AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 12th of July 1820,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the first year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to continue until the fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, An Act of the fifty-seventh year of His late Majesty for regulating the trade and commerce to and from the Cape of Good Hope, and for regulating the trade of the Island of Mauritius," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, by any Order or Orders to be issued from time to time, to give such directions, and to make such regulations touching the trade and commerce to and from the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, and the territories and dependences thereof, as to His Majesty in Council shall appear most expedient and salutary, any thing contained in an Act, passed in the twelfth year of the reign of His Majesty King Charles the Second, intituled "An Act for the encouraging and increasing of shipping and navigation;" or in an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His Majesty King William the Third, intituled "An Act for preventing frauds and regulating abuses in the plantation trade," or any other Act or Acts of Parliament now in force relating to His Majesty's colonies and plantations, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament, law, usage, or custom to the contrary, in anywise notwithstanding; His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this present Order, British vessels arriving at any port of the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or of the territories and dependences thereof, from any country in amity with His Majesty, laden with any articles of the growth, production, or manufacture of such country (excepting all articles composed of cotton, iron, steel, or wool of foreign manufacture,) shall be permitted to enter and land their cargoes, and dispose of the same in the said ports, subject to such duties as may be there payable thereon:

And it is further ordered that British vessels arriving as aforesaid shall be permitted to export to any such foreign country in amity with His Majesty, cargoes consisting of any articles of the growth, production, or manufacture of the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or of the territories and dependences thereof, or of any other articles which shall have been legally imported there, on payment of such duties as may be payable thereon:

And it is hereby further ordered, that vessels belonging to the subjects of any foreign state in amity with His Majesty, which foreign state shall allow British vessels to carry on trade as aforesaid between the ports of such state and the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or the territories and dependences thereof, shall be permitted, in like manner, to import into the ports of the said settlements, or of the territories and dependences thereof, from any port of the state to which such vessel shall belong, any articles of the growth, production, or manufacture of such foreign state (excepting all articles composed of cotton, iron, steel, or wool, of foreign manufacture), and to dispose of the same in the ports of the said settlement, or of the territories and dependences thereof, on payment of the same duties as shall be payable on the like articles when imported from such foreign state in British vessels; provided, however, that if higher duties are charged on the export of such goods from any such foreign state to the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or the territories and dependences thereof, in British vessels, than are charged on the export of similar articles to the said settlement, or the territories and dependences thereof, in ships of such foreign state, a countervailing duty, of equal amount, shall be charged on the said articles when imported into the said settlement, or the territories and dependences thereof, in vessels of such foreign state, over and above the duties payable on the like articles when imported from such state in British vessels.

And it is hereby further ordered, that every such foreign vessel shall be permitted to export a cargo consisting of any articles of the growth, production, or manufacture of the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or of the territories and dependencies thereof, or of any other articles which shall have been legally imported there, on payment of a duty of eight per cent. ad valorem over and above the duties charged on the like goods when exported from the said settlement, or the territories and dependencies thereof, to such foreign state in a British vessel; provided, however, that in cases where satisfactory proof shall be given, that the said articles, when imported into such foreign state from the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or the territories and dependencies thereof, in British vessels, are charged with no higher duties than are charged on the like articles when imported in vessels of such foreign state, and that such articles, when imported in British vessels, are entitled to the same privileges and advantages with respect to warehousing and internal consumption, or otherwise, as when imported in vessels of such state, then and in such case no higher duties shall be charged on the export of such articles from the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or the territories and dependencies thereof, in vessels of such foreign state than shall be charged on the export of the like articles in British vessels to such foreign state:

It is, however, hereby further ordered and declared, that no foreign vessel, allowed by the terms of this Order to export a cargo from the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or the territories and dependencies thereof, shall be permitted to export such cargo to any of His Majesty's possessions, or to any other place than a port or place belonging to the state or power to which the vessel itself shall belong.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein; as to them may respectively appertain. Chetwynd.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 12th of July 1820,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the first year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to continue until the fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, an Act of the fifty-seventh year of His late Majesty, for regulating the trade and commerce to and from the Cape of Good Hope, and for regulating the trade of the Island of Mauritius;" His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, by any Order or Orders to be issued from time to time, to give such directions, and to make such regulations touching the trade and commerce to and from all islands, colonies, or places, and the territories and dependencies thereof; to His Majesty belonging, or in His possession, in Africa, or Asia to the eastward of the Cape of Good Hope (excepting only the possessions of the East India Company), as to His Majesty in Council, shall appear most expedient and salutary, any thing contained in an Act, passed in the twelfth year of the reign of His Majesty King Charles the Second, intituled "An Act for the encouraging and increasing of shipping and navigation," or in an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His Majesty King William the Third, intituled "An Act for preventing frauds, and regulating abuses in the plantation trade," or any other Act or Acts of Parliament now in force, relating to His Majesty's colonies and plantations, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament, law, usage or custom to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding; and whereas by virtue of the powers granted by the above recited Act of the fifty-seventh year of His late Majesty, an Order in Council was passed on the twenty-eighth of May one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, for regulating the trade of the Island of Mauritius, with states in amity with His Majesty, on the conditions therein set forth; His Majesty is pleased to direct that the said Order be and the same is hereby revoked; and His Majesty is further pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this present Order, British vessels arriving at any port of the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, from any country in amity with His Majesty, laden with any articles of the growth, production, or manufacture of such country (excepting all articles composed of cotton, iron, steel, or wool of foreign manufacture), shall be permitted to enter and land their cargoes, and dispose of the same in the said ports, subject to such duties as may be there payable thereon:

And it is further ordered, that British vessels arriving as aforesaid, shall be permitted to export to any such foreign country in amity with His Majesty, cargoes consisting of any articles of the growth, production, or manufacture of the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, or of any other articles which shall have been legally imported there, on payment of such duties as may be payable thereon:

And it is hereby further ordered, that vessels belonging to the subjects of any foreign state in amity with His Majesty, which foreign state shall allow British vessels to carry on trade as aforesaid between the ports of such state and the Island of Mauritius, shall be permitted in like manner to import into the ports of the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, from any port of the state to which such vessel shall belong, any articles of the growth, production, or manufacture of such foreign state (excepting all articles composed of cotton, iron, steel, or wool of foreign manufacture), and to dispose of the same in the ports of the said Island and its dependencies, on payment of the same duties as shall be payable on the like articles when imported from such foreign state in British vessels: provided, however, that if higher duties are charged on the export of such goods from any such foreign state, to the Island of Mauritius in British vessels, than are charged on the export of similar articles to the said Island in ships of such foreign state, a countervailing duty of equal amount shall be charged on the said articles when imported into the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, in vessels of such foreign state, over and above the duties payable on the like articles when imported from such state in British vessels:

And it is hereby further ordered, that every such foreign vessel shall be permitted to export a cargo consisting of any articles of the growth, production or manufacture of the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, or of any other articles which shall have been legally imported there, on payment of a duty of eight per cent. ad valorem, over and above the duties charged on the like goods when exported from the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, to such foreign state in a British vessel; provided, however, that in cases where satisfactory proof shall be given that the said articles, when imported into such foreign state from the Island of Mauritius in British vessels, are charged with no higher duties than are charged on the like articles when imported in vessels of such foreign state; and that such articles when imported in British vessels are entitled to the same privileges and advantages with respect to warehousing and internal consumption or otherwise, as when imported in vessels of such state, then and in such case no higher duties shall be charged on the export of such articles from the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, in vessels of such foreign state, than shall be charged on the export of the like articles in British vessels to such foreign state:

It is, however, hereby further ordered and declared, that no foreign vessel, allowed by the terms of this Order to export a cargo from the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, shall be permitted to export such cargo to any of His Majesty's possessions, or to any other place than a port or place belonging to the state or power to which the vessel itself shall belong.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 20th of July 1820,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty's Royal Predecessors were pleased, from time to time, by their respective Orders made in Council, to declare and signify their pleasure, that their servants should have and enjoy all ancient liberties, rights, and privileges; and that none of their servants in ordinary with fee should be enforced or obliged to bear any public office, serve on juries or inquests, or be subjected into any mulct or fine for not submitting thereunto; His Majesty, this day taking the same into consideration, and thinking it reasonable that all His servants in ordinary with fee, should, in regard of their constant attendance upon His Majesty's Person, enjoy the like privileges with those of His Predecessors, doth therefore hereby order, with the advice of His Privy Council, that the Lord Chamberlain of His Majesty's Household, in relation to such of His Majesty's servants who are under his Lordship's command above stairs; and the Lord Steward of His Majesty's Household, and in his absence, His Majesty's Officers of the Green Cloth, as to such as are accounted Officers below stairs; and the Master of the Horse, for the servants belonging to the stables, do respectively signify unto the Lord Mayor of London, and to His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, within the city of Westminster, counties of Middlesex and Surrey, and to the Mayors, Sheriffs, and Bailiffs, of any corporation, or county, and to all such as may be therein concerned, whensoever there shall be cause for asserting the said privileges; that His Majesty hath thought proper, conformably to the example of His Predecessors in this behalf, to order and require, that His servants should have, hold, and enjoy all the said liberties, rights, and privileges; and that henceforward, none of His servants in ordinary with fee, be enforced or any ways obliged to bear any public offices, serve on juries, or inquests, watch or ward, in any place where they dwell, or elsewhere; nor be subjected to any mulct or fine for not submitting thereunto: And the Lord Chamberlain of His Majesty's Household for those servants above stairs, the Lord Steward of His Majesty's Household, and in his absence, His Majesty's Officers of the Green Cloth for the servants below stairs, and the Master of the Horse for the servants belonging to the stables, are hereby authorised and required to take especial care that this His Majesty's pleasure be duly observed and put in execution; and that His Majesty's Attorney General, for the time being, be, and he is hereby authorised and required, upon any application made to him by any of His Majesty's servants in ordinary with fee, to cause a stop to be put to all proceedings already had or to be commenced, against them or any of them, for refusing to watch or serve on juries, or bear or undergo any public office or employment above-mentioned; and His Majesty doth hereby further order, that copies of this Order be left with the respective Clerks of the Peace of the cities of London and Westminster, and the counties of Middlesex and Surrey, to be kept amongst the records of His Majesty's Sessions, to the intent that due obedience may be given thereunto, and His servants may not be vexed with unreasonable proceedings.

Chetwynd.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 29th of May 1820,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by the Order in Council of the twentieth of November last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder, arms, or ammunition, to the places therein specified, will expire by the thirtieth day of this instant May; and whereas it is expedient, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth day of this instant May), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place within the dominions of the King of Spain, or to any port or place on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places within the dominions of the King of Spain, or into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of salt-petre, and to enforce the law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:"

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Whitehall, August 29, 1820.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto James Vincent Jones, Master of Arts, a Fellow of Jesus College, Oxford, eldest son and heir apparent of John Jones, of Pant Horvel, in the county of Anglesea, Esq. a Captain on the half-pay of the 95th Regiment of Foot, by Jane his wife, daughter and coheir of James Vincent, Clerk, Master of Arts, deceased, late Chancellor of the Cathedral Church of Bangor, and Rector of Llandervy, in the county of Carnarvon, His royal licence and authority to the said James Vincent

Jones, that he and his issue may take and use the surname of Vincent only:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms, otherwise the same to be void and of none effect.

W Hereas by an Act of Parliament, passed in the forty-third year of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled "An Act for permitting certain goods imported into Great Britain to be secured in warehouses without payment of duty," it is, among other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the importer or importers, proprietor or proprietors, consignee or consignees, of any of the goods, wares, or merchandises, enumerated or described in the table thereunto annexed, marked (E), and which shall have been legally imported or brought into the port of London, to lodge and secure in a warehouse or warehouses to be provided for that purpose, any such goods, wares, or merchandise, under the joint locks of the crown and the merchant, without payment at the time of the first entry of the duties of customs due on the importation thereof: and it is by the said recited Act further enacted, that if the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them shall deem it expedient, that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to any goods, wares, and merchandises, not enumerated or described in either of the tables annexed thereto, and should cause a list of such goods, wares, and merchandise, to be published in the London Gazette, then and from thenceforth, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions, of the said Act, shall extend to such goods, wares, and merchandise, in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said tables respectively, at the time of passing the said Act:

We, the undersigned, Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, pursuant to and in execution of the powers vested in us, in and by the said Act, do hereby declare, that it appears to us expedient that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to the articles of legally imported or brought into the port of London (not being imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies); and that such macaroni and vermicelli should be added to the list of goods, wares, and merchandise enumerated and described in the table annexed to the said recited Act, marked (E), and that such macaroni and vermicelli should be lodged and secured at or in such warehouse or warehouses, under the regulations and directions of the said Act: and we do further declare, that from and after the publication of this our certificate in the London Gazette, conformable to the directions of the said Act, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions of the said Act shall extend and be construed to extend to all such macaroni and vermicelli in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the table annexed to the said Act, marked (E), at the time of the passing of the same Act.

Given under our hands at the Treasury Chambers, Whitehall, this 14th day of September 1820,

WIDOWS' PENSIONS.

Notice is hereby given, that all widows who receive pensions from the charity for the relief of the widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy, must send or bring to this Office, between the 20th and 30th of this month, the affidavit required by the rules of the charity, in order to their being inserted on the Pension List, which will be prepared next month, and paid on the 10th of November.

All letters from widows respecting their pensions must state the rank their husbands held in the Navy.

J. W. Croker.

Notice is hereby given of an intended application to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill, for the purpose of obtaining an Act of Parliament for continuing, amending, and enlarging the powers of three Acts of Parliament, viz. an Act passed in the fifty-first year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for constructing an harbour at Porthleven, in Mount's-Bay, in the county of Cornwall;" an Act, passed in the fifty-third year of His said Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for explaining and amending an Act of His present Majesty for constructing an harbour at Porthleven, in Mount's-Bay, in the county of Cornwall;" and an Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His said Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for amending and enlarging the powers of two Acts of His present Majesty for constructing an harbour at Porthleven, in Mount's-Bay, in the county of Cornwall;" and for granting further powers to the directors appointed under the said Acts.—September 12, 1820.

T. G. Vander Gucht, Solicitor, 40, Craven-Street, London.

Notice is hereby given, that an application is intended to be made to Parliament at the next session thereof, for leave to bring in a Bill to continue the term and alter and amend the powers of an Act of Parliament, passed in the forty-first year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to continue for twenty-one years, and from thence to the end of the then next session of Parliament, the term, and alter and amend the powers of an Act, made in the sixteenth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act to continue and render more effectual several Acts of Parliament, for repairing the highways leading to Highgate Gatehouse and Hampstead, and other roads in the said Acts mentioned, in the county of Middlesex; and also to continue and render more effectual an Act, to enable the respective Trustees of the turnpike roads leading to Highgate Gatehouse and Hampstead, and from Saint Giles's Pound to Kilbourne, to make a new road from the Great Northern Road at Islington to the Edgware Road near Paddington, as far as the same is by the said Act directed to be under the care and management of the Trustees of the said first-mentioned Acts; and for making a road from the said new road near Queen's-Row to Bagnigge Wash; and for watching, lighting, and watering the said roads;" and to enable the Trustees of the said last-mentioned Acts to make a new road from Chad's-Row, in the parish of Saint Pancras, to the Northern Road near Paradise-Row, in the parish of Saint Mary, Islington; to widen the High-Street, Islington, and to make a new road from King-Street, Islington, to Pitfield-Street, Hoxton; and to alter and increase the existing tolls, rates, and duties payable on the said roads; which said roads and intended new roads pass from, through, or into the several parishes of Saint Pancras, Saint John (Hampstead), Hornsey, Saint Mary (Islington), Saint Luke, Saint James (Clerkenwell), and Saint Leonard (Shoreditch), in the county of Middlesex.—Dated this 13th day of September 1820.

Notice is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill, in order to obtain an Act of Parliament, for enabling the Company of Proprietors of the Manchester and Salford Water Works to extend the said water works and aqueducts and pipes thereof from the several and respective townships of Beswick, Manchester, and Salford, in the parish of Manchester and county palatine of Lancaster, to the several townships of Hulme, Chorlton-Row, Ardwick, Newton, Cheetham, and Broughton, within the said parish, and to the township of Pendleton, within the parish of Eccles, in the same county; and to make and lay certain cuts, aqueducts and pipes in, through, and from the said several townships of Beswick, Manchester, Salford, Hulme, Chorlton-Row, Ardwick, Newton, Cheetham, Broughton, and Pendleton, for better and more effectually supplying the said several townships of Manchester and Salford with water, and for enabling the said Company of Proprietors to supply with water the said several townships of Hulme, Chorlton-Row, Ardwick, Newton, Cheetham, Broughton, and Pendleton; and to empower the said Company of Proprietors to raise a sum of money to enable them to carry the intended Act into execution; and for amending the powers of the three several Acts of Parliament, the titles of which are hereinafter set forth, that is to say, an Act passed in the forty-ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty, King George the Third, intituled "An Act for more effectually supplying with water the inhabitants of the towns of Manchester and Salford, in the parish of Manchester, in the county palatine of Lancaster," an Act passed in the 53d year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act for enlarging the powers of an Act of His present Majesty for supplying with water the towns of Manchester and Salford, in the county palatine of Lancaster," an Act passed in the fifty-sixth year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act for altering, amending, and extending the powers of two Acts of His present Majesty's reign for supplying with water the inhabitants of the towns of Manchester and Salford, in the parish of Manchester, in the county palatine of Lancaster," and for granting to the said Company of Proprietors further and other powers.

Guildhall, London, September 4, 1820.

Notice is hereby given, that application will be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to authorise the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, to levy tolls upon all horses, carriages, and cattle passing over Blackfriars-Bridge, and to borrow money upon the credit of the said tolls, for the repairing and maintaining the said bridge, or to empower the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons to borrow a certain sum for those purposes upon the credit of, and to be charged upon and repaid out of the fund, commonly called the Orphans Fund, granted and continued by several Acts made in the fifth and sixth years of King William and Queen Mary, the twenty-first year of King George the Second, and the seventh and forty-fourth years of His late Majesty King George the Third; and also to amend and enlarge the powers of an Act made in the twenty-ninth year of King George the Second, and another Act made in the seventh year of His late Majesty King George the Third, for building and completing the said bridge, and which said bridge is situated in the parish of Saint Anne, Blackfriars, in the city of London, and abuts at the south end thereof on the parish of Christ Church, in the county of Surrey.

T. Tyrrell, City Remembrancer.

Intended Navigation of the River Wharfe, from the Town of Tadcaster to the River Ouse.

TAKE notice, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill for amending, improving, and making the River Wharfe navigable, from the town of Tadcaster to its junction with the River Ouse, to pass through and over, and to make locks, dams, and hauling-paths where necessary, on lands within the townships, hamlets, places, or parishes of Kirby Wharfe, Uskelfe, and Cawood, in the liberty of St. Peter of York, and Tadcaster, Grimstone, Ossendike, and Rither, all in the west riding of the county of York; and also Tadcaster, Oxton, Hornington, Bolton, Percy, Nun Appleton, and Acaster Selby, in the county of the city of York.

By order, John Claridge.

Tadcaster, August 24, 1820.

Notice is hereby given, that application is intended to be made in the next session of Parliament, for leave to bring in a Bill or Bills, and obtain an Act or Acts, for confirming a certain charter or letters patent granted to the borough of Maldon, in the county of Essex, and the Burgesses of the same, on the 8th day of October, in the fiftieth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, and the several customs, tolls, liberties, rights, jurisdictions, and franchises therein, or in any former charters mentioned, granted, confirmed, and restored; also for granting, confirming, altering, and regulating the tolls on corn, coals, and merchandise, and other dues of the Corporation of Maldon, in and upon the Rivers Chelmer and Blackwater, and elsewhere within the said borough and port; for regulating the oyster and float fishery, and for repairing, amending, and improving the harbour, haven, port, hythe, wharfs, beacons, rivers, and channels of the said borough, and the two bridges and causeway within the boundaries and precincts thereof.

Wm. Codd, Solicitor.
