TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 19, 1820.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 12th of July 1820,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the first year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to continue until the fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, An Act of the fifty-seventh year of His late Majesty for regulating the trade and commerce to and from the Cape of Good Hope, and for regulating the trade of the Island of Mauritius," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, by any Order or Orders to be issued from time to time, to give such directions, and to make such regulations touching the trade and commerce to and from the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, and the territories and dependences thereof, as to His Majesty in Council shall appear most expedient and salutary, any thing contained in an Act, passed in the twelfth year of the reign of His Majesty King Charles the Second, intituled "An Act for the encouraging and increasing of shipping and navigation;" or in an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His Majesty King William the Third, intituled "An Act for preventing frauds and regulating abuses in the plantation trade," or any other Act or Acts of Parliament now in force relating to His Majesty's colonies and plantations, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament, law, usage, or custom to the contrary, in anywise notwithstanding; His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this present Order, British vessels arriving at any port of the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or of the territories and dependences thereof, from any country in amity with His Majesty, laden with any articles of the growth, production, or manufacture of such country (excepting all articles composed of cotton, iron, steel, or wool of foreign manufacture,) shall be permitted to enter and land their cargoes, and dispose of the same in the said ports, subject to such duties as may be there payable thereon:

And it is further ordered that British vessels arriving as aforesaid shall be permitted to export to any such foreign country in amity with His Majesty, cargoes consisting of any articles of the growth, production, or manufacture of the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or of the territories and dependences thereof, or of any other articles which shall have been legally imported there, on payment of such duties as may be payable thereon:

And it is hereby further ordered, that vessels belonging to the subjects of any foreign state in amity with His Majesty, which foreign state shall allow British vessels to carry on trade as aforesaid between the ports of such state and the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or the territories and dependences thereof, shall be permitted, in like manner, to import into the ports of the said settlements, or of the territories and dependences thereof, from any port of the state to which such vessel shall belong, any articles of the growth, production, or manufacture of such foreign state (excepting all articles composed of cotton, iron, steel, or wool, of foreign manufacture), and to dispose of the same in the ports of the said settlement, or of the territories and dependences thereof, on payment of the same duties as shall be payable on the like articles when imported from such foreign state in British vessels; provided, however, that if higher duties are charged on the export of such goods from any such foreign state to the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or the territories and dependences thereof, in British vessels, than are charged on the export of similar articles to the said settlement, or the territories and dependences thereof, in ships of such foreign state, a countervailing duty, of equal amount, shall be charged on the said articles when imported into the said settlement, or the territories and dependences thereof, in vessels of such foreign state, over and above the duties payable on the like articles when imported from such state in British vessels,

And it is hereby further ordered, that every such foreign vessel shall be permitted to export a cargo consisting of any articles of the growth, production, or manufacture of the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or of the territories and dependencies thereof, or of any other articles which shall have been legally imported there, on payment of a duty of eight per cent. ad valorem over and above the duties charged on the like goods when exported from the said settlement, or the territories and dependencies thereof, to such foreign state in a British vessel; provided, however, that in cases where satisfactory proof shall be given, that the said articles, when imported into such foreign state from the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or the territories and dependencies thereof, in British vessels, are charged with no higher duties than are charged on the like articles when imported in vessels of such foreign state, and that such articles, when imported in British vessels, are entitled to the same privileges and advantages with respect to warehousing and internal consumption, or otherwise, as when imported in vessels of such state, then and in such case no higher duties shall be charged on the export of such articles from the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or the territories and dependencies thereof; in vessels of such foreign state than shall be charged on the export of the like articles in British vessels to such foreign state:

It is, however, hereby further ordered and declared, that no foreign vessel, allowed by the terms of this Order to export a cargo from the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or the territories and dependencies thereof, shall be permitted to export such cargo to any of His Majesty's possessions, or to any other place than a port or place belonging to the state or power to which the vessel itself shall belong.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 12th of July 1820,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the first year of the reign of His present Majesty, intitled "An Act to continue until the fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, an Act of the fifty-seventh year of His late Majesty, for regulating the trade and commerce to and from the Cape of Good Hope, and for regulating the trade of the Island of Mauritius;" His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, by any Order or Orders to be issued from time to time, to give such directions, and to make such regulations touching the trade and commerce to and from all islands, colonies, or places, and the territories and dependencies thereof, to His Majesty belonging, or in His possession, in Africa, or Asia to the eastward of the Cape of Good Hope (excepting only the possessions of the East India Company), as to His Majesty in Council, shall appear most expedient and salutary, any thing contained in an Act, passed in the twelfth year of the reign of His Majesty King Charles the Second, intitled "An Act for the encouraging and increasing of shipping and navigation," or in an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His Majesty King William the Third, intitled "An Act for preventing frauds, and regulating abuses in the plantation trade," or any other Act or Acts of Parliament now in force, relating to His Majesty's colonies and plantations, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament, law, usage or custom to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding; and whereas by virtue of the powers granted by the above recited Act of the fifty-seventh year of His late Majesty, an Order in Council was passed on the twenty-eighth of May one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, for regulating the trade of the Island of Mauritius, with states in amity with His Majesty, on the conditions therein set forth; His Majesty is pleased to direct that the said Order be and the same is hereby revoked; and His Majesty is further pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this present Order, British vessels arriving at any port of the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, from any country in amity with His Majesty, laden with any articles of the growth, production, or manufacture of such country (excepting all articles composed of cotton, iron, steel, or wool of foreign manufacture), shall be permitted to enter and land their cargoes, and dispose of the same in the said ports, subject to such duties as may be there payable thereon:

And it is further ordered, that British vessels arriving as aforesaid, shall be permitted to export to any such foreign country in amity with His Majesty, cargoes consisting of any articles of the growth, production, or manufacture of the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, or of any other articles which shall have been legally imported there, on payment of such duties as may be payable thereon:

And it is hereby further ordered, that vessels belonging to the subjects of any foreign state in amity with His Majesty, which foreign state shall allow British vessels to carry on trade as aforesaid between the ports of such state and the Island of Mauritius, shall be permitted in like manner to import into the ports of the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, from any port of the state to which such vessel shall belong, any articles of the growth, production, or manufacture of such foreign state (excepting all articles composed of cotton, iron, steel, or wool of foreign manufacture), and to dispose of the same in the ports of the said Island and its dependencies, on payment of the same duties as shall be payable on the like articles when imported from such foreign state in British vessels: provided, however, that if higher duties are charged on the export of such goods from any such foreign state, to the Island of Mauritius in British vessels, than are charged on the export of similar articles to the said Island in ships of such foreign state, a countervailing duty of equal amount shall be charged on the said articles when imported into the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, in vessels of such foreign state, over and above the duties payable on the like articles when imported from such state in British vessels :

And it is hereby further ordered, that every such foreign vessel shall be permitted to export a cargo consisting of any articles of the growth, production or manufacture of the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, or of any other articles which shall have been legally imported there, on payment of a duty of eight per cent. ad valorem, over and above the duties charged on the like goods when exported from the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, to such foreign state in a British vessel; provided, however, that in cases where satisfactory proof shall be given that the said articles, when imported into such foreign state from the Island of Mauritius in British vessels, are charged with no higher duties than are charged on the like articles when imported in vessels of such foreign state; and that such articles when imported in British vessels are entitled to the same privileges and advantages with respect to warehousing and internal consumption or otherwise, as when imported in vessels of such state, then and in such case no higher duties shall be charged on the export of such articles from the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, in vessels of such foreign state, than shall be charged on the export of the like articles in British vessels to such foreign state :

It is, however, hereby further ordered and declared, that no foreign vessel, allowed by the terms of this Order to export a cargo from the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, shall be permitted to export such cargo to any of His Majesty's possessions, or to any other place than a port or place belonging to the state or power to which the vessel itself shall belong.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Chetwynd.

Whitehall, September 16, 1820.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto Robert-Charles Ley (heretofore Robert-Charles Greaves), of Ingleby, in the county of Derby, Esq. His royal licence and authority, that he may, in compliance with the last will and testament of Thomas Ley, late of Mayfield, in the county of Stafford, Esq. deceased, continue to use the surname and bear the arms of Ley, and that the said surname and arms may also be borne by his issue male; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Herald's Office, otherwise His Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect :

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms,

WHereas by an Act of Parliament, passed in the forty-third year of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled "An Act for permitting certain goods imported into Great Britain to be secured in warehouses without payment of duty;" it is, among other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the importer or importers, proprietor or proprietors, consignee or consignees, of any of the goods, wares, or merchandises, enumerated or described in the table thereunto annexed, marked (E), and which shall have been legally imported or brought into the port of London, to lodge and secure in a warehouse or warehouses to be provided for that purpose, any such goods, wares, or merchandise, under the joint locks of the crown and the merchant, without payment at the time of the first entry of the duties of customs due on the importation thereof: and it is by the said recited Act further enacted, that if the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them shall deem it expedient, that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to any goods, wares, and merchandises, not enumerated or described in either of the tables annexed thereto, and should cause a list of such goods, wares, and merchandise, to be published in the London Gazette, then and from thenceforth, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions, of the said Act, shall extend to such goods, wares, and merchandise, in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said tables respectively, at the time of passing the said Act :

We, the undersigned, Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, pursuant to and in execution of the powers vested in us, in and by the said Act, do hereby declare, that it appears to us expedient that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to the articles of legally imported or brought into the port of London (not being imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies); and that such macaroni and vermicelli should be added to the list of goods, wares, and merchandise enumerated and described in the table annexed to the said recited Act, marked (E), and that such macaroni and vermicelli should be lodged and secured at or in such warehouse or warehouses, under the regulations and directions of the said Act: and we do further declare, that from and after the publication of this our certificate in the London Gazette, conformable to the directions of the said Act, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions of the said Act shall extend and be construed to extend to all such macaroni and vermicelli in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the table annexed to the said Act, marked (E), at the time of the passing of the same Act.

Given under our hands at the Treasury Chambers, Whitehall, this 14th day of September 1820,

BANKERS' LICENCES.

Stamp-Office, London, September 19, 1820.

Notice is hereby given, that all licences granted to Bankers or others, to issue promissory notes, payable to the bearer on demand, and allowed to be re-issued, will expire on the 10th of October next, and that they must be renewed within one month from that day, or penalties will be incurred.

By order of the Commissioners,
Wm. Kappen, Secretary.

WINTER'S PATENT SEWING MACHINE.

Notice is hereby given, that application is intended to be made in the next Session of Parliament for leave to bring in a Bill for prolonging the term of letters patent, bearing date the twentieth day of February in the forty-seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty, King George the Third, granted by His said late Majesty unto James Winter, of Stoke-under-Hamdon, in the county of Somerset, glove-manufacturer, his executors, administrators, and assigns, for making, using, exercising, and vending, for the term of fourteen years from the date of the said letters patent, a machine invented by the said James Winter for sewing and pointing leather gloves with neatness and strength, much superior to that which is effected by manual labour.

Notice is hereby given of an intended application to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill, for the purpose of obtaining an Act of Parliament for continuing, amending, and enlarging the powers of three Acts of Parliament, viz. an Act passed in the fifty-first year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for constructing an harbour at Porthleven, in Mount's-Bay, in the county of Cornwall;" an Act, passed in the fifty-third year of His said Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for explaining and amending an Act of His present Majesty for constructing an harbour at Porthleven, in Mount's-Bay, in the county of Cornwall;" and an Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His said Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for amending and enlarging the powers of two Acts of His present Majesty for constructing an harbour at Porthleven, in Mount's-Bay, in the county of Cornwall;" and for granting further powers to the directors appointed under the said Acts.—September 12, 1820.

T. G. VanderGucht, Solicitor, 40, Craven-Street, London.

Notice is hereby given, that an application is intended to be made to Parliament at the next session thereof, for leave to bring in a Bill to continue the term and alter and amend the powers of an Act of Parliament, passed in the forty-first year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to continue for twenty-one years, and from thence to the end of the then next session of Parliament, the term, and alter and amend the powers of an Act, made in the sixteenth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act to continue and render more effectual several Acts of Parliament, for repairing the highways leading to Highgate Gatehouse and Hampstead, and other roads in the said Acts mentioned, in the county of Middlesex; and also to continue and render more effectual an Act, to enable the respective Trustees of the turnpike roads leading to Highgate Gatehouse and Hampstead, and from Saint Giles's Pound to Kilbourne, to make a new road from the Great Northern Road at Islington to the Edgware Road near Paddington, as far as the same is by the said Act directed to be under the care and management of the Trustees of the said first-mentioned Acts; and for making a road from the said new road near Queen's-Row to Bagnigge Wash; and for watching, lighting, and watering the said roads;" and to enable the Trustees of the said last-mentioned Acts to make a new road from Chad's-Row, in the parish of Saint Pancras, to the Northern Road near Paradise-Row, in the parish of Saint Mary, Islington; to widen the High-Street, Islington, and to make a new road from King-Street, Islington, to Pitfield-Street, Hoxton; and to alter and increase the existing tolls, rates, and duties payable on the said roads; which said roads and intended new roads pass from, through, or into the several parishes of Saint Pancras, Saint John (Hampstead), Hornsey, Saint Mary (Islington), Saint Luke, Saint James (Clerkenwell), and Saint Leonard (Shoreditch), in the county of Middlesex.—Dated this 13th day of September 1820.

Notice is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill, in order to obtain an Act of Parliament, for enabling the Company of Proprietors of the Manchester and Salford Water Works to extend the said water works and aqueducts and pipes thereof from the several and respective townships of Beswick, Manchester, and Salford, in the parish of Manchester and county palatine of Lancaster, to the several townships of Hulme, Chorlton-Row, Ardwick, Newton, Cheetham, and Broughton, within the said parish, and to the township of Pendleton, within the parish of Eccles, in the same county; and to make and lay certain cuts, aqueducts and pipes in, through, and from the said several townships of Beswick, Manchester, Salford, Hulme, Chorlton-Row, Ardwick, Newton, Cheetham, Broughton, and Pendleton, for better and more effectually supplying the said several townships of Manchester and Salford with water, and for enabling the said Company of Proprietors to supply with water the said several townships of Hulme, Chorlton-Row, Ardwick, Newton, Cheetham, Broughton, and Pendleton; and to empower the said Company of Proprietors to raise a sum of money to enable them to carry the intended Act into execution; and for amending the powers of the three several Acts of Parliament, the titles of which are hereinafter set forth, that is to say, an Act passed in the forty-ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty, King George the Third, intituled "An Act for more effectually supplying with water the inhabitants of the towns of Manchester and Salford, in the parish of Manchester, in the county palatine of Lancaster," an Act passed in the 53d year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act for enlarging the powers of an Act of His present Majesty for supplying with water the towns of Manchester and Salford, in the county palatine of Lancaster," an Act passed in the fifty-sixth year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act for altering, amending, and extending the powers of two Acts of His present Majesty's reign for supplying with water the inhabitants of the towns of Manchester and Salford, in the parish of Manchester, in the county palatine of Lancaster," and for granting to the said Company of Proprietors further and other powers.

Guildhall, London, September 4, 1820.

Notice is hereby given, that application will be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to authorise the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, to levy tolls upon all horses, carriages, and cattle passing over Blackfriars-Bridge, and to borrow money upon the credit of the said tolls, for the repairing and maintaining the said bridge, or to empower the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons to borrow a certain sum for those purposes upon the credit of, and to be charged upon and repaid out of the fund, commonly called the Orphans Fund, granted and continued by several Acts made in the fifth and sixth years of King William and Queen Mary, the twenty-first year of King George the Second, and the seventh and forty-fourth years of His late Majesty King George the Third; and also to amend and enlarge the powers of an Act made in the twenty-ninth year of King George the Second, and another Act made in the seventh year of His late Majesty King George the Third, for building and compleating the said bridge, and which said bridge is situated in the parish of Saint Anne, Blackfriars, in the city of London, and abuts at the southend thereof on the parish of Christ Church, in the county of Surrey.

Rye .....	2	1	6
Wheat .....	8	17	2
Rapeseed .....	3	19	6
Oatmeal .....	0	0	0	Average price per boll on the last six weeks.
Oats .....	1	7	9

And do hereby order and direct, that the said general average prices be published in the London Gazette once in four several weeks immediately succeeding this present Session.

By the Court,
THOMAS SHELTON, Clerk of the Peace.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against John Richard Prat and William Richard Ravenscroft, late of New London-Street, in the City of London, Cornfactors, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, on Saturday the 30th day of September instant, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, at the Counting-House of Mr. Jacob Wrench, in Lower Thames-Street, in the City of London, Seedsman, for the purpose of assenting to or dissenting from certain measures which will be then proposed for investigating and ascertaining the true state of the accounts between the said Bankrupts' estate and certain persons who will be named at the said meeting, and to decide whether any private examinations of persons whose evidence the said Assignees deem material shall take place before the Commissioners named in the said Commission; and to authorize the payment out of the said Bankrupt's estate of counsel's fees, costs and expences of such private examinations, as also of certain other private examinations which have been already had for the discovery of the said Bankrupt's estate, under the joint and separate Commissions awarded against the said Bankrupts; and to authorize the Assignees to sell and dispose of the said Bankrupt's estate, by private sale or public auction, as they may judge proper; also to authorize and empower the said Assignees to take such measures as they may deem desirable for the discovery of the said Bankrupts' estate; and to assent to or dissent from their commencing and prosecuting certain actions and suits at law or in equity for the recovery of any part of the effects of the said Bankrupts; and generally to authorize and empower the said Assignees to act in the management of the said Bankrupts' concerns as they may deem most advisable.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against George Gilchrist and John Macquay Gilchrist, of Liverpool, in the County of Lancaster, Merchants and Copartners, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, on the 10th of October next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the George Inn, Dale Street, in Liverpool, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing and prosecuting a suit in equity against certain persons, to be then and there named, for the recovery of a balance of the proceeds of certain goods sold by the said persons for the said Bankrupts; or to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees submitting their right to claim the said balance to the opinion of two or more Barristers at Law, whose opinion shall partake of the nature of an award, and that the Assignees shall abide by such opinion on the said persons against whom the said claim is made, also agreeing on their part to the like submission.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against John Evans, of the City of Bristol, Hatter, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Saturday the 29th day of September instant, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon precisely, at the Offices of Messrs. Stephens and Goodhind, Small-Street, Bristol, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees entering into any arrangement or agreement with the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes for the City of Bristol, or other the proper person or persons in that behalf, for payment or securing to them the payment of the amount of arrears of assessed taxes received by the said Bankrupt, and at the time of his Bankruptcy remaining unpaid, and for the recovery whereof they, the said Commissioners, pursuant to the directions of the Act or Acts of Parliament in that case made and provided, have caused the stock in trade and other effects of the said Bankrupt to be seized and taken; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of all or any part or parts of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, by public auction or private contract, at or for such price or prices, either in money or upon such credit or security as to the said Assignees shall seem advisable or expedient; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing any accountant, agent, or other person to investigate the accounts and transactions of the said Bankrupt, and to collect and get in the outstanding debts and effects of and belonging to his estate, and to pay and allow him and them, out of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, such salary or remuneration as shall be reasonable and just; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying in full the wages of any servant, shopman, or assistant employed by the said Bankrupt in his said business; and to the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery of any part of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt; or to the compounding for any debt or debts, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Robert Wroats, of Sleaford, in the County of Lincoln, Draper, Dealer and Chapman, are desired to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Monday the 25th day of September instant, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon precisely, at the Office of Messrs.
