputy-Governor may be authorised to issue passes.

It is Our further will and pleasure, that for the more convenient issue of such passes, Our Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or Our High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland for the time being, shall be authorised to furnish to the Commissioners of Our Customs in London, Edinburgh, and Dublin, and to the Governors of Our Colonies, and of Gibraltar and Malta, passes of the necessary forms signed and executed by Our Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or Our High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland for the time being, in blank as to the names of the ship, which passes the Commissioners of Our Customs as aforesaid or their Officers; and the said Governors shall be authorised to fill up and issue on the receipt of the bond required to be taken for the same.

And it is Our further will and pleasure, that it shall be lawful for Our Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or Our High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland for the time being, and they are hereby empowered to lodge Mediterranean passes of the same form with the new passes for ships and vessels belonging to Gibraltar and Malta, in the hands of Our Lord High Commissioner of the Ionian Islands, and to empower our said Lord High Commissioner of the Ionian Islands to issue and deliver out such passes to any of the inhabitants of the said Islands, to be applied to ships actually belonging to the said Islands, and none other, provided the person or persons applying for the same do comply with and conform to the several rules and regulations now in use, or that may be required to be observed by Our subjects, or that may be directed to be observed by the said inhabitants of the Ionian Islands by Our Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or Our High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland for the time being.

And We do hereby order, that the Commissioners of Our Customs in Great Britain and Ireland do cause to be carried into execution such parts of the said Order of Council, of the fourteenth day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, concerning passes as relate to themselves and the proper Officers under them, so far as the same remains now in force, and of Our Orders aforesaid made in Council on the twenty-eighth day of August one thousand seven hundred and seventy-six, on the thirty-first day of December one thousand seven hundred and eighty-three, and the third day of November one thousand eight hundred and two, or Our Order in Council of this day's date, that they do direct their Officers in the several parts of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland to demand of the masters of all merchant ships, so soon as they shall return into port from a foreign voyage, all passes granted as aforesaid which shall be in their possession to be produced to the said respective Officers of Our Customs; and if the same shall appear to be of an older date than the periods herein before severally and respectively mentioned for the return of the passes of the present form, then such passes shall be delivered up to the said respective Officers of Our Customs, and be by them returned to the Office of the Admiralty of Great Britain. And in case the master of any such ship or vessel shall refuse to produce or deliver up such passes according to the true intent of Our said Order, then the said Officer shall certify the name of every such master, and of the ship or vessel, to Our Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or to Our High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland for the time being, to the end that directions may be given for putting the bond entered into on the granting any such pass, in suit. And all Our Governors, Lieutenant-Governors, and Commanders in Chief of any of Our islands, colonies, or plantations, Consuls residing in foreign parts, and all other Our Officers and Ministers whatsoever, and all other Our loving subjects whom it may concern, are hereby expressly required and commanded to yield due obedience unto, and strictly to observe all the orders, instructions, regulations, and directions before mentioned, on pain of Our high displeasure.

Given at Our Court at Carlton-House, this twentieth day of November one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, in the sixtieth year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 20th of November 1819,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by the Orders of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council of the twenty-eighth May and the twelfth July last, for prohibiting the exportation of gunpowder, arms, or ammunition, to the places therein specified, will expire on the thirtieth day of this instant November; and whereas it is expedient, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, doth hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth day of this instant November), presume to transport any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place within the dominions of the King of Spain, or to any port or place on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship, or lade any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places within the dominions of the King of Spain, or into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of salt-petre, and to enforce the law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:"

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. Chetwynd.

Crown-Office, December 7, 1819.

MEMBER returned to serve in this present PARLIAMENT.

Borough of Cambridge.

Lieutenant-Colonel Frederick William Trench, Assistant-Quarter-Master-General in His Majesty's Army, in the room of the Honourable Edward Finch, who has accepted the Chiltern Hundreds.

Admiralty-Office, November 29, 1819.

HIS Royal Highness the Prince Regent, acting in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, having been pleased, by His Royal Proclamation of the 20th instant, to direct that passes of a new form should be issued to all His Majesty's subjects trading in the way of the cruizers belonging to the Governments on the Coast of Barbary; my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty do hereby give notice, that, in pursuance of the aforesaid Proclamation, passes of a new form will be ready to be issued at the Custom-House, in London, on Saturday the 1st day of January next, to such persons as shall apply for them; and at His Majesty's Foreign Colonies and Plantations, as soon after that period, as conveniently may be, but that passes of the old form will continue to be issued at this Office, until the 31st of December next.

John Duncan.

Whereas Samuel Gist, Esq. deceased, by his will, dated the 22d day of June 1808, gave to his cousin, James Gist, who (the Testator mentioned), went to India upwards of forty years ago, 100l. and in case the said James Gist should be already dead, or should die in the Testator's life time, then he gave the said 100l. unto the child or children of the said James Gist, if any such there should be living at the time of the Testator's decease, to be equally divided amongst them; and the said Testator gave to the said James Gist 50l. per annum, payable quarterly during his life, and as to all his hereditaments and real estate in Great Britain and Ireland, and as to all his leasehold estates, the said Testator gave and devised the same to Trustees in trust for the said James Gist for life, and after his decease, or if he should be already dead, or die in the said Testator's lifetime, then in trust for the first, second, third, fourth, and all and every other son and sons of the body of the said James Gist lawfully begotten and born, or who should be born of an European woman severally and successively, and the heirs male of the body and bodies of such son and sons lawfully issuing; and for default of such issue, upon other trusts in the said will mentioned; and the said Testator did declare, that in case neither the said James Gist, nor any issue male of his body should be found or heard of within the space of seven years next after his decease, that then the said James Gist should be considered as being dead without issue male at the time of the said Testator's decease; and as to the ultimate surplus of the Testator's personal estate he gave the same in trust for the person or persons who should be first entitled in equity to the freehold and inheritance, or the immediate beneficial possession of the said several hereditaments and premises in Great Britain and Ireland; and whereas, by an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause, Gist v. Fowke, it was, amongst other things, ordered that it should be referred to James Stephen, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire and state whether the said James Gist be living or dead, and if dead, whether he left any issue male born of an European woman, or whether he left any child or children living at the time of the death of the said Testator Samuel Gist; and whereas, by a Decree of the said Court, made in the Causes Gist v. Fowke, and Pearkes v. Pearkes, it was ordered, that the said Master should prosecute the said inquiry; the said James Gist, who went upwards of 50 years ago to India, as a private soldier in the Honourable East India Company's Service, is, on or before the 16th day of January 1822, to come in before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, and prove his identity; and if the said James Gist be dead, the issue male of the said James Gist lawfully begotten and born of an European woman; and also the child or children of the said James Gist living at the time of the death of the said Testator, Samuel Gist, who died on or about the 16th day of January 1815, are or is, on or before the said 16th day of January 1822, to come in before the said Master, at his said Chambers, and prove his, her, or their identity and relationship as aforesaid to the said James Gist, or in default thereof the said James Gist and his said issue male, and also his child or children, will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said will; and any person who can give information respecting the said James, or his child or children, are requested forthwith, to give such information to the said Master, at his Chambers aforesaid.

COFFEE ESTATE FOR SALE.

BY virtue of two several appointments of the Honourable the Court of Civil Justice of the Colony of Berbice, and its dependencies, &c. &c. bearing date the 18th and 20th of August 1819, on the matter of certain petition presented to the Honourable the Court aforesaid, by Charles Kyte, Trustee of Plantation Kortberaad, the property of the late J. J. De Mey, Esq. of this Colony, deceased, the minors H. A. Krieger and C. S. J. De Mey, children of his former wife, Henrietta Buse, and the minors E. B. De Mey and F. D. De Mey, children by his late wife, Elizabeth Bartlett Bussell.

The undersigned, Trustee aforesaid, will sell at public vendue, on Friday the 13th day of February 1820, on the premises, the aforesaid Coffee Plantation Kortberaad, cum annexis, together with the slaves thereunto attached, containing 1,000 acres more or less; the cultivation consists of 80,000 bearing coffee trees, and 50 acres in plantains and ground provisions, the remainder uncultivated, being most excellent land for either coffee, canes, or provisions.

This plantation is most eligibly situated on the east bank of the River Berbice, between the Sugar Plantation, Enfield, and Coffee Plantation, Deutichien, about seven miles distant from New Amsterdam, to which there is an excellent road the whole way, with the advantage of water carriage, for the produce and stores, and is in every respect well adapted for the cultivation of canes, and worth the attention of gentlemen speculating, who have the means of extending the cultivation either as a coffee or sugar estate.

The buildings consist of a large coffee logie, built of the best materials, 120 feet long, 28 broad, with 12 feet galleries on each side, a mill-house, washing cistern, tiled drogeries, for drying and other apparatus for the manufacture of coffee, with hospital, negroe-houses, &c. &c.

The logie, mill-house, &c. might at a small expence be converted into buildings for the manufacture of sugar.

The negroes are 125 in number, viz: 53 men, 29 women, 23 boys, 21 girls, and are an improving gang.

Terms of payment as follow, in three equal instalments of 19, 18, and 24 months from the day of sale, with interest, at the rate of 8 per Cent. per annum on the capital due at the payment of each instalment.

Further particulars may be known on application to the subscriber.
