Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 5, 1820.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to Viscount Sidmouth, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, were presented by His Lordship to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common Council, the ancient and loyal Corporation of the City of Waterford, in Council assembled, feel it our bounden duty, at this particular juncture, to express our sentiments of unshaken loyalty and attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person and Government.

On the merits of the Bill recently before Parliament, or on the issue of the solemn investigation which for so many weeks agitated the nation, we presume not to offer an opinion; we venture, however, to hope, that such measures may be adopted by your Majesty's Ministers as may have the effect of obviating a renewal of those distressing feelings, which have lately pervaded all ranks of society from the Throne to the Cottage.

We pray your Majesty to be graciously pleased to accept our dutiful and unfeigned assurances of devotion to your Royal Person, and of our determination to support, by all just means in our power, the Constitution of these realms as by Law established.

Samuel King, Mayor.

Waterford, November 23, 1820.

[Transmitted by His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Freemen, and the other Inhabitants of your ancient City of Winchester and the suburbs, beg permission to approach your presence and humbly to offer, at this awful crisis, our assurance of the unshaken and zealous attachment by which we are animated towards your Majesty's sacred Office and Person.

To you, Sire, we have long looked up for the guardianship of our laws, the protection of our liberties, and the preservation of that unrivalled Constitution in Church and State, which alone can give permanency to those other blessings which we have inherited from our ancestors. We gratefully acknowledge that these duties have been eminently discharged by your Majesty, and we evidently trace in the unvaried tenour of your Government, a paternal affection for your subjects, and an anxious wish to promote their welfare, happiness, and prosperity.

Under this conviction we feel ourselves impelled by the strongest sense of what we owe to ourselves, as well as to your sacred Majesty, to avow, at the present momentous period, our firm and unalterable resolution to support, by our most strenuous exertions, your Majesty's constitutional authority and dignity, and to promote among our fellow-subjects the same spirit of affection and loyalty by which we ourselves are actuated.

We humbly request to be permitted to express our warmest wishes and most devout prayers, that your Majesty may enjoy a long, prosperous, and happy reign; and that your Majesty's Throne may be long secured and fortified by Divine Protection, and established in the hearts of your dutiful and affectionate people.

J. N. Silver, Mayor.

[Transmitted by the Town Clerk.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of the Holy and Indivisible Trinity in Gloucester, in Chapter assembled, observing with great concern the alarming progress of sedition and irreligion, threatening to overwhelm the kingdom, and lay prostrate the Throne and Altar, beg leave to approach your Majesty with our most respectful and affectionate assurances of unshaken loyalty to your Majesty's sacred Person, and inviolable attachment to your Majesty's illustrious House; humbly imploring the Divine Providence to shower down His blessings on your Majesty's reign, that your Government may be rendered easy and prosperous by the steady allegiance of all your Majesty's subjects, and by a due obedience to the Laws and Constitution of the country.

In testimony whereof we have hereunto affixed our common seal, the 29th day of November in the year of our Lord 1820.

J. Plumtree, Dean.

[Transmitted by the Lord Chancellor.]

To His Most Excellent Majesty George the Fourth, KING of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The dutiful Address of the Court of Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of the ancient Borough Town of Maldon, in the County of Essex, in Common Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, feel ourselves imperiously called upon at this important juncture to offer our renewed assurances of fidelity to your Majesty's illustrious House, and our unalterable attachment to our invaluable Constitution in Church and State.

We should not at this period have assembled thus to offer our duty to your Majesty, were we not impelled by an apprehension that we, as inhabitants of Maldon, might otherwise be supposed to participate in those sentiments which have been recently promulgated.

We beg leave to assure your Majesty that we have heard with deep concern of that spirit of disaffection which unhappily has shown itself, and in which we are most earnestly desirous not to be considered as concurring.

We therefore beg leave to assure your Majesty of our determination and resolution, necessarily roused by such spirit of disaffection, to support your Majesty and the rights of the Crown, and to uphold that admirable Constitution which our Ancestors shed their best blood to establish, and under which we have seen our country raised to a pre-eminence in the scale of nations, unexampled in the annals of the world.

We have the fullest confidence that your Majesty will maintain and support that glorious Constitution which seditious and disaffected men appear anxious to overthrow, and that your Majesty, by exerting the powers which our enviable Constitution has entrusted to the Royal Authority, will preserve to your subjects their religion, laws, and property; and that under your Majesty, all who value those blessings will unite effectually to preserve the stability and glory of the Throne, and the freedom, tranquillity, and happiness of the people.

[Transmitted by Colonel Strutt, M. P. for Muldon.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Inhabitants of the Parish of Saint James, partly in the City of Bristol, and partly in the County of Gloucester, beg leave to approach your Majesty with sincere assurances of attachment to your Majesty's illustrious house, and with an honest expression of our thankfulness for the many blessings which we and our Ancestors have enjoyed under its shadow. We beg to assure your Majesty that we have witnessed, with the deepest sorrow and indignation, the existence and progress of disaffection among some of our fellow subjects, which, we trust, a general manifestation of national loyalty will speedily crush. We assure your Majesty of our firm resolution to discourage and resist, in our several spheres of action, and by all the means in our power, that spirit of sedition to which we have alluded, together with its usual attendants of irreligion and blasphemy, remembering that our duties as Christians and subjects, to "Fear God and honour the King," cannot be dis severed the one from the other.

We, therefore, pledge ourselves to promote, by our example and influence, a dutiful allegiance to your Majesty's Royal Person, and a submission to the Laws and Constituted Authorities of our country, knowing that thereby only we can secure to ourselves a continuance of our civil and religious privileges, and of that high character which Divine Providence has given us among the nations of the earth.

[Transmitted by Mr. H. Davis and Mr. H. Bright, M. M. P. for the City of Bristol.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Ministers, Churchwarden and Inhabitants of the Parish of Bedminster, in the County of Somerset, and Neighbourhood of the City of Bristol, feel it a duty which we owe to your Majesty, as well as to our Country, at a period when every thing that is dear to us as Men, as Christians and as Britons is assailed by the enemies of all social, religious and civil order, to assure your Majesty of our unalterable attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person, and our grateful sense of the blessings we enjoy under our unrivalled Constitution.

We beg leave to assure your Majesty that we have viewed with the utmost indignation the attempts which have been made, through the medium of a licentious press, to excite a spirit of disaffection amongst your Majesty's subjects; and we deeply lament that of late increasing exertions have been made to diffuse wider and wider the destructive poison of faction and sedition.

To counteract these evils, we humbly hope that the wisdom of your Majesty's Government will adopt those measures which are best adapted to secure the dignity of your Majesty's Crown, the honour of your Majesty's Royal Person, to promote the general interest of virtue and morality, and to preserve to us, unimpaired, the blessings of our invaluable Constitution.

Relying, under Providence, on the prudence and firmness of your Majesty's Councils, and the loyalty of your Majesty's loving subjects, we confidently hope that all the efforts of the factious and seditious will prove utterly vain.

We conclude by assuring your Majesty that we shall ever esteem it our duty, our pleasure, and our interest to promote, by every means in our power, a continued attachment to the sacred Person of your Majesty, and to that Throne under the pro-fection of which, through Divine Providence, we have long enjoyed so many blessings, civil and religious.

[Transmitted by Mr. H. Davis and Mr. H. Bright, M. M. P. for the City of Bristol.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Minister, Churchwardens, Vestry and other Inhabitants of the Parish of Saint Thomas, in the City of Bristol, feel it a duty which we owe to your Majesty as well as to our country, at a period when its most sacred establishments are assailed by the enemies of all civil and social order, to assure your Majesty of our unalterable attachment to your Royal Person, and our grateful sense of the blessings which we enjoy under our unrivalled Constitution.

We have viewed with the utmost indignation the attempts which have been made, through the medium of a licentious press, to excite a spirit of disaffection amongst your Majesty's subjects, and to convert the proceedings in a late public investigation into a signal for sedition and rebellion.

We anticipate indeed with confidence, that the hour is not far distant when the delusions which have been created by the emissaries of disaffection and sedition, shall be dispelled and truth again triumph over falsehood.

We beg to assure your Majesty, that we shall use our utmost endeavours, by our example and influence, to promote a continued attachment to the sacred Person of your Majesty, and to that Throne which in subserviance to Divine Providence has been so long a bulwark of our civil and religious liberty.

[Transmitted by Mr. H. Davis and Mr. H. Bright, M. M. P. for the City of Bristol.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Master, Wardens and Commonalty of Merchant Venturers, of the City of Bristol, at this period of public ferment and agitation, beg leave to offer to your Majesty the renewed homage of our duty and allegiance.

We deeply deplore the continuance and progress of that alarming system of operations, by which a wicked and desperate faction, enemies of all Government, are labouring to destroy the Constitution and to plunge the country into the abyss of anarchy and confusion.

In the prosecution of their detestable designs no establishments, however venerable or holy, have escaped their malignant attack. The Courts of Justice, the Parliament, the Throne and the Altar have been alike the objects of their licentious abuse. Religion has been vilified in the persons of its Ministers, the venerable Judges calumniated and menaced, the Constitution and Authority of the Houses of Parliament impeached, and the sacred Majesty of the Throne itself reviled, insulted and defied.

To corrupt the morals of the people, as the surest road to the accomplishment of their ultimate object, has been of late, a main and prominent feature in this daring conspiracy; for this purpose every public measure, involving the honour of the country has been traduced and misrepresented; all respect for virtue and purity of character has been treated with contempt, until at length we have seen immorality not defended merely, but boldly held up to public admiration and applause: nor is it to be wondered at, that those who commenced by scoffing at religion, should conclude the open advocates of profligacy and vice.

When sedition and infidelity are thus actively at work, to look on in silent indifference were criminal; we are led by every sense of duty to our King, our Country, and our God, to declare our determination to rally round the Throne in defence of the Monarchy against the rude attacks of domestic traitors, and in support of our laws, our liberties and our lives.

That your Majesty may long live to enjoy the affections of your people, grateful for the blessings they derive under your mild and paternal reign, is our sincere and ardent prayer.

[Transmitted by Mr. H. Davis and Mr. H. Bright, M. M. P. for the City of Bristol.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the undersigned Inhabitants of the Parish of St. Mary Redcliff, in the City of Bristol, beg leave to approach your Majesty with an assurance of our undeviating loyalty and attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government. Such a measure we feel to be peculiarly called for at this period, when sedition and irreligion have dared to raise their heads, and openly to threaten the subversion of our civil and religious Government, under the auspices of which the British Empire has attained political consideration and individual happiness far beyond the common lot of nations.

We beg to assure your Majesty of our fixed resolution to counteract and put down, by all the means wherewith Providence has favoured us, that seditious and irreligious spirit which, to our deep regret, has prevailed to such an extent, that, if it be not speedily checked, the very existence of the British Constitution will be endangered. We beg to express to your Majesty our determination to use every possible effort to protect against the designs of the seditious, and to hand down to our posterity, in undiminished purity, that glorious Constitution which has so long been the pride of this country, and the admiration and envy of surrounding nations.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, R.

WHEREAS Our Parliament stands prorogued to Tuesday the twenty-third day of January next; We do, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, hereby publish and declare, that the said Parliament shall, on the said twenty-third day of January next, be held and sit for the dispatch of divers urgent and important affairs: And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their attendance accordingly, at Westminster, on the said twenty-third day of January next.

Given at Our Court at Carlton-House, the twenty-fourth day of November one thousand eight hundred and twenty, and in the first year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, R.

WHEREAS His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His late Majesty King George the Third, was pleased, by His Royal Proclamation, bearing date the twentieth day of November one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, to declare His Royal will and pleasure, that the Governors or Deputy Governors of Gibraltar and Malta should be authorised to issue Mediterranean Passes for the protection of ships belonging to His said late Majesty's subjects in those possessions, according to a certain form therein referred to, marked (C), under and subject to certain regulations and sureties therein set forth; and whereas doubts have arisen as to the term during which it was intended that the said Passes should remain in force; We taking the premises into Our Royal consideration, and judging it necessary to remove such doubts, have thought fit, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, to publish this Our Royal Proclamation, and We do hereby declare, that the Passes to be issued by Our Governors or Deputy Governors of Our said possessions of Gibraltar and Malta for the protection of ships or vessels belonging to Our subjects in Our said possessions, according to the form (C), and under the conditions set forth in the before-mentioned Proclamation of the twentieth of November one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, shall be and continue in force for one year from the day on which the same shall respectively be issued, and no longer; and that at the expiration of that term, the said Passes shall be delivered up to the said Governors or Deputy Governors for the purpose of being cancelled, as required by the said

Proclamation of the twentieth of November one thousand eight hundred and nineteen.

Given at Our Court at Carlton-House, this twenty-second day of November one thousand eight hundred and twenty, and in the first year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, R.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to provide for a new silver coinage, and to regulate the gold and silver currency of this realm," the Master and Worker of Our Mint in London was authorised and empowered to coin, or cause to be coined, silver bullion into silver coins, consisting of crowns, half crowns, shillings, and sixpences, of the standard of eleven ounces and two penny weights of fine silver, and eighteen penny weights of alloy to the pound troy, and in weight after the rate of sixty-six shillings to the pound troy: and whereas in virtue of the powers so given, a coinage of half crowns (in addition to the coinage of the other denominations of silver monies), at the rate of sixty-six shillings to the pound troy, and of the standard of fineness above-mentioned, every such half crown piece having for the obverse impression Our effigies or portraiture, with the inscription "Georgius III, D. G. Britanniar: Rex F: D:" and for the reverse the ensigns armorial of Our United Kingdom, contained in a shield surmounted by Our Royal Crown, the Rose, Thistle, and Shamrock, being placed round the shield with the word "Anno" and the date of the year, and the edge of the piece being marked with the graining used on the coins of His late Majesty, has been delivered from Our Mint to the Bank of England, and will be issued therefrom for the use of Our subjects: We have therefore, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, thought fit to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, and we do hereby ordain, declare, and command, that the said pieces of silver money shall from and after the day of the date of this Our Proclamation be current and lawful money of Our Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and shall pass and be received as current and lawful money of Our said Kingdom, that is to say, such half crown pieces as of the value of two shillings and sixpence in all payments and transactions of money.

Given at Our Court at Carlton-House, this twentieth day of October one thousand eight hundred and twenty, and in the first year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 22d of November 1820,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-seventh year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 67, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend training, and to regulate the quotas of the militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council, to suspend the calling out of the militia of the United Kingdom, or any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county, riding, shire, stewartry, city, town, or place, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in any year, and to order and direct that no training or exercising of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any county or counties, riding or ridings, shire or shires, stewartry or stewartries, city or cities, town or towns, or place or places, specified in any such Order or Orders in Council, shall take place in any year, any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the militia, to the contrary notwithstanding: And whereas it is deemed expedient that such training and exercising of the militia of the city of London should be dispensed with in the present year, it is ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the calling out of the militia of the city of London, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in the present year, be suspended, and that no training or exercising of the said militia do take place in the present year.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 22d of November 1820,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the twenty-ninth of May last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder, arms, or ammunition, to the places therein specified, will expire on the thirtieth day of this instant November; and whereas it is expedient, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth day of this instant November), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place within the dominions of the King of Spain, or to any port or place on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places within the dominions of the King of Spain, or into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition," and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:"

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 12th of July 1820,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the first year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to continue until the fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, an Act of the fifty-seventh year of His late Majesty, for regulating the trade and commerce to and from the Cape of Good Hope, and for regulating the trade of the Island of Mauritius;" His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, by any Order or Orders to be issued from time to time, to give such directions, and to make such regulations touching the trade and commerce to and from all islands, colonies, or places, and the territories and dependencies thereof, to His Majesty belonging, or in His possession, in Africa, or Asia to the eastward of the Cape of Good Hope (excepting only the possessions of the East India Company), as to His Majesty in Council, shall appear most expedient and salutary, any thing contained in an Act, passed in the twelfth year of the reign of His Majesty King Charles the Second, intituled "An Act for the encouraging and increasing of shipping and navigation," or in an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His Majesty King William the Third, intituled "An Act for preventing frauds, and regulating abuses in the plantation trade," or any other Act or Acts of Parliament now in force, relating to His Majesty's colonies and plantations, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament; law, usage or custom to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding; and whereas by virtue of the powers granted by the above-recited Act of the fifty-seventh year of His late Majesty, an Order in Council was passed on the twenty-eighth of May one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, for regulating the trade of the Island of Mauritius, with states in amity with His Majesty, on the conditions therein set forth; His Majesty is pleased to direct that the said Order be and the same is hereby revoked; and His Majesty is further pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this present Order, British vessels arriving at any port of the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, from any country in amity with His Majesty, laden with any articles of the growth, production, or manufacture of such country (excepting all articles composed of cotton, iron, steel, or wool of foreign manufacture), shall be permitted to enter and land their cargoes, and dispose of the same in the said ports, subject to such duties as may be there payable thereon:

And it is further ordered, that British vessels arriving as aforesaid, shall be permitted to export to any such foreign country in amity with His Majesty, cargoes consisting of any articles of the growth, production, or manufacture of the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, or of any other articles which shall have been legally imported there, on payment of such duties as may be payable thereon:

And it is hereby further ordered, that vessels belonging to the subjects of any foreign state in amity with His Majesty, which foreign state shall allow British vessels to carry on trade as aforesaid between the ports of such state and the Island of Mauritius, shall be permitted in like manner to import into the ports of the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, from any port of the state to which such vessel shall belong, any articles of the growth, production, or manufacture of such foreign state (excepting all articles composed of cotton, iron, steel, or wool of foreign manufacture), and to dispose of the same in the ports of the said Island and its dependencies, on payment of the same duties as shall be payable on the like articles when imported from such foreign state in British vessels; provided, however, that if higher duties are charged on the export of such goods from any such foreign state, to the Island of Mauritius in British vessels, than are charged on the export of similar articles to the said Island in ships of such foreign state, a countervailing duty of equal amount shall be charged on the said articles when imported into the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, in vessels of such foreign state, over and above the duties payable on the like articles when imported from such state in British vessels:

And it is hereby further ordered, that every such foreign vessel shall be permitted to export a cargo consisting of any articles of the growth, production or manufacture of the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, or of any other articles which shall have been legally imported there, on payment of a duty of eight per cent. ad valorem, over and above the duties charged on the like goods when exported from the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, to such foreign state in a British vessel; provided, however, that in cases where satisfactory proof shall be given that the said articles, when imported into such foreign state from the Island of Mauritius in British vessels, are charged with no higher duties than are charged on the like articles when imported in vessels of such foreign state; and that such articles when imported in British vessels are entitled to the same privileges and advantages with respect to warehousing and internal consumption or otherwise, as when imported in vessels of such state, then and in such case no higher duties shall be charged on the export of such articles from the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, in vessels of such foreign state, than shall be charged on the export of the like articles in British vessels to such foreign state:

It is, however, hereby further ordered and declared, that no foreign vessel, allowed by the terms of this Order to export a cargo from the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, shall be permitted to export such cargo to any of His Majesty's possessions, or to any other place than a port or place belonging to the state or power to which the vessel itself shall belong.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. Chétwynd.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 12th of July 1820,

Whitehall, December 4, 1820:

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Lancelot Cowper Wade, of the city of Bristol, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, December 5, 1820:

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of Saturday the 26th ultimo, about nine o’clock, Mr. Jacob Hayward was knocked off his horse, and most cruelly beaten and robbed, at Bathford-Hill, on the high road to Kingsdown, in the county of Somerset, by some evil-disposed persons unknown; and that there is strong reason to suspect, that, on the same night, the same persons who committed the robbery upon the said Jacob Hayward, beat a poor man, named Strong, so severely, that his life is despaired of;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the robbery and assault above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually committed the personal injury on the said Jacob Hayward and ——— Strong respectively), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person or persons (except as aforesaid), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offences.—Such reward to be paid on conviction, at No. 9, Fountain-Buildings, Bath.

Whitehall, November 24, 1820.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto the King; that, on Monday the 20th instant, the house of John Walker, Esq. at Southgate, in the county of Middlesex, was wilfully and maliciously set on fire in three separate rooms, on distinct stories, by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said premises), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person or persons (except as before excepted), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—The above reward to be paid on conviction by Mr. Stafford, Chief Clerk at the Public-Office, Bow-street.

Whitehall, November 24, 1820.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that as one John Marsden, the Gaoler of the Public-Office, Great-Marlborough street, was, between the hours of four and five o'clock on the evening of Wednesday the 22d instant, conveying five prisoners, charged with robbery and felony, to the House of Correction, Cold-bath-fields, he was attacked at the corner of George-street, in Great Russell-street, Bloomsbury, by a desperate gang, consisting of nearly forty persons, who, after severely beating the said John Marsden, insomuch that his life is in danger, accomplished the rescue of the five prisoners before mentioned;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the daring outrage above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the persons who actually beat the said John Marsden) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person or persons (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—The said reward to be paid on conviction by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

WHereas by an Act of Parliament, passed in the forty-third year of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled "An Act for permitting certain goods imported into Great Britain to be secured in warehouses without payment of duty," it is, among other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the importer or importers, proprietor or proprietors, consignee or consignees, of any of the goods, wares, or merchandises, enumerated or described in the table thereunto annexed, marked (B), and which shall have been legally imported or brought into the port of London, to lodge and secure in a warehouse or warehouses to be provided for that purpose, any such goods, wares, or merchandise, under the joint locks of the crown and the merchant, without payment at the time of the first entry of the duties of customs due on the importation thereof: and it is by the said recited Act further enacted, that if the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them shall deem it expedient, that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to any goods, wares, and merchandises, not enumerated or described in either of the tables annexed thereto, and should cause a list of such goods, wares, and merchandise, to be published in the London Gazette, then and from thenceforth, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions, of the said Act, shall extend to such goods, wares, and merchandise, in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said tables respectively, at the time of passing the said Act:

We, the undersigned, Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, pursuant to and in execution of the powers vested in us, in and by the said Act, do hereby declare, that it appears to us expedient that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to the articles of legally imported or brought into the port of London (not being imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies); and that such macaroni and vermicelli should be added to the list of goods, wares, and merchandise enumerated rated and described in the table annexed to the said recited Act, marked (E), and that such macaroni and vermicelli should be lodged and secured at or in such warehouse or warehouses, under the regulations and directions of the said Act: and we do further declare, that from and after the publication of this our certificate in the London Gazette, conformable to the directions of the said Act, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions of the said Act shall extend and be construed to extend to all such macaroni and vermicelli in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the table annexed to the said Act, marked (E), at the time of the passing of the same Act.
