SATURDAY, JULY 22, 1820.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 12th
of July 1820,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by An Act, passed in the first year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to continue until the fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, An Act of the fifty-seventh year of His late Majesty for regulati^{ng} the trade and commerce to and from the Cape of Good Hope, and for regulating the trade of the Island of Mauritius," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, by any Order or Orders to be issued from time to time, to give such directions, and to make such regulations touching the trade and commerce to and from the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, and the territories and dependences thereof, as to His Majesty in Council shall appear most expedient and salutary, any thing contained in an Act, passed in the twelfth year of the reign of His Majesty King Charles the Second, intituled "An Act for the encouraging and increas^{ing} of shipping and navigation;" or in an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His Majesty King William the Third, intituled "An Act for preventing frands and regulat^{ing} abuses in the plantation trade," or any other Act or Acts of Parliament now in force relating to His Majesty's colonies and plantations, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament, law, usage, or custom to the contrary, in anywise notwithstanding; His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this present Order, British vessels arriving at any port of the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or of the territories and dependencies thereof, from any country in amity with His Majesty, laden with any articles of the growth, production, or manufacture of such country (excepting all articles composed of cotton, iron, steel, or wool of foreign manufacture,) shall be permitted to enter and land their cargoes, and dispose of the same in the said ports, subject to such duties as may be there payable thereon:

And it is further ordered that British vessels arriving as aforesaid shall be permitted to export to any such foreign country in amity with His Majesty, cargoes consisting of any articles of the growth, production, or manufacture of the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or of the territories and dependencies thereof, or of any other articles which shall have been legally imported there, on payment of such duties as may be payable thereon:

And it is hereby further ordered, that vessels belonging to the subjects of any foreign state in amity with His Majesty, which foreign state shall allow British vessels to carry on trade as aforesaid between the ports of such state and the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or the territories and dependencies thereof, shall be permitted, in like manner, to import into the ports of the said settlements, or of the territories and dependencies thereof, from any port of the state to which such vessel shall belong, any articles of the growth, production, or manufacture of such foreign state (excepting all articles composed of cotton, iron, steel, or wool, of foreign manufac^{ture}, ture), and to dispose of the same in the ports of the said settlement, or of the territories and dependencies thereof, on payment of the same duties as shall be payable on the like articles when imported from such foreign state in British vessels; provided, however, that if higher duties are charged on the export of such goods from any such foreign state to the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or the territories and dependencies thereof, in British vessels, than are charged on the export of similar articles to the said settlement, or the territories and dependencies thereof, in ships of such foreign state, a countervailing duty, of equal amount, shall be charged on the said articles when imported into the said settlement, or the territories and dependencies thereof, in vessels of such foreign state, over and above the duties payable on the like articles when imported from such state in British vessels.

And it is hereby further ordered, that every such foreign vessel shall be permitted to export a cargo consisting of any articles of the growth, production, or manufacture of the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or of the territories and dependencies thereof, or of any other articles which shall have been legally imported there, on payment of a duty of eight per cent. ad valorem over and above the duties charged on the like goods when exported from the said settlement, or the territories and dependencies thereof, to such foreign state in a British vessel; provided, however, that in cases where satisfactory proof shall be given, that the said articles, when imported into such foreign state from the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or the territories and dependencies thereof, in British vessels, are charged with no higher duties than are charged on the like articles when imported in vessels of such foreign state, and that such articles, when imported in British vessels, are entitled to the same privileges and advantages with respect to warehousing and internal consumption, or otherwise, as when imported in vessels of such state, then and in such case no higher duties shall be charged on the export of such articles from the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or the territories and dependencies thereof, in vessels of such foreign state than shall be charged on the export of the like articles in British vessels to such foreign state:

It is, however, hereby further ordered and declared, that no foreign vessel, allowed by the terms of this Order to export a cargo from the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or the territories and dependencies thereof, shall be permitted to export such cargo to any of His Majesty's possessions, or to any other place than a port or place belonging to the state or power to which the vessel itself shall belong.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

Chetwynd.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 12th of July 1820.

PRESENT.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the first year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to continue until the fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, an Act of the fifty-seventh year of His late Majesty, for regulating the trade and commerce to and from the Cape of Good Hope, and for regulating the trade of the Island of Mauritius;" His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, by any Order or Orders to be issued from time to time, to give such directions, and to make such regulations touching the trade and commerce to and from all islands, colonies, or places, and the territories and dependencies thereof, to His Majesty belonging, or in His possession, in Africa, or Asia to the eastward of the Cape of Good Hope (excepting only the possessions of the East India Company), as to His Majesty in Council, shall appear most expedient and salutary, any thing contained in an Act, passed in the twelfth year of the reign of His Majesty King Charles the Second, intituled "An Act for the encouraging and increasing of shipping and navigation," or in an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His Majesty King William the Third, intituled "An Act for preventing frauds, and regulating abuses in the plantation trade," or any other Act or Acts of Parliament now in force, relating to His Majesty's colonies and plantations, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament, law, usage or custom to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding; and whereas by virtue of the powers granted by the above recited Act of the fifty-seventh year of His late Majesty, an Order in Council was passed on the twenty-eighth of May one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, for regulating the trade of the Island of Mauritius, with states in amity with His Majesty, on the conditions therein set forth; His Majesty is pleased to direct that the said Order be and the same is hereby revoked; and His Majesty is further pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this present Order, British vessels arriving at any port of the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, from any country in amity with His Majesty, laden with any articles of the growth, production, or manufacture of such country (excepting all articles composed of cotton, iron, steel, or wool of foreign manufacture), shall be permitted to enter and land their cargoes, and dispose of the same in the said ports, subject to such duties as may be there payable thereon:

And it is further ordered, that British vessels arriving as aforesaid, shall be permitted to export to any such foreign country in amity with His Majesty, cargoes consisting of any articles of the growth, production, or manufacture of the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, or of any other articles which shall have been legally imported there, on payment of such duties as may be payable thereon:

And it is hereby further ordered, that vessels belonging to the subjects of any foreign state in amity with His Majesty, which foreign state shall allow British vessels to carry on trade as aforesaid between the ports of such state and the Island of Mauritius, shall be permitted in like manner to import into the ports of the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, from any port of the state to which such vessel shall belong, any articles of the growth, production, or manufacture of such foreign state (excepting all articles composed of cotton, iron, steel, or wool of foreign manufacture), and to dispose of the same in the ports of the said Island and its dependencies, on payment of the same duties as shall be payable on the like articles when imported from such foreign state in British vessels: provided, however, that if higher duties are charged on the export of such goods from any such foreign state, to the Island of Mauritius in British vessels, than are charged on the export of similar articles to the said Island in ships of such foreign state, a countervailing duty of equal amount shall be charged on the said articles when imported into the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, in vessels of such foreign state, over and above the duties payable on the like articles when imported from such state in British vessels:

And it is hereby further Ordered, that every such foreign vessel shall be permitted to export a cargo consisting of any articles of the growth, production or manufacture of the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, or of any other articles which shall have been legally imported there, on payment of a duty of eight per cent. ad valorem, over and above the duties charged on the like goods when exported from the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, to such foreign state in a British vessel; provided, however, that in cases where satisfactory proof shall be given that the said articles, when imported into such foreign state from the Island of Mauritius in British vessels, are charged with no higher duties than are charged on the like articles when imported in vessels of such foreign state; and that such articles when imported in British vessels are entitled to the same privileges and advantages with respect to warehousing and internal consumption or otherwise, as when imported in vessels of such state, then and in such case no higher duties shall be charged on the export of such articles from the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, in vessels of such foreign state, than shall be charged on the export of the like articles in British vessels to such foreign state:

It is, however, hereby further ordered and declared, that no foreign vessel, allowed by the terms of this Order to export a cargo from the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, shall be permitted to export such cargo to any of His Majesty's possessions, or to any other place than a port or place belonging to the state or power to which the vessel itself shall belong:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. Chetwynd.

At the Court at Carlton-House, the 20th of July 1820,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

THIS day the Right Honourable Stratford Canning, was, by His Majesty's command, sworn of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took his place at the Board accordingly.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 20th of July 1820,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty's Royal Predecessors were pleased, from time to time, by their respective Orders made in Council, to declare and signify their pleasure, that their servants should have and enjoy all ancient liberties, rights, and privileges; and that none of their servants in ordinary with fee should be enforced or obliged to bear any public office, serve on juries or inquests, or be subjected unto any mulct or fine for not submitting thereunto: His Majesty, this day taking the same into consideration, and thinking it reasonable that all His servants in ordinary with fee, should, in regard of their constant attendance upon His Majesty's Person, enjoy the like privileges with those of His Predecessors, doth therefore hereby order, with the advice of His Privy Council, that the Lord Chamberlain of His Majesty's Household, in relation to such of His Majesty's servants who are under his Lordship's command above stairs; and the Lord Steward of His Majesty's Household, and in his absence, His Majesty's Officers of the Green Cloth, as to such as are accounted Officers below stairs; and the Master of the Horse, for the servants belonging to the stables, do respectively signify unto the Lord Mayor of London, and to His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, within the city of Westminster, counties of Middlesex and Surrey, and to the Mayors, Sheriffs, and Bailiffs, of any corporation, or county, and to all such as may be therein concerned, whensoever there shall be cause for asserting the said privileges; that His Majesty hath thought proper, conformably to the example of His Predecessors in this behalf, to order and require, that His servants should have, hold, and enjoy all the said liberties, rights, and privileges; and that henceforward, none of His servants in ordinary with fee, be enforced or any ways obliged to bear any public offices, serve on juries, or inquests, watch or ward, in any place where they dwell, or elsewhere, nor be subjected to any mulct or fine for not submitting thereunto; And the Lord Chamberlain of His Majesty's Household for those servants above stairs, the Lord Steward of His Majesty's Household, and in his absence, His Majesty's Officers of the Green Cloth for the servants below stairs, and the Master of the Horse for the servants belonging to the stables, are hereby authorised and required to take especial care that this His Majesty's pleasure be duly observed and put in execution; and that His Majesty's Attorney General, for the time being, be, and he is hereby authorised and required, upon any application made to him by any of His Majesty's servants in ordinary with fee, to cause a stop to be put to all proceedings already had or to be commenced against them or any of them, for refusing to watch or serve on juries, or bear or undergo any public office or employment above-mentioned; and His Majesty doth hereby further order, that copies of this Order be left with the respective Clerks of the Peace of the cities of London and Westminster, and the counties of Middlesex and Surrey, to be kept amongst the records of His Majesty's Sessions, to the intent that due obedience may be given thereunto; and His servants may not be vexed with unreasonable proceedings. Chetwynd.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 7th of June 1820,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 38, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend the ballot or enrolment for the local militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order in Council, to direct that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia shall take place; but that such ballot and enrolment shall remain and continue suspended for the period specified in any such Order of Council, and from time to time, by any like Order or Orders in Council, to continue such suspension so long as His Majesty shall deem the same expedient, any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding: and whereas by an Order in Council, made the nineteenth of June last, it was ordered by His Majesty in Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia should take place for the space of one year from the twenty-seventh of June last, but that the ballot and enrolment for the local militia should remain and continue suspended for the space of one year from the said twenty-seventh of June last: and whereas it is deemed expedient to continue such suspension of the ballot and enrolment for the local militia for the space of one year from and after the twenty-seventh day of this instant June; it is, therefore, ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia do take place for the space of one year from and after the twenty-seventh day of this instant June, but that the ballot and enrolment for the local militia do remain and continue suspended for the space of one year from and after the said twenty-seventh day of this instant June.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 29th of May 1820,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by the Order in Council of the twentieth of November last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder, arms, or ammunition, to the places therein specified, will expire on the thirtieth day of this instant May; and whereas it is expedient, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth day of this instant May), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place within the dominions of the King of Spain, or to any port or place on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places within the dominions of the King of Spain, or into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of salt-petre, and to enforce the law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to

"enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:"

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Buller.

By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION,

For adjourning the Solemnity of the Coronation of His Majesty.

GEORGE, R.

WHEREAS by Our Royal Proclamation, bearing date the sixth day of May last, We did (amongst other things) publish and declare Our royal intention to celebrate the solemnity of Our Royal Coronation, upon Tuesday the first day of August next, at Our Palace at Westminster; and whereas for divers weighty reasons Us thereunto moving, We have thought fit to adjourn the said solemnity until Our royal will and pleasure shall be further signified thereon, We do by this Our Royal Proclamation give notice thereof; and We do hereby further signify to all Our loving subjects whom it may concern, that all persons of what quality or rank soever they be, who either upon Our letters to them directed, or by reason of their offices or tenures or otherwise, are to do any service at the time of such Coronation, are discharged from their attendance on Tuesday the first day of August next.

Given at Our Court at Carlton-House, this twelfth day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty, and in the first year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

Carlton-House, July 19, 1820.

This day had audience of His Majesty, His Excellency the Count de Lieven, Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary from the Emperor of All the Russias, to deliver letters from his Sovereign; His Highness the Prince Esterhazy, Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary from the Emperor of Austria, to deliver a letter from his Sovereign, announcing the marriage of His Imperial Highness the Archduke Rainier with Her Serene Highness the Princess Maria Elizabeth Frances of Savoy Carignan, and also a letter from the Grand Duke of Tuscany; His Excellency the Duke de Cazes, Ambassador from His Most Christian Majesty, to deliver his credentials; and Monsieur Elont, Member of the Council of State, and Commander of the Royal Order of the Belgic Lion, lately one of the King's Commissioners in the Netherland Settlements in India, on a special mission from the King of the Netherlands, to deliver his credentials; to which they were respectively introduced by Lord Viscount Castlereagh, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, and conducted by Sir Robert Chester, Knt. Master of the Ceremonies.

Carlton-House, July 19, 1820.

CEREMONIAL of the Investiture of Admiral Sir Charles-Henry Knowles, Bart. with the Ensigns of a Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath.

THE Knights Grand Crosses, attending in their mantles and collars, and the Officers of the Order, in their mantles, chains, and badges, proceeded this day, after the Levee, into the presence of the Sovereign, with the usual reverences, in the following order:

The Gentleman Usher of the Order, bearing the scarlet rod.

Deputy Bath King of Arms, bearing the ribband, badge, and star of the Order, upon a crimson velvet cushion.

The Genealogist.

KNIGHTS GRAND CROSSES.

Sir Brent Spencer.

Sir Richard J. Strachan.

Lord Howden.

Sir James Saumarez.

Sir Alured Clarke.

Sir John Borlase-Warren.

Viscount Keith.

Lord Henley.

His Royal Highness the Duke of York, First and Principal Knight Grand Cross of the Order.

Then, by the command of the Sovereign, Admiral Sir Charles-Henry Knowles, Bart. was introduced into the Presence between Sir Richard Strachan and Sir Brent Spencer, the two Junior Knights Grand Crosses present, preceded by the Gentleman Usher of the Order.

The sword of state being delivered to His Majesty by Lord Henley, the Second Knight Grand Cross present, Sir Charles-Henry Knowles, kneeling, was knighted therewith. Deputy Bath then presenting the ribband and badge to the Duke of York, the Senior Knight Grand Cross, His Royal Highness delivered the same to the Sovereign; and, Sir Charles-Henry Knowles still kneeling, His Majesty was graciously pleased to put them over the new Knight's right shoulder; who, being thus invested, and, having kissed His Majesty's hand, and received from him the star of the Order, withdrew.

The Knights Grand Crosses were called over, and the procession returned in the order above mentioned.

Carlton-House, July 19, 1820.

COURT OF CLAIMS.

THE Right Honourable the Commissioners appointed by His Majesty's commission to hear and determine all claims of services and offices to be performed at the time of the ensuing Coronation, and of fees to be received for the same, met, pursuant to their last adjournment, in the Painted-Chamber at Westminster, on Tuesday the 18th day of July instant, and further adjourned to Monday next the 24th day of July, at twelve of the clock at noon; and all persons interested in petitions of claims are required to give their attendance accordingly.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, passed in the forty-third year of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled "An Act for permitting certain goods imported into Great Britain to be secured in warehouse without payment of duty," it is, among other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the importer or importers, proprietor or proprietors, consignee or consignees, of any of the goods, wares, or merchandise, enumerated or described in the table thereunto annexed, marked (E), and which shall have been legally imported or brought into the port of London, to lodge and secure in a warehouse or warehouses to be provided for that purpose, any such goods, wares, or merchandise, under the joint locks of the crown and the merchant, without payment at the time of the first entry of the duties of customs due on the importation thereof: and it is by the said recited Act further enacted, that if the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them shall deem it expedient, that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to any goods, wares, and merchandise, not enumerated or described in either of the tables annexed thereto, and should cause a list of such goods, wares, and merchandise, to be published in the London Gazette, then and from thenceforth, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions, of the said Act, shall extend to such goods, wares, and merchandise, in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said tables respectively, at the time of passing the said Act:

We, the undersigned, Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, pursuant to and in execution of the powers vested in us, in and by the said Act, do hereby declare, that it appears to us expedient that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to the articles of legally imported or brought into the port of London (not being imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies); and that such straw and chip platting should be added to the list of goods, wares, and merchandise enumerated and described in the table annexed to the said recited Act, marked (E), and that such straw and chip platting should be lodged and secured at or in such warehouse or warehouses, under the regulations and directions of the said Act: and we do further declare, that from and after the publication of this our certificate in the London Gazette, conformable to the directions of the said Act, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions of the said Act shall extend and be construed to extend to all such straw and chip platting in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the table annexed to the said Act, marked (E), at the time of the passing of the same Act.

Given under our hands at the Treasury Chambers, Whitehall, this 3d day of June 1820,

W. M'NAGHTEN.

LIEUTENANCY—COUNTY OF SOMERSET.

Notice is hereby given, that a General Meeting of Lieutenancy of the county of Somerset will be held at the Market-House, in Taunton, in the same county, on Saturday the 5th day of August next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon.—Dated 18th July 1820.

By order of the Most Noble the Marquess of Bath, Lord Lieutenant of the said county, Thomas Edward Clarke, Clerk of the General Meetings.

Payment of Prizes, Third Lottery 1819.

Lottery-Office, Somerset-Place,
July 21, 1820.

THE Commissioners appointed for managing the Lotteries do hereby give notice, that numbers of tickets and shares thereof in all preceding lotteries may be examined at this Office every day, between the hours of ten and three, with their registers of benefits and blanks.

And the Commissioners appointed to take in the benefit tickets of the third lottery for the year 1819, do hereby give notice, that they will attend at their Office in Somerset-Place, on Saturday the 29th day of July instant, from ten o'clock in the forenoon to two o'clock in the afternoon, to take in and enter the benefit tickets of the said lottery, to be exchanged for certificates, pursuant to the Act of Parliament in that behalf.

And for better dispatch thereof, the said Commissioners will take in and enter the benefit tickets, numbered from No. 1 to No. 10,000, at one seat, and the benefit tickets numbered from No. 10,001 to No. 20,000, at another seat; and the persons possessed thereof are directed to bring with their tickets separate lists thereof, marked A and B, formed in numerical order, distinguishing stock from money prizes, adapted to each of the said seats, and at the bottom of each of the said lists to write the name and proper additions of the person entitled to the value of the said tickets.

And the said Commissioners also give further notice, that certificates for the value of the said tickets will be delivered out on Friday the 4th day of August next, at twelve of the clock at noon; after which the said Commissioners will take in and enter tickets in their usual monthly entry; and all persons are desired to observe, they must bring duplicates of their lists when they come for their certificates.

The Commissioners also give further notice, that tickets brought to this Office for payment, the checks of which are torn or destroyed, will not be entered for payment without a bond being given to indemnify the said Commissioners for granting certificates for the same.

Navy-Office, July 15, 1820.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 3d of August next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, Commissioner Sir Robert Barlow, will put up to sale, in His Majesty's Yard at Chatham, several lots of Old Stores, lying in that and Sheerness Yard, and consisting of the following articles, viz.

CONTRACT FOR THE CARRIAGE OF TIMBER.

Navy-Office, July 19, 1820.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Wednesday the 2d of August next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for Conveying by land and water carriage, about 183 loads of Oak Timber, and about five loads of Elm Timber, from Alice Holt Forest, in the county of Hants, to His Majesty's Yard at Woolwich.

A form of the tender may be seen at this Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.

Every tender must be accompanied by a letter addressed to the Navy Board, and signed by a responsible person, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £100, for the due performance of the contract.

G. Smith.

Crickley Hill and Campsfield Road.

Notice is hereby given, that a General Meeting of the Trustees of the whole line of road, viz. of both the Gloucestershire and Oxfordshire divisions of the turnpike roads from the top of Crickley Hill, in the county of Gloucester, to Frog Mill, through the towns of Northleach, Burford, and Witney, and parishes of Handborough and Bladon, to Campsfield, in the parish of Kidlington, in the county of Oxford, and also from Campsfield to the turnpike road at or near Enslow Bridge, in the said county of Oxford, will be held at the house of Mrs. Anne Stevens, called the Bull Inn, in Burford aforesaid, on Friday the 4th day of August next, at twelve o'clock at noon, in order to consider the expediency of applying to Parliament in the next ensuing session, for an Act to continue and enlarge the term and powers of the three Acts respectively made in the twenty-fourth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, and in the eighth and thirty-eighth years of His late Majesty, for repairing and widening the said road.—July 20, 1820.

VICE-CHANCELOR.—Tuesday the 11th day of July in the First Year of the Reign of His Majesty George the Fourth 1820, between James Bennett, Plaintiff, George Bradley and John Gibson, Defendants.

FOrasmuch as this Court was this present day informed by Mr. Bett, of Counsel for the plaintiff, that it appeared by the affidavit of William Hooper, of the Town of Ross, in the County of Hereford, Solicitor for the plaintiff, that the defendant, John Gibson, having been served with a subpoena issued out of this Court in this cause, and not having entered his appearance in due time, an attachment for want of such appearance was duly issued against him at the suit of the plaintiff in the month of April 1819; and that the said John Gibson having promised to the said deponent, as such Solicitor, that he would put in his answer in the said suit as of the following term, he the said deponent did not execute the said attachment; but finding the said defendant, John Gibson, did not comply with his said promise, and with several other promises made to the said deponent, as to causing his appearance to be forthwith entered, he the said deponent was about to execute the said attachment, but that before the said deponent could execute the same the said defendant, John Gibson absconded in a state of insolvency, and left England, as the said deponent then believed, and now believes, to avoid his Creditors, and amongst others, as the said defendant apprehends and believes, to avoid the demands of the said plaintiff, and the further process of this Court; and the said deponent believes the said John Gibson is now beyond the seas, or in some other place unknown to the said deponent, for the purposes aforesaid.—It is, thereupon, ordered, that the said defendant, John Gibson, do appear to the plaintiff's bill on or before the first day of next Michaelmas Term.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Marshall against Barras, the Joint Creditors of the late Partnership of Messrs. Hood and Ryle, of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, Merchants, are to come in and prove their debts before James Stephen, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, bearing date the 4th day of May 1820, made in a Cause wherein Benjamin Clarkson and others are the plaintiffs, and Benjamin Wood and others, are the defendants, the Creditors of Thomas Wood, late of Flanshawe, in the County of York, Clothier, deceased, the testator in the said Decree named (who died on or about the 5th day of August 1817), are forthwith to come in and prove their debts before Sir John Simeon, Bart. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause wherein Elizabeth Tourle Forster (an infant) by her next friend, is plaintiff, and John Ward the younger is the defendant, the Creditors of William Nuthall, late of Ratcliff-Highway, in the County of Middlesex, Gentleman (who died in the month of June 1813), are to come in and prove their debts before Francis Paul Stratford, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on or before the 10th day of November 1820, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in two several Causes in one of which Elizabeth Farnsworth and others are plaintiffs, and James Yeomans and others are defendants, and in the other Thomas Farnsworth and others are plaintiffs, and the said James Yeomans and others defendants, the Creditors of Thomas Farnsworth, late of Wormley, in the County of Hertford, Gentleman (who died on the 7th of February 1813,) are to come in and prove their debts before Francis Paul Stratford, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on or before the 10th day of November 1820, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.
