

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday October 19. to Monday October 23 1682.

Tangier, Octob. 3.

THE Morocco Ambassador, who has been detained here some time, to get the Present from His Majesty to the Emperor ashore, departed from hence the last Week towards his Court, and we have an account of his arrival at Alcazar in his way thither. The night after the Ambassador left this place, a Moorish Brigantine came within the Mole, with an intention to surprize and carry away a small English Vessel, but the Guards taking the Alarm, prevented their proceeding farther in their design than to seiz: on the Master, and some of his People: Upon which our Governor dispatched an Express the next Morning to Alcazar, to complain of this attempt to the Ambassador, who immediately caused the said Master and his Men, which had been put ashore, to be restored to their Liberty, and promised that the Commander of the said Brigantine, so soon as he could be met with, should be sent hither to be exemplarily punished.

Stockholm, Octob. 4. The last Week arrived here the Count Brandt, Envoy extraordinary from the Elector of Brandenburg, and on Monday he had his first Audience of the King, of which we have this account, that after having, in his Electoral Highness's Name, Complimented his Majesty upon the Birth of the young Prince his Son, and assured him of his Electoral Highness's desire to maintain a good Correspondence and Neighborhood with his Majesty, he represented to his Majesty the trouble his Electoral Highness had, to see things in the state they are in, and that he thought nothing ought more to be wished than that the Peace of Christendom, and particularly that of the Empire, be preserved; That his Electoral Highness had not been wanting to employ his best endeavours in order therunto, and that he doubted not but his Majesty would readily join with him and other Princes in so good a Work. The 17th of the last Month passed hence, on his return home, the Sieur Pasin, the French Ambassador, without having had any Audience of the King, because this Court did refuse to allow of the Ceremonies he pretended to do at his publick Entry and Audience, as being new, and never practised here. Preparations are making against the meeting of the Estates of this Kingdom, and many people are in expectation that matters of great importance will be brought before them.

Genoa, Octob. 7. This Week arrived here the Blissome, in 32 days from Plymouth, and had immediately Prattice, not having touch'd Spain; and yesterday arrived the Advice, Captain Sponner, from Alicante and Majorca; he met, four days since, part of the French Fleet, under the Command of Monsieur de Quefue, who were returning home from Argiers.

Strasburg, Octob. 16. On Tuesday last the Marquis de Courtemaux returned hither from Metz, where he had been to confer with that Elector concerning the present affairs; he will remain here this Month, and then intends to go to Francfort. Our Governor the Marquis de Chamilly, has obtained leave from Court to be absent two Months from his Government, to look after his private Affairs. The Sieur de la Grange, Intendant of Alsace, arrived here two days since, and yesterday he began to assign Winter-Quarters for several Regiments of Horse in this Country, from whence some Troops are to march for Burgundy, and others are to come from thence hither in their stead.

Cologne, Octob. 13. Saturday last we received an account from Liege, That the French Resident had, on the eighth Instant, delivered to the Magistrates of that City, a Letter from the French King, and at the same time had told them by word of mouth, That the Elector of Cologne having brought the King his Master to interpose his Offices, and exert his Royal Authority, in order to oblige the City of Liege to give him just satisfaction, his Majesty had commanded him the said Resident to let them know, That he desired the differences they had with his Electoral Highness, may be speedily accommodated, and that, for that purpose, they would forthwith send Deputies to Cologne, who might address themselves directly to his Electoral Highness, through the Interposition of the Bishop of Strasburg, and Monsieur Tambonneau, the French Minister thereof the said Resident adding, That the King's intention was not to deprive them of their ancient Priviledges, but to procure them a reasonable accommodation. Our Letters from Vicenna of the first and fourth Instant informed us, That General Caprara was Encamped between Freysteller and great Tolpetchen on the Waag, with 7000 Men; Count Starenberg with 4000 at Diofbeck; and the Palatine of Hungary with 2000 near Seretz; That the Rebels lay between Villecke and Karpsfen, and the Turks near Erla; That Count Serini, Brother-in-Law to Count Teckley, to whom the Emperor had sent him, was returned to the Camp of General Caprara, and from thence was gone to Ebersdorf, where the Imperial Court then was, and that he reported that the cause of the Turks separating from the Hungarians was to keep their Feast of Ramazan, after the expiration of which, it was not doubted but they would act again, having made a Bridge of Boats over the Danube, at Baracan, near Graan.

Cologne, Octob. 20. The Magistrates of Liege have sent hither the Sieur Nicolas, their Secretary, to communicate to his Electoral Highness the Letter they have received from the most Christian King; and the Answer he has had is, That his Electoral High-

Highness expects the Deputies of the said City: At the same time the Sieur Fodoci, the Imperial Minister, has received an assurance from the Magistrates of Liege, that they will not do any thing to the prejudice of the Emperor's Mediation. The French Troops that are in Alsace, have Orders to March for Flanders, and those in Flanders are to March for Alsace, where 5000 Horse are to Winter. We have advice from Hungary, That Count Teckley was gone with 4000 Men towards Lepents, with design, as was believed, to make himself Master of that place: That two Regiments belonging to Count Teckley arrived the fourth Instant in the Imperial Camp, and delivered a Letter to General Caprara, by which Count Teckley desired a Pass, and a Convoy for his Cavalry, Lymon, and his Secretary, whom he would send to the Imperial Court to Treat of a Cessation of Arms; That General Caprara had sent this Letter by an Express to the Emperor, to let his Orders thereupon, and in the mean time kept the said Regiments under a good Guard. The 1st of the 17th at the Turks were forming a Camp between Jewbusek and Gomorra.

Hague Octob. 27. The Herr Borgaert is arrived here in the quality of Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Denmark; and thereupon the Sieur Petticum, who has been several years here with that Character, has taken his leave of the States in order to his return home. We are told that a Marriage is treating between Prince Casimir, Ssadholder of Friseland and Groningen, and the Daughter of the Count de Roye in France.

Paris, Octob. 28. The Court will continue at Fontainebleau till the 14th or 15th of the next Month, and we are told that the King, at his late being at Chambor, was so well pleased with the place, that he has resolved to finish his Buildings there, and has assigned a Fond of 500 thousand Livres for that Expence. Our last Letters from Turin gave us a very good account of the Duke of Savoy's Health; and here it is reported, that an Offensive and Defensive Alliance is concluded between our King and that Duke, and that his Highness is obliged by it to furnish Winter-Quarters for the Troops which the King shall send beyond the Mountains. The Affairs between this Court and Rome are more embroiled than ever; and among other things it is said the Pope is much offended that our King (as he is informed) allows and countenances the Hungarian Rebels; and it is also said that his Majesty will send the Bishop of Strasbourg to Rome to remove the Impressions which the Pope has taken concerning the affairs of Hungary. Several Bales of Books, asserting the Pope's Authority, were lately seized here, and divers Ecclesiasticks, and others, suspected to be concerned therein, have since been imprisoned, and were three days since, Father Preilly, a man highly esteemed here, was made a Prisoner on the same account. Monsieur Basin, an Ambassador from this Court to the King of Sweden, is returning home because he could not obtain to be received at his publick Entry and Audience in the manner he desired, and that he said he found that Court in no disposition to enter into any measures with this Crown. The Formalities at Strasbourg, and other places in Alsace, are carried on with all possible diligence, and 190 thousand Crowns a Week are sent thither for that Service.

Whitehal, Octob. 20. Having received the following Letter from Sir William Paterson, one of the Clerks of His Majesties Privy-Council of Scotland, we are Ordered to Publish the same.

HIS Majesties Privy Council here, taking notice of a scandalous Libel, published Weekly at London, by one singly artiss, under the Specious name of the True Prot. Fant Mercury, which is ordinarily stuffed with many and notorious Lyes and Calumnies upon the Administration of the Government of this Kingdom, and particularly of his Mercury, Numb. 182. of the Date, Saturday September 30: In the first Paragraph whereof he most maliciously charges His Majesties Privy-Council, and indeed the whole Government, of unparalleled Severities, against the Nonconforming khanatics, as if the steady, uniform, and gentle putting of the wholesome Laws of the Kingdom in a moderate Execution, against such as withdraw from the publick Worship of God in their Parish Churches, were Violence and Oppression. Sir, by the Blessing of God upon the endeavours of His Majesties Judicatures and Servants here, Conventicles are quite suppressed, and the Government finds daily the advantage of Punishing the Authors of our unreasonable Schism, most of the poor seduced People being now absolutely reduced to their Duty to God and the King, and to their Attendance on the publick Worship, by the late Regular Course taken by the Government here. This, by Command of His Majesties Privy-Council, is directed to you to be Published in the Authorized London Gazette, for Satisfaction of His Majesties good Subjects in England, some whereof may perhaps be imposed upon by this Infamous Libeller Curtis. I am, Sir, your most faithful and obliged Servant,

From the Council-Chamber in Eden-burg, Oct. 10. 1682.

WILL. PATTERSON
Clerk. Secy

Whereas the Committee appointed and authorized for Letting the Lands, &c. of the City of London, are minded to dispose of, and demise for a Term of years, at about 100000, a piece of Ground, called Little Moor-Fields, situate without Moor-Gate. These are to give notice, That the said Committee do intend to meet at the Guild-hall of the said City, on Wednesday the eighth of November next, by three of the Clock in the Afternoon, to receive Proposals in Writing from all such Persons as are minded to take the same. And to the mean time such persons may have a View of the Plot of Dimensions of the said Ground, at the Comptrolers Office, in the Porch of the Guild-hall aforesaid, where they may also leave their Proposals to be presented to the said Committee:

Advertisements.

Dr. Samuel Haworth, who Cured a person that was put into his hands by His Majesties Command, of a deep Consumption, hath lately performed a Cure upon a Person of Quality at Paris in the same Distemper, and is now returned to his house at St. Dunstons near Christ Church and may be heard of at Mr. Haworth's in Apples Street, Gate Street.

Strayed or Stolen out of the Grounds of Mr. John Hodges, of Kingstons near Wolverhampton, in Staffordshire, on Sunday the 19th Instant a dark bay Mare, near as hand having a white Mark on her Forehead, resembling the Letter S, both her feet on the further side white, and having a little white burr near her behind, with a slip in her nose: she is in Pole, and cometh to the Whoever gives notice of her, so as she may be restored to the said Mr. Hodges, and Mr. William Rudge, by his Order, in 10 pounds, and the County of Middlesex, shall have five Pounds Reward.