SATURDAY, OCTOBER 21, 1820.

By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, R.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to provide for a new silver coinage, and to regulate the gold and silver currency of this realm," the Master and Worker of Our Mint in London was authorised and empowered to coin, or cause to be coined, silver bullion into silver coins, consisting of crowns, half crowns, shillings, and sixpences, of the standard of eleven ounces and two penny weights of fine silver, and eighteen penny weights of alloy to the pound troy, and in weight after the rate of sixty-six shillings to the pound troy: and whereas in virtue of the powers so given, a coinage of half crowns (in addition to the coinage of the other denominations of silver monies), at the rate of sixty-six shillings to the pound troy, and of the standard of fineness above-mentioned, every such half crown piece having for the obverse impression Our effigies or portraiture, with the inscription "Georgius III, D. G. Britanniar: Rex F. D.:" and for the reverse the ensigns armorial of Our United Kingdom, contained in a shield surmounted by Our Royal Crown, the Rose, Thistle, and Shamrock, being placed round the shield with the word "Anno" and the date of the year, and the edge of the piece being marked with the graining used on the coins of His late Majesty, has been delivered from Our Mint to the Bank of England, and will be issued therefrom for the use of Our subjects: We have therefore, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, thought fit to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, and we do hereby ordain, declare, and command, that the said pieces of silver money shall from and after the day of the date of this Our Proclamation be current and lawful money of Our Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and shall pass and be received as current and lawful money of Our said Kingdom, that is to say, such half crown pieces as of the value of two shillings and sixpence in all payments and transactions of money.

Given at Our Court at Carlton-House, this twentieth day of October one thousand eight hundred and twenty, and in the first year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 12th of July 1820,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the first year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to continue until the fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, An Act of the fifty-seventh year of His late Majesty for regulating the trade and commerce to and from the Cape of Good Hope, and for regulating the trade of the Island of Mauritius," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, by any Order or Orders to be issued from time to time, to give such directions, and to make such regulations touching the trade and commerce to and from the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, and the territories and dependencies thereof, as to His Majesty in Council shall appear most expedient and salutary, any thing contained in an Act, passed in the twelfth year of the reign of His Majesty King Charles the Second, intituled "An Act for the encouraging and increasing of shipping and navigation;" or in an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His Majesty King William the Third, intituled "An Act for preventing frauds and regulating abuses in the plantation trade," or any other Act or Acts of Parliament now in force relating to His Majesty's colonies and plantations, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament, law, usage, or custom to the contrary, in anywise notwithstanding; His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this present Order, British vessels arriving at any port of the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or of the territories and dependencies thereof, from any country in amity with His Majesty, laden with any articles of the growth, production, or manufacture of such country (excepting all articles composed of cotton, iron, steel, or wool of foreign manufacture,) shall be permitted to enter and land their cargoes, and dispose of the same in the said ports, subject to such duties as may be there payable thereon:

And it is further ordered that British vessels arriving as aforesaid shall be permitted to export to any such foreign country in amity with His Majesty, cargoes consisting of any articles of the growth, production, or manufacture of the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or of the territories and dependencies thereof, or of any other articles which shall have been legally imported there, on payment of such duties as may be payable thereon:

And it is hereby further ordered, that vessels belonging to the subjects of any foreign state in amity with His Majesty, which foreign state shall allow British vessels to carry on trade as aforesaid between the ports of such state and the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or the territories and dependencies thereof, shall be permitted, in like manner, to import into the ports of the said settlements, or of the territories and dependencies thereof, from any port of the state to which such vessel shall belong, any articles of the growth, production, or manufacture of such foreign state (excepting all articles composed of cotton, iron, steel, or wool, of foreign manufacture), and to dispose of the same in the ports of the said settlement, or of the territories and dependencies thereof, on payment of the same duties as shall be payable on the like articles when imported from such foreign state in British vessels; provided, however, that if higher duties are charged on the export of such goods from any such foreign state to the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or the territories and dependencies thereof, in British vessels, than are charged on the export of similar articles to the said settlement, or the territories and dependencies thereof, in ships of such foreign state, a countervailing duty, of equal amount, shall be charged on the said articles when imported into the said settlement, or the territories and dependencies thereof, in vessels of such foreign state, over and above the duties payable on the like articles when imported from such state in British vessels.

And it is hereby further ordered, that every such foreign vessel shall be permitted to export a cargo consisting of any articles of the growth, production, or manufacture of the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or of the territories and dependencies thereof, or of any other articles which shall have been legally imported there, on payment of a duty of eight per cent ad valorem over and above the duties charged on the like goods when exported from the said settlement, or the territories and dependencies thereof, to such foreign state in a British vessel; provided, however, that in cases where satisfactory proof shall be given, that the said articles, when imported into such foreign state from the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or the territories and dependencies thereof, in British vessels, are charged with no higher duties than are charged on the like articles when imported in vessels of such foreign state, and that such articles, when imported in British vessels, are entitled to the same privileges and advantages with respect to warehousing and internal consumption, or otherwise, as when imported in vessels of such state, then and in such case no higher duties shall be charged on the export of such articles from the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or the territories and dependencies thereof, in vessels of such foreign state than shall be charged on the export of the like articles in British vessels to such foreign state:

It is, however, hereby further ordered and declared, that no foreign vessel, allowed by the terms of this Order to export a cargo from the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or the territories and dependencies thereof, shall be permitted to export such cargo to any of His Majesty's possessions, or to any other place than a port or place belonging to the state or power to which the vessel itself shall belong.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain. Chetwynd.

At the Court at Carlton-House, the 12th of July 1820.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the first year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to continue until the fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, an Act of the fifty-seventh year of His late Majesty, for regulating the trade and commerce to and from the Cape of Good Hope, and for regulating the trade of the Island of Mauritius;" His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His

Privy Council, by any Order or Orders to be issued from time to time, to give such directions, and to make such regulations touching the trade and commerce to and from all islands, colonies, or places, and the territories and dependencies thereof, to His Majesty belonging, or in His possession, in Africa, or Asia to the eastward of the Cape of Good Hope (excepting only the possessions of the East India Company), as to His Majesty in Council, shall appear most expedient and salutary, any thing contained in an Act, passed in the twelfth year of the reign of His Majesty King Charles the Second, intituled "An Act for the encouraging and increasing of shipping and navigation," or in an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His Majesty King William the Third, intituled "An Act for preventing frauds, and regulating abuses in the plantation trade," or any other Act or Acts of Parliament now in force, relating to His Majesty's colonies and plantations, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament, law, usage or custom to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding; and whereas by virtue of the powers granted by the above recited Act of the fifty-seventh year of His late Majesty, an Order in Council was passed on the twenty-eighth of May one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, for regulating the trade of the Island of Mauritius, with states in amity with His Majesty, on the conditions therein set forth; His Majesty is pleased to direct that the said Order be and the same is hereby revoked; and His Majesty is further pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this present Order, British vessels arriving at any port of the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, from any country in amity with His Majesty, laden with any articles of the growth, production, or manufacture of such country (excepting all articles composed of cotton, iron, steel, or wool of foreign manufacture), shall be permitted to enter and land their cargoes, and dispose of the same in the said ports, subject to such duties as may be there payable thereon:

And it is further ordered, that British vessels arriving as aforesaid, shall be permitted to export to any such foreign country in amity with His Majesty, cargoes consisting of any articles of the growth, production, or manufacture of the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, or of any other articles which shall have been legally imported there, on payment of such duties as may be payable thereon:

And it is hereby further ordered, that vessels belonging to the subjects of any foreign state in amity with His Majesty, which foreign state shall allow British vessels to carry on trade as aforesaid between the ports of such state and the Island of Mauritius, shall be permitted in like manner to import into the ports of the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, from any port of the state to which such vessel shall belong, any articles of the growth, production, or manufacture of such foreign state (excepting all articles composed of cotton, iron, steel, or wool of foreign manufacture), and to dispose of the same in the ports of the said Island and its dependencies, on payment of the same duties as shall be payable on the like articles when imported from such foreign state in British vessels: provided, however, that if higher duties are charged on the export of such goods from any such foreign state, to the Island of Mauritius in British vessels, than are charged on the export of similar articles to the said Island in ships of such foreign state, a countervailing duty of equal amount shall be charged on the said articles when imported into the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, in vessels of such foreign state, over and above the duties payable on the like articles when imported from such state in British vessels:

And it is hereby further ordered, that every such foreign vessel shall be permitted to export a cargo consisting of any articles of the growth, production or manufacture of the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, or of any other articles which shall have been legally imported there, on payment of a duty of eight per cent. ad valorem, over and above the duties charged on the like goods when exported from the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, to such foreign state in a British vessel; provided, however, that in cases where satisfactory proof shall be given that the said articles, when imported into such foreign state from the Island of Mauritius in British vessels, are charged with no higher duties than are charged on the like articles when imported in vessels of such foreign state; and that such articles when imported in British vessels are entitled to the same privileges and advantages with respect to warehousing and internal consumption or otherwise, as when imported in vessels of such state, then and in such case no higher duties shall be charged on the export of such articles from the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, in vessels of such foreign state, than shall be charged on the export of the like articles in British vessels to such foreign state:

It is, however, hereby further ordered and declared, that no foreign vessel, allowed by the terms of this Order to export a cargo from the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, shall be permitted to export such cargo to any of His Majesty's possessions, or to any other place than a port or place belonging to the state or power to which the vessel itself shall belong.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

WHEREAS William Fletcher, alias Franklin, stands charged, upon the oath of Arthur Seale, with having employed him to print divers seditious and inflammatory libels, which were accordingly printed and afterwards published, and the said William Fletcher, alias Franklin, hath absconded, a reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered for the apprehension of the said William Fletcher, alias Franklin, to be paid upon his being brought in custody to the Public-Office, Bow-Street.

SIDMOUTH.

The said William Fletcher, alias Franklin, lately resided at Clarendon-Place, Edgeware-Road, and his description is as follows:—He is a stout man, about forty-five years of age, ruddy complexion, about five feet six or seven inches in height, and has two swellings, one on the top and the other on the side of the head: he was dressed, when he absconded, in a blue coat, buff waistcoat, lightdrab breeches, and gaiters of the same colour; he also wore a dark brown great coat, with a velvet collar.—He is of very smart appearance.

Whitehall, October 21, 1820.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Majesty, that five men with their faces blackened, did, on Tuesday night the 17th of October instant, feloniously break into and enter the dwelling-house of Mr. William Cotton, of Easton, in the county of Suffolk, and did steal and carry away divers quantities of linen and wearing apparel, and did also break open several chests, boxes, &c. and take therefrom plate and monies to a considerable amount, and at the same time did threaten
Mrs. Cotton and his sister to take away their lives:
His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his, accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person or persons who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.—The above reward to be paid on conviction by the said William Cotton, of Easton aforesaid.

Admiralty-Office, October 17, 1820.

THIS is to give notice to all whom it may concern, that Messrs. Clark and Taylor, of Whitby Colliery, near North Shields, have, in pursuance of the Act of the 46 Geo. 3. cap. 158, given me notice, dated the 13th instant, of their intention forthwith to erect a branch spout or geers at the Lowlights, situated on the River Tyne, for the purpose of shipping coals only.

John Barrow.

Admiralty-Office, October 17, 1820.

THIS is to give notice to all whom it may concern, that Mr. J. Acton, of Ipswich, hath, in pursuance of the Act of the 46 Geo. 3. cap. 158, given me notice, dated the 26th June last and the 3d instant, of his intention of erecting a quay or wharf, for the protection of certain buildings, &c. situate close to the River Ouse, at Lynn, in Norfolk, the property of Mrs. Hogg, for whom he is trustee.

The Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

After our hearty commendations—having considered the foregoing scheme of the sixth lottery for the year 1819, to be drawn pursuant to the provisions of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, we do hereby signify to you our consent and approbation thereof.

Whitehall, Treasury-Chambers, this 19th day of October 1820,

LIVERPOOL

N. VANSITTART.

LOWTHER.

To the Commissioners of the Lottery.

Notice is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament for an Act to amend and enlarge the powers and provisions of the several Acts relating to the Hackney-roads, that is to say, one Act, passed in the eleventh year of the reign of King George the Second, intituled "An Act for repairing the road from Shoreditch-Church, through Hackney, to Stanford-hill, and cross Cambridge-heath, over Bethnal-green, to the turnpike at Mile-End, in the county of Middlesex;" another Act, passed in the twenty-sixth year of the same reign, intituled "An Act for enlarging the term and powers granted by an Act, made in the eleventh year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for repairing the road from Shoreditch-Church, through Hackney, to Stanford-hill, and cross Cambridge-heath, over Bethnal-green, to the turnpike at Mile-End, in the county of Middlesex;" another Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the same reign, intituled "An Act for explaining and amending two Acts of Parliament, one made in the eleventh year of His Majesty's reign, "for repairing the road from Shoreditch-Church, through Hackney, to Stanford-hill, and cross Cambridge-heath over Bethnal-green, to the turnpike at Mile-End, in the county of Middlesex, and the other made in the twenty-sixth year of His Majesty's reign, "for enlarging the term and powers granted by the said former Act, and for empowering the Trustees to erect and maintain lamps, and keep a guard upon the said roads in the night time," another Act, passed in the twenty-second year of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled "An Act to enlarge the term and powers of several Acts, passed in the eleventh, twenty-sixth, and twenty-ninth years of the reign of His Majesty King George the second "for repairing the road from Shoreditch-Church, through Hackney, to Stanford-hill, and cross Cambridge-heath over Bethnal-green, to the turnpike at Mile-End, in the county of Middlesex;" and another Act, passed in the forty-second year of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled "An Act to continue the term and alter and enlarge the powers of several Acts, passed in the eleventh, twenty-sixth, and twenty-ninth years of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, and in the twenty-second year of the reign of His present Majesty, for repairing the road from Shoreditch Church, through Hackney to Stanford-Hill and cross Cambridge-Heath over Bethnal-Green, to the turnpike at Mile-End, in the county of Middlesex;" and also another Act, passed in the fifty-fourth year of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled "An Act for extending the powers of the several Acts for maintaining the turnpike road from Shoreditch Church through Hackney to Stamford-Hill, in the county of Middlesex, to a new branch of road leading from Kingsland-Green into the above-mentioned turnpike road at Hackney;" and that it is intended to repeal the said Acts, and to obtain one new Act instead thereof; and that it is also intended to alter the existing tolls on the said roads, and also to widen certain parts of the said road, that is to say, at Church-Street, in the parish of Saint John at Hackney, and near Shoreditch Church, in the parish of Saint Leonard, Shoreditch; and that the said roads lay in or pass through the parishes of Saint John at Hackney, the parish of Saint Matthew, Bethnal-Green, and the parish of Saint Leonard, Shoreditch, in the county of Middlesex.

William Langmore, Clerk to the Trustees.

Cutting Tickets of Sixth Lottery 1819.

Lottery-Office, Somerset-Place,
October 21, 1820.

THE Managers and Directors of the Lotteries do hereby give notice, that numbers of tickets and shares thereof in all preceding lotteries may be examined at this Office every day, between the hours of ten and three, with their registers of benefits and blanks.

And the said Managers and Directors do hereby give further notice, that they will cut off the first one thousand seven hundred number tickets to be put into the wheel, and the benefit and blank tickets of the whole of the sixth lottery for the year 1819, on Wednesday the 8th day of November next, and the one thousand seven hundred tickets to be afterwards put into the wheel, on Tuesday the 21st day of November next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon of each day, at this Office, beginning first, on Wednesday the 8th day of November next, with the benefit and blank tickets, which are to be cut into box B, and continuing on that day, and also on the said 21st day of November next, until all the said tickets for each of the said boxes are completely cut therein according to the scheme of the said lottery.

And the said Managers and Directors do hereby also give further notice, that they will attend and oversee the drawing of the tickets of the said sixth lottery for 1819, on Wednesday the 15th and Tuesday the 28th days of November next, at Coopers'-Hall, in Basinghall-Street, within the City of London.

Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich,
April 29, 1820.

THE Commissioners and Governors of the said Hospital hereby give notice, that, on Saturday the 4th day of November next, or as soon after as conveniently may be, the undermentioned farms will be let on leases, to commence upon the several days, and for the term of years hereinafter respectively mentioned, that is to say,

Rodenbroek, deceased, to appear at the bar of the Court of Civil Justice of this Colony at their Session, which will be held in the month of January 1821, for the purpose of there rendering in their respective claims, properly substantiated, and in due form and time, against above-named estate; whereas in default of which, and after the expiration of the fourth and last edictal, will be proceeded against the non-appearing according to law.

This first summons by edict, published as customary.—Berbice, 4th July 1820. K. FRANCKEN, First Marshal.

HANTS.—GOSPORT AND BROCKHURST.

TO be sold by auction, by order of the Commissioners and Assignees, and before the major part of the Commissioners named and authorised in and by a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued against James Nation, of Gosport, in the County of Southampton, Victualler (a Bankrupt), by Parrey, Son, and Elliott, at the Crown Inn, in Gosport, on Wednesday the 25th day of October instant, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, the following valuable property, in three lots:

Lot 1. All that freehold messuage or dwelling-house, being a public-house, called the Green Dragon, with the yard, out-houses, and appurtenances thereto belonging, being No. 45, situate near the lower end, and on the north side of the North-Street, in Gosport, now in the occupation of Mr. Rust, as tenant at will.

Lot 2. All those two now erected freehold messuages or dwelling-houses, with the yards, garden, cart-house, stable, brew-house, malt-house, and other out-houses and appurtenances thereto belonging, situate at Brockhurst, in the Parish of Alverstoke, on the north side of the London turnpike-road, and about a mile and a half from the Town of Gosport, and in the several occupations of Mr. Fitzmaurice and Mr. Nation, as tenants at will.

Lot 3. A pew, being No. 24, in the north aisle of the chapel of Gosport.

For particulars apply to Mr. T. A. Minchin, Solicitor, Gosport; and at St. George's-Square, Portsea; Mr. Compigne, Solicitor, Gosport; Mr. T. Minchin, 3. Verulam-Buildings, Gray's-Inn, London; and to the Auctioneers, Idol-Lane, Tower-Street, London.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against William Law, of Cophall-Chambers, Throgmorton-Street, in the City of London, Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on the 2d day of November next, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon, at the Office of Messrs. Laub and Mann, 26, Princes-Street, Bank of England, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling, by private contract, or otherwise disposing of the said Bankrupt's reversionary interest in a leasehold house, situate in Portland-Place, in the Parish of Saint Mary-le-Bone, in the County of Middlesex.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Edward Dunn, of Wolsley, in the Parish of Colwich, in the County of Stafford, Innkeeper, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Friday the 27th day of October instant, at Twelve of the Clock at Noon, at the house of Mr. Thomas Dunn, the Swan Inn, in the City of Litchfield, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees joining in conveying the freehold estate of the said Bankrupt, situate at Cross Hays, in the Parish of Yoxall, in the said County of Stafford, with Peter Griffin, of Colwich aforesaid, Farmer, the Mortgagee of the freehold estate, to Mr. John Tunnicliffe, of Yarlet, in the said County of Stafford, another Mortgagee of the said freehold estate, the said two principal sums now secured to the said two Mortgagees being more than the actual value of the said premises; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees, and all other proper parties, executing a conveyance or conveyances thereof to the said John Tunnicliffe accordingly; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Edward Toilervey, late of Westbourne, in the County of Sussex, Miller, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Monday the 30th day of October instant, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon, at the Office of Mr. Kirkman, Clerk to the said Commission, 21, Cannon-Street, London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees compromising with certain persons, to be named at the said meeting, who have levied executions upon the Bankrupt's property in Sussex and in Hampshire, and to their paying to such persons a certain sum of money, to be specified at the meeting, out of the said Bankrupt's estate, as a consideration for withdrawing and waiving the said executions; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing a surveyor, to be named at the meeting, to make an estimate and valuation of the Bankrupt's real estates for the purpose of ascertaining the value of the said estates beyond the amount of the several sums of money for which the said estates are severally mortgaged, and the interest on such mortgages, and to their paying to such surveyor, out of the said Bankrupt's estates, such remuneration for his trouble as to the said Assignees may seem reasonable; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, and defending, at the costs of the said Bankrupt's estate, any action and actions at law and suit and suits in equity, for recovery of the Bankrupt's estate and effects, and for protecting and defending the same as to the said Assignees may seem proper; and also to the said Assignees compounding any debt or debts due to the said Bankrupt's estate; and also to their submitting to arbitration, or otherwise compromising or compounding any other doubt, question, or difficulty relating to or respecting the Bankrupt's estate and effects as to the said Assignees may seem proper; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Henry White, of Warminster, in the County of Wilts, Linen-Draper, Dealer and Chapman, are desired to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Tuesday the 24th day of October instant, at the Office of Messrs. Courteen and Robinson, Solicitors, 32, Walbrook, in the City of London, to take into consideration a claim made by one of the petitioning Creditors on account of loss of time and expenses whilst remaining in London to open the said Commission, and also in endeavouring to discover the Bankrupt's property; and also to assent to the said Assignees paying such petitioning Creditor any sum of money in respect thereof, or to dissent therefrom.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Ronald Macdonald and John Waring, both of Liverpool, in the County of Lancaster, Merchants, Dealers, Chapmen, and Copartners (heretofore carrying on trade under the firm of Macdonald and Waring), are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Friday the 27th day of October instant, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, at the Office of Mr. Cartwright, Statham's Buildings, Lord-Street, Liverpool, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing and prosecuting a suit in Chancery and other proceedings at law or in equity, for the recovery of a ship, called the Anna Robertson, and certain sums of money due in respect of freight (which ship is now in the London Docks), or for the recovery of certain parts of the said ship and freight, and the said Creditors will be then and there requested to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees submitting their claim to the said ship and freight, or to any part of the same to arbitration; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees now or at any time hereafter compounding or otherwise agreeing in regard to the same ship and freight; and on other special affairs.
