To the Right Honourable the Lords of His Majesty's Treasury.

After our hearty commendations-having considered the aforegoing scheme of the fourth lottery for the year 1819, to be drawn pursuant to the provisions of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, we do hereby signify to you our consent and approbation thereof.

Whitehall, Treasury-Chambers, this 4th day of August 1820, N. VANSITTART. LOWTHER. G. H. SOMERSET.

To the Commissioners of the Lottery.

Whitehall, August 2, 1820.

Hereas it hath humbly represented unto the King, that; on the night of the 11th ultimo, the dwelling-house of Augustus Brackenbury, of Llanrhystid, in the county of Cardigan, Esq. was attacked by a body of men armed with fire arms, who after seizing upon the guns belonging to the said Augustus Brackenbury and those of his servants, they set fire to the house and materials in and about the same, which were entirely destroyed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice, the persons concerned in the felony above-mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually set fire to the said house), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person (except as before excepted), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.—The above reward to be paid on conviction by Mr. James Hughes, Solicitor, Abenystwyth.

Navy-Office, August 8, 1820.

THE Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having appointed money for the payment of half-pay to Sea Officers, from the 1st April to the 30th June 1820, according to His Majesty's establishment in that behalf; these are to give notice, that the several payments will begin to be made at the Pay-Office, by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, at ten o'clock in the morning, on the following days, viz.

On the 14th, 15th, and 16th of this month, to Admirals, Captains, and their Attornies.

On the 17th, 18th, 21st, 22d, and 23d of this month, to Lieutenants and Chaplains, and their Attornies.

On the 24th and 25th of this month, to Masters, Surgeons, and Pursers, and their Attornies.

After which the lists will be recalled the first and third Wednesday in every month, that all persons may then and there attend to receive what may become payable to them, and bring with them an affidavit as required by Order in Council of 30th July 1819, the forms of which were published in an advertisement from this Office, dated 16th September 1819, and may be procured at the Office of the Treasurer of the Navy; and in case any of the said Officers should not be able to attend themselves, but employ Attornies for that purpose, that the said Attornies do produce the like affidavit from the persons they are employed by.

Where Officers are abroad on leave, their agents are to produce attested copies of such leave, before the half-pay can be paid.

And as by Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-fifth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for establishing a more easy and expeditious method for the payment of Officers "belonging to His Majesty's Navy," it is enacted by the twentieth clause of the said Act, "that if any Commissioned or Warrant Naval Officer who shall be entitled to receive half-pay, and " shall be desirous to receive and be paid the same at or near the place of his residence, he may apply to the Treasurer of His Majesty's "Navy, in London, to have such half-pay paid "at or near the place of his residence, &c. in the man-"ner pointed out by the said Act;" and by a further Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His-late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for enabling the Officers in His Majesty's Navy, " and their representatives, to draw for and re-"ceive their half-pay," it is enacted by the first and third clauses of the said Act, "that if any "Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who shall be enof titled to receive any sum of money for or on ac-" count of his half-pay, shall be desirous of drawsing a bill of exchange for the same upon the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill, he Shall signify such desire, by letter, to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy; and that if any " Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who shall be en-"titled to receive any sum of money for or on account of half-pay, shall be desirous of having this half-pay paid to him by extract at any of "His Majesty's Dock-Yards where Clerks for the payment of wages for the Navy shall reside, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill or if bill of exchange, he is to apply either to the or proper Clerk, at the Navy Pay-Office, in Lon-"don, or at the Pay-Office at such Dock-Yard, signifying such his desire;" notice is hereby further given, that the half-pay ending the 30th of June 1820, will commence paying on the 14th of August; and all persons desirous of drawing for or of having their half-pay remitted to them; may apply as above directed. G. Smith.

MEM. Bills of exchange drawn under or by virtue of the Act above recited; are not liable to cheistamp duty.

No persons residing out of His, Majesty's dominions are entitled to the privileges of the Act.

per Centum Consolidated Bank Annuities, sold at the Bank of England this day, was £68 and under £69 per Centum.

By order of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Matt. Winter, Secretary. Taxes.
