TUESDAY, DECEMBER 12, 1820.

St. James's, December 11, 1820.

YESTERDAY afternoon, at five minutes after five o'clock, the Duchess of Clarence was happily delivered of a Princess. His Royal Highness the Duke of York, the Lord Chancellor, and the Right Honourable George Canning, First Commissioner for the Affairs of India, were in attendance.

Her Royal Highness is, God be praised, as well as can be expected; and the young Princess, although prematurely born, is expected to live.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to Viscount Sidmouth, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, were presented by His Lordship to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff and Common Council of Newcastle-upon-Tyne.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff, and Common Council of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, humbly offer to your Majesty our sincere and ardent assurances of inviolable attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government.

We remember with the deepest feeling of gratitude the many inestimable blessings we long enjoyed under the mild and beneficent rule of your Majesty's august Father, our late revered Sovereign; and we lament that attempts have been made in the very beginning of your Majesty's reign to revive a factious and turbulent spirit, which, under the influence of wise and salutary councils, had been in a great measure subdued.

We beg leave to assure your Majesty, that we firmly rely on the energy of your Majesty's Government, for maintaining the future safety and welfare of the country; and that we have the utmost confidence in the wisdom of those Counsellors under whose auspices this empire has passed with glory through the most eventful period of its history.

We pray that your Majesty's reign may be long and prosperous, and equally secure from the invasion of foreign enemies and the treachery of domestic disaffection.

Given under the seal of our Corporation, this 4th day of December 1820, Geo. Forster, Mayor.

[Transmitted by the Lord Chancellor.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Inhabitants of the Mining Parishes of Rowberrow and Shipham, in the County of Somerset, feel it our bounden duty thus publicly to approach your Majesty with every assurance of our faithful and steady attachment to your Majesty's most sacred Person.

And we also beg to assure your Majesty that neither the deplorable licentiousness of the press, nor the example of the disaffected will ever tend to lesson or shake the well known loyalty and affection we have ever borne for your illustrious House and our firm determination to support our glorious Constitution.

Dated this 29th day of November 1820.

[Delivered by H. J. Addington, Esq.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble, dutiful, and unanimous Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Town of Beverley, in the County of York, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign.

MAY it please you, Sire, to receive these expressions of loyalty and unalterable attachment which, with the sincerest affection for your Person and the Constitution over which you preside, we beg leave to offer at the foot of your Throne.

Amongst the number of those that are zealous, in these portentous times, not only to express, but to give proofs of their duty to their Sovereign and respect for the Religion and Laws of their country, there are none, Sire, more anxious to participate, than the faithful Corporation of your Town of Beverley.

We have beheld with sorrow and alarm the deluge of infamous publications that have lately issued from the press; we have seen with regret the effect of such publications, and heard with astonishment the clamour of the disaffected, whose minds, tainted by pernicious writings and the insidious devices and inflammatory speeches of factious demagogues, aim at nothing less than general confusion, the subversion of established authority, and the consequent ruin of the Empire.

Far removed from the Capital of your Majesty's Dominions, and uncorrupted by the sophistry of a licentious press, we feel a warm and sincere attachment to Your Majesty's Person and Government, which we trust no artifices will ever be able to diminish; and actuated by these principles we feelingly deplore the introduction of clamour and tumult, to silence truth and justice; we feel deeply for a people misguided by such machinations; we shall ever be ready and willing to support and defend your Majesty and our invaluable Constitution to the utmost of our power, and shall hail with gladness the return of that loyal and true British feeling which has ever been the proud boast and glory of your Majesty's subjects.

Given under our common seal at Beverley aforesaid, the 4th day of December, in the first year of your Majesty's reign.

Samuel Hall, Mayor.

[Transmitted by the Mayor.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Inhabitants of the City and Neighbourhood of Chichester, beg leave at this eventful crisis to approach your Majesty with assurances of our loyal and dutiful attachment to your Royal Person and Government; and with expressions of deep concern at the increasing spirit of infidelity and sedition that seems fearfully prevailing, to the subversion of our Holy Religion, and the constituted Authorities of the land.

We do not presume to suggest what measures may be requisite to check these threatening evils, but as loyal subjects we deem it an imperative duty to assure your Majesty, with all humility, of our unalterable determination to defend the Throne from impending danger, and to preserve inviolate our glorious Constitution in Church and State.

[Transmitted by the Right Hon. Lord J. G. Lennox, M. P. and the Right Hon. W. Huskisson, M. P.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Inhabitants of East Cowes, and other parts of the Parish of Whippingham, beg leave to approach your Majesty with a declaration of our unshaken loyalty, and of our affectionate and dutiful attachment to your Royal Person and Government.

We feel more especially called upon to renew this pledge of our allegiance in the present moment, because we can no longer doubt the end and object of those daring violations of the laws and encroachments upon the Constitution which are systematically recommended and openly enforced by artful and ambitious demagogues.

In proportion as we acknowledge the blessings of a free press, and consider it as the safeguard of our liberties, we deplore and reprobate the abuse of it to purposes of sedition and blasphemy, and the consequent subversion of those very blessings it was destined to secure to our children and our posterity. When it becomes the organ of false and delusive principles, instead of the support and advocate of those which are sanctioned by the law of God, and enforced by the law of the land, the danger to be apprehended is no longer problematical; the rising generation, as well as the mass of the existing population, will be perverted into instruments and agents of their own destruction.

Impressed with these sentiments, and satisfied that the powerful influence thus afforded to the progress of a conspiracy against the peace, the happiness and the liberties of the country, can only be effectually opposed and counteracted by a general and simultaneous declaration of sound Constitutional principles on the part of the great body of the people, we feel it to be no less our interest than our duty, whilst we avow our hearty and affectionate loyalty to your Majesty's most sacred Person, to record our fixed and steady determination to support and guard the Throne against all who may seek to subvert its authority, or impair its just prerogatives; prerogatives which in the hands of your Majesty and your august Family, have never been exercised but for the good of your people and the maintenance of their legitimate rights and liberties.

[Transmitted by Sir W. Lewis George Thomas, Bart.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Bailiff, Approved Men, and Burgesses of the Borough of Andover, and the Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood thereof.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Bailiff, Approved Men, and Burgesses of your ancient Borough of Andover, and the Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood thereof, beg leave to express our unalterable attachment to your Majesty's Person and to the Constitution, in Church and State, under which we live.

Grateful to a bountiful Providence for the happiness we enjoy under a free Government, and the impartial administration of wise and equitable laws, we consider ourselves bound, by every tie of duty, interest and affection, to co-operate in our endeavours to transmit these invaluable blessings unimpaired to our latest posterity.

We can never forget that to the principles of sound religion and rational liberty, implanted and fostered in the breasts of Englishmen, we are indebted for the preservation of our national independence, amidst the convulsions of Europe; and that through the salutary counsels of a legislature, and the persevering exertions of a people, acting in conformity to these principles, we have, by the especial favour of Heaven, been enabled to bring the late protracted and disastrous war to a glorious termination.

We cannot therefore but deeply lament and deprecate all attempts that may be made to deprive us of the fruits of a triumph so dearly earned, by sowing the seeds of dissension amongst us, and we regard with horror the means that are insidiously taken to sap the foundations of moral and religious obligation; to abuse liberty by perverting the freedom of the press to the purposes of blasphemy and sedition; to alienate the affections of the people from their lawful Sovereign; and to hold up to contempt those who are appointed to act under his authority.

In such proceedings we recognize a spirit dangerous to the best interests of our country, subversive of social order, and directly leading to atheism and anarchy, and in the earnest hope of averting the evils that must inevitably flow from these corrupt sources, we beg leave to assure your Majesty that we will resist and counteract, to the utmost of our power, whatever may have a tendency thus to strike at the root of our establishment, and that we will unite hand and heart in using every effort to support your Majesty's Government, and to secure the public tranquillity.

Given under the common seal of the said Borough, and under the hands of the Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood thereof, the 29th day of November 1820.

[Transmitted by the Bailiff.]

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, R.

WHEREAS His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His late Majesty King George the Third, was pleased, by His Royal Proclamation, bearing date the twentieth day of November one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, to declare His Royal will and pleasure, that the Governors or Deputy Governors of Gibraltar and Malta should be authorised to issue Mediterranean Passes for the protection of ships belonging to His said late Majesty's subjects in those possessions, according to a certain form therein referred to, marked (C), under and subject to certain regulations and sureties therein set forth; and whereas doubts have arisen as to the term during which it was intended that the said Passes should remain in force; We taking the premises into Our Royal consideration, and judging it necessary to remove such doubts, have thought fit, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, to publish this Our Royal Proclamation, and We do hereby declare, that the Passes to be issued by Our Governors or Deputy Governors of Our said possessions of Gibraltar and Malta for the protection of ships or vessels belonging to Our subjects in Our said possessions, according to the form (C), and under the conditions set forth in the before-mentioned Proclamation of the twentieth of November one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, shall be and continue in force for one year from the day on which the same shall respectively be issued, and no longer; and that at the expiration of that term, the said Passes shall be delivered up to the said Governors or Deputy Governors for the purpose of being cancelled, as required by the said Proclamation of the twentieth of November one thousand eight hundred and nineteen.

Given at Our Court at Carlton-House, this twenty-second day of November one thousand eight hundred and twenty, and in the first year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, R.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled "An Act to provide for a new silver coinage, and to regulate the gold and silver currency of this realm," the Master and Worker of Our Mint in London was authorised and empowered to coin, or cause to be coined, silver bullion into silver coins, consisting of crowns, half crowns, shillings, and sixpences, of the standard of eleven ounces and two penny weights of fine silver, and eighteen penny weights of alloy to the pound troy, and in weight after the rate of sixty-six shillings to the pound troy; and whereas in virtue of the powers so given, a coinage of half crowns (in addition to the coinage of the other denominations of silver monies), at the rate of sixty-six shillings to the pound troy, and of the standard of fineness above-mentioned, every such half crown piece having for the obverse impression Our effigies or portraiture, with the inscription "Georgius III, D. G. Britanniar: Rex F. D.:" and for the reverse the ensigns armorial of Our United Kingdom, contained in a shield surmounted by Our Royal Crown, the Rose, Thistle, and Shamrock, being placed round the shield with the word "Anno" and the date of the year, and the edge of the piece being marked with the graining used on the coins of His late Majesty, has been delivered from Our Mint to the Bank of England, and will be issued therefrom for the use of Our subjects: We have therefore, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, thought fit to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, and we do hereby ordain, declare, and command, that the said pieces of silver money shall from and after the day of the date of this Our Proclamation be current and lawful money of Our Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and shall pass and be received as current and lawful money of Our said Kingdom, that is to say, such half crown pieces as of the value of two shillings and sixpence in all payments and transactions of money.

Given at Our Court at Carlton-House, this twentieth day of October one thousand eight hundred and twenty, and in the first year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

At the Court at Carlton-House, the 22d of November 1820,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-seventh year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 57, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend training, and to regulate the quotas of the militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council, to suspend the calling out of the militia of the United Kingdom, or any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county, riding, shire, stewartry, city, town, or place, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in any year, and to order and direct that no training or exercising of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any county or counties, riding or ridings, shire or shires, stewartry or stewartries, city or cities, town or towns, or place or places, specified in any such Order or Orders in Council, shall take place in any year, any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the militia, to the contrary notwithstanding: And whereas it is deemed expedient that such training and exercising of the militia of the city of London should be dispensed with in the present year; it is ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the calling out of the militia of the city of London, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in the present year, be suspended, and that no training or exercising of the said militia do take place in the present year.

At the Court at Carlton-House, the 22d of November 1820,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the twenty-ninth of May last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder, arms, or ammunition, to the places therein specified, will expire on the thirtieth day of this instant November; and whereas it is expedient, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth day of this instant November), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place within the dominions of the King of Spain, or to any port or place on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places within the dominions of the King of Spain, or into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammu"nition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council."

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 12th of July 1820,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the first year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to continue until the fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, an Act of the fifty-seventh year of His late Majesty, for regulating the trade and commerce to and from the Cape of Good Hope, and for regulating the trade of the Island of Mauritius;" His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, by any Order or Orders to be issued from time to time, to give such directions, and to make such regulations touching the trade and commerce to and from all islands, colonies, or places, and the territories and dependencies thereof, to His Majesty belonging, or in His possession, in Africa, or Asia to the eastward of the Cape of Good Hope (excepting only the possessions of the East India Company), as to His Majesty in Council, shall appear most expedient and salutary, any thing contained in an Act, passed in the twelfth year of the reign of His Majesty King Charles the Second, intituled "An Act for the encouraging and increasing of shipping and navigation," or in an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His Majesty King William the Third, intituled "An Act for preventing frauds, and regulating abuses in the plantation trade," or any other Act or Acts of Parliament now in force, relating to His Majesty's colonies and plantations, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament, law, usage or custom to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding; and whereas by virtue of the powers granted by the above recited Act of the fifty-seventh year of His late Majesty, an Order in Council was passed on the twenty-eighth of May one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, for regulating the trade of the Island of Mauritius, with states in amity with His Majesty, on the conditions therein set forth; His Majesty is pleased to direct that the said Order be and the same is hereby revoked; and His Majesty is further pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this present Order, British vessels arriving at any port of the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, from any country in amity with His Majesty, laden with any articles of the growth, production, or manufacture of such country (excepting all articles composed of cotton, iron, steel, or wool of foreign manufacture), shall be permitted to enter and land their cargoes, and dispose of the same in the said ports, subject to such duties as may be there payable thereon:

And it is further ordered, that British vessels arriving as aforesaid, shall be permitted to export to any such foreign country in amity with His Majesty, cargoes consisting of any articles of the growth, production, or manufacture of the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, or of any other articles which shall have been legally imported there, on payment of such duties as may be payable thereon:

And it is hereby further ordered, that vessels belonging to the subjects of any foreign state in amity with His Majesty, which foreign state shall allow British vessels to carry on trade as aforesaid between the ports of such state and the Island of Mauritius, shall be permitted in like manner to import into the ports of the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, from any port of the state to which such vessel shall belong, any articles of the growth, production, or manufacture of such foreign state (excepting all articles composed of cotton, iron, steel, or wool of foreign manufacture), and to dispose of the same in the ports of the said Island and its dependencies, on payment of the same duties as shall be payable on the like articles when imported from such foreign state in British vessels: provided, however, that if higher duties are charged on the export of such goods from any such foreign state, to the Island of Mauritius in British vessels, than are charged on the export of similar articles to the said Island in ships of such foreign state, a countervailing duty of equal amount shall be charged on the said articles when imported into the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, in vessels of such foreign state, over and above the duties payable on the like articles when imported from such state in British vessels:

And it is hereby further ordered, that every such foreign vessel shall be permitted to export a cargo consisting of any articles of the growth, production or manufacture of the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, or of any other articles which shall have been legally imported there, on payment of a duty of eight per cent. ad valorem, over and above the duties charged on the like goods when exported from the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, to such foreign state in a British vessel; provided, however, that in cases where satisfactory proof shall be given that the said articles, when imported into such foreign state from the Island of Mauritius in British vessels, are charged with no higher duties than are charged on the like articles when imported in vessels of such foreign state; and that such articles when imported in British vessels are entitled to the same privileges and advantages with respect to warehousing and internal consumption or otherwise, as when imported in vessels of such state, then and in such case no higher duties shall be charged on the export of such articles from the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, in vessels of such foreign state, than shall be charged on the export of the like articles in British vessels to such foreign state :

It is, however, hereby further ordered and declared, that no foreign vessel, allowed by the terms of this Order to export a cargo from the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, shall be permitted to export such cargo to any of His Majesty's possessions, or to any other place than a port or place belonging to the state or power to which the vessel itself shall belong :

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. Chetwynd.

And it is hereby further ordered, that vessels belonging to the subjects of any foreign state in amity with His Majesty, which foreign state shall allow British vessels to carry on trade as aforesaid between the ports of such state and the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or the territories and dependencies thereof, shall be permitted, in like manner, to import into the ports of the said settlements, or of the territories and dependencies thereof, from any port of the state to which such vessel shall belong, any articles of the growth, production, or manufacture of such foreign state (excepting all articles composed of cotton, iron, steel, or wool, of foreign manufacture), and to dispose of the same in the ports of the said settlement, or of the territories and dependencies thereof, on payment of the same duties as shall be payable on the like articles when imported from such foreign state in British vessels; provided, however, that if higher duties are charged on the export of such goods from any such foreign state to the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or the territories and dependencies thereof, in British vessels, than are charged on the export of similar articles to the said settlement, or the territories and dependencies thereof, in ships of such foreign state, a countervailing duty, of equal amount, shall be charged on the said articles when imported into the said settlement, or the territories and dependencies thereof, in vessels of such foreign state, over and above the duties payable on the like articles when imported from such state in British vessels.

And it is hereby further ordered, that every such foreign vessel shall be permitted to export a cargo consisting of any articles of the growth, production, or manufacture of the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or of the territories and dependencies thereof, or of any other articles which shall have been legally imported there, on payment of a duty of eight per cent. ad valorem over and above the duties charged on the like goods when exported from the said settlement, or the territories and dependencies thereof, to such foreign state in a British vessel; provided, however, that in cases where satisfactory proof shall be given, that the said articles, when imported into such foreign state from the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or the territories and dependencies thereof, in British vessels, are charged with no higher duties than are charged on the like articles when imported in vessels of such foreign state, and that such articles, when imported in British vessels, are entitled to the same privileges and advantages with respect to warehousing and internal consumption, or otherwise, as when imported in vessels of such state, then and in such case no higher duties shall be charged on the export of such articles from the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or the territories and dependencies thereof, in vessels of such foreign state than shall be charged on the export of the like articles in British vessels to such foreign state :

It is, however, hereby further ordered and declared, that no foreign vessel, allowed by the terms of this Order to export a cargo from the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or the territories and dependencies thereof, shall be permitted to export such cargo to any of His Majesty's possessions, or to any other place than a port or place belonging to the state or power to which the vessel itself shall belong.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain. Chetwynd

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 20th of July 1820,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty's Royal Predecessors were pleased, from time to time, by their respective Orders made in Council, to declare and signify their pleasure, that their servants should have and enjoy all antient liberties, rights, and privileges; and that none of their servants in ordinary with fee should be enforced or obliged to bear any public office, serve on juries or inquests, or be subjected unto any mulct or fine for not submitting thereunto: His Majesty, this day taking the same into consideration, and thinking it reasonable that all His servants in ordinary with fee, should, in regard of their constant attendance upon His Majesty's Person, enjoy the like privileges with those of His Predecessors, doth therefore hereby order, with the advice of His Privy Council, that the Lord Chamberlain of His Majesty's Household, in relation to such of His Majesty's servants who are under his Lordship's command above stairs; and the Lord Steward of His Majesty's Household, and in his absence, His Majesty's Officers of the Green Cloth, as to such as are accounted Officers below stairs; and the Master of the Horse, for the servants belonging to the stables, do respectively signify unto the Lord Mayor of London, and to His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, within the city of Westminster, counties of Middlesex and Surrey, and to the Mayors, Sheriffs, and Bailiffs, of any corporation, or county, and to all such as may be therein concerned, whensoever there shall be cause for asserting the said privileges; that His Majesty hath thought proper, conformably to the example of His Predecessors in this behalf, to order and require, that His servants should have, hold, and enjoy all the said liberties, rights, and privileges; and that henceforward, none of His servants in ordinary with fee, be enforced or any ways obliged to bear any public offices, serve on juries, or inquests, watch or ward, in any place where they dwell, or elsewhere, nor be subjected to any mulct or fine for not submitting thereunto: And the Lord Chamberlain of His Majesty's Household for those servants above stairs, the Lord Steward of His Majesty's Household, and in his absence, His Majesty's Officers of the Green Cloth for the servants below stairs, and the Master of the Horse for the servants belonging to the stables, are hereby authorised and required to take especial care that this His Majesty's pleasure be duly observed and put in execution; and that His Majesty's Attorney General, for the time being, be, and he is hereby authorised and required, upon any application made to him by any of His Majesty's servants in ordinary with fee, to cause a stop to be put to all proceedings already had or to be commenced against them or any of them, for refusing to watch or serve on juries, or bear or undergo any public office or employment above-mentioned; and His Majesty doth hereby further order, that copies of this Order be left with the respective Clerks of the Peace of the cities of London and Westminster, and the counties of Middlesex and Surrey, to be kept amongst the records of His Majesty's Assizes, to the intent that due obedience may be given thereunto, and His servants may not be vexed with unreasonable proceedings. Chetwynd

IN pursuance of the directions of an Act, passed in the twenty-fourth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to repeal so much of two Acts, made in the tenth and fifteenth years of the reign of His present Majesty, as authorises the Speaker of the House of Commons to issue his warrant to the Clerk of the Crown for making out writs for the election of Members to serve in Parliament in the manner therein mentioned; and for substituting other provisions for the like purposes:"

I do hereby give notice; that the death of Arthur French, Esq. late Member serving in this present Parliament for the county of Roscommon, hath been certified to me in writing, under the hands of two Members serving in this present Parliament; and that I shall issue my warrant to the Clerk of the Crown to make out a new writ for the electing of a Member to serve in this present Parliament for the said county of Roscommon, at the end of fourteen days after the insertion of this notice in the London Gazette.

Given under my hand, the 11th day of December 1820,

CHARLES MANNERS SUTTON, Speaker

The Lord Chancellor has appointed William Wailes, of Northallerton, in the county of York, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, December 5, 1820

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of Saturday the 26th ultimo, about nine o'clock, Mr. Jacob Hayward was knocked off his horse, and most cruelly beaten and robbed, at Bathford-Hill, on the high road to Kingsdown, in the county of Somerset, by some evil-disposed persons unknown; and that there is strong reason to suspect, that, on the same night, the same persons who committed the robbery upon the said Jacob Hayward, beat a poor man, named Strong, so severely, that his life is despaired of;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the robbery and assault above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually committed the personal injury on the said Jacob Hayward and ——— Strong respectively), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person or persons (except as aforesaid), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offences.—Such reward to be paid on conviction, at No. 9, Fountain-Buildings, Bath.

Whitehall, December 8, 1820.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, in the night of the 8th of November last, a great number of persons, to the amount of between two and three hundred, armed with pistols and other fire-arms and offensive weapons, feloniously assembled on the sea shore, between Sandgate and Shorncliffe, in the county of Kent, in order to be aiding and assisting in the illegal running, landing, and carrying away of prohibited or uncustomed goods from a certain boat there, and did maliciously shoot at and wound Lieutenant David Peat, belonging to His Majesty's ship Severn, and James Walker, Daniel Shehan, and John Ladner, seamen of the said ship, aiding and assisting the said Lieutenant in the execution of his duty, and in their endeavours to prevent the unlawful landing of the said goods;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the persons who actually shot at and wounded the said Lieutenant or any of the seamen under his orders during the night aforesaid) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid on conviction by the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

Whitehall, December 8, 1820.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the evening of Thursday the 23d ultimo, an outhouse, used as a stall for cattle, and a mow of hay, near to such outhouse, standing in a certain close of land, in the occupation of George Messiter, Esq. called Mogg's Close, in the parish of, and near to the town of Wincanton, in the county of Somerset, were wilfully and maliciously destroyed by fire;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said outhouse and mow of hay), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWENTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the said George Messiter, of Wincanton aforesaid, to any person (except as before excepted), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Commissioners Lottery.

Whereas by an Act of Parliament, passed in the forty-third year of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled "An Act for permitting certain goods imported into Great Britain to be secured in warehouses without payment of duty," it is, among other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the importer or importers, proprietor or proprietors, consignee or consignees, of any of the goods, wares, or merchandises, enumerated or described in the table thereunto annexed, marked (E), and which shall have been legally imported or brought into the port of London, to lodge and secure in a warehouse or warehouses to be provided for that purpose, any such goods, wares, or merchandise, under the joint lock of the crown and the merchant, without payment at the time of the first entry of the duties of customs due on the importation thereof: and it is by the said recited Act further enacted, that if the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any three, or more of them shall deem it expedient, that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to any goods, wares, and merchandises, not enumerated or described in either of the tables annexed thereto, and should cause a list of such goods, wares, and merchandise, to be published in the London Gazette, then and from thenceforth, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions, of the said Act, shall extend to such goods, wares, and merchandise, in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said tables respectively, at the time of passing the said Act:

We, the undersigned, Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, pursuant to and in execution of the powers vested in us, in and by the said Act, do hereby declare, that it appears to us expedient that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to the articles of legally imported or brought into the port of London (not being imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies); and that such macaroni and vermicelli should be added to the list of goods, wares, and merchandise enumerated and described in the table annexed to the said recited Act, marked (E), and that such macaroni and vermicelli should be lodged and secured at or in such warehouse or warehouses, under the regulations and directions of the said Act: and we do further declare, that from and after the publication of this our certificate in the London Gazette, conformable to the directions of the said Act, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions of the said Act shall extend and be construed to extend to all such macaroni and vermicelli in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the table annexed to the said Act, marked (E), at the time of the passing of the same Act.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

Edinburgh, December 5, 1820.

THE Commissioners of the Northern Light-houses hereby give notice, that a light-house is erected upon Sumburghhead, in Shetland; the light of which will be exhibited on Monday the 15th day of January next, and will thereafter continue to be lighted every night, from the going away of day-light in the evening till the return of day-light in the morning.

The following is a Specification of the Position of the Light-house and Appearance of the Light, by Mr. Stevenson, Engineer to the Commissioners:

Sumburghhead Light-house is situate on the southern promontory of the main land of the Shetland Islands, in north latitude 59 deg. 52 min., and west longitude 1 deg. 15 min. The light-house, by compass, bears from Hangcliffhead, in Noss Island, S.W. by W. $\frac{1}{4}$ W., distant twenty-one miles; from Fair Island N.E. by E. $\frac{1}{2}$ E., distant twenty-six miles; and from the Island of Foula S.E. by S. $\frac{1}{4}$ S., distant twenty-eight miles. In reference to these bearings, the light will be visible to the mariner from the southward, between Noss and Foula Islands.

This light will be known to mariners as a stationary light from oil with reflectors, and being elevated three hundred feet above the medium level of the sea, it will be seen like a star of the first magnitude, at the distance of six or seven leagues, and intermediate distances according to the state of the atmosphere.

By order of the Commissioners of the Northern Light-houses, (Signed) C. Cunningham, Sec.
