SATURDAY, AUGUST 19, 1820.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, August 19, 1820.

ON Sunday last, the 13th instant, the remains of Her late Royal Highness the Duchess of York lay in state at the residence of Her late Royal Highness, at Oatlands, from whence they were conveyed on the following day, at three o'clock, in order to be privately interred in a vault, which had previously been prepared, under Her Royal Highness's special directions, at Weybridge Church, in the county of Surrey; the procession of the funeral moved in the following order :

Four Mutes on horseback.

His Royal Highness the Duke of York's state carriage, with two Footmen, drawn by six of His Royal Highness's horses, driven by the Duke's Coachman, with a Postillion, attended by four Grooms, all in mourning, with black crape hatbands and black gloves, conveying Sir Thomas Stepney, with the Coronet of Her late Royal Highness on a black velvet cushion, Colonel Armstrong and Colonel Delancey Barclay, his Supporters.

The Hearse, covered with black velvet, adorned with escutcheons of Her late Royal Highness's arms, drawn by six of His Royal Highness the Duke of York's horses, each with velvet covering, adorned with an escutcheon, and driven by His Royal Highness's State Coachman, with a Postillion, attended by four Grooms, all in mourning, with black crape hatbands and black gloves.

A mourning coach, with three Footmen, drawn by six horses, conveying His Royal Highness the Duke of York, the Chief Mourner, with His Royal Highness the Prince Leopold and the Earl of Lauderdale, the Executors of Her late Royal Highness.

A mourning coach, with three Footmen, drawn by six horses, conveying their Royal Highnesses the Dukes of Clarence, Sussex, and Cambridge.

Two Mutes on horseback.

A mourning coach, drawn by four horses, conveying General Sir Harry Calvert, Bart. G. C. B. ;

Major-Generals Sir J. Willoughby Gordon, Bart. K. C. B. ; Sir Henry Torrens, K. C. B. ; and Sir Herbert Taylor, K. C. H. the Supporters of the Pall.

A mourning coach, drawn by four horses, conveying Lady Anne Smith ; the Marchioness of Worcester ; Miss FitzRoy ; and Miss Culling Smith.

A mourning coach, drawn by four horses, conveying the Marquess of Worcester ; Lord Alvanley ; the Right Honourable Major-General Sir Benjamin Bloomfield, G. C. H. ; Colonel the Honourable James Stanhope ; and Colonel Cooke.

A mourning coach, drawn by four horses, conveying Mr. Brande, Mr. Walker, Mr. Ware, and Mr. Osborne, Apothecaries on the establishment of His Royal Highness the Duke of York, and of Her late Royal Highness.

Two mourning coaches, each drawn by four horses, conveying the female attendants of Her late Royal Highness.

Four mourning coaches, each drawn by four horses, conveying the Steward, House-Steward, Pages, and others on the establishment of His Royal Highness the Duke of York, and of Her late Royal Highness.

N. B. At the entrance of the Village of Weybridge the Children of the School (all in mourning), under the protection of Her late Royal Highness, fell in between the Mutes in front of the procession, and so proceeded to the Church.

Upon arrival at the Church, the Rev. Dr. Haultain, Rector of Weybridge ; Sir George Nayler, Knt. Clarenceux King of Arms (acting for Garter, Principal King of Arms); and Thomas Baucutt Mash, Esq. of the Lord Chamberlain's Department, received the body, and the procession advanced into the Church where the body was placed upon tressels near the Altar, and the Coronet and Cushion laid upon the Coffin. His Royal Highness the Chief Mourner, the Princes of the Blood Royal, and the Earl of Lauderdale, were conducted to the pew belonging to His Royal Highness; the remainder of the procession having taken their places, and the part of the service before the interment being performed, the procession moved to the vault on a platform covered with black cloth. The Royal Remains being deposited in the vault, and the office of burial concluded, Sir George Nayler, after a short pause, proclaimed the style of Her late Royal Highness, as follows:

" Thus it hath pleased Almighty God to take
 " out of this transitory life, unto His Divine
 " Mercy, the late Most Illustrious Princess
 " Frederica-Charlotte-Ulrica-Catharine, Con-
 " sort of the Most High, Most Mighty, and
 " Most Illustrious Prince Frederick, Duke of " York and of Albany, next Brother to His
 " Most Excellent Majesty George the Fourth,
 " by the Grace of God, of the United King-
 " doms of Great Britain and Ireland, King,
 " Defender of the Faith, whom God bless
 " and preserve with long life, health and
 " honour, and all worldly happiness."

After which His Royal Highness the Chief Mourner, their Royal Highnesses the Princes of the Blood Royal, the Nobility and others who had composed the procession, retired, having witnessed that every part of this mournful and afflicting ceremony had been conducted with great regularity and solemnity.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 12th of July 1820,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the first year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled " An Act to continue until the fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, An Act of the fifty-seventh year of His late Majesty for regulating the trade and commerce to and from the Cape of Good Hope, and for regulating the trade of the Island of Mauritius," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, by any Order or Orders to be issued from time to time, to give such directions, and to make such regulations touching the trade and commerce to and from the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, and the territories and dependences thereof, as to His Majesty in Council shall appear most expedient and salutary, any thing contained in an Act, passed in the twelfth year of the reign of His Majesty King Charles the Second, intituled " An Act for the encouraging and increasing of shipping and navigation;" or in an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His Majesty King William the Third, intituled " An Act for preventing frauds and regulating abuses in the plantation trade," or any other Act or Acts of Parliament now in force relating to His Majesty's colonies and plantations, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament, law, usage, or custom to the contrary, in anywise notwithstanding; His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this present Order, British vessels arriving at any port of the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or of the territories and dependences thereof, from any country in amity with His Majesty, laden with any articles of the growth, production, or manufacture of such country (excepting all articles composed of cotton, iron, steel, or wool of foreign manufacture,) shall be permitted to enter and land their cargoes, and dispose of the same in the said ports, subject to such duties as may be there payable thereon:

And it is further ordered that British vessels arriving as aforesaid shall be permitted to export to any such foreign country in amity with His Majesty, cargoes consisting of any articles of the growth, production, or manufacture of the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or of the territories and dependences thereof, or of any other articles which shall have been legally imported there, on payment of such duties as may be payable thereon:

And it is hereby further ordered, that vessels belonging to the subjects of any foreign state in amity with His Majesty, which foreign state shall allow British vessels to carry on trade as aforesaid between the ports of such state and the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or the territories and dependences thereof, shall be permitted, in like manner, to import into the ports of the said settlements, or of the territories and dependences thereof, from any port of the state to which such vessel shall belong, any articles of the growth, production, or manufacture of such foreign state (excepting all articles composed of cotton, iron, steel, or wool, of foreign manufacture), and to dispose of the same in the ports of the said settlement, or of the territories and dependences thereof, on payment of the same duties as shall be payable on the like articles when imported from such foreign state in British vessels; provided, however, that if higher duties are charged on the export of such goods from any such foreign state to the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or the territories and dependences thereof, in British vessels, than are charged on the export of similar articles to the said settlement, or the territories and dependences thereof, in ships of such foreign state, a countervailing duty, of equal amount, shall be charged on the said articles when imported into the said settlement, or the territories and dependences thereof, in vessels of such foreign state, over and above the duties payable on the like articles when imported from such state in British vessels.

And it is hereby further ordered, that every such foreign vessel shall be permitted to export a cargo consisting of any articles of the growth, production, or manufacture of the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or of the territories and dependencies thereof, or of any other articles which shall have been legally imported there, on payment of a duty of eight per cent. ad valorem over and above the duties charged on the like goods when exported from the said settlement, or the territories and dependencies thereof, to such foreign state in a British vessel; provided, however, that in cases where satisfactory proof shall be given, that the said articles, when imported into such foreign state from the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or the territories and dependencies thereof, in British vessels, are charged with no higher duties than are charged on the like articles when imported in vessels of such foreign state, and that such articles, when imported in British vessels, are entitled to the same privileges and advantages with respect to warehousing and internal consumption, or otherwise, as when imported in vessels of such state, then and in such case no higher duties shall be charged on the export of such articles from the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or the territories and dependencies thereof, in vessels of such foreign state than shall be charged on the export of the like articles in British vessels to such foreign state:

It is, however, hereby further ordered and declared, that no foreign vessel, allowed by the terms of this Order to export a cargo from the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or the territories and dependencies thereof, shall be permitted to export such cargo to any of His Majesty's possessions, or to any other place than a port or place belonging to the state or power to which the vessel itself shall belong.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

Chetwynd.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 12th of July 1820,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the first year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to continue until the fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, an Act of the fifty-seventh year of His late Majesty, for regulating the trade and commerce to and from the Cape of Good Hope, and for regulating the trade of the Island of Mauritius;" His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, by any Order or Orders to be issued from time to time, to give such directions, and to make such regulations touching the trade and commerce to and from all islands, colonies, or places, and the territories and dependencies thereof, to His Majesty belonging, or in His possession, in Africa, or Asia to the eastward of the Cape of Good Hope

(excepting only the possessions of the East India Company), as to His Majesty in Council, shall appear most expedient and salutary, any thing contained in an Act, passed in the twelfth year of the reign of His Majesty King Charles the Second, intituled "An Act for the encouraging and increasing of shipping and navigation," or in an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His Majesty King William the Third, intituled "An Act for preventing frauds, and regulating abuses in the plantation trade," or any other Act or Acts of Parliament now in force, relating to His Majesty's colonies and plantations, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament, law, usage or custom to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding; and whereas by virtue of the powers granted by the above recited Act of the fifty-seventh year of His late Majesty, an Order in Council was passed on the twenty-eighth of May one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, for regulating the trade of the Island of Mauritius, with states in amity with His Majesty, on the conditions therein set forth; His Majesty is pleased to direct that the said Order be and the same is hereby revoked; and His Majesty is further pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this present Order, British vessels arriving at any port of the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, from any country in amity with His Majesty, laden with any articles of the growth, production, or manufacture of such country (excepting all articles composed of cotton, iron, steel, or wool of foreign manufacture), shall be permitted to enter and land their cargoes, and dispose of the same in the said ports, subject to such duties as may be there payable thereon:

And it is further ordered, that British vessels arriving as aforesaid, shall be permitted to export to any such foreign country in amity with His Majesty, cargoes consisting of any articles of the growth, production, or manufacture of the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, or of any other articles which shall have been legally imported there, on payment of such duties as may be payable thereon:

And it is hereby further ordered, that vessels belonging to the subjects of any foreign state in amity with His Majesty, which foreign state shall allow British vessels to carry on trade as aforesaid between the ports of such state and the Island of Mauritius, shall be permitted in like manner to import into the ports of the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, from any port of the state to which such vessel shall belong, any articles of the growth, production, or manufacture of such foreign state (excepting all articles composed of cotton, iron, steel, or wool of foreign manufacture), and to dispose of the same in the ports of the said Island and its dependencies, on payment of the same duties as shall be payable on the like articles when imported from such foreign state in British vessels: provided, however, that if higher duties are charged on the export of such goods from any such foreign state, to the Island of Mauritius in British vessels, than are charged on the export of similar articles to the said Island in ships of such foreign state, a countervailing duty of equal amount shall be charged on the said articles when imported into the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, in vessels of such foreign state, over and above the duties payable on the like articles when imported from such state in British vessels :

And it is hereby further ordered, that every such foreign vessel shall be permitted to export a cargo consisting of any articles of the growth, production or manufacture of the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, or of any other articles which shall have been legally imported there, on payment of a duty of eight per cent. ad valorem, over and above the duties charged on the like goods when exported from the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, to such foreign state in a British vessel ; provided, however, that in cases where satisfactory proof shall be given that the said articles, when imported into such foreign state from the Island of Mauritius in British vessels, are charged with no higher duties than are charged on the like articles when imported in vessels of such foreign state ; and that such articles when imported in British vessels are entitled to the same privileges and advantages with respect to warehousing and internal consumption or otherwise, as when imported in vessels of such state, then and in such case no higher duties shall be charged on the export of such articles from the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, in vessels of such foreign state, than shall be charged on the export of the like articles in British vessels to such foreign state :

It is, however, hereby further ordered and declared, that no foreign vessel, allowed by the terms of this Order to export a cargo from the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, shall be permitted to export such cargo to any of His Majesty's possessions, or to any other place than a port or place belonging to the state or power to which the vessel itself shall belong :

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Chetwynd.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 20th of July 1820,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty's Royal Predecessors were pleased, from time to time, by their respective Orders made in Council, to declare and signify their pleasure, that their servants should have and enjoy all antient liberties, rights, and privileges ; and that none of their servants in ordinary with fee should be enforced or obliged to bear any public office, serve on juries or inquests, or be subjected unto any mulct or fine for not submitting thereunto : His Majesty, this day taking the same into consideration, and thinking it reasonable that all His servants in ordinary with fee, should, in regard of their constant attendance upon His Majesty's Person, enjoy the like privileges with those of His Predecessors, doth therefore hereby order, with the advice of His Privy Council, that the Lord Chamberlain of His Majesty's Household, in relation to such of His Majesty's servants who are under his Lordship's command above stairs ; and the Lord Steward of His Majesty's Household, and in his absence, His Majesty's Officers of the Green Cloth, as to such as are accounted Officers below stairs ; and the Master of the Horse, for the servants belonging to the stables, do respectively signify unto the Lord Mayor of London, and to His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, within the city of Westminster, counties of Middlesex and Surrey, and to the Mayors, Sheriffs, and Bailiffs, of any corporation, or county, and to all such as may be therein concerned, whensoever there shall be cause for asserting the said privileges ; that His Majesty hath thought proper, conformably to the example of His Predecessors in this behalf ; to order and require, that His servants should have, hold, and enjoy all the said liberties, rights, and privileges ; and that henceforward, none of His servants in ordinary with fee, be enforced or any ways obliged to bear any public offices, serve on juries, or inquests, watch or ward, in any place where they dwell, or elsewhere, nor be subjected to any mulct or fine for not submitting thereunto : And the Lord Chamberlain of His Majesty's Household for those servants above stairs, the Lord Steward of His Majesty's Household, and in his absence, His Majesty's Officers of the Green Cloth for the servants below stairs, and the Master of the Horse for the servants belonging to the stables, are hereby authorised and required to take especial care that this His Majesty's pleasure be duly observed and put in execution ; and that His Majesty's Attorney General, for the time being, be, and he is hereby authorised and required, upon any application made to him by any of His Majesty's servants in ordinary with fee, to cause a stop to be put to all proceedings already had or to be commenced against them or any of them, for refusing to watch or serve on juries, or bear or undergo any public office or employment above-mentioned ; and His Majesty doth hereby further order, that copies of this Order be left with the respective Clerks of the Peace of the cities of London and Westminster, and the counties of Middlesex and Surrey, to be kept amongst the records of His Majesty's Sessions, to the intent that due obedience may be given thereunto, and His servants may not be vexed with unreasonable proceedings.

Chetwynd.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto Ann Parkin, of Bernard-Street, Russell-Square, in the parish of St. George, Bloomsbury, in the county of Middlesex, spinster, His royal licence and authority, that she may take the surname of Sherwin instead of that of Parkin, and also bear the arms of Sherwin only, out of grateful and affectionate regard to the memory of Joseph Sherwin, late of Bernard-Street aforesaid, Gent. deceased; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise His Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to order, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, August 12, 1820.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented to His Majesty, that, in the evening of Friday the 4th instant, an outrageous assault was committed on a party of the coast blockade at Folkestone, by a riotous mob, who rescued from their custody a smuggler who had been apprehended and lodged in the watch-house there; and that William Simpson, quartermaster, was feloniously shot by a pistol fired by one of the mob, and now lies in a dangerous state from the effects of his wound;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually fired the said pistol), who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty to any person or persons (except as before excepted), who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend, or cause to be apprehended, the said offender or offenders, so that he or they may be thereof convicted.—Such reward to be paid on the conviction of the offender or offenders by Charles Bicknell, Esq. Solicitor for the affairs of the Admiralty.

Navy-Office, August 15, 1820.

POOR KNIGHTS OF WINDSOR.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice to such Lieutenants in His Majesty's Navy as are desirous of being recommended for the appointment of Poor Knight of Windsor, under the will of the late Samuel Travers, Esq. that they must apply at this Office, on or before 30th September next, when they will be informed of the nature of the certificates and testimonials which are required to shew that they come within the meaning of the said will, which expresses that they "are to be superannuated or disabled Lieutenants of English men of war," and shall be "single men without children, inclined to lead a virtuous, studious, and devout life, to be removed if they give occasion for scandal."

R. A. Nelson, Secretary.

Admiralty-Office, August 14, 1820.

THIS is to give notice to all whom it may concern, that Thomas Mason, of Willow-Bridge Colliery, bath, in pursuance of the Act of the 46 Geo. 3. cap. 158, given me notice, dated the 11th instant, of his intention to amend and repair the present quay in the River Blyth, belonging to the Honourable and Right Reverend the Bishop of Durham, commonly called the Staith Quay; and also to build a new quay below the present ford-way leading from Bedlington to Blyth.

J. W. Croker.

Notice is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to the Honourable the House of Commons during the next session of Parliament, for leave to bring in a Bill for better paving, cleansing, and lighting the united parishes of Saint Andrew, Holborn, above the Bars, and Saint George the Martyr, in the county of Middlesex, including Dean-Street and Fulwood's-Rents, and such part of Chancery-Lane as lies within the said united parishes; and for vesting the sole management thereof in Commissioners, to be elected by the vestries of the said parishes. MORRILLION'S ESTATE.

THE child and children of Abraham Morrillon, deceased, formerly of Crowle, in the County of Lincoln, Mariner, who was brother of John Morrillon, late of Crowle aforesaid, gent. deceased, and to the personal representatives of any such child or children who may be dead, and to his, her, or their relatives.

Whereas the said John Morrillon departed this life on the 1st day of February 1814, and having by his last will and testament, dated the 12th day of March 1813, given and devised all his real estates at Crowle or elsewhere, in the Kingdom of England, except a certain messuage and homestead therein mentioned; and also the several personal estates and effects therein mentioned, unto certain trustees, in the said Will named, upon trust, to sell and dispose of the same respectively at their will and pleasure, and to call in and collect all such parts of the said testator's personal estates, as should consist of moneys or securities for money, and the money arising by and from all such sales and collections, in trust to pay and apply the same to, and to the use of all and every the children of the testator's late brother Abraham Morrillon, deceased, as should be found living at the testator's decease, in equal shares and proportions, if more than one, and if only one, then the whole to the use of such only child, their respective executors or administrators, provided such child or children of the testator's brother, should identify themselves and be made known to the said trustees, within the space of seven years from the day of the testator's death; and for that purpose the said trustees were directed to advertise and make known the said will in the English and Foreign Gazettes of London and Jamaica, and in such other newspapers as they should think proper, three times at the least in each and every year for the space of seven years next after the testator's death, and in case at the end of the said seven years by the means aforesaid, the children of his said brother Abraham, should not be found, or being found or heard of, should not either by themselves in person or by their attorney, duly authorised under his or their hand or hands and seals, apply or give notice in writing to the said trustees, for the distribution and payment of the said trust estates and effects, then the testator did direct the said trustees to apply the same to the use of certain other persons in the said will named, in the manner therein particularly set forth.

Now we William Scotchburn, of Crowle aforesaid, Timothy Richardson, of Luddington, in the said county of Lincoln, and Enoch Wilson Margrave, of Ealand, in the parish of Crowle aforesaid, the trustees and executors named in and appointed by the last will and testament, and a codicil thereto annexed of the said John Morrillion, deceased, do hereby give notice of the contents of the said will to all and every the child or children of the said Abraham Morrillion now living, and to the personal representatives or child, of any such child, who was living at the time of the said testator's death, and who by virtue of the aforesaid will, are now become or claim to be entitled to the whole or any part of the said trust estates; late of their said uncle John Morrillion, of Crowle aforesaid, gent. deceased, and he, she or they are hereby required to identify and make themselves known to us or one of us, or to our agents Messrs. Munro, Bullock, Lynch, and Myers, of Kingston, in the Island of Jamaica; Messrs. Stocker, Dawson, and Herringham, No. 2, New Boswell-Court, Cary-Street, Lincoln's-Inn, London; or Messrs. Capes and Son, Solicitors, Epworth, near Thorne, Yorkshire, as soon as conveniently may be, in order that such child or children, or their descendants, relatives or representatives, may respectively take the benefit of the said trust estates; and all such claimants are requested to produce and transmit to us, well-authenticated pedigrees and statements of their claims; and any person or persons who can give any information of the said children or family of the said Abraham Morrillion, are requested so to do, and any expenses incurred by them will be repaid.—Dated the 14th day of August 1820.
