SATURDAY, DECEMBER 2, 1820.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to Viscount Sidmouth, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, were presented by His Lordship to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously :

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble, dutiful, and loyal Address of the Vice-Patrons, President, Vice-Presidents, Officers, Council, and Members of the Royal Geological Society of Cornwall.

WE, the Vice-Patrons, President, Vice-Presidents, Officers, Council, and Members of the Royal Geological Society of Cornwall, at this our first General Meeting since the accession of your Majesty to the Throne, beg leave to offer our most sincere congratulations on an event so auspicious to the country, and to express our fervent prayers, that your Majesty may long and happily reign over a faithful and grateful people.

In deploring, in common with your Majesty and all their fellow-subjects, the loss of their late ever-revered Sovereign, no less illustrious for his paternal regard for his people, than for his munificent patronage of the scientific and useful institutions of the country, the lovers of science derived consolation from their conviction, founded on experience, that the same benevolent, liberal, and patriotic principles distinguished his august successor.

The Members of the Royal Geological Society of Cornwall, more especially, had reason to indulge these consolatory reflections, as they had already, in a more particular manner, experienced the happy influence of your Majesty's love of learning and desire to promote the interests of science, when your Majesty, then Regent of the kingdom, condescended to take under your immediate protection an infant establishment, which could then only boast of its good intentions, but which has since grown into comparative maturity under the fostering care of its Royal Benefactor,

In planning an institution which should be exclusively devoted to the improvement of mining, by connecting the practical details of this art with the principles of mineralogical and geological science, the Founders of the Royal Geological Society of Cornwall were incited by the conviction that they were consulting some of the best interests of their native county and of the kingdom; and, in continuing to maintain it against the difficulties which it had to encounter in its early progress, they were further cheered by the hope, that, if their attempt should prove to be really beneficial to the country, it could not fail of receiving, eventually, that encouragement and protection which would ensure its stability, and extend its sphere of usefulness: this hope was fulfilled when your Majesty, as Duke of Cornwall, complied with the prayer of the Society to become its Patron; and its Members now humbly, yet confidently, rely on those liberal and patriotic principles which your Majesty is known to possess, for a continuance of that patronage which it has hitherto experienced, and with which it cannot fail, eventually, to attain the important object of all its labours, namely, the improvement of the art of mining in this the richest district of your Majesty's dominions.

Other nations, possessed of mineral treasures, can boast of public academies, founded for the express purpose of watching over the interests of the important and difficult art of mining, and maintained at the public expence; Great Britain, richer in valuable metals than any European country, possesses no such establishment: yet, when we look back to the progress which this Society has made since it came under the Royal protection, we cannot refrain from indulging the hope, that it may be the peculiar glory of your Majesty to have effected that, by your Majesty's gracious and condescending patronage, which, in other countries, has been the result of national munificence and official guardianship.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Councilmen of the City of Carlisle, in Council assembled, beg leave to offer to your Majesty this declaration of our firm attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government, and to our inestimable Constitution.

Although misguided persons may assail the integrity of the Constituted Authorities, yet we do not hesitate to assert, that in this reflecting country the triumph of truth will ultimately prevail over the clamours of the disaffected, and that the loyal and good will unite with one heart in dutiful fidelity to the Laws, and in undaunted resolution to maintain, in every emergency, our enviable and happy establishment in Church and State. We doubt not that, protected by Divine Providence, your Majesty's royal power, founded in wisdom, and anxiously administered for the public good, guarded by the affections of all virtuous men, and supported by all who value the peace, the prosperity, and the glory of their country, will remain unshaken even amidst conspiracy, blasphemy, and sedition.

That your Majesty may long reign over us, the Guardian of our venerated Laws, the Protector of our ancient Liberties, and the beloved Sovereign of a great and loyal Nation, is our most earnest prayer.

Given under our common seal, the 24th day of November, in the year of our Lord 1820,

Jos. D. A. Gilpin, Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Principal or Capital Burgesses of the Borough and Town of Weymouth and Melcombe-Regis, in the County of Dorset.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Principal or Capital Burgesses, in Common Hall assembled, humbly present to your Majesty our assurances of unalterable attachment to the Throne, and our veneration for our invaluable Constitution.

Appreciating as we do the peace, the prosperity, and the happiness of our beloved and highly favoured country, we are determined as loyal men and citizens to support your Royal Majesty's Person and Government unappalled by the clamor of party, and undaunted by the cries of disaffection.

As Britons we feel we are indebted, under Providence, to your Majesty's wisdom and firmness for the proud pre-eminence which as a nation we enjoy.

It is our earnest prayer to Almighty God that your Majesty's invaluable life may long be spared to reign over us a free and happy people, and that the revered House of Brunswick may ever be the protector of our laws, and the guardian of our liberties.

Given, under our common seal, the 21st day of November 1820.

[Delivered by the Mayor.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

We, the Mayor, Inhabitants, and Visitors of Weymouth and Melcombe-Regis, humbly present to your Majesty this solemn assurance of our unalterable attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and to the Constitution as by law established.

We deprecate, with just indignation, the attempts now making, by wicked and designing men, to turn the hearts and minds of your subjects from their allegiance, by traducing and vilifying all laws, human and divine.

We therefore beg, at this awfully momentous crisis, to make known our firm determination to support, with our lives and property, your Majesty's royal power, and those laws and establishments, founded by the wisdom of our ancestors, which time and experience of their blessings have taught us to love and venerate.

We pray God to grant your Majesty a long and happy reign, and to vouchsafe to this nation (after the arduous and glorious struggle it has lately made against foreign foes) many years of domestic peace, happiness, and prosperity.

Weymouth, 22d November 1820.

[Delivered by the Mayor.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of Marlborough, in the County of Wilts, assembled at a public meeting, unanimously beg leave to approach your Majesty with renewed assurances of our fidelity to your Majesty and your Royal House, and of attachment to the Constitution under which this nation has long enjoyed the most invaluable blessings.

That the prosperity of your Majesty's Throne, and the boasted excellence of our unrivalled Constitution may continue unimpaired to the latest posterity is our ardent prayer.

To contribute to give permanency both to our Civil and Religious Institutions, to preserve inviolate the sacred obligations of our Laws, to aid the energies of duly constituted authorities, and to diffuse the influence of moral duties, we beg leave humbly to assure your Majesty will ever be the first wish of our hearts, and the leading object of our endeavours.

As subjects deeply interested in the welfare of our Sovereign, we beseech your Majesty to accept this tribute of our loyalty, earnestly imploring the Divine Goodness to grant your Majesty a long and prosperous reign over a loyal and united people.

Signed, on behalf and at the request of the meeting,
John Ward, Mayor.

[Transmitted by Lord Aylesbury.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Aldermen, Assistants, Common Council, Clergy, Gentry, and Householdors of the Ancient Borough of Colchester, beg leave most humbly to approach the Throne, at this important crisis, with feelings of sincere attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person, Family, and Government.

Animated, as we are, by an unshaken spirit of loyalty, we feel convinced that a persevering, firm, and steady support of the Constitution, can alone insure us a continuance of those blessings which it is the pride and happiness of Englishmen to enjoy.

While we sincerely pity the few misguided persons, who are the dupes of base and designing men, we view, with abhorrence and disgust, the open attempts that are made, by a seditious and intolerant faction, for the promotion of infidelity and confusion, it becomes therefore our incumbent duty, as well as it is our ardent wish, thus publicly to declare to your sacred Majesty our firm determination to shield, under Providence, to the utmost of our power and abilities, our beloved Sovereign from insult, to preserve the glorious Constitution of our country from anarchy, and to protect our Religion and Laws from destruction.

In testimony whereof we, the Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Aldermen, Assistants, and Common Council of the said Borough, have caused to be affixed our common seal, the 23d day of November in the year of our Lord 1820.

John Clay, Mayor.

[Delivered by the Mayor.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the undersigned Inhabitants of the Parish of Loughborough, in the County of Leicester, beg leave to offer to your Majesty our unfeigned assurances of fidelity to your Majesty's sacred Person and Government, and of our unalterable attachment to the British Constitution as by law established.

We trust that in the awful circumstances of the times we shall find an apology for intruding ourselves into your Majesty's august presence.

A desperate and traitorous faction, supporting and supported by a press unexampled in the history of the world for licentiousness, for disloyalty, for impiety, for blasphemy, has been long endeavouring to subvert alike the Throne and the Altar. Nor is this all; it has laboured, and still labours, to undermine and destroy every virtuous and manly sentiment; every honourable and British feeling; every thing, in short, which tends to elevate the man and the Christian above the barbarian and the savage.

We lament to add that, for the moment, its singular and unparalleled effrontery, its base and malignant employment of fraud and falsehood, may have deluded too many of your Majesty's subjects from their allegiance both to their King and to their God; but we think we should fail in our duty to your Majesty and to every venerable institution of our Country, to the Nobility, the Clergy, the Magistracy and Commonalty of the Realm, if we delayed to assure your Majesty that we hold both such traitors and such traitors in detestation and abhorrence, and that we will, with all our energies of mind and body, protect your Majesty in your

Majesty's legal and paternal Government, and in the support of the established Religion and Laws

That your Majesty may long continue in happiness and prosperity to emulate the conduct of your Majesty's late venerable Parent, George the pious and the good, is the sincere prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects.

R. Hardy, D. D., Rector.

[Delivered by the Rev. Dr. Hardy.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Mayor and Corporation and Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of Lymington, and its Neighbourhood, humbly approach your Majesty with unfeigned and affectionate sentiments of veneration for your Royal Person, and the august line of ancestors from whom your Majesty is descended.

In contemplating those scenes of riot and disorder which (it cannot be dissembled), prevail in many parts of your Majesty's dominions; we, in common with all good men and peaceable subjects, deeply deplore the sad effects resulting from such excesses.

In this our Country's evil hour, when the storms of disaffection are inflaming the passions of the restless, and inciting them to acts of insubordination; we, with an anxious desire to maintain the rights and privileges of free-born subjects, do solemnly declare our determination to rally around the Throne of your Majesty, to preserve to the utmost of our power the Religion and Laws of our country uncontaminated by the pollutions of blasphemy and uproar, which are too fatally undermining the principles of the young, and poisoning the morals of the weak and misguided.

Their seditious endeavours to overthrow our establishment in Church and State, we confidently hope may, through the wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, prove fruitless; and that, under a superintending and gracious Providence, Englishmen may still be permitted to enjoy the blessings of an invaluable Constitution; the pride and glory of our own nation, and the envy of the civilized world.

Town Hall, Lymington, the 25th day of November 1820. George Burrard, Mayor.

[Transmitted by the Mayor.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Magistrates and Inhabitants of the Town and Port of Whitby, and its Vicinity, beg to assure your Majesty of our firm attachment to your Majesty's Person and our invaluable Constitution.

Actuated by the sincerest veneration to your Royal Person, and glorying in the excellence of our Laws and Constitution which have justly rendered the English nation a model to the countries of Europe; we feel ourselves imperiously called on to express our indignation at the malignancy of that faction which, regardless of every principle, moral or divine, seeks the overthrow of Church and State, and the introduction of anarchy and confusion into the bosom of a country that has gloriously withstood the force of Empires.

The experience of all ages has proved, that to address to the infuriated passions of a misguided populace, the calm voice of reason will be as unavailing as to soothe by persuasion the wild tumult of the ocean or the uncontrollable rage of the tempest. The baneful effects of such periodical frenzy can be averted only by the fixed resolution and unbending firmness of the well-disposed members of society. Impelled therefore, by every feeling that should warm the breasts of true Britons, we hasten to assure your Majesty of the devotedness with which we are ready to sacrifice our lives and properties, at the standard of true liberty, in supporting the Throne and the Religion of our fathers, and in shielding, with the triumphant strength of virtue and loyalty, that Constitution which has elevated Britain to the summit of human glory.

That your Majesty may long be spared to sway the Sceptre of these Realms, and to fill a Throne so long ornamented by the virtues of your illustrious Father, is the ardent prayer of your Majesty's ever faithful subjects.

Whitby, 25th November 1820.

[Transmitted by the Earl of Mulgrave.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and faithful subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses and Commonalty of the Borough of Great Yarmouth, in the County of Norfolk, in Common Council assembled, beg leave to express our warm and zealous attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government.

We lament most sincerely, that any of your Majesty's subjects have been seduced by the artifices of evil disposed men, in violation of our mild and equal laws, to commit acts by which the peace of society and the good order of Government have been disturbed, and that the persons of those, who directed the councils and commanded the armies of the state, to whom (under Providence) we are indebted for the triumph over a flagitious enemy and the happy establishment of peace and safety, should in the exercise of their public duties be insulted and endangered.

We trust that the delusion will be but of short duration, and when we call to mind the blessings which our country has derived from the accession of your Majesty's illustrious House to the Throne of these Realms, the increase of our liberties and the security of our invaluable Constitution; when we reflect upon the lengthened, the just and the Constitutional Government of our late beloved and revered Sovereign, held in the same devoted regard by your Majesty as by every friend of rational freedom; we feel the firmest confidence that the machinations of the ill-disposed will speedily be frustrated, by the tempered exertions of Government and by the zeal and ardour of every faithful subject, for the preservation of our Laws and Constitution.

We promise to your Majesty our most strenuous endeavours to uphold every branch of a Constitution, productive of so many blessings, to maintain unimpaired our establishments in Church and State, to support with equal solicitude the rights and privileges of the people and of the nobility, and (what we consider essential to the preservation of both) the dignity and the prerogatives of the Crown, and the inviolability of the Throne and the Altar.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed James Powell Nash, of Henley-upon-Thames, in the county of Oxford, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, November 24, 1820.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on Monday the 20th instant, the house of John Walker, Esq. at Southgate, in the county of Middlesex, was wilfully and maliciously set on fire in three separate rooms, on distinct stories, by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said premises), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person or persons (except as before excepted), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—The above reward to be paid on conviction by Mr. Stafford, Chief Clerk at the Public-Office, Bow-street.

Whitehall, November 24, 1820.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that as one John Marsden, the Gaoler of the Public-Office, Great Marlborough-street, was, between the hours of four and five o'clock on the evening of Wednesday the 22d instant, conveying five prisoners, charged with robbery and felony, to the House of Correction, Cold-bath-fields, he was attacked at the corner of George-street, in Great Russell-street, Bloomsbury, by a desperate gang, consisting of nearly forty persons, who, after severely beating the said John Marsden, insomuch that his life is in danger, accomplished the rescue of the five prisoners before mentioned;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the daring outrage above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the persons who actually beat the said John Marsden) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person or persons (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—The said reward to be paid on conviction by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

VICE-CHANCELLOR.—Friday the 24th day of November in the First Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth 1820, between James Bennett, Plaintiff, George Bradley and John Gibson, Defendants.

FOrasmuch as this Court was this present day informed by Mr. Belt, of Counsel for the plaintiff, that it appeared by the affidavit of William Hooper, of the Town of Ross, in the County of Hereford, Solicitor for the plaintiff, that the defendant, John Gibson, having been served with a subpoena issued out of this Court in this cause, and not having entered his appearance in due time, an attachment for want of such appearance was duly issued against him at the suit of the plaintiff in the month of April 1819; and that the said John Gibson, having promised to the said deponent, as such Solicitor, that he would put in his answer in the said suit, as of the following term, he the said deponent did not execute the said attachment; but finding the said defendant, John Gibson, did not comply with his said promise, and with several other promises made to the said deponent, as to causing his appearance to be forthwith entered, he the said deponent was about to execute the said attachment, but that before the said deponent could execute the same, the said defendant, John Gibson absconded in a state of insolvency, and left England, as the said deponent then believed, and now believes, to avoid his Creditors, and amongst others, as the said defendant apprehends and believes, to avoid the demands of the said plaintiff, and the further process of this Court; and the said deponent believes the said John Gibson is now beyond the seas, or in some other place unknown to the said deponent, for the purpose aforesaid.—It is, therefore, ordered, that the said defendant, John Gibson, do appear to the plaintiff's bill on or before the first day of next Hilary Term, or on any day thereafter, or on any day of next Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, bearing date the 12th day of April 1820, made in a Cause Plummer against Gillman, the Creditors of Francis Robins Power, late of the Parish of St. Elizabeth, in the County of Cornwall, in the Island of Jamaica, Gentleman, deceased (who died in the same Parish in or about the year 1815), are personally, or by their Solicitors, to come in before Samuel Compton Cox, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on or before the 23d day of December 1820, and prove their debts, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Hoyland against Fardoll, the Creditors of Thomas Temberland, late of the Bail of Lincoln, Gentleman (who died in 1815), are, on or before the 28d day of December next, to come in and prove their debts before John Springett Harvey, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Luke Machan, of Sheffield, in the County of York, Millwright, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on the 5th day of December instant, at Five o'Clock in the Afternoon precisely, at the Office of Mr. Hardy, in Sheffield aforesaid, to assent to or dissent from the Assignees preferring, at the ensuing York Assizes, or the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, to be holden at Doncaster, in and for the West Riding of Yorkshire, a bill or bills of indictment against certain persons, who will be named at the said meeting, for a conspiracy with an intent to defraud the Creditors of the said Luke Machan; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying and discharging, out of the Bankrupt's estate, the costs and charges incurred in preparing an assignment for the equal benefit of Creditors, but which was not fully carried into effect; and further to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for recovery of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against William Hatch, of Eccleston, in the County of Lancaster, Corn-Merchant, are requested to meet the Assignee of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Thursday the 21st of December instant, at Eleven in the Forenoon, at the King's Arms Inn, in Preston, in the said County, to take into consideration certain claims made by Thomas Knowles and other persons upon the real estate of the said Bankrupt; and to authorise and empower the said Assignee to commence and prosecute any action or suit which may be thought advisable, for recovery of certain deeds, bonds, papers, and writings in his or their possession; also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee adopting such other measures for the compounding or settling of the said matters in dispute as the said Assignee may deem most advisable for the interest of the Creditors of the said Bankrupt; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Robert Ralph and William King, of Ipswich, in the County of Suffolk, Maltsters, Merchants, and Partners, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, on the 4th of December instant, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, at the Sea Horse, in Ipswich aforesaid, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for recovery of any part of the joint or separate estate and effects of the said Bankrupts; and particularly to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying and satisfying, or otherwise compounding or agreeing for the debts due from the said Bankrupts jointly or separately to the Crown for Malt duties, for which extents have issued; and as to selling and disposing of the whole or any part of the joint and separate furniture, fixtures, corn, malt, coals, cinders, and other stock in trade, shipping and other effects of the said Bankrupts, by public sale or private contract; together or in parcels, upon such terms and conditions, and either for ready money or upon credit or security, or to postpone such sale or disposition as the said Assignees shall deem expedient or think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing the said Bankrupts or either of them or such other person or persons as the said Assignees shall think advisable, at the expense and risk of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, to assist in the sale of such corn, malt, coals, cinders, and other stock in trade, by wholesale or retail, and to arrange and settle the accounts of the said Bankrupts with the several Creditors of their joint and separate estate, and to collect and receive the several debts due and owing thereto, and to their making such allowance or compensation in respect thereof as the said Assignees shall in their discretion think proper; and further to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees compounding or agreeing with any person or persons having or being intitled to any charge or charges or other incumbrances upon the separate real estate of the said Bankrupt Robert Ralph under the will of his late father, or otherwise, at any sum or sums of money less than the full amount of such charge or charges or other incumbrances, or for paying the same in full, or for submitting the same to arbitration or reference, and for that purpose to enter into and execute any bond of arbitration or agreement for reference as the said Assignees shall in their discretion think advisable; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of such real estate, subject to or free from the said charge or charges or other incumbrances, or joining with the person or persons intitled to the same in such sale and disposition, upon such terms and conditions as they the said Assignees shall think advisable, and for their selling and disposing thereof, by public sale or private contract, forthwith or at any future time, and for letting the same until such sale shall take place, at the discretion of the said Assignees; and also to authorise the said Assignees to pay the salaries and wages of the clerks, servants, or labourers employed by the said Bankrupts or either of them, if they shall think proper; and to advance any sum or sums of money for the maintenance of the said Bankrupts or either of them, and their respective families for any and what length of time; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against John Mann, of Leeds, in the County of York, Common Brewer, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Tuesday the 12th day of December instant, at Three o'Clock in the Afternoon of the same day, at the Office of William Hargreaves, Solicitor, in Leeds, aforesaid, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling or disposing, either by public auction or private contract, of the whole or any part of the said Bankrupt's real estate, and of the whole or any part of the said Bankrupt's household goods and furniture, stock in trade, personal estate and effects, and for such prices and upon such credit or security as the said Assignees shall think proper; And also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing an Accountant or some proper person to investigate and arrange the Bankrupt's books of accounts, and to collect, receive and get in the debts and effects belonging and owing to the said Bankrupt, to the said Assignees allowing the said Accountant or other person such compensation as they may think proper; and to the said Assignees not being answerable for more monies than shall actually be paid into their hands; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees entering into any compromise with any debtor or debtors of the said Bankrupt's estate; and to their giving or allowing time for payment of his or their debts; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying a certain equitable mortgage or lien claimed upon the title deeds relating to an estate situate in Kirkgate, in Leeds, belonging to the Bankrupt, for business done by his Attornies, and for part of the purchase-money of the said estate which remains unpaid; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, or for the recovery of any part of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Thomas Ashley, of East-Street, Manchester-Square, in the County of Middlesex, Baker, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on the 18th day of December instant, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon precisely, at the Offices of Messrs. Harvey and Wilson, Solicitors, No. 43, Lincoln's-Inn-Fields, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling or disposing of all or any part of the said Bankrupt's household effects to any person or persons, either by public auction or private contract, or in such other manner, and for such price or sum of money as they may deem expedient or advisable; also to the said Assignees redeeming, by or out of the proceeds of the said Bankrupt's estate, the lease of his dwelling-house, which has been assigned or deposited with a party, then to be named, by the said Bankrupt as security for money borrowed; or to the said Assignees selling or joining and concurring in any sale of their interest in the said lease and effects, to any person or persons whomsoever, by private contract or otherwise; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto, and on other special affairs.
