TUESDAY, JULY 18, 1820.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, July 11, 1820.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Majesty will hold a Levee at Carlton-House, on Wednesday the 19th instant, at two o'clock.

By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION,

For adjourning the Solemnity of the Coronation of His Majesty.

GEORGE, R.

WHEREAS by Our Royal Proclamation, bearing date the sixth day of May last, We did (amongst other things) publish and declare Our royal intention to celebrate the solemnity of Our Royal Coronation, upon Tuesday the first day of August next, at Our Palace at Westminster; and whereas for divers weighty reasons Us thereunto moving, We have thought fit to adjourn the said solemnity until Our royal will and pleasure shall be further signified thereon, We do by this Our Royal Proclamation give notice thereof; and We do hereby further signify to all Our loving subjects whom it may concern, that all persons of what quality or rank soever they be, who either upon Our letters to them directed, or by-reason of their offices or tenures or otherwise, are to do any service at the time of such Coronation, are discharged from their attendance on Tuesday the first day of August next.

Given at Our Court at Carlton-House, this twelfth day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty, and in the first year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

Westminster, July 15, 1820.

THIS day, the Lords being met, a message was sent to the Honourable House of Commons by the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, acquainting them, that The Lords, authorised by virtue of a Commission under the Great Seal, signed by His Majesty, for declaring His Royal Assent to several Acts agreed upon by both Houses, do desire the immediate attendance of the Honourable House in the House of Peers to hear the Commission read; and the Commons being come thither, the said Commission, empowering the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and several other Lords therein named, to declare and notify the Royal Assent to the said Acts, was read accordingly, and the Royal Assent given to Johnson, after which time all accounts remaining unpaid will be placed in the Solicitors' hands.

T. JOHNSON and J. MILES, Executors.

TO be sold pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in certain causes intituled Hawes against Asplin, Arundel against Gage and Asplin against Gardiners, with the approbation of William Alexander, Esquire, one of the Masters of the said Court; all the freehold and copyhold estates of Francis Hawes, Esquire, deceased, formerly of Great Marlow, in the County of Bucks, consisting of two farms in the occupation of Thomas Pitkin and Ephraim Ware, (as tenants from year to year) both situate at Boringdon, near Hemel Hempstead in the County of Hertford, containing together by estimation 210 Acres, or thereabouts; and also several freehold houses situate in the Minories, Glass-House Yard, Red Lion Court, and Brown's Buildings, London.

Printed particulars whereof may be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton Buildings, Chancery Lane; of Mr. James Taylor, Solicitor, No. 15, Furnival's Inn; of Mr. Rhodes, Solicitor, St. James's Walk, Clerkenwell; of Messrs. Lowe and Bower, Solicitors, Southampton Buildings, aforesaid; of Mr. Briggs, Solicitor, Lincoln's-Inn-Fields; of Mr. Pain, Solicitor, Lyon's Inn, London; and at other places; which together with the time and place of sale will be hereafter advertized.

Whereas Thomas Timberland, late of the Bailiwick of Lincoln, gentleman (who died in November 1815), by his will, dated the 9th day of February 1805, bequeathed 600l. to the son of his late kinswoman, Alice Hoyland, daughter of the late Thomas Hoyland, of Marsh Chapel, (but whose name he did not recollect) to be paid to him at his age of 21 years, and the interest in the mean time to be applied for his benefit, and the further sum of 400l. to be paid at the decease of his (the testator's) kinsman, William Hoyland, in case the said William Hoyland should die without issue; and by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery made in a cause of Hoyland against Fardell, it is referred to John Springett Harvey, Esq., one of the Masters of the said Court, to enquire whether at the time of the said testator making his will, any and what person was intended by the said testator, by the above description of the Son of his kinswoman, Alice Hoyland, and whether such person survived the testator and is now living, or if dead, who is his personal representative.—All persons claiming to be intended by the said testator, by the description of the son of his said kinswoman, or to be personal representatives of such person, if dead, are forthwith to come in and prove their claims before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton Buildings, Chancery Lane, London, in order that they may not be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Price against Smith, the Creditors of Charles King, late of Hinckley, in the County of Leicester, Gent. deceased (who died in or about the month of Oct. 1819,) are by their Solicitors forthwith to come in and prove their debts before William Alexander, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Keysall against Keysall, the Creditors of John Keysall, of Queen-Square, in the County of Middlesex, Esq. deceased (who died in or about the 13th day of May 1813,) are forthwith to come in and prove their debts before Charles Thomson, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Hoyland against Fardell, the Creditors of Thomas Timberland, late of the Bail of Lincoln, Gentleman (who died in 1815), are forthwith to come in and prove their debts before John Springett Harvey, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of His Majesty's Court of Exchequer at Westminster, made in a Cause wherein John Tilby and George Tilby, and Charles Tilby (infants) by William Neate, their next friend, are plaintiffs, and Thomas Rawlins and others are defendants, the Creditors and Legatees of James Tilby, late of Cornaby-Market, in the County of Middlesex, Butcher, deceased, the testator in the said Decree named (who died on or about the 28th day of December 1815), are by their Solicitors forthwith to come in before Abel Moysey, Esq. the Deputy to His Majesty's Remembrancer of the said Court, at his Chambers in the Exchequer-Office, in the Inner-Temple, London, and prove their debts, and claim their legacies, or in default thereof the said Creditors will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against James Whitehead, of Denshaw within Saddleworth, in the West Riding of the County of York, Clothier, Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, are desired to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Saturday the 12th day of August next, at Eleven of the Clock in the Forenoon, at the Office of Mr Ackers, Solicitor, in King-Street, Manchester, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of the stock in trade, utensils, implements, machinery, and fixtures, and other estate and effects, real and personal, whatsoever and wheresoever, of the said Bankrupt, by public auction or private contract, or in any other manner they shall in their judgment think advisable, and either on credit or otherwise; and to their employing and empowering some fit person or persons to collect the outstanding debts owing to the said Bankrupt's estate at home and in parts beyond the seas, or elsewhere; and also to the said Assignees paying out of the effects of the said Bankrupt such compensation or salary to such person or persons to be employed as they shall deem adequate, together with his or their incidental expences; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees letting, for a limited time, to any person they may think proper, all or any part of the premises now or lately occupied by the said Bankrupt; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits or at law or in equity, for the recovery of, or touching or concerning the Bankrupt's estate and effects; and to their compounding or giving time for payment of any debt or debts owing to the said Bankrupt's estate; and to their submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Joshua Wade, of Keynsham, in the County of Somerset, and Joshua Wade, of Leeds, in the County of York, Woolstaplers, Dealers and Chapmen, Copartners in trade, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupts' estate and effects, on Saturday the 5th day of August next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the House of Matthew Temple, called or known by the name of the Castle and Ball Inn and Tavern, in the City of Bath, to authorize the said Assignees to sell by private contract, at a valuation or otherwise as they may find expedient, the household furniture and effects of the said Bankrupt, Joshua Wade, in or about his dwelling-house, at Leeds, aforesaid, and also certain effects in or about the said Bankrupt's warehouse, at Leeds, aforesaid; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees allowing the Solicitor's costs and charges incurred prior to the opening of the said Commission, in endeavouring to effect a compromise with and for the benefit of the Creditors of the said Bankrupts, and to authorize and empower the said Assignees to pay and discharge the same out of the first monies that shall come to their hands under the said Commission; and on other special affairs.

Whereas a Commission of Bankrupt is awarded and issued forth against William Cobbett, late of Botley, in the County of Southampton, and of Catherine-Street, in the Strand, in the County of Middlesex, Bookseller, Dealer and Chapman, and he being declared a Bankrupt is hereby required to surrender himself to the Commissioners in the said Commission named, or the major part of them, on the 29th day of July instant, and on the 12th and 29th days of August next, at Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon on each day, at Guildhall, London, and make a full Discovery and Disclosure of his Estate and Effects; when and where the Creditors are to come prepared to prove their Debts, and at the Second Sitting to chuse Assignees, and at the Last Sitting the said Bankrupt is required to finish his Examination, and the Creditors are to assent to or dissent from the allowance of his Certificate. All persons indebted to the said Bankrupt, or that have any of his Effects, are not to pay or deliver the same but to whom the Commissioners shall appoint, but give notice to Mr. Birkett, Solicitor, Cloak-Lane, London.

Pursuant to an Order made by the Right Honourable John Lord Eldon, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, for Enlarging the Time for Francis Downing, of Huddersfield, in the County of York, Grocer, Dealer and Chapman (a Bankrupt), to surrender himself, and make a full Discovery and Disclosure of his Estate and Effects, for eighteen days, to be computed from the 22d day of July instant; This is to give notice, that the Commissioners in the said Commission named and authorised, or the major part of them, intend to meet on the 9th day of August next, at Eleven of the Clock in the Forenoon, at the Rose and Crown Inn, in Huddersfield, in the County of York, when and where the said Bankrupt is required to surrender himself, between the hours of Eleven and One, and make a full Discovery and Disclosure of his Estate and Effects, and finish his Examination; and the Creditors, who have not already proved their Debts, may then and there come and prove the same, and assent to or dissent from the allowance of his Certificate.
