TUESDAY, OCTOBER 10, 1820.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 12th of July 1820,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the first year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to continue until the fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, An Act of the fifty-seventh year of His late Majesty for regulating the trade and commerce to and from the Cape of Good Hope, and for regulating the trade of the Island of Mauritius," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, by any Order or Orders to be issued from time to time, to give such directions, and to make such regulations touching the trade and commerce to and from the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, and the territories and dependencies thereof, as to His Majesty in Council shall appear most expedient and salutary, any thing contained in an Act, passed in the twelfth year of the reign of His Majesty King Charles the Second, intituled "An Act for the encouraging and increasing of shipping and navigation;" or in an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His Majesty King William the Third, intituled "An Act for preventing frauds and regulating abuses in the plantation trade," or any other Act or Acts of Parliament now in force relating to His Majesty's colonies and plantations, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament, law, usage, or custom to the contrary, in anywise notwithstanding; His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this present Order, British vessels arriving at any port of the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or of the territories and dependencies thereof, from any country in amity with His Majesty, laden with any articles of the growth, production, or manufacture of such country (excepting all articles composed of cotton, iron, steel, or wool of foreign manufacture,) shall be permitted to enter and land their cargoes, and dispose of the same in the said ports, subject to such duties as may be there payable thereon:

And it is further ordered that British vessels arriving as aforesaid shall be permitted to export to any such foreign country in amity with His Majesty, cargoes consisting of any articles of the growth, production, or manufacture of the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or of the territories and dependencies thereof, or of any other articles which shall have been legally imported there, on payment of such duties as may be payable thereon:

And it is hereby further ordered, that vessels belonging to the subjects of any foreign state in amity with His Majesty, which foreign state shall allow British vessels to carry on trade as aforesaid between the ports of such state and the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or the territories and dependencies thereof, shall be permitted, in like manner, to import into the ports of the said settlements, or of the territories and dependencies thereof, from any port of the state to which such vessel shall belong, any articles of the growth, production, or manufacture of such foreign state (excepting all articles composed of cotton, iron, steel, or wool, of foreign manufacture), and to dispose of the same in the ports of the said settlement, or of the territories and dependencies thereof, on payment of the same duties as shall be payable on the like articles when imported from such foreign state in British vessels; provided, however, that if higher duties are charged on the export of such goods from any such foreign state to the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or the territories and dependencies thereof, in British vessels, than are charged on the export of similar articles to the said settlement, or the territories and dependencies thereof, in ships of such foreign state, a countervailing duty, of equal amount, shall be charged on the said articles when imported into the said settlement, or the territories and dependencies thereof, in vessels of such foreign state, over and above the duties payable on the like articles when imported from such state in British vessels.

And it is hereby further ordered, that every such foreign vessel shall be permitted to export a cargo consisting of any articles of the growth, production, or manufacture of the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or of the territories and dependencies thereof, or of any other articles which shall have been legally imported there, on payment of a duty of eight per cent ad valorem over and above the duties charged on the like goods when exported from the said settlement, or the territories and dependencies thereof, to such foreign state in a British vessel; provided, however, that in cases where satisfactory proof shall be given, that the said articles, when imported into such foreign state from the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or the territories and dependencies thereof, in British vessels, are charged with no higher duties than are charged on the like articles when imported in vessels of such foreign state, and that such articles, when imported in British vessels, are entitled to the same privileges and advantages with respect to warehousing and internal consumption, or otherwise, as when imported in vessels of such state, then and in such case no higher duties shall be charged on the export of such articles from the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or the territories and dependencies thereof, in vessels of such foreign state than shall be charged on the export of the like articles in British vessels to such foreign state:

It is, however, hereby further ordered and declared, that no foreign vessel, allowed by the terms of this Order to export a cargo from the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or the territories and dependencies thereof, shall be permitted to export such cargo to any of His Majesty's possessions, or to any other place than a port or place belonging to the state or power to which the vessel itself shall belong.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 12th of July 1820.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the first year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to continue until the fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, an Act of the fifty-seventh year of His late Majesty, for regulating the trade and commerce to and from the Cape of Good Hope, and for regulating the trade of the Island of Mauritius;" His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, by any Order or Orders to be issued from time to time, to give such directions, and to make such regulations touching the trade and commerce to and from all islands, colonies, or places, and the territories and dependencies thereof, to His Majesty belonging, or in His possession, in Africa, or Asia to the eastward of the Cape of Good Hope (excepting only the possessions of the East India Company), as to His Majesty in Council, shall appear most expedient and salutary, any thing contained in an Act, passed in the twelfth year of the reign of His Majesty King Charles the Second, intituled "An Act for the encouraging and increasing of shipping and navigation," or in an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His Majesty King William the Third, intituled "An Act for preventing frauds, and regulating abuses in the plantation trade," or any other Act or Acts of Parliament now in force, relating to His Majesty's colonies and plantations, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament, law, usage or custom to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding; and whereas by virtue of the powers granted by the above recited Act of the fifty-seventh year of His late Majesty, an Order in Council was passed on the twenty-eighth of May one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, for regulating the trade of the Island of Mauritius, with states in amity with His Majesty, on the conditions therein set forth; His Majesty is pleased to direct that the said Order be and the same is hereby revoked; and His Majesty is further pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this present Order, British vessels arriving at any port of the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, from any country in amity with His Majesty, laden with any articles of the growth, production, or manufacture of such country (excepting all articles composed of cotton, iron, steel, or wool of foreign manufacture), shall be permitted to enter and land their cargoes, and dispose of the same in the said ports, subject to such duties as may be there payable thereon:

And it is further ordered, that British vessels arriving as aforesaid, shall be permitted to export to any such foreign country in amity with His Majesty, cargoes consisting of any articles of the growth, production, or manufacture of the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, or of any other articles which shall have been legally imported there, on payment of such duties as may be payable thereon:

And it is hereby further ordered, that vessels belonging to the subjects of any foreign state in amity with His Majesty, which foreign state shall allow British vessels to carry on trade as aforesaid between the ports of such state and the Island of Mauritius, shall be permitted in like manner to import into the ports of the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, from any port of the state to which such vessel shall belong, any articles of the growth, production, or manufacture of such foreign state (excepting all articles composed of cotton, iron, steel, or wool of foreign manufacture), and to dispose of the same in the ports of the said Island and its dependencies, on payment of the same duties as shall be payable on the like articles when imported from such foreign state in British vessels; provided, however, that if higher duties are charged on the export of such goods from any such foreign state, to the Island of Mauritius in British vessels, than are charged on the export of similar articles to the said Island in ships of such foreign state, a countervailing duty of equal amount shall be charged on the said articles when imported into the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, in vessels of such foreign state, over and above the duties payable on the like articles when imported from such state in British vessels:

And it is hereby further ordered, that every such foreign vessel shall be permitted to export a cargo consisting of any articles of the growth, production or manufacture of the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, or of any other articles which shall have been legally imported there, on payment of a duty of eight per cent. ad valorem, over and above the duties charged on the like goods when exported from the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, to such foreign state in a British vessel; provided, however, that in cases where satisfactory proof shall be given that the said articles, when imported into such foreign state from the Island of Mauritius in British vessels, are charged with no higher duties than are charged on the like articles when imported in vessels of such foreign state; and that such articles when imported in British vessels are entitled to the same privileges and advantages with respect to warehousing and internal consumption or otherwise, as when imported in vessels of such state, then and in such case no higher duties shall be charged on the export of such articles from the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, in vessels of such foreign state, than shall be charged on the export of the like articles in British vessels to such foreign state:

It is, however, hereby further ordered and declared, that no foreign vessel, allowed by the terms of this Order to export a cargo from the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, shall be permitted to export such cargo to any of His Majesty's possessions, or to any other place than a port or place belonging to the state or power to which the vessel itself shall belong.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Chetwynd.

Whitehall, October 4, 1820.

The King has been pleased to grant unto Lieutenant-Colonel Richard Church, Companion of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath, and a Lieutenant-General in the Sicilian Service, His royal licence and permission, that he may accept and wear the insignia of a Commander of the Royal Sicilian Military Order of St. Ferdinand and of Merit, and also the Grand Cross of the Royal Neapolitan Military Order of St. George of the Runion, with which His Sicilian Majesty has been pleased to honour that Officer, in testimony of his royal approbation of the distinguished services rendered by him during the military operations which led to the restoration of that Sovereign to the Throne of Naples; provided nevertheless, that His Majesty's said licence and permission doth not authorise, and shall not be deemed or construed to authorise, the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining unto a Knight Bachelor of these realms:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration, together with the relative documents, be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, September 27, 1820.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto Paul Beilby Lawley, of Burton Cottage, in the county of Salop, Esq. third son of Sir Robert Lawley, Bart. deceased, by Dame Jane Lawley his wife, sister of Beilby Thompson, Esq. also deceased, His royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may (in compliance with an injunction in the last will and testament of his maternal uncle the said Beilby Thompson) assume and use the surname of Thompson, instead of that of Lawley, and also bear the arms of Thompson only; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise His Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Commission in the Central Glamorgan Troop of Cavalry, signed by the Vice-Lieutenant of the County of Glamorgan.

Benjamin Hall, Gent. to be Lieutenant. Dated 19th September 1820.

College of Physicians, September 30, 1820.

IN pursuance of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fourteenth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for regulating mad-houses," notice is hereby given, that the Commissioners appointed for licensing houses for the reception of lunatics within the cities of London and Westminster, and within seven miles of the same, and within the county of Middlesex, will meet at the College of Physicians, in Warwick-Lane, London, on Thursday the 19th day of October next, at twelve of the clock at noon, in order to grant such licences to all persons who shall desire the same, pursuant to the directions of the said Act.

By order of the Commissioners,

R. Powell, M.D. Secretary.

IN obedience to an order of the Court of Lord Mayor and Aldermen, dated the 29th day of September 1820, made in pursuance of an Act of Parliament, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for completing a bridge across the River Thames, from Blackfriars, in the City of London, to the opposite side, in the County of Surrey, and for other purposes therein mentioned;" and of a certain other Act of Parliament made and passed in the fifty-second year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for increasing the Fund for watching, lighting, cleansing, watering, and repairing Blackfriars-Bridge;" I do hereby give notice, that between the hours of ten o'clock in the forenoon and two of the clock in the afternoon, on the 29th day of March next ensuing, at my Office of Chamberlain of the City of London, in Guildhall, London, the principal sums of money, together with all interest due on the said 29th day of March next ensuing, upon the undermentioned bonds, being part of the sum of £156,000, raised by the authority of the aforesaid Act of 7 Geo. 3, under the common seal of this City, and made payable to William Montague, his executors, administrators, or assigns (by indorsement), will then be paid off, at my said Office at Guildhall, to the several and respective person or persons respectively entitled to receive the same; and that from thenceforth the interest on the said bonds will cease and determine. And, in further obedience to the said order, I do hereby give notice, that if the said several persons respectively entitled to the said bonds, or any of them, shall be minded to be paid the said several principal sums, with such interest as may become due in respect thereof, at any time previous to the said 29th of March, and will severally declare such their intention, and the day on which they, or any of them, shall elect to receive the same, in writing, under their hands, and deliver such declaration at my said Office of Chamberlain of the City of London, between the hours of ten in the morning and two in the afternoon, I will, at the expiration of ten days from the delivery of such declaration in writing, at my said Office, pay to the several persons the principal sums respectively due to them in discharge of the said bonds, together with all interest as shall on the day specified in such declaration for the payment thereof have become due thereon; and which interest or annuity will, upon the said day expressed in such declaration for payment, cease and determine; viz.

Two hundred and nineteen bonds, Nos. 196 to 414, both inclusive.

Richard Clark, Chamberlain

Guildhall, October 6, 1820.

Office for Taxes, Somerset-Place,
October 10, 1820.

Pursuant to Acts, passed in the forty-second and fifty-third years of His late Majesty's reign, notice is hereby given, that the price of the Three per Centum Consolidated Bank Annuities, sold at the Bank of England this day, was £67 and under £68 per Centum.

By order of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes,
Matt. Winter, Secretary.

Exchequer Bill Office, October 10, 1820

TO BE PAID OFF,

All Exchequer Bills dated in the Months of April, May, June, July, August, September, and October 1819, viz. Supply 1818, £11,600,000; and Supply 1819, £20,000,000. Also all Exchequer Bills made out pursuant to Acts 57 Geo. 3. cap. 34 and cap. 124, for issuing Exchequer Bills for carrying on of Public Works and Fisheries.

THE Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having given directions for paying off the principal of the above-mentioned Exchequer Bills, with the interest due thereon, at the Exchequer Bill Office in the Receipt of Exchequer, New Palace-Yard, Westminster, on Monday the 30th day of October instant, attendance will be given daily (Sundays and holidays excepted) until, and including, Wednesday the 25th instant, from ten o'clock in the morning till one o'clock in the afternoon, for the purpose of receiving the same. And, for the greater dispatch, the bearers of the said bills are desired to place each description of bills in separate lists (which are to be obtained at this Office), classing them in the order of their respective dates, such as are for the same amount being numerically arranged, and specifying the principal sums and interest due thereon, computed from, but excluding the days on which they are respectively dated, to the said 30th day of October inclusive, when the interest will cease; and the said bearers, should they be acting as the agents of holders whose names are inserted in the bills, are previously to procure the endorsements of such holders; and the bearers are also indispensably required to indorse each bill with their usual signatures, and to write their names and residence at the bottom of each separate list; and they are moreover required to attend the Exchequer Bill Office for payment, and to receive the new bills, and give the receipts for the same.

If any of the holders of the aforesaid bills should be desirous of receiving payment of the principal and interest, previous to the said 30th day of October, they may be accommodated on computing the interest to the day on which they wish to be paid, and leaving the said bills for examination one day prior thereto.

Such persons as may be desirous of having new Exchequer Bills in whole or in part of payment of principal, upon marking new bills, and mentioning the amount at the bottom of their lists; delivered on or before Wednesday the 25th instant, may be accommodated with new bills, payable to or order, carrying an interest of two pence by the day, on every one hundred pounds, which said new bills will bear date the said 30th day of October, and will be delivered, together with the interest due in respect of the bills so desired to be exchanged, on Tuesday the 31st day of October, and the following days.

The Exchequer Bills to be issued in exchange and made payable to or order, as above-mentioned, may be either transferred by endorsement, or will be paid to the bearer if the blank shall not be filled up.

N.B. All Exchequer Bills dated prior to April 1819, have been advertised to be paid off.

CONTRACT FOR CLOTH JACKETS, AND FLANNEL WAISTCOATS AND DRAWERS.

				Average price per quarter on the last twelve weeks.

And do hereby order and direct, that the said general average prices be published in the London Gazette once in four several weeks immediately succeeding this present Session.

By the Court,

THOMAS SHELTON, Clerk of the Peace.

High Court of Chancery of Maryland, in the United States of America.

Oxley and Hancock versus the Heirs of Frank Leeke.

(In Chancery, July Term 1820.)

IT is ordered by the Chief Judge of the Third Judicial District in this case, that the Creditors of the said Frank Leeke be required to be, and appear in this Court, to be holden in Annapolis in July 1821, to receive their dividends on said estate, in default of which the said sum will be distributed among the heirs and representatives of said deceased, provided a copy of this Order be published in the National Intelligencer and in the London Gazette for the space of three months before that time.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission and Renewed Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Jonathan Docker, late of Ludworth, in the Parish of Mellor, in the County of Derby, Thread-Manufacturer, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the present Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Friday the 20th day of October instant, at Eleven o'clock in the Forenoon, at the Office of Mr. James Chetham, Attorney at Law, in Bridge-Street, in Stockport, in the County of Chester, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling or disposing, by public sale or private contract as the said Assignees shall think proper, of the interest of the said Bankrupt in a certain bond, dated the 18th day of August 1808, given to him the said Bankrupt for securing the sum of 800l. and interest, at the rate and by the instalments therein mentioned; and further to assent to or dissent from what sum or sums of money the said Bankrupt shall be allowed, out of his estate, for the service he has rendered the said Assignees in and about the recovering, obtaining, and getting in of his estate and effects with other matters relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against William Orme, of the Borough of Southwark, in the County of Surrey, Distiller, Dealer and Chapman, are desired to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Wednesday the 18th day of October instant, at Twelve o'clock at Noon, at the George and Vulture Tavern, Cornhill, London, in order to take into consideration the circumstance of the Bankrupt having obtained a verdict for a considerable sum of money, which will soon be in course of payment; and to authorise the said Assignees to act on the occasion in such manner as the Creditors may think expedient; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt lately awarded and issued against Robert Portlock, of Andover, in the County of Hants, Coach-Maker, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Thursday the 12th day of October instant, at Five of the Clock in the Evening precisely, at the House of Messrs. Ives, Sargson and Mann, in Little Queen-Street, Lincoln's Inn Fields, London, Varnish Manufacturers, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling any real copyhold or leasehold estate, and any annuity or annuities or any other personal estate, stock in trade or other effects of the said Bankrupt, or in which he may have any interest, either by public sale or private contract; also to the commencing any action or actions at law or instituting any suit or suits in equity against any person or persons to be named at such meeting or otherwise, or to the said Assignees deputing any fit person or persons to investigate the accounts of the said Bankrupt; as also otherwise for investigating the situation of his estate and effects and for the collecting and getting in the debts due to his estate; and also to their commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Charles Daniel Lander, late of Coleman-Street, in the City of London, Painter and Glazier, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, at the Office of Messrs. Ormel and Lander, Solicitors, No. 12, Finch-Lane, Cornhill, on Saturday the 14th instant, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees accepting a composition from one of the debtors to the said Bankrupt's estate, of the sum of six shillings in the pound upon the debt due to the said Bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees signing a deed of composition upon receiving the said sum of six shillings in the pound; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Charles Moody, late of Hitchin, in the County of Herts, Maltster, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Friday the 20th day of October instant, at One o'clock in the Afternoon precisely, at the Office of Messrs. Milne and Parry, No. 1, Tanfield-Court, Temple, London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto. And whereas, the said Charles Moody (previous to his Bankruptcy), and Thomas Whitmarsh, of Blackheath-Road, Greenwich, in the County of Kent, Merchant, contracted and agreed with one John Every, of Portsea, in the County of Hants, Merchant, for the absolute sale and assignment to him of all that messuage or tenement and piece or parcel of ground and brew-house thereon erected, situate in the Parish of St. George the Martyr, Southwark, in the County of Surrey, together with all the goodwill of the trade or business of a brewer, then carried on by the said Thomas Whitmarsh, on the said premises; and also all and every the plant, utensils, implements of trade, fixtures and effects in, upon and about the said premises. And whereas, some difficulties have arisen as to carrying the said contract into effect, and a proposition having been made to the said Assignees on behalf of the said Thomas Whitmarsh and John Every, that the said messuage or tenement, brew-house and premises hereinbefore mentioned shall be sold by public auction or private contract, and that out of the proceeds of such sale the sum of 650l. the amount already paid by the said John Every, on account of his purchase-money, be first paid to the said John Every, and the remainder of the proceeds of such sale be paid unto the said Assignees on their releasing the said Thomas Whitmarsh from all further demands; the Creditors who have proved debts under the said Commission are to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees accepting the said proposition, and in the event of such proposition being rejected they are to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing and prosecuting a suit in equity against the necessary parties for a specific performance of the said contract, or otherwise as may be deemed necessary; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Thomas Ward, of Towcester, in the County of Northampton, Lace-Dealer, Dealer and Chapman, are desired to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on the 16th of October instant, at Ten in the Forenoon, at the Office of Mr. Arthur Clarke, Solicitor, Bishop-gate-Church-Yard, to assent to and authorise or dissent from the said Assignees selling, by public auction or by private contract as they shall see best, the lease of the Bankrupt's premises at Towcester; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.
