

addition to and after that of Aldridge, and also bear the arms of Busby quarterly with those of Aldridge; provided the same be first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise His Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in the College of Arms.

Whitehall, October 20, 1820.

WHEREAS William Fletcher, alias Franklin, stands charged, upon the oath of Arthur Seale, with having employed him to print divers seditious and inflammatory libels, which were accordingly printed and afterwards published, and the said William Fletcher, alias Franklin, hath absconded, a reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered for the apprehension of the said William Fletcher, alias Franklin, to be paid upon his being brought in custody to the Public-Office, Bow-Street.

SIDMOUTH.

The said William Fletcher, alias Franklin, lately resided at Clarendon-Place, Edgeware-Road, and his description is as follows:—He is a stout man, about forty-five years of age, ruddy complexion, about five feet six or seven inches in height, and has two swellings, one on the top and the other on the side of the head: he was dressed, when he absconded, in a blue coat, buff waistcoat, light drab breeches, and gaiters of the same colour; he also wore a dark brown great coat, with a velvet collar.—He is of very smart appearance.

Whitehall, October 21, 1820.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Majesty, that five men with their faces blacked, did, on Tuesday night the 17th of October instant, feloniously break into and enter the dwelling-house of Mr. William Cotton, of Easton, in the county of Suffolk, and did steal and carry away divers quantities of linen and wearing apparel, and did also break open several chests, boxes, &c. and take therefrom plate and monies to a considerable amount, and at the same time did threaten Mrs. Cotton and his sister to take away their lives;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his, accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person or persons who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.—The above reward to be paid on conviction by the said William Cotton, of Easton aforesaid.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, passed in the forty-third year of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled "An Act for permitting certain goods imported into Great Britain to be secured in warehouses without payment of duty," it is, among other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the importer or importers, proprietor or proprietors, consignee or consignees, of any of the goods, wares, or merchandises, enumerated or described in the table thereunto annexed, marked (E), and which shall have been legally imported or brought into the port of London, to lodge and secure in a warehouse or warehouses to be provided for that purpose, any such goods, wares, or merchandise, under the joint locks of the crown and the merchant, without payment at the time of the first entry of the duties of customs due on the importation thereof: and it is by the said recited Act further enacted, that if the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them shall deem it expedient, that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to any goods, wares, and merchandises, not enumerated or described in either of the tables annexed thereto, and should cause a list of such goods, wares, and merchandise, to be published in the London Gazette, then and from thenceforth, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions, of the said Act, shall extend to such goods, wares, and merchandise, in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said tables respectively, at the time of passing the said Act:

We, the undersigned, Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, pursuant to and in execution of the powers vested in us, in and by the said Act, do hereby declare, that it appears to us expedient that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to the articles of legally imported or brought into the port of London (not being imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies); and that such macaroni and vermicelli should be added to the list of goods, wares, and merchandise enumerated and described in the table annexed to the said recited Act, marked (E), and that such macaroni and vermicelli should be lodged and secured at or in such warehouse or warehouses, under the regulations and directions of the said Act: and we do further declare, that from and after the publication of this our certificate in the London Gazette, conformable to the directions of the said Act, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions of the said Act shall extend and be construed to extend to all such macaroni and vermicelli in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the table annexed to the said Act, marked (E), at the time of the passing of the same Act.

Given under our hands at the Treasury Chambers, Whitehall, this 14th day of September 1820,
