Naples, Aug 25. HE Mountain Veluvius continues to call out Fire, accompanied with a most terrible and hideous noife, which from an hour after Sun fer on Saturday, till three a Clock the next Morning, was fo great that it cauled a kind of Earthquake, the Houf's in this City being plainly obferved to lhake. The faid Mountain continues likewife to call out Athes in great abundance, which are difperfed for many Miles together by the Wind, and on Sunday laft all the Streets of this City were covered with them, as if it had very much snowed. Thefe Prodigies do very much terrific people, and publick Prayers are made for the appealing the wrath of Heaven. Milun, Sept. 2. The motions of the French Troops

Milan, Sept. 2. The motions of the French Troops from Dauphine towards Pignerol, and the encreafing the Garifon of Cazal, where 2000 Swiffers are lately arrived, gives great icalonic to this State.

lately arrived, giv.s great jealousie to this State. Copenhagen, Sept. 14. The Men of War that were fitted out here this Summer lie now before this place, except some of the light Frigats that are at Sea; but the Winter-season coming on, it's belieyed the greater Ships will be very quickly laid up, a great many Seamen having been already Paid off. It is reported here, That the King will fend several Regiments to Quarter in Holfein.

Regiments to Quarter in Holflein. Suma, Sept. 20. The advices that come from Hungary of the Progress of the Turks and the Rebels, do occasion the holding of frequent Councils here, in order to the putting the Emperors Forces into a p flure to make head against them; and we are told that it has been refolved to raife imm-diately four Regiments of Foot more, to confift of Inco M.n cach, and that the Emperor has defired the Elector of Bavaria to affift him dich part of his Troops, which is's faid his Electoral Highnels has promifed to do We expect our next Letters from Hungary will give us an account that General Caprara is joyned with the Count de Strafoldo, and that they are marched to the relief of Fillecke, which place is very closely preffed by the Turks, while Count Teckeley lies Encamped at some distance, to cover the Siege. The 5th Inftant at Night arrived here an Fxp els, fent by Count Caprara, the Emperors Minuler at Constantinople ; we cannot 'cerfainly lea n the account he brought, but it is faid at Court, That the faid Count gives great hopes of his fucceeding in his Negociation at the Port. We are likewic informed that the last Express that weht f. om hence for zurger, can the Ball of tomplain of the Vizier of Buda, and the Ball of weht from hence for Turkey, carried him ord Ьf feveral places, who have marched with ver derable Body s to the adiffance of the Reast have attacked places, and committed other lilíti :s, as if there was an open War, though the Truce is n it yet expired, and that the leaff cause has not been given on this fide tor a rupture; and to demand speedy reparation for the fame.

Francfort Sept. 17. The Conferences here conflowed at a fland, fo that there is nothing of moI ment to write from hence. From Hungary our lath Letters gave us an account, That General Strafoldo had Encamped himfelf under the Walls of Atfol, refolving to expect there the coming up of General Caprard, who paffed the Waag on the firft Inflant; That Count Teckeler had Polted himfelf fo, while the Turks befiege Villecke, as that he may be beft able to hinder the conjunction of Count Caprard and Count Strafoldo; and that he had fent to leveral places, to require them to fend Deputies to make their fubmiffions to him, Threatning them otherwife with Fire and Sword; That Villecke in the mean time makes a very good defence; That the Imperialiffs had quitted the Lower-Town, and were retired into the Cittadel, and that they had made a Sally upon the Turks, in which they did great execution upon them.

Hamburg, Sepr. 18. The Marriage between the Prince of Hanouer (eldeft Son to the Duke of that name) and the Princels of Zell, is concluded; we are told the Duke of Zell gives her a Portion of 200000 Crowns, and 50000 Crowns yearly towards her maintenance, to which the States of the Duke of Zell's Countries will add y.arly 20000 Crowns more. From Stockholm they write, That the Count d'Altheim, the Imperial Minifler, had defired Commiffioners to treat with him, which the King had accordingly appointed, and that they had had their first-Conference.

Bruffels, Sept. 22. Our laft Spanish Lettera brought the welcome News of the arrival of the Galeons at Cadiz, but without any particulars of the Ships or their Lading. The Marquis de Grana is returned from Bruges to Cheat, where he will difpatch the Spanish Courier: It is not certain when his Excellency will return hither, having a great deal of business relating to that Province before him, which his Excellency defires to settle before he leaves it. From Vienna they write, That G nsral Caprara was on his March to joyn the Count de Strafoldo; That Villecke made a very good defence; and that Prince Herman of Badem had been removed from the place of President of the Council of War, which the Emperor had given to the Count of Swarizenburg. The affairs of Liege are: fill in the fame posture, and are like to continue fo till the arrival of the Bilhop of Strasburg.

Whitebal, Sept. 18. His Mijely received the following Address very Gracioully.

Molt Dread Sovereign,

VV E Tour Majesties most Obedient. Du iful, and Loyal Subjests, the Bailiff, Burgestes, and Inhabitants of Your Yown of Ludgarthal, in the Gounty of Wilts, out of a deep sense of Duty and Loyalty, beg leave once more to lay our sclues at Your Majesties Feet, and humbly pray, That our Tardiness may not be imputed to any Disloyalty, but meerly to the thought we have of our being inconsiderable and un worth to approach Your Sacred Majesty, withal afsuring Tour Majesty of our utmost Detestation and Abborrence of that most Wicked and Damnshle Alf-Ciation.

ciation, published by Tour Majesties Command. and feized amongit the Papers of the Earl of Shaftsbury, by which they did not only intend to deprive Your Royal Brother, but in the first place TourSacred Majesty, of Tour undoubted Kights and Prevogative, and we have too much caufe to be affured they nou d not have stopped there : But we Blefs God that by Your Majefies great Wijdom and Prudence their Hellifb defizns were defeated; and we are so far from being deluded out of our Loyalty by these ill-meaning men, (who out of an ambitious bumour, and with the presence of Religion, would have affumed to themselves a Power to Govern Arbitrarily over their Fellow-Subjects) that we do affure Your Majejly we will, to the utmost of our power, defend Your Sacred Perfon, Crown and Dignity, Tour Heirs and Lawful Succeffors, and the Laws, as now establish ed in Church and State, aga nft all Seditious and Faitious persons, of what Perswasson Soever.

Briffol, Sept. 16. On Juciday last the Right Honourable the Lord Marquifs of Worcester, our Lord Lieutenany, was plated to favour this City with his prefence, at a General-Multer of our Milisia, Sir Thomas Earle, our Mayor, entertained his Lordfhip, the Lord Herbers, and feveral other p.rfons of Quality, at a very noble Dinner, an I gave the Regiment, as they marched by his Houle, a Butt of Sherry, to Drink their Majeflies, their Royal Highneffes, and his Lordships Healths. After Dinner, his Lordhip, accompanied with the Lord Herbert, Mr. Mayor, Cc. went to fee the Regiment drawn up in the Marsh, with which his Lord-ship was very much satisfied. His Lordship was afterwards entertained at the Merchants Hall with a noble Banquet of Sweet-Meats and Fruit, and in the Evening returned to his Houle at Bodminton, infinitely pleafed with the Refpects and Kindneffes of this City to him.

London, Sept. 19. This day the Common-Ha'l being affembled, according to my Lord Mayor's appointment, to chuse a Sheriff in the stead of Mr. B. x., who had been discharged upon paying bis . ine, and my Lord Mayor and the Aldermen being fat in their Places upon the Hullings, the Common-Cryer opened the Court with the usual Proclamation; which done, my Lord Mayor commanded the Common-Serjeant to go on to the Election, and withdrew according to cuflom with the Aldermen to the Mayors Court. Then Mr. Peter Rich and Mr. 1 rancis Griffith were put up, and Mr Rich was chufen by majority of Faices; which the Common-Serjeant baving declared to the Hall, be went with the Sheriffs to make report to the Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen ; n lich baving done; his Lordship and the A.dermen returned to the Hullings, and dechared Mr. Rich to be chof-n Sheriff; and baving by Proclamation diffolued the Court, and commanded all Persons upon their peril to depart, his Lordship with the Aldermen left the Hall, and went bome. During this whole proceeding, there was much diforder and noife male by feveral Perfons, and after my Lord Mayor's departure, an irregular Poll was taken by the Sheriffs by way of confirming the pretended E esti n of Mr Dubois and Mr. Papillion, of which my Loid Mayor baving notice, bis Lordship sent the Common-Cr,er to the Sheriffs to require them to disperse that unlawful Affembly; but they notwithlianding continuing the fame, my Lord Mayor came himself about five a Clock in the Evening, with feveral of the Alderman. and having dispersed the People, caused the Gates of the Guildhal te be fout up.
