Stockholme, Sept. 27.

WE are expecting here the Sieur Brands, with the Character of Envoy Extraordinary from the Electour of Brandenburg; many are impatient till he arrives, because of their great curiosity to know what he comes to propose in this conjuncture of Affairs. The Courier which the Sieur Bafin, the French Ambassador sent to France, on occasion of the dispute about the Ceremonies of his publick Reception and Audience, is come back, so that we shall now quickly know what Orders he has received in this matter; but in the mean time we are assured that this Court will not depart from the form and methods which have been always practised here in like cases. The 14th Instant arrived here an Ambassador from Moscovy; he and all his Attendants are in close Mourning; he has not yet had his Audience of the King, so that we know not the business he comes about, but imagine it to be only a Compliment upon the Death of the late Czar, and the accession of the Czars, that now Reign, to the Crown.

Turin, Octob. 3. The Duke of Savoy is so well recovered that he begins to appear publickly, which fills this Court and Country with an universal Joy. The Duke of Cadaval, pursuant to the Orders he has received from the Prince-Regent of Portugal, will part from hence in few days: The Duke has presented him with his Picture set with Diamonds, to the value of 1500 Pistols, and the Dutchess has given him a Ring worth 1000 Pistols. The Duke has likewise made the Envoy of Portugal a Present of 500 Pistols, and has given 800 Pistols to the Admiral of the Fleet, 400 to the Vice-Admiral, 250 to each of the Officers that were to have attended his Highness, 60 to every Voluntier, and 10000 Pistols to be distributed among the Officers and Seamen of the Fleet.

Vienna, Octob. 8. Our Letters from Hungary inform us, That the Turks and Transilvanians were retired, having only left a Body of 10000 Men with Count Teckelej, who seems at present very desirous of a Cessation of Arms, and had sent to General Caprara to propose one, but it's said that General answered, That when he had finish'd his Campaign, as Count Teckelej had done, a Proposition like this would be more seasonable, however directed him to make his application to the Emperor. Their Imperial Majesties have been here to take their leaves of the Duke and Dutchess of Neubourg, who are returned home, as likewise of the Duke of Lorrain, and the Queen Dowager of Poland, who are going back to Tyrol, and this day their Majesties returned to Ebersdorf, where they will continue till the 14th or 15th of this Month. The Moneys which Count Teckelej has caused to be Coined has on one side a Hand with a naked Sable in it, with this Inscription, Pro Deo & Pavia, and on the other side his Effigies, with these words, Emericus Comes Teckelej, Dux Hungarorum. The Rebels have attacked a small place belonging to Count Palfi, in which were 150 Men, who have quitted the Town, and are retired into the Castle, which they still defend.

Vienna, Octob. 11. To morrow the Duke of Lorraine and his Wife, the Queen Dowager of Poland, part from hence for Tyrol. Two days since arrived here an Envoy from Moscovy, with a Train of about 20 Persons. Yesterday were sent from hence for Hungary 40 Brass Boats, for the use of the Imperial Army in the Passage of Rivers. Yesterday we received Letters from the Camp of General Caprara, Dated the eighth Instant, which give an account, That the Army continued Encamped within three Miles of Trenchin on the Waag, and that General Caprara intended to march the next day towards the Rebels, who were Posted near the Berg-Towns; That Count Teckelej had sent a Detachment to Lewents, and that upon their approach, the Horse in Garison there, who were all Hungarians, had revolted, so that it was feared that place would fall into the Enemies hands; That the Turks were encamped near Agria, and that the Transilvanians lay likewise Encamped in a Body by themselves. Here is arrived an Express, sent by Count Teckelej, with Letters desiring a Cessation of Arms in order to a Treaty. The Militia of Hungary, commanded by the Palatine of that Kingdom, continue to commit great disorders.

Frankfort, Octob. 15. The Deputies of the Empire, after having had several meetings upon the late Declaration of the French Ambassadors, did the 13th Instant resolve, That the Deputies of Metz, as Directors of their Assembly, should represent to the Statos of the Empire assembled at Ratisbonne; That the Deputies at the Conference held here, not being sufficiently instructed to return an Answer to the Declaration made by the French Ambassadors, they had thought fit, that no time might be lost, to communicate the same to the Dyct, that they may return a speedy Answer therunto: And the next Morning an Express was sent from hence to Ratisbonne, with this Dispatch. From Witsburg, where Prince Waldeck now is, they write; That the Circle of Franconia have resolved to increase their Forces; that they may be in a condition to make good their late Alliance with the Emperor.

Brussels, Octob. 20. The French Troops in the new Conquests, both Horse and Foot, are marching towards Luxemburg, and at Metz and Thionville the French are providing Cannon and other necessaries for a Siege. The Sieur de Prado, and the Sieur d'Acfferden, late Secretaries to the Prince of Parma, have both obtained their Liberty, but on this condition, That the Sieur Prado is to continue in this place, and the Sieur Acfferden is to remain in the Cloister, out of which he was taken, till farther Order. We have advice, That 600 Spaniards wards are Landed at Ofend, and that 400 more are daily exp^d there. Our Letters from Vienna tell us, that the Turks and Transilvanians were separated from the Rebels, and were retred, and that Count Teckely had made Proposals for a Cessation of Arms.

Brussls, Octob. 23. Monsieur de Fay has taken Possession of the Government of this City, and at the same time the Marquis de Bedmar has received the Compliments of the Court upon his being declared General of the Artillery. Our Letters from Luxemburg of the 15th Instant, give us an account, that the French have assigned Quarters for 4000 Horse in the Province of Luxemburg; that every Horse-man is to have 15 Silvers a Day, to be paid by the Country, and what Oats and Hay he shall want. From Stoekem, a small place, near Maejtricks, they write, That Captain Feller, who had been some time since seized at Liege, and carried from thence to Stoekem, by order of the Elector of Cologne, had the last Week been Tried and Condemned to be broken on the Wheel, for having been a chief Promoter of the Disturbances at Liege, contrary to the Duty and Fidelity which he owed to his Electoral Highness, and that the said Sentence had been accordingly executed upon him. Don Antonio d'Aguiro, our Marsire de Camp General, having visited Charleroy and Namur, arrived the 17th Instant at Liege, from whence he intended to go to Limborg and Luxemburg.

Hague, Octob. 22. Here passes not any thing of moment in the absence of the Prince of Orange, who continues at Soesdinge, and of the States of Holland, who will not meet till the middle of the next Month. It is said the Elector of Saxony is coming into the Alliance between the Emperor and this State.

St. Malles, Octob. 13. Yesterday Morning came to an Anchor in this Bay, a French Man of War, commanded by Monsieur Tourville, having been the day before separated, in bad Weather, from Monsieur du Quesne, who (we have this Afternoon advice) arrived yesterday at Tpou on, with three Men of War; he is 20 days from Argiers, where he left three or four Men of War, and a Fireship, in expectation of the Sicils Prville with five Men of War from West-France, who, as we are told, has Orders to remain on that Coast as long as the Weather will permit, and to go a Cruising as he sees occasion. Two days before Monsieur du Quesne left the Coast of Barbary, five Algierines got out to Sea, and several others were preparing to follow, Monsieur du Quesne, upon his arrival at Abou-lou found Orders there to go over for Tripoli, with three or four Men of War, to confirm the Peace with that Government, and to redeem the French Slaves that are there, and from thence he is to go for Tunis with the same Commission. The ten French Gallies that were designed for Villa-Frauca have been at Sea, but were forced back again the same day by the violence of the Weather, and since their return, Orders are come from Court to retain them here till the arrival of the Duke de Mortemar, (who was a Volunteer on Board Monsieur du Quesne in this Expedition against Argiers) he being to command these Gallies in the place of Monsieur de Nouvailles.

Paris, Octob. 21. The King has Ordered 4000 Horse and 6000 Foot to March towards Piedmont, on what design, is not said, but these Troops, with those that are already at Pignerol, and Casal, may upon occasion make a very considerable Body. Our Letters from Turin give us an account, That the Duke of Savoie did every day recover his Strength and former Health, and that he was returned from Momcalier to Turin. Our Affairs with Rome seem to grow worse and worse: The Archbishop of this City has lately received another Brief from the Pope, which we do not know the Contents of, but it is said to be in very sharp Terms, The Pope has likewise refused the Abbot of Maupeon, whom the King has nominated to be Bishop of Casbes, his Bulls, for that the said Abbot Signed the late Declaration of the Clergy. The Queen of Spain has been very much Indisposed, but according to our last Letters from Madrid, was pretty well again.

P. mouth, Octob. 14. Yesterday arrived here His Majesty's Ship the Swallow, from Cadix.

Deale, Octob. 15. The 13th Instant arrived in the Downs the Friendship Pink of London; Samuel Edwards Master, from the North-west Passage: 'tis said she has made a very good Voyage.

Deale, Octob. 17. The 15th Instant arrived in the Downs His Majesty's Ship the Kingsfisher, and yesterday His Majesty's Ship the Sweepstakes, from Jamaica. This day arrived another Vessel from the North-west Passage.

Mr. Thomas Warren, His Majesty's Apothecary in Ordinary, living at the Heart and Anchor in St. Lawrence-Lane, London, undertaking that several Persons of Quality in the Country are desirous, upon occasion, to make use of his Art, does think it necessary to give notice to such Apothecaries and Chirurgeons that live at a distance, that he will communicate so much of his Art as shall secure a dead Body above Ground for several Years without Disbowelling, Cutting, or Scarclothing, provided they, or somebody for them, Treat with the said Th. Warren before the 15th of November next, for otherwise the season will be over in which the Ingredients ought to be prepared.
