

FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid on conviction by the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

Whitehall, December 8, 1820.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the evening of Thursday the 23d ultimo, an outhouse, used as a stall for cattle, and a mow of hay, near to such outhouse, standing in a certain close of land, in the occupation of George Messiter, Esq. called Mogg's Close, in the parish of, and near to the town of Wincanton, in the county of Somerset, were wilfully and maliciously destroyed by fire;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said outhouse and mow of hay), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWENTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the said George Messiter, of Wincanton aforesaid, to any person (except as before excepted), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, December 16, 1820

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the evening of Thursday the 14th instant, between eight and nine o'clock, a most daring attempt was made to assassinate Mr. Alderman Barber, one of the Magistrates of the Town of Nottingham, by some wicked and malicious person or persons, firing a blunderbuss or other fire-arm into his dwelling-house, the contents whereof struck the wall within two feet of the spot where he was standing;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the outrage above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually discharged the said fire-arm), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid), who shall give such information as shall lead to the apprehension of the persons concerned in this atrocious offence; and a further sum of TWO HUNDRED GUINEAS upon their conviction; to be paid by H. Enfield, Esq. Town Clerk of Nottingham; and a further reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is also hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence, to be paid by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

Admiralty-Office, December 4, 1820.

Notice is hereby given, that a Session of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery, for the trial of offences committed on the High Seas within the jurisdiction of the Admiralty of England, will be held at the Justice-Hall, in the Old Bailey, London, on Monday the 8th day of January next, at eight o'clock in the morning.
