SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 18, 1820.

THE following Address having been transmitted to Viscount Sidmouth, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the Town Clerk of the City of New Sarum, has been presented by His Lordship to the King, and most graciously received:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of New Sarum, in Common Council assembled, humbly present to your Majesty this solemn declaration of our unchangeable attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government, and to our invaluable Constitution.

Though the clamour of disaffection may seem to prevail, and misguided persons may impeach the integrity of the Constituted Authorities, yet we venture to assure your Majesty that, in this reflecting country, the triumph of truth is eventually certain, and that the loyal and the good will unite with one heart in dutiful fidelity to the laws, and in undaunted resolution to maintain, in every emergency, our happy establishment in Church and State.

We doubt not that, protected by Providence, your Majesty's royal power, founded in wisdom and anxiously administered for the public good, guarded by the affections of all virtuous men, and supported by all who value the peace, the prosperity, and the glory of their country, will remain unshaken in the storms of conspiracy and the wildest uproar of sedition.

That your Majesty may long reign over us the Guardian of our venerated Laws, the Protector of our antient Liberties, and the beloved Sovereign of a great and loyal nation is our constant prayer.

Given under our common seal the 15th day of November in the year of our Lord 1820.
