By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, R.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to provide for a new silver coinage, and to regulate the gold and silver currency of this realm," the Master and Worker of Our Mint in London was authorised and empowered to coin, or cause to be coined, silver bullion into silver coins, consisting of crowns, half crowns, shillings, and sixpences, of the standard of eleven ounces and two penny weights of fine silver, and eighteen penny weights of alloy to the pound troy, and in weight after the rate of sixty-six shillings to the pound troy; and whereas in virtue of the powers so given, a coinage of half crowns (in addition to the coinage of the other denominations of silver monies), at the rate of sixty-six shillings to the pound troy, and of the standard of fineness above-mentioned, every such half crown piece having for the obverse impression Our effigies or portraiture, with the inscription "Georgius III, D. G. Britanniar: Rex F. D.:" and for the reverse the ensigns armorial of Our United Kingdom, contained in a shield surmounted by Our Royal Crown, the Rose, Thistle, and Shamrock, being placed round the shield with the word "Anno" and the date of the year, and the edge of the piece being marked with the graining used on the coins of His late Majesty, has been delivered from Our Mint to the Bank of England, and will be issued therefrom for the use of Our subjects: We have therefore, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, thought fit to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, and we do hereby ordain, declare, and command, that the said pieces of silver money shall from and after the day of the date of this Our Proclamation be current and lawful money of Our Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and shall pass and be received as current and lawful money of Our said Kingdom, that is to say, such half crown pieces as of the value of two shillings and sixpence in all payments and transactions of money.

Given at Our Court at Carlton-House, this twentieth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and twenty, and in the first year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

Whitehall, October 13, 1820.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto Amy Andrews, of Islington, in the county of Middlesex, widow and relict of Thomas Andrews, late of Hoxton, in the same county, Gentleman, deceased, His Majesty's royal licence and authority, that she may take and use the surname and bear the arms of Woodward only, in compliance with an Injunction contained in the last will and testament of her only son, Richard Woodward (formerly Richard Andrews), late of Islington aforesaid, Esq. deceased, bearing date the 17th day of April 1819; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Herald's Office, otherwise the said royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to order, that this His Majesty's concession and declaration be registered in His College of Arms.

Whitehall, October 24, 1820.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto Robert Aldridge, of Cork, in that part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called Ireland, Esq. Collector of His Majesty's Customs at that port, His royal licence and permission that he may in compliance with a proviso contained in the last will and testament of the Rev. William-Beaumont Busby, Doctor in Divinity and late Dean of the Cathedral Church of Rochester, deceased, take and use the surname of Busby, in addition to and after that of Aldridge, and also bear the arms of Busby quarterly with those of Aldridge; provided the same be first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise His Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in the College of Arms.

Whitehall, October 20, 1820.

WHEREAS William Fletcher, alias Franklin, stands charged, upon the oath of Arthur Seale, with having employed him to print divers seditious and inflammatory libels, which were accordingly printed and afterwards published, and the said William Fletcher, alias Franklin, hath absconded, a reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered for the apprehension of the said William Fletcher, alias Franklin, to be paid upon his being brought in custody to the Public-Office, Bow-Street.

SIDMOUTH.

The said William Fletcher, alias Franklin, lately resided at Clarendon-Place, Edgeware-Road, and his description is as follows:—He is a stout man, about forty-five years of age, ruddy complexion, about five feet six or seven inches in height, and has two swellings, one on the top and the other on the side of the head: he was dressed, when he absconded, in a blue coat, buff waistcoat, light drab breeches, and gaiters of the same colour; he also wore a dark brown great coat, with a velvet collar.—He is of very smart appearance.

Whitehall, October 21, 1820.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Majesty, that five men with their faces blacked, did, on Tuesday night the 17th of October instant, feloniously break into and enter the dwelling-house of Mr. William Cotton, of Easton, in the county of Suffolk, and did steal and carry away divers quantities of linen and wearing apparel, and did also break open several chests, boxes, &c. and take therefrom plate and monies to a considerable amount, and at the same time did threaten Mrs. Cotton and his sister to take away their lives;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his, accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person or persons who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.—The above reward to be paid on conviction by the said William Cotton, of Easton aforesaid.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, passed in the forty-third year of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled "An Act for permitting certain goods imported into Great Britain to be secured in warehouses without payment of duty," it is, among other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the importer or importers, proprietor or proprietors, consignee or consignees, of any of the goods, wares, or merchandises, enumerated or described in the table thereunto annexed, marked (E), and which shall have been legally imported or brought into the port of London, to lodge and secure in a warehouse or warehouses to be provided for that purpose, any such goods, wares, or merchandise, under the joint locks of the crown and the merchant, without payment at the time of the first entry of the duties of customs due on the importation thereof: and it is by the said recited Act further enacted, that if the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them shall deem it expedient, that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to any goods, wares, and merchandises, not enumerated or described in either of the tables annexed thereto, and should cause a list of such goods, wares, and merchandise, to be published in the London Gazette, then and from thenceforth, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions, of the said Act, shall extend to such goods, wares, and merchandise, in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said tables respectively, at the time of passing the said Act:

We, the undersigned, Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, pursuant to and in execution of the powers vested in us, in and by the said Act, do hereby declare, that it appears to us expedient that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to the articles of legally imported or brought into the port of London (not being imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies); and that such macaroni and vermicelli should be added to the list of goods, wares, and merchandise enumerated and described in the table annexed to the said recited Act, marked (E), and that such macaroni and vermicelli should be lodged and secured at or in such warehouse or warehouses, under the regulations and directions of the said Act: and we do further declare, that from and after the publication of this our certificate in the London Gazette, conformable to the directions of the said Act, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions of the said Act shall extend and be construed to extend to all such macaroni and vermicelli in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the table annexed to the said Act, marked (E), at the time of the passing of the same Act.

Given under our hands at the Treasury Chambers, Whitehall, this 14th day of September 1820, N. VANSITTART.

Notice to the Creditors of Hamilton and Nisbet, Wrights and Builders, in Laurieston, Glasgow, and of John Hamilton and Thomas Nisbet, the individual Partners of that Concern.

Glasgow, October 20, 1820.

The Trustee hereby requests a general meeting of the Creditors upon these estates to be held within the Office of James Wilson, Writer, in Glasgow, on Thursday the 9th day of November next, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon, for the purpose of instructing the Trustee as to the disposal of the different heritable properties in Laurieston of Glasgow, which belonged to the Bankrupts, and for directions as to other matters connected with the Bankrupt estate.—Should it be deemed necessary one or two new Commissioners will be elected at said meeting.

Notice to the Creditors of Graham and Storrer, Merchants, in Edinburgh, and of William Graham and Michael Storrer, the Individual Partners thereof.

Leith, October 5, 1820.

At a meeting of the said Creditors held in Edinburgh this day, Graham and Storrer and William Graham and Michael Storrer, with the view of obtaining a discharge of their debts as a Company and as individuals, came forward with an offer of composition (with satisfactory security) of 1s. in the pound upon the principal sums due by them, payable six months from the date of the discharge to be granted by the Court.—No Creditor to receive more than 1s. in the pound upon any debt whatever due by them as a Company and individuals, or as a Company or individual Partners thereof.

As the meeting unanimously approved of the proposal, the Trustee requests another meeting to be held within the Royal Exchange Coffee-House, Edinburgh, on Tuesday the 7th day of November next, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon, for finally deciding upon the said offer.

EDWARD IRVING, Trustee.

October 19, 1820.

JAMES WATSON, Merchant, in Glasgow, intimates, that his election as Trustee on the sequestrated estate of John MacDougall, Merchant, in Glasgow, and Partner of the concern of Alexander MacDougall and Co. Merchants, in Greenock, has been confirmed by the Court of Session: that the Sheriff of Lanarkshire has fixed Friday the 3d and Friday the 17th of November next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon each day, within the Court-Hall of the Tolbooth of Glasgow, for the public examination of the Bankrupt and others connected with his affairs: that a meeting of the Creditors is to be held within the Writing-Chambers of Andrew MacGeorge and John B. Gray, Writers, in Glasgow, on Saturday the 18th of November next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon; and that another meeting of the Creditors will be held, at the same place and hour, on Saturday the 2d of December next, to elect Commissioners and instruct the Trustee. The Trustee hereby requires the Creditors, at or previous to the said meeting, to lodge with him their claims and grounds of debt, with oaths of verity thereto; certifying, that those who fail to do so betwixt and the 31st of May 1821, being ten months after the first deliverance on the petition for sequestration, shall have no share in the first distribution of the estate.
