Marshal's Office.—Summons by Edict.

By virtue of an extract from the Register of the Proceedings of the Court of Civil Justice of the Colony of Berbice, dated the 7th August 1819, I, the undersigned, at the instance of Adriaan Krieger, in capacity as Curator to the estate of the late D. H. Meyer, deceased, do hereby de novo, summon by edict all known and unknown Creditors against the before-mentioned estate of D. H. Meyer, deceased, to appear before the Honourable the Court of Civil Justice of this Colony, at their Session, which will be held in the month of April in the year 1820, there to exhibit and verify their claims, to see opposition made thereunto if need, and after the expiration of the fourth and last edict, to witness the Court's decision as to the preferent and concurrent right of claimants, and further to proceed according to law, on pain of being for ever debarred their right of claim.

This summons by edict, de novo, published as customary.—Berbice, September 17, 1819.

COFFEE ESTATE FOR SALE.

By virtue of two several appointments of the Honourable the Court of Civil Justice of the Colony of Berbice, and its dependencies, &c. &c. bearing date the 18th and 20th of August 1819, on the matter of certain petition presented to the Honourable the Court aforesaid, by Charles Kyte, Trustee of Plantation Kortberaad, the property of the late J. J. De Méy, Esq. of this Colony, deceased, the minors H. A. Krieger and C. S. J. De Méy, children of his former wife, Henrietta Busé, and the minors E. B. De Méy and P. D. De Méy, children by his late wife, Elizabeth Balfest Bussell.

The undersigned, Trustee aforesaid, will sell at public vendue, on Friday the 18th day of February 1820, on the premises, the aforesaid Coffee Plantation Kortberaad, and annexis, together with the slaves thereunto attached, containing 1,000 acres more or less; the cultivation consists of 80,000 bearing coffee trees, and 50 acres in plantains and ground provisions, the remainder uncultivated, being most excellent land for either coffee, canes, or provisions.

This plantation is most eligibly situated on the east bank of the River Berbice, between the Sugar Plantation, Elfield, and Coffee Plantation, Denticheem, about seven miles distant from New Amsterdam, to which there is an excellent road the whole way, with the advantage of water carriage, for the produce and stores, and is in every respect well adapted for the cultivation of canes, and worth the attention of gentlemen speculating, who have the means of extending the cultivation either as a coffee or sugar estate.

The buildings consist of a large coffee logie, built of the best materials, 120 feet long, 28 broad, with 12 feet galleries on each side, a mill-house, washing cistern, tiled drogeries, for drying and other apparatus for the manufacture of coffee, with hospital, negroe-houses, &c. &c.

The logie, mill-house, &c. might at a small expense be converted into buildings for the manufacture of sugar.

The negroes are 136 in number, viz: 53 men, 29 women, 23 boys, 21 girls, and are an improving gang.

Terms of payment as follow, in three equal instalments of 12, 18, and 24 months from the day of sale, with interest, at the rate of 6 per Cent. per annum on the capital due at the payment of each instalment.

Further particulars may be known on application to the subscriber.

CHARLES KYTE.
