

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Councilmen of the City of Carlisle, in Council assembled, beg leave to offer to your Majesty this declaration of our firm attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government, and to our inestimable Constitution.

Although misguided persons may assail the integrity of the Constituted Authorities, yet we do not hesitate to assert, that in this reflecting country the triumph of truth will ultimately prevail over the clamours of the disaffected, and that the loyal and good will unite with one heart in dutiful fidelity to the Laws, and in undaunted resolution to maintain, in every emergency, our enviable and happy establishment in Church and State. We doubt not that, protected by Divine Providence, your Majesty's royal power, founded in wisdom, and anxiously administered for the public good, guarded by the affections of all virtuous men, and supported by all who value the peace, the prosperity, and the glory of their country, will remain unshaken even amidst conspiracy, blasphemy, and sedition.

That your Majesty may long reign over us, the Guardian of our venerated Laws, the Protector of our ancient Liberties, and the beloved Sovereign of a great and loyal Nation, is our most earnest prayer.

Given under our common seal, the 24th day of November, in the year of our Lord 1820,

Jos. D. A. Gilpin, Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Principal or Capital Burgesses of the Borough and Town of Weymouth and Melcombe-Regis, in the County of Dorset.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Principal or Capital Burgesses, in Common Hall assembled, humbly present to your Majesty our assurances of unalterable attachment to the Throne, and our veneration for our invaluable Constitution.

Appreciating as we do the peace, the prosperity, and the happiness of our beloved and highly favoured country, we are determined as loyal men and citizens to support your Royal Majesty's Person and Government unappalled by the clamor of party, and undaunted by the cries of disaffection.

As Britons we feel we are indebted, under Providence, to your Majesty's wisdom and firmness for the proud pre-eminence which as a nation we enjoy.

It is our earnest prayer to Almighty God that your Majesty's invaluable life may long be spared to reign over us a free and happy people, and that the revered House of Brunswick may ever be the protector of our laws, and the guardian of our liberties.

Given, under our common seal, the 21st day of November 1820.

[Delivered by the Mayor.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

We, the Mayor, Inhabitants, and Visitors of Weymouth and Melcombe-Regis, humbly present to your Majesty this solemn assurance of our unalterable attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and to the Constitution as by law established.

We deprecate, with just indignation, the attempts now making, by wicked and designing men, to turn the hearts and minds of your subjects from their allegiance, by traducing and vilifying all laws, human and divine.

We therefore beg, at this awfully momentous crisis, to make known our firm determination to support, with our lives and property, your Majesty's royal power, and those laws and establishments, founded by the wisdom of our ancestors, which time and experience of their blessings have taught us to love and venerate.

We pray God to grant your Majesty a long and happy reign, and to vouchsafe to this nation (after the arduous and glorious struggle it has lately made against foreign foes) many years of domestic peace, happiness, and prosperity.

Weymouth, 22d November 1820.

[Delivered by the Mayor.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of Marlborough, in the County of Wilts, assembled at a public meeting, unanimously beg leave to approach your Majesty with renewed assurances of our fidelity to your Majesty and your Royal House, and of attachment to the Constitution under which this nation has long enjoyed the most invaluable blessings.

That the prosperity of your Majesty's Throne, and the boasted excellence of our unrivalled Constitution may continue unimpaired to the latest posterity is our ardent prayer.

To contribute to give permanency both to our Civil and Religious Institutions, to preserve inviolate the sacred obligations of our Laws, to aid the energies of duly constituted authorities, and to diffuse the influence of moral duties, we beg leave humbly to assure your Majesty will ever be the first wish of our hearts, and the leading object of our endeavours.

As subjects deeply interested in the welfare of our Sovereign, we beseech your Majesty to accept this tribute of our loyalty, earnestly imploring the Divine Goodness to grant your Majesty a long and prosperous reign over a loyal and united people.

Signed, on behalf and at the request of the meeting,
John Ward, Mayor.
