

wards are Landed at Ofend, and that 400 more are daily expected there. Our Letters from Vienna tell us, that the Turks and Transilvanians were separated from the Rebels, and were retred, and that Count Teckely had made Proposals for a Cessation of Arms.

Brussels, Octob. 23. Monsieur de Fay has taken Possession of the Government of this City, and at the same time the Marquis de Bedmar has received the Compliments of the Court upon his being declared General of the Artillery. Our Letters from Luxemburg of the 15th Instant, give us an account, that the French have assigned Quarters for 4000 Horse in the Province of Luxemburg; that every Horse-man is to have 15 Silvers a Day, to be paid by the Country, and what Oats and Hay he shall want. From Streckem, a small place, near Maejrick, they write, That Captain Feller, who had been some time since seized at Liege, and carried from thence to Stockem, by order of the Elector of Cologne, had the last Week been Tried and Condemned to be broken on the Wheel, for having been a chief Promoter of the Disturbances at Liege, contrary to the Duty and Fidelity which he owed to his Electoral Highness, and that the said Sentence had been accordingly executed upon him. Don Antonio d'Aguiro, our Marsire de Camp General, having visited Charleroy and Namur, arrived the 17th Instant at Liege, from whence he intended to go to Limborg and Luxemburg.

Hague, Octob. 22. Here passes not any thing of moment in the absence of the Prince of Orange, who continues at Soesding, and of the States of Holland, who will not meet till the middle of the next Month. It is said the Elector of Saxony is coming into the Alliance between the Emperor and this State.

Marseilles, Octob. 13. Yesterday Morning came to an Anchor in this Bay, a French Man of War, commanded by Monsieur Tourville, having been the day before separated, in bad Weather, from Monsieur du Quefne, who (we have this Afternoon advice) arrived yesterday at Tpou on, with three Men of War, in 20 days from Argiers, where he left three or four Men of War, and a Fireship, in expectation of the Sicilia Praille with five Men of War from West-France, who, as we are told, has Orders to remain on that Coast as long as the Weather will permit, and to go a Cruising as he sees occasion. Two days before Monsieur du Quefne left the Coast of Barbary, five Algerines got out to Sea, and several others were preparing to follow, Monsieur du Quefne, upon his arrival at Abou-lou found Orders there to go over for Tripoli, with three or four Men of War, to confirm the Peace with that Government, and to redeem the French Slaves that are there, and from thence he is to go for Tunis with the same Commission. The ten French Gallies that were designed for Villa-Franca have been at Sea, but were forced back again the same day by the violence of the Weather, and since their return, Orders are come from Court to retain them here till the arrival of the Duke de Mortemar, (who was a Volunteer on Board Monsieur du Quefne in this Expedition against Argiers) he being to command these Gallies in the place of Monsieur de Nouvailles.

Paris, Octob. 21. The King has Ordered 4000 Horse and 6000 Foot to March towards Piedmont, on what design, is not said, but these Troops, with those that are already at Pignerol, and Casal, may upon occasion make a very considerable Body. Our Letters from Turin give us an account, That the Duke of Savoie did every day recover his Strength and former Health, and that he was returned from Momcalier to Turin. Our Affairs with Rome seem to grow worse and worse: The Archbishop of this City has lately received another Brief from the Pope, which we do not know the Contents of, but it is said to be in very sharp Terms, The Pope has likewise refused the Abbot of Maupeon, whom the King has nominated to be Bishop of Casbes, his Bulls, for that the said Abbot Signed the late Declaration of the Clergy. The Queen of Spain has been very much Indisposed, but according to our last Letters from Madrid, was pretty well again.

Pimouth, Octob. 14. Yesterday arrived here His Majesty's Ship the Swallow, from Cadix.

Deale, Octob. 14. The 13th Instant arrived in the Downs the Friendship Pink of London; Samuel Edwards Master, from the North-west Passage: 'tis said she has made a very good Voyage.

Deale, Octob. 17. The 15th Instant arrived in the Downs His Majesty's Ship the Kingsfisher, and yesterday His Majesty's Ship the Sweepstakes, from Jamaica. This day arrived another Vessel from the North-west Passage.

Mr. Thomas Warren, His Majesty's Apothecary in Ordinary, living at the Heart and Anchor in St. Lawrence-Lane, London, undertaking that several Persons of Quality in the Country are desirous, upon occasion, to make use of his Art, does think necessary to give notice to such Apothecaries and Chirurgeons that live at a distance, That he will communicate so much of his Art as shall secure a dead Body above Ground for several Years without Disbowelling, Cutting, or Scarclothing, provided they, or somebody for them, Treat with the said Th. Warren before the 15th of November next, for otherwise the season will be over in which the Ingredients ought to be prepared.

Advertisements.

These are to give Notice to all persons concerned, That the Kings most Excellent Majesty hath been Graciously pleased to grant unto the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of His Town of Nottingham, two new Fairs, the first whereof begins on the first day of November, to continue for eight days, for all sorts of Goods, Chattels, Wares, and Merchandize; and the other, on the 23 day of April Yearly, unless the same happen to be upon the Sunday, and in such case to be held upon the next Monday following.

Lost on the 15th of September last, out of the Grounds of Mr. Robert Briggs, of Worstead in the County of Norfolk, a fine large Iron-grey Gelding, with a short Tail, about 15 or 16 hands high, above four Years old; Whoever brings him to Richard Call, a Grocer in Norwich, or to Bryan Call, at the Crown in Cheapside, over against Lawrence-Lane, shall have a Guinea Reward.

Stolen or Strayed out of a Field near White-Chappel, on the 10th Instant, a bay Nag, with a Star in his Forehead, about seven years old, Tröts and Gallöps, with a ring of white hair on the Hock of his off Leg behind. Whoever gives notice of him to Mr. Thomas Dollison, at the Plow without Bishopsgate, shall be well Rewarded.

Stolen out of the Grounds of Mr. Stephen Stones, of Remenham, in the County of Berks, near Henly upon Thames, on Sunday night last, a bright bay Gelding, above 14 hands high, a large Head, a cur Tail, and five Years old. Whoever gives notice of him to Mr. Christopher Theed, of Breadstreet, London, or to Mr. Richard Wicks, Mercer of Henly aforesaid, shall have 20 s. Reward.