Lord Chamberlain's-Office, July 11, 1820.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Majesty will hold a Levee at Carlton-House, on Wednesday the 19th instant, at two o'clock.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, July 11, 1820.

ORDERS for the Court's going into mourning, on Sunday next the 16th instant, for the late Princess Dowager of Orange, viz.

The Ladies to wear black silk, fringed or plain linen, white gloves, necklaces and ear-rings, black or white shoes, fans and tippets.

Undress—White or grey lustrings, tabbies or damasks.

The Gentlemen to wear black, full trimmed, fringed or plain linen, black swords and buckles.

Undress—Grey frocks.

The Court to change the mourning on Sunday the 23d instant, viz.

The Ladies to wear black silk or velvet, coloured ribbons, fans and tippets, or plain white, or white and gold, or white and silver stuffs, with black ribbons.

The Gentlemen to wear black coats, and black or plain white, or white and gold, or white and silver stuff waistcoats, full trimmed, coloured swords and buckles.

And on Thursday the 27th instant, the Court to go out of mourning.

By the KING.

PROCLAMATION,

For adjourning the Solemnity of the Coronation of His Majesty.

GEORGE, R.

WHEREAS by Our Royal Proclamation, bearing date the sixth day of May last, We did (amongst other things) publish and declare Our royal intention to celebrate the solemnity of Our Royal Coronation, upon Tuesday the first day of August next, at Our Palace at Westminster; and whereas for divers weighty reasons Us thereunto moving, We have thought fit to adjourn the said solemnity until Our royal will and pleasure shall be further signified thereon, We do by this Our Royal Proclamation give notice thereof; and We do hereby further signify to all Our loving subjects whom it may concern, that all persons of what quality or rank soever they be, who either upon Our letters to them directed, or by reason of their offices or tenures or otherwise, are to do any service at the time of such Coronation, are discharged from their attendance on Tuesday the first day of August next.

Given at Our Court at Carlton-House, this twelfth day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty, and in the first year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 7th of June 1820,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 38, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend the ballot or enrolment for the local militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order in Council, to direct that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia shall take place; but that such ballot and enrolment shall remain and continue suspended for the period specified in any such Order of Council, and from time to time, by any like Order or Orders in Council, to continue such suspension so long as His Majesty shall deem the same expedient, any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding: and whereas by an Order in Council, made the nineteenth of June last, it was ordered by His Majesty in Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia should take place for the space of one year from the twenty-seventh of June last, but that the ballot and enrolment for the local militia should remain and continue suspended for the space of one year from the said twenty-seventh of June last; and whereas it is deemed expedient to continue such suspension of the ballot and enrolment for the local militia for the space of one year from and after the twenty-seventh day of this instant June; it is, therefore, ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia do take place for the space of one year from and after the twenty-seventh day of this instant June, but that the ballot and enrolment for the local militia do remain and continue suspended for the space of one year from and after the said twenty-seventh day of this instant June.

Jas. Buller

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 29th of May 1820,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by the Order in Council of the twentieth of November last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder, arms, or ammunition, to the places therein specified, will, expire on the thirtieth day of this instant May; and whereas it is expedient, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth day of this instant May), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place within the dominions of the King of Spain, or to any port or place on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places within the dominions of the King of Spain, or into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of salt-petre, and to enforce the law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:"

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Buller.

IN pursuance of the directions of an Act passed in the Thirty-seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty, King George the Third, intituled "An Act for confirming and continuing, for a limited time, the restriction contained in the minute of council of the 26th February 1797, on payments of cash by the Bank; and also of the several Acts since passed, for continuing and amending the same;" I do hereby direct, that there be inserted forthwith in the London Gazette, the following Notice from the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, date the 13th day of July 1820,—namely:—

"That on and after the 18th day of July instant, the Bank will be ready to issue to the Bankers in London, in such proportions as the Directors of the said Bank may think proper Current Silver Coin of the Realm, to the amount of One Million Pounds Sterling, in exchange for Bank Notes, provided application be made for the same before the 1st day of February next.

July 14th 1820.

CHARLES MANNERS SUTTON, Speaker.

COURT OF CLAIMS.

THE Right Honourable the Commissioners appointed by His Majesty's commission to hear and determine all claims of services and offices to be performed at the time of the ensuing Coronation, and of fees to be received for the same, met, pursuant to their last adjournment, in the Painted-Chamber at Westminster, on Wednesday the 12th day of July instant, and further adjourned to Tuesday next the 18th day of July, at twelve of the clock at noon; and all persons who have not yet appeared in support of the petitions presented by them, are required to attend accordingly on that day with such evidence as shall be necessary to support the same.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, passed in the forty-third year of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled "An Act for permitting certain goods imported into Great Britain to be secured in warehouse without payment of duty," it is, among other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the importer or importers, proprietor or proprietors, consignee or consignees, of any of the goods, wares, or merchandise, enumerated or described in the table thereunto annexed, marked (E), and which shall have been legally imported or brought into the port of London, to lodge and secure in a warehouse or warehouses to be provided for that purpose, any such goods, wares, or merchandise, under the joint locks of the crown and the merchant, without payment at the time of the first entry of the duties of customs due on the importation thereof: and it is by the said recited Act further enacted, that if the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them shall deem it expedient, that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to any goods, wares, and merchandise, not enumerated or described in either of the tables annexed thereto, and should cause a list of such goods, wares, and merchandise, to be published in the London Gazette, then and from thenceforth, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions, of the said Act, shall extend to such goods, wares, and merchandise, in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said tables respectively, at the time of passing the said Act :

We, the undersigned, Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, pursuant to and in execution of the powers vested in us, in and by the said Act, do hereby declare, that it appears to us expedient that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to the articles of legally imported or brought into the port of London (not being imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies); and that such straw and chip platting should be added to the list of goods, wares, and merchandise enumerated and described in the table annexed to the said Act, marked (E), and that such straw and chip platting should be lodged and secured at or in such warehouse or warehouses, under the regulations and directions of the said Act: and we do further declare, that from and after the publication of this our certificate in the London Gazette, conformable to the directions of the said Act, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions of the said Act shall extend and be construed to extend to all such straw and chip platting in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the table annexed to the said Act, marked (E), at the time of the passing of the same Act.

Straw and Chip Platting,

Given under our hands at the Treasury Chambers, Whitehall, this 3d day of June 1820,

N. VANSITTART.
G. H. A. SOMERSET.
W. M'NAGHTEN.
