

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

SATURDAY, JULY 8, 1820.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 29th of May 1820,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by the Order in Council of the twentieth of November last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder, arms, or ammunition, to the places therein specified, will expire on the thirtieth day of this instant May; and whereas it is expedient, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth day of this instant May), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place within the dominions of the King of Spain, or to any port or place on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places within the dominions of the King of Spain, or into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of salt-petre, and to enforce the law for empowering

" His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:"

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Buller:

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 7th of June 1820,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 38, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend the ballot or enrolment for the local militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order in Council, to direct that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia shall take place; but that such ballot and enrolment shall remain and continue suspended for the period specified in any such Order of Council, and from time to time, by any like Order or Orders in Council, to continue such suspension so long as His Majesty shall deem the same expedient, any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding: and whereas by an Order in Council, made the nineteenth of June last, it was ordered by His Majesty in Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia should take place for the space of one year from the twenty-seventh of June last, but that the ballot and enrolment for the local militia should remain and continue suspended for the space of one year from the said twenty-seventh of June last: and whereas it is deemed expedient to continue such suspension of the ballot and enrolment for the local militia for the space of one year from and after the twenty-seventh day of this instant June; it is, therefore, ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia do take place for the space of one year from and after the twenty-seventh day of this instant June, but that the ballot and enrolment for the local militia do remain and continue suspended for the space of one year from and after the said twenty-seventh day of this instant June.

Jas. Buller.

Lunæ, 3^o die Julij 1820.

WHEREAS the Select Committee appointed to try and determine the merits of the petition of Thomas Spring Rice, Esq. complaining of an undue election and return for the City and County of the City of Limerick, have this day reported to the House of Commons:—“That it appeared to the said Select Committee that the merits of the petition did depend, in part, upon the right of election; and that, therefore, the Committee required the Counsel for each party to deliver to the Clerk of the Committee statements, in writing, of the right of election for which they respectively contended: That, in consequence thereof, the Counsel for the petitioner delivered in a statement as follows:—That the right of election is in the freeholders of the said county, and in such freemen thereof as had served apprenticeships in the said city, or as were resident at the time of their respective admissions to the freedom thereof; that the eldest sons of freemen, and persons marrying the daughters of freemen, and persons who have served regular apprenticeships within the same city to freemen thereof, are of right entitled to the freedom of the said city, and to vote at elections therein; that all merchants, traders, artificers, artizans, seamen, or otherwise, skilled and exercised in any mystery, craft, or trade, or in the working or making any manufacture, or in the art of navigation, residing, inhabiting, and exercising their trade, mystery, or craft within the said city, are of right entitled, under the statutes and rules relating to the said city, to the freedom thereof, and to vote at elections for the same during such their residence therein; that no persons, howsoever, in any respect entitled, except such as have been residing and continually inhabiting within the said city at the time of their admission to the freedom thereof, or have been apprentices therein, are entitled to vote at elections for the said city:—That the Counsel for the sitting Member delivered in a statement as follows:—That the “right of voting is vested in the freeholders of the city and county of the city of Limerick, and in all the freemen of the corporation of Limerick; That upon the statement delivered in by the Counsel for the petitioner, Thomas Spring Rice, Esq. the said Committee have determined that the right of election, as set forth in the said statement, is not the right of election for the said city and county of the city: That upon the statement delivered in by the Counsel for the sitting Member, the Honourable John Prendergast Vereker, the said Committee have determined that the right of election, as set forth in the said statement, is not the right of election for the said city and county of the city: That the Committee have determined, that the right of election for the city and county of the city of Limerick is in the freeholders of the said county, and in such freemen of the said city as have served apprenticeships, or were resident therein at the time of their admissions to their respective freedoms; that no person can be admitted a freeman of the said city who has not served an apprenticeship therein, or who is not resident therein at the time of his admission: That, subject to the foregoing limitation, the sons of freemen, the sons-in-law of freemen, and persons having served seven years apprenticeship to freemen of the said city, are entitled to the freedom of the said city, and to vote at elections for the same: That persons admitted to the freedom of the said city by virtue of an Act passed in the fourteenth and fifteenth years of the reign of His late Majesty King Charles the Second, intituled ‘An Act for encouraging Protestant strangers and others to inhabit and plant in the kingdom of Ireland, or by virtue of the new rules of the said city, are entitled to vote at elections therein during their families constant residence, and their own residence, for the most part therein, and no longer:’—I do hereby give this notice, in pursuance of the directions of an Act, passed in the twenty-eighth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled ‘An Act for the further regulation of the trials of controverted elections or returns of Members to serve in Parliament.’

Given under my hand the 3d day of July 1820,
CHARLES MANNERS SUTTON, Speaker.

Whitehall, July 5, 1820.

WHereas by an Act of Parliament, passed in the forty-third year of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled "An Act for permitting certain goods imported into Great Britain to be secured in warehouse without payment of duty," it is, among other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the importer or importers, proprietor or proprietors, consignee or consignees, of any of the goods, wares, or merchandise, enumerated or described in the table thereunto annexed, marked (E), and which shall have been legally imported or brought into the port of London, to lodge and secure in a warehouse or warehouses to be provided for that purpose, any such goods, wares, or merchandise, under the joint locks of the crown and the merchant, without payment at the time of the first entry of the duties of customs due on the importation thereof: and it is by the said recited Act further enacted, that if the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them shall deem it expedient, that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to any goods, wares, and merchandise, not enumerated or described in either of the tables annexed thereto, and should cause a list of such goods, wares, and merchandise, to be published in the London Gazette, then and from thenceforth, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions, of the said Act, shall extend to such goods, wares, and merchandise, in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said tables respectively, at the time of passing the said Act:

We, the undersigned, Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, pursuant to and in execution of the powers vested in us, in and by the said Act, do hereby declare, that it appears to us expedient that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to the articles of

Straw and Chip Platting;

legally imported or brought into the port of London (not being imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies); and that such straw and chip platting should be added to the list of goods, wares, and merchandise enumerated and described in the table annexed to the said recited Act, marked (E), and that such straw and chip platting should be lodged and secured at or in such warehouse or warehouses, under the regulations and directions of the said Act: and we do further declare, that from and after the publication of this our certificate in the London Gazette, conformable to the directions of the said Act, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions of the said Act shall extend and be construed to extend to all such straw and chip platting in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the table annexed to the said Act, marked (E), at the time of the passing of the same Act.

NOTICE TO THOMAS PARROTT.

Whereas Michael Parrott, late of Woodham, in the Parish of Waddesdon, in the County of Bucks, Dairyman (who died on the 6th day of August 1816), did by his will, and a codicil thereto, direct a sum of 500l. to be set apart for his son, Thomas Parrott, if he should appear and claim the same before the end of five years, to be computed from the day of his (the said Michael Parrott's) decease, and bequeathed the same to other persons, in case the said Thomas Parrott should not appear and make such claim within that time; and whereas the said Thomas Parrott went abroad many years since, and is supposed to have sailed from the port of Liverpool, but not having been heard of by his family for upwards of twenty years last past, he is supposed to have died many years since:—Notice is therefore hereby given of the aforesaid bequest, for the benefit of the said Thomas Parrott, and of the death of the said testator; and that if the said Thomas Parrott do not, within the said five years, make his appearance and claim the said legacy, by application to John Reeves, of Dorton, in the County of Bucks, Farmer, and William Parrott, of Wootton-Underwood, in the same County, Farmer, the acting Trustees and Executors named in the said will the same legacy and interest will, at the expiration thereof, be paid and applied agreeably to the other directions contained in the will of the said testator.

Any person who can give to either of the said Trustees and Executors, or to Mr. Rose, Solicitor, Aylesbury, Bucks, correct information of the place and time of the death of the said Thomas Parrott, and enable them to procure authentic documents to procure the same, will be thankfully rewarded for their trouble.

N. B. The said Thomas Parrott is said to have gone to Saint Catherine's, Jamaica, and to have died there during the prevalence of a fever in 1799, or 1800.

Summons by Edict.

By virtue of authority received from His Honour Henry Beard, Esq. President of the Honourable the Courts of Criminal and Civil Justice of the Colony Berbice, dated 14th April 1820; I, the undersigned, at the instance of W.
