The commission of Captain and Adjutant Dickinson has been antedated to 8th August 1820, to give him rank of the other Captains in that Corps.

Whitehall, October 20, 1820.

WHereas William Fletcher, alias Franklin, stands charged, upon the oath of Arthur Seale, with having employed him to print divers seditious and inflammatory libels, which were accordingly printed and afterwards published, and the said William Fletcher, alias Franklin, hath absconded, a reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered for the apprehension of the said William Fletcher, alias Franklin, to be paid upon his being brought in custody to the Public-Office, Bow-Street.

SIDMOUTH.

The said William Fletcher, alias Franklin, lately resided at Clarendon-Place, Edgeware-Road, and his description is as follows:—He is a stout man, about forty-five years of age, ruddy complexion, about five feet six or seven inches in height, and has two swellings, one on the top and the other on the side of the head; he was dressed, when he absconded, in a blue coat, buff waistcoat, light drab breeches, and gaiters of the same colour; he also wore a dark brown great coat, with a velvet collar.—He is of very smart appearance.

Whitehall, October 21, 1820.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Majesty, that five men with their faces blacked, did, on Tuesday night the 17th of October instant, feloniously break into and enter the dwelling-house of Mr. William Cotton, of Easton, in the county of Suffolk, and did steal and carry away divers quantities of linen and wearing apparel, and did also break open several chests, boxes, &c. and take therefrom plate and monies to a considerable amount, and at the same time did threaten Mrs. Cotton and his sister to take away their lives;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his, accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person or persons who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.—The above reward to be paid on conviction by the said William Cotton, of Easton aforesaid.

WHereas by an Act of Parliament, passed in the forty-third year of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled "An Act for permitting certain goods imported into Great Britain to be secured in warehouses without payment of duty," it is, among other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the importer or importers, proprietor or proprietors, consignee or consignees, of any of the goods, wares, or merchandises, enumerated or described in the table thereunto annexed, marked (E), and which shall have been legally imported or brought into the port of London, to lodge and secure in a warehouse or warehouses to be provided for that purpose, any such goods, wares, or merchandise, under the joint locks of the crown and the merchant, without payment at the time of the first entry of the duties of customs due on the importation thereof: and it is by the said recited Act further enacted, that if the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them shall deem it expedient, that the pro-
