

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 30, 1820.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to Viscount Sidmouth, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, were presented by His Lordship to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common Council of your Majesty's ancient and loyal City of Exeter, in Chamber assembled, feel it incumbent at this time to renew to your Majesty the assurance of our dutiful attachment to your Majesty's Person, and our unabated regard for the Constitution under which we happily live; one essential safeguard of which consists in a due veneration for the Throne.

We have observed both with regret and alarm that too many opportunities, aided by a licentious press, have been eagerly embraced to produce a temporary agitation of the public mind, and to bring into contempt the moral and religious institutions of our country.

The spirit which dictates such attempts can only be counteracted by the existence and avowal of a better spirit in other parts of the community.

We cannot therefore but be desirous, in the present state of public feeling, to express, in the most decided manner, our sense of the blessings which we now enjoy under your Majesty's Government, and our determination to resist, by every means within our power, all proceedings which have a tendency to put those blessings in hazard, or to endanger the peace and tranquility of the country at large.

We fervently pray that your Majesty's reign may be long and prosperous over a free and happy people.

Given under our common seal, at the Guildhall of the said City, the 20th day of December 1820.

[Transmitted by the Mayor.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, Magistrates, Clergy, Merchants, Householders and Inhabitants of the City of Bristol, deeply sensible of the inestimable blessings which we have long enjoyed under the mild sway of your Majesty's illustrious House, beg leave to approach your Throne with the renewed assurance of our fidelity to your Majesty's Person, and our unalterable attachment to that Constitution which has ever been the just object of our pride, the foundation of our liberties, of general security, and of individual happiness.

It is with deep regret we observe that the abettors of treason and blasphemy, by the aid of a licentious press, are more systematically and effectually than ever, uniting their efforts to bring into contempt every institution that has been handed down to us by our ancestors as venerable or holy. No branch of the Legislature has escaped their malevolence, none of the Constituted Authorities have been unassailed by their calumnies. Convinced that revolution is the final object at which this faction aims, and that our best security against their treasonable efforts is to be found in a firm support of the dignity and constitutional privileges of the Crown. We pledge ourselves to oppose to their arts the front of determined loyalty, and to unite our best exertions in maintaining a due submission to the Laws and Government of the country.

That your Majesty may long live the venerated Head of a great and free people, and may ever experience, in the attachment of your subjects, the same defence which supported your revered Sire during the political tempests of a long reign, is our most ardent prayer.

[Transmitted by R. H. Davis and H. Bright, Esqrs. M. M. P. for the City of Bristol.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff, and Common Councilmen of your ancient City of Canterbury, in Burghmote assembled, beg leave to approach your Majesty with the most sincere sentiments of loyal and dutiful attachment to your Majesty's most sacred Person and Government.

It is with the deepest sorrow we behold that spirit of disaffection and hostility which has lately manifested itself against the measures of your Majesty's councils, measures which, however calculated for the benefit and prosperity of your people, have in many instances been misinterpreted and more frequently wilfully misapplied.

Impressed with the warmest gratitude, we beg to offer to your Majesty the assurance of the firmest attachment to your Majesty's Person, and of an inviolable fidelity to the Constitution in Church and State, which has for ages proved the safeguard of our liberties and the source of our national prosperity.

Relying with confidence in the wisdom and energy of your Majesty's councils, we beg to assure your Majesty that we will cordially co-operate in repressing any attempt to disturb that peace and tranquillity which we have hitherto enjoyed, and in upholding by every effort the prerogatives of the Crown and the glorious Constitution of this realm as by law established.

Given under our common seal, at the Guildhall of the said City, the 13th day of December 1820.
Nutt, Town Clerk.

[Transmitted by S. R. Lushington, Esq. M. P. for the City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Mayor, Sheriffs, and Commonalty of the City of Cork, in open Court assembled, beg leave humbly to approach your Majesty with sincere and affectionate sentiments of loyalty and attachment to your Royal Person and Government.

We are highly sensible of the many blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and equitable rule, and we did fondly hope that when the foreign enemies of Great Britain lay prostrate at her feet, when the wise councils and mighty achievements of the united kingdom were crowned by a glorious peace, that the people (left to their innate virtues), would, by returning habits of industry, greatly mitigate, and in the end effectually remove the many evils which necessarily flowed from protected warfare, but with pain and sorrow we have seen ambitious and malignant spirits use unceasing efforts to rouse the worst passions and deprave the dispositions of the giddy and unthinking multitude, by a perversion, to the most seditious and illegitimate purposes, of that great protector of rational liberty, the press.

They have endeavoured to bring every thing sacred and venerable into contempt, the highest authority in the State they have traduced, the most august tribunal of the empire they have calumniated, the laws they have defamed, the Christian Religion (that solace of human woes) they have reviled, and blasphemy they have not only protected but encouraged by subscriptions to the blasphemers.

Viewing these portentous signs of approaching ills, we feel it our bounden duty to rally round the Throne to declare our abhorrence of such machinations, and to assure your Majesty, that with heart and hand we will unite in supporting the laws and upholding that great palladium of our liberties, the Constitution of this realm.

Done in open Court at Cork, the 8th day of December 1820.

Anthony Perrier, Mayor.

WE, the Inhabitants of the City of Cork (not Freeman), do fully concur in the sentiments expressed in the foregoing Address.

[Delivered by Sir Anthony Perrier, the Mayor.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Diocese of Waterford, viewing with the deepest concern the alarming advance of impiety and seditious threatening to subvert the Altar, the Throne, and the Laws of these realms, feel it an act of solemn and necessary duty to approach your Majesty with our assurances of our unshaken fidelity to your Majesty's sacred Person, and unalterable attachment to our excellent Constitution in Church and State.

Engaged as we are by every principle of duty we will not fail to offer up our most ardent and devout prayers to Almighty God, that the present delusion may be succeeded by the lasting blessings of uninterrupted harmony, and that your Majesty's Throne may be ever fixed on that most glorious and solid foundation, the affectionate attachment and steady allegiance of a loyal, united, and virtuous people.

R. Waterford.

[Transmitted by His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.]

To His Most Excellent Majesty George the Fourth, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, KING, Defender of the Faith, &c.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Bishop, Dean, Chancellor, Archdeacon, Prebendaries, and Clergy of the Cathedral Church and Diocese of Peterborough, beg leave to address your Majesty, at this eventful crisis, with renewed assurances of our unshaken loyalty, of our unalterable attachment to your Majesty's Person, and our fixed determination to support our invaluable Constitution against every effort that may be made to weaken or destroy it. As Ministers of Religion we abstain from questions of political party; but as we have learnt from that religion so we endeavour to impress upon our flocks their bounden duty to fear God and honour the King. In our exhortations to those who are placed under our care we shall never fail to remind them, that their private interest, as well as the public good, is best promoted by a peaceable demeanor, by a due respect for the Constituted Authorities, and by a ready compliance with the dictates of religion and law. The blessings which we now enjoy under your Majesty's paternal care we acknowledge with the gratitude that is justly due; and we sincerely pray to the Great Disposer of all events, that your Majesty may have a long and happy reign over a dutiful and affectionate people.

[Transmitted by the Bishop.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal subjects, the Chancellor, Rector, Principals, and Professors of the University of St. Andrews, consider it to be our duty, at this eventful period, to approach the Throne with the renewed expression of our profound respect and unfeigned attachment to your sacred Person and Government.

We behold, with deep regret, the continued working of that revolutionary spirit, which, in order to attain its object, labours to pour contempt upon every constituted authority, and artfully draws a line of separation betwixt the different classes of your Majesty's subjects, persuading the lower orders that they have no interest in common with their superiors, and paving the way for the reception of this destructive tenet, by persevering endeavours to destroy the authority of the sacred oracles, and to bring discredit upon the Christian faith.

The zeal which the disaffected exhibit in the dissemination of principles, tending alike to subvert the Throne, the Altar, and the entire venerable fabric of the British Constitution, joined to the eagerness with which they take advantage of every passing event, capable of being wrested to serve their seditious purposes, will, we trust, rouse the loyal to a sense of the dangers which threaten our country, and lead them cordially to unite for the protection of those civil and religious institutions which have hitherto afforded to us a degree of liberty and security greater than has ever been enjoyed in any age, or by any nation. Valuing as our richest inheritance those rights and privileges which have descended to us from our forefathers, we shall use our utmost endeavours to instil into the youth committed to our charge sentiments of inviolable affection to your Majesty's Person and Family, of veneration for our unrivalled Constitution, and of just abhorrence of all those wild theories which are hostile alike to the principles and to the existence of rational freedom.

Melville, Chancellor; John Cook, Rector.

[Transmitted by Viscount Melville.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The loyal Address of the States of His Majesty's Island of Alderney.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's ever faithful subjects, the Governor, the Court, the Minister, the King's Officers and Douzainiers of your Majesty's Island of Alderney, in the States assembled, humbly approach your Majesty with unabated feelings of loyalty and dutiful attachment.

We should not presume to intrude on your Majesty's notice, was it not at a time when, by the designing arts of wicked men, a spirit of rebellious insubordination unhappily manifests itself, threatening destruction to all lawful authority both in Church and State; at such a crisis it is that we consider it the bounden duty of your Majesty's loyal subjects to rally round the Throne and renew the assurances of their unshaken fidelity to your Majesty and the established Constitution of these realms.

We at the same time confidently trust that the All-Gracious Providence which has so long and so wonderfully preserved this nation amidst the most alarming dangers, will so strengthen the wisdom and firmness of your Majesty's counsellors as to frustrate the machinations of the disaffected, and permanently restore tranquility and good order.

That your Majesty may long live to adorn the Throne of your august Ancestors in health and prosperity, is the fervent prayer of the loyal inhabitants of this Island.

John Le Mesurier, Governor Commanding.
Alderney, December 15, 1820.

[Transmitted by Governor Le Mesurier.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful subjects, the Lieutenant-Governor, the Bailiff, the Jurats of the Royal Court, the Clergy, the King's Procureur, and the Constables of all the Parishes of the Island of Guernsey, in the States assembled, deeply impressed with a sense of the blessings which this Island has enjoyed under the protection of the British Throne, bound by gratitude to your illustrious House and Family since their accession to it, for their humane and beneficent Government, and to none more than your Majesty, who has shed eternal lustre upon that Throne, do feel it a paramount duty, in this conjuncture, to renew the assurance of our unalterable loyalty, to testify, and to testify with exultation, the love, honour, and veneration we bear towards your Majesty.

We experience, at the same time, no small gratification in being the interpreters of the like sentiments of sincere attachment to your Majesty on the part of our fellow inhabitants of this Island; and the general spirit of good order, industry, and piety, by which they are actuated, is to us a certain pledge that they will never swerve from the duty, respect, and obedience which they owe to their beloved Sovereign.

In that hope, and with a firm conviction that religious and moral habits are the best safeguards of virtue, and the most effectual means of promoting individual and public welfare, we deem it a bounden duty, in our several stations, to inculcate and cherish the culture and growth of religion and morality, that they may bring forth, among other wholesome fruits, loyalty to the King, and observance of the laws.

That these fruits, that general happiness may abound in all the dominions of your Majesty, that the Divine Providence may vouchsafe to pour down blessings of every kind on your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government; and that your Majesty may long reign in health over an affectionate and united people, is, with all humility, our fervent prayer.

Guernsey, the 15th December 1820.

[Transmitted by the Lieutenant-Governor.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, Magistrates, Clergy, Gentry, and other Inhabitants of the Town of Stockport and its Vicinity, deeply sensible of the inestimable blessings which we have long enjoyed under the mild sway of your illustrious House, beg leave to approach your Throne with the declaration of our sincere and steady attachment to our present happy Constitution, which hath been the work of ages, and is the admiration and exemplar of all other nations; trusting your Majesty will be pleased graciously to accept this our assurance of our sentiments as a pledge that we will exert the utmost of our power and influence against every effort of its enemies to disturb or overthrow it.

May your Majesty's precious life be long spared, and that you may long reign over a free and grateful people is our most earnest prayer.

[Transmitted by John Philips, Esq.]

To His Majesty George the Fourth, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, KING, Defender of the Faith.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Magistrates, Ministers, and Inhabitants of Leith, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, beg leave to approach the Throne, and to express our sentiments of unshaken fidelity and unabated attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

Venerating as we do the British Constitution, reared by the valour of our fathers, and cemented by their blood, we deeply regret that any of your Majesty's subjects, taking advantage of the times, should be found so base and so desperate as to form the wild project of subverting all that is most dear to us, by spreading anarchy and alarm through the land.

While we express our unfeigned sorrow at so many of our fellow subjects being misled by the acts of designing men, we beg leave to assure your Majesty of our fixed determination to support upon every occasion, to the utmost of our power, the Government and Constitution of the country.

Admiring the wisdom and energy of your Majesty's councils, during a long eventful period of difficulty and danger, without a parallel in the history of our race; we rest perfectly satisfied that every measure will be adopted and steadily pursued, which correct principles, directed by sound judgment can effect, for maintaining, under God, the peace, the prosperity, and the glory of the British empire.

Signed, at Leith, the 9th day of December 1820 years.

[Transmitted by the Senior Magistrate.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Dean and Canons of our Majesty's Free Chapel of Saint George, within the Castle of Windsor, beg leave to approach your Majesty with sentiments of unfeigned affection for your sacred Person, and assurances of our firm attachment to your Government.

Although, situated as we are within the walls of this the most ancient of your Majesty's Palaces, which the voice of disaffection, we trust, has never entered, and honoured as we are by your Majesty's frequent presence, we might perhaps even without professions be allowed the credit of entertaining sentiments of loyalty to our Sovereign, and attachment to the Constitution in Church and State; yet at a period like this, when sedition and impiety linked together, are stalking through the land, assailing the Altar and the Throne, and labouring to destroy every principle of religious hope, every source of national tranquillity, we conceive that we should be wanting in the respectful duty we owe to your Majesty, if we did not humbly lay at your feet this declaration of our unshaken allegiance.

As loyal subjects, as Christians, and particularly as Ministers of the established Church, we deeply deplore the success of the disaffected in inflaming the minds of the ignorant and uninformed, and we feel the utmost abhorrence of the efforts of a licentious and degraded press, which, under the guidance of virtuous and patriotic feelings, is alike the safeguard of the Throne and of the just liberties of the people, but which now openly diffuses the poison of infidelity and rebellion, daring to utter sentiments insulting to your Majesty's private feelings, and to propagate doctrines which, unless checked by the exertions of the good and loyal, as well as by the authority of the State, can only terminate in universal anarchy and confusion.

We confidently anticipate these exertions in the great body of your Majesty's loyal and devoted subjects; we entirely rely upon the wisdom of your Majesty's counsels, and the firm, but temperate, administration of the laws; and we fervently pray to the Almighty that the disaffected may be reclaimed, the misguided recovered from their delusion, and that your Majesty may long be permitted to reign in peace and prosperity over a happy and united people.

[Transmitted by Major-General Sir Herbert Taylor, M. P.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, Inhabitants of the Parish of Oystermouth, Seignior of Gower, County of Glamorgan, beg to be permitted humbly to approach your Majesty with the following declarations:

That we feel it an imperative duty, at the present crisis, when the factions are wickedly, insidiously, and openly attempting to subvert the laws and liberties of the country, to express the disgust with which we observe it.

That we perceive, with the most unfeigned regret, the audacity of the efforts which are made to mislead the uninformed, and to sap all sense of religion and loyalty, for which purpose the country is inundated with the most horrid, blasphemous, and seditious publications, evidently having in view to excite a disregard for the holy Christian religion, and to bring every thing valuable to society, and your Majesty's sacred Person, into hatred and contempt.

That we are deeply impressed with a sense of the blessings and security we enjoy to our persons and properties, under the incomparable Constitution of our beloved country, which has been the gradual result of the wisdom of ages, and is at this moment the object of imitation to different parts of the world.

That our sentiments of loyal and dutiful attachment to our gracious Sovereign and his Government are undiminished; and that we are determined actively and strenuously to support those venerable institutions, in Church and State, from which, under Divine Providence, our national character stands so high among the nations of the earth, and our domestic comforts are so essentially derived.

[Transmitted by Mr. Warde.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Magistrates and Town Council of the Burgh of Mussleburgh, in Council assembled, beg leave to approach the Throne, with sentiments of the firmest allegiance. We are duly sensible of the great blessings we enjoy from our excellent Constitution, and we assure your Majesty that our loyalty and attachment to your Royal Person remains undiminished; and we firmly resolve to exert all the means in our power to unite our utmost efforts in maintaining that respect which is due to the Laws and Government of the country.

That your Majesty may long sway the Sceptre over a free and loyal people shall always be our earnest wish.

Signed, in our name, by our appointment, and in our presence, and the seal of the Burgh is hereto affixed, this 20th day of December, in the year 1820.

Chas. Stewart, First Magistrate; Geo. Young, Second Magistrate.

[Transmitted by the Town Clerk.]

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Stirling, beg leave to approach your Majesty's Throne in the present crisis, when the enemies of our internal peace are making open attacks upon our happy Constitution, and rallying under a banner displayed in opposition to your Majesty's Person and Government, we humbly conceive it our duty to express our unfeigned veneration for that inestimable Constitution handed down to us by our ancestors, at the expence of their blood, and which Constitution (the admiration of the world), is still continued to us, through the kindness of Divine Providence, in the accession of your Majesty to the Throne of these realms; and when many of your Majesty's subjects are seduced from their lawful allegiance, through the wicked and seditious attempts of the disaffected, we beg leave humbly to express our unshaken loyalty and attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, earnestly saying that He, "by whom King's reign," may in His infinite goodness turn the counsels of your adversaries into foolishness, and grant unto your Majesty a long, prosperous, and happy reign.

Done at Stirling, in the Council Chamber, and signed in our name and by our appointment, by the Provost, and sealed with the common seal of the Burgh, this 16th day of December, in the year of our Lord 1820,

John Buchan, Provost.

[Transmitted by ——— Downie, Esq. M.P.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Taunton, in the County of Somerset, beg to approach the Throne with an assurance of our unshaken fidelity to your Majesty's Person, and our firm attachment to that Constitution which is the envy of surrounding nations and the foundation of the liberties and the happiness of our country.

We deem this public expression of our loyalty and respect more particularly necessary at a period when such daring attempts are making not only to seduce the people from their duty and allegiance to your Majesty, but to eradicate from their minds all sense of Religion, all love for the Constitution, all reverence for the Laws, and all respect for those by whom they are administered.

We have the firmest reliance on the ability and promptitude of your Majesty's Government, to frustrate and defeat the wicked projects and traitorous designs of that revolutionary faction which has been so long anxious to prostrate the Monarchy at the feet of a turbulent democracy; and we have the firmest reliance on your Majesty to maintain unimpaired the Religion, Laws and Liberties of your dominions.

We beg to assure your Majesty of our determination to support, to the utmost of our power, the constituted Authorities of the country, and to use our best endeavours to counteract the base designs of the disaffected; and we fervently hope that your Majesty will long reign over a free, loyal and united people.

[Transmitted by Sir T. B. Lethbridge, Bart. M. P.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, Vestrymen and Inhabitant Householdors of the Parish of Saint Pancras, Middlesex, humbly approach your Majesty to tender the expression of our sincere attachment to your Majesty's Person, and of our firm resolution to co-operate, to the utmost of our power, as individuals and members of society, with your Majesty's Government in preserving from violation the Constitution of this country as it is by law most beneficially and happily established.

Warned, but not appalled, by the progress of evil already made, regarding with abhorrence and determined to oppose that moral and political licentiousness which endangers the best interests of our country, we desire to avow our constant reliance on the vigour of your Majesty's counsels, and on your paternal solicitude for the welfare of your people.

We trust, with unshaken confidence, the protection of our Altars and our hearths of every thing which is dear to us as Britons, as moral and religious men, to the energy and prudence with which we are assured your Majesty, under Divine Providence, will continue to uphold the fabric of that inestimable Constitution, of which your Majesty's exalted station forms the compacting and indissoluble bond, as well as the chief and seemly decoration.

We therefore entreat your Majesty to accept the assurance of our loyal devotion to your sacred Person, and of our steadfast determination to rally round the Throne in defence, if it be requisite, of its high dignity and Constitutional prerogatives, as well as of those rights and privileges which we ourselves inherit from our forefathers and are anxious to transmit unimpaired to our posterity.

In earnest wishes that your Majesty may long and prosperously reign over us, we only participate with the great body of our fellow subjects.

[Delivered by the Rev. Dr. Moore, Vicar of Saint Pancras, and Mr. Weeding, senior Churchwarden.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Vestrymen and Inhabitants of the United Parishes of Saint Giles in the Fields, and Saint George, Bloomsbury, in the County of Middlesex.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Vestrymen and Inhabitants of the United Parishes of Saint Giles in the Fields, and Saint George, Bloomsbury, humbly beg leave to tender to your Majesty our unfeigned sentiments of veneration for, and attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person and Government.

Viewing with the deepest regret that every means are now employed, which the utmost ingenuity and malice of a misguided and restless faction can suggest, to destroy all sense of religion and respect for that unrivalled Constitution which is the boast of Englishmen, and from which so many blessings are derived, we can no longer refrain from expressing our detestation and abhorrence of these insidious and wicked attempts, and of avowing our firm determination, collectively and individually, to resist them to the utmost of our power.

Fully depending on the good sense and loyalty of the nation at large, and convinced, that so long as we are guided and directed by those pure and exalted principles which have given a pre-eminence and stability to this country over all others, we doubt not that the efforts of the factions will prove fruitless and unavailing, that our Holy Religion, the Throne and our invaluable Constitution will remain unshaken, and we earnestly hope, that, under Divine Providence, your Majesty will long live in the hearts of your faithful and loyal people.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Inhabitants of Ipswich, beg to approach your Majesty with assurances of fidelity to your Royal Person and Family, and of our attachment to the Constitution in Church and State.

The attempts made through a factious and licentious press to render the object of a recent investigation the watchword of sedition and calumny on your Majesty's Person and Government, call for our unqualified reprobation.

Our most zealous efforts shall ever be exerted to render abortive those assaults of the daring, and those machinations of the designing, which if unresisted would involve in one common ruin the Throne, the Altar and the Laws.

We offer these sentiments of unshaken fidelity and attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government as the pledge of an allegiance, which, in every emergency will devote us to the undaunted support of our civil and religious establishments.

[Transmitted by S. Jackaman, Esq. and W. Rodwell, Esq.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble and loyal Address of the Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Neath, in the County of Glamorgan.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your loyal and very faithful subjects, being desirous of shewing our firm and inviolable attachment to your Majesty's most sacred Person, as well as to our present inestimable Constitution, more especially so at this alarming crisis, when we cannot but observe with pain and anxiety the increasing discontents and revolutionary feelings excited chiefly by the machinations of artful and designing men, most humbly approach your Throne with sentiments totally abhorrent of such proceedings, and with a determination, on our parts, to resist with all our endeavours any open or insidious attempts to disturb the peace of your Majesty's realm.

Though the clamour of disaffection may seem to prevail, and misguided persons may impeach the integrity of the constituted Authorities, yet we venture to assure your Majesty, that in this reflecting country the triumph of truth is eventually certain, that the loyal and the good will unite with one heart in dutiful fidelity to the Laws, and in undaunted resolution to maintain, in every emergency, our happy establishment in Church and State, and that those who have been unfortunately misled, will at length be brought to join us in the sincere and fervent prayer that your Majesty, under Divine favour, may long enjoy a prosperous and peaceful reign.

[Transmitted by H. Grant, Esq.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Inhabitants of Woodbridge, in the County of Suffolk.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, Inhabitants of the Town of Woodbridge, humbly presume to approach the Throne with unfeigned expressions of our veneration and attachment, at a time when the principles of sedition are sedulously disseminated, when faction no longer worketh in secret and dignity of rank and elevation of office are the chosen marks for the shafts of ridicule and scurrility, we feel it our imperative duty in common with all our fellow countrymen who can estimate the blessing of equal laws, the value of social order, the importance of morality or the requirements of religion thus promptly to declare our unalterable determination to maintain the Constitution in all its entirety, the Throne in all its dignity, and your Majesty in the legitimate sway of that sceptre which is associated with the noblest and proudest records of British history. Freedom of opinion, whether religious or political and such a measured expression of it as may consist with the institution and well being of society, we gratefully recognize as the undoubted birthright of every Englishman; but we also deplore, and that with an earnestness proportioned to the sacredness of these privileges, the blindness of those who can discover the former only in a spirit of infidelity and anarchy, the latter in the grossest productions of a licentious press, its natural offspring and instrument. Against such enemies to the security and permanence of the community we pledge ourselves to contend, by every mean of influence and example, and by a readiness to co-operate upon all occasions with the established Authorities, in reclaiming the inconsiderate and misguided; and we thus publicly offer to your Majesty assurances of devoted adherence which, we trust, will be repeated from every point of the realm, and prove to your Majesty and to the world, that the character of the people of England is not to be gathered from the effusions of ribaldry or the blasphemies of atheism, nor their political tendency from the ebullitions of misnamed patriotism, though echoed on every side by the dissolute and the thoughtless, but that England, meted by her real standard, is still the most moral, the most loyal and the most enlightened country in the Universe.

December 18th 1820.

[Transmitted by George Thomas, Esq. High Sheriff of Suffolk.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Burgesses and Inhabitants of the Borough of Totnes and its Vicinity, beg leave to approach the Throne with renewed expressions of our attachment to your Royal Person and Family, and of our veneration and respect for the established Constitution of the United Kingdom.

We have lately noticed with concern and indignation the base attempts of a revolutionary faction to subvert the minds of the unwary, and particularly of the labouring classes of your Majesty's subjects, by suggesting to them grievances which do not exist, and thereby making them discontented with a Monarchy under which they enjoy more happiness, more liberty, and more security, both of person and property, than can be found in any other country in the world; and the chief engine by which this mischief has been effected is the perversion of one of our great privileges (a free press), to the most baneful and treasonable purposes. By its unbridled licentiousness religion has been grossly assaulted, and a due respect for legal authority ridiculed, the seeds of infidelity and sedition are attempted to be sown in the minds of the people, and the greatest diligence and watchfulness will be necessary to prevent their growth.

We pledge ourselves individually to use our utmost endeavours to counteract the mischievous projects of the ill disposed, and to maintain unsullied the glorious Constitution which we derive from our ancestors, and we feel confident that the loyalty and good sense of a large majority of your Majesty's subjects, will induce them effectually to unite in discountenancing all wicked effusions of the press, in repressing every violation of the public peace, and in supporting, by every means in their power, your Majesty's paternal Government.

It is our earnest prayer that your Majesty may long continue in the enjoyment of health and happiness, that your Majesty may have the satisfaction of speedily witnessing the return of the deluded to a state of submission, and that the whole nation may rejoice together in prosperity and tranquility.

Charles Taylor, Mayor.

[Transmitted by Thomas P. Courtenay and John Bent, Esq's, M. M. P.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Bailiffs and Burgesses of the antient Town of Scarborough, in the County of York, in Common Council assembled, most humbly approach the Throne, at this important juncture, and renew our heartfelt assurances of attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person and Government.

Looking back upon the arduous warfare in which the United Kingdom was long and defensively engaged, we rejoice that the wisdom and firmness of your Majesty's Councils were steadily supported by a majority of the wealth and public spirit of the country, and that the glorious achievements of British fleets and armies have happily (under Providence) been the means of saving from the grasp of the enemy all the blessings which we now enjoy in this free, independent, and favoured land.

Having thus triumphantly overcome the attacks of foreign foes, we trust that all your Majesty's faithful subjects will as resolutely oppose such unprincipled adversaries as would within these realms unfurl the banners of blasphemy and revolution.

Convinced as we are of the goodness of your Majesty's heart; assured of your Majesty's experience and judgment in the selection of confidential advisers; relying on the wisdom and integrity of Parliament; entertaining the highest respect for the Judges of the land; sensible of the protection equally afforded by the laws to the prince and the peasant, and firmly believing in the Divine Authority and excellence of the religion of Christ, we solemnly pledge ourselves to your Majesty, that against the secret machinations and the open assaults which licentiousness, treason, rapine and irreligion may audaciously attempt, we will spare no exertions, and shrink from no sacrifices which shall be deemed requisite for preserving inviolate the venerable institutions of the empire.

Given under our common seal the 18th day of December, in the first year of your Majesty's reign, by order,

John Travis, Common Clerk.

[Transmitted by the Right Hon. the Speaker of the House of Commons.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Principal and Professors of the University of Edinburgh, feel it our duty to approach the Throne with profound respect, and humbly to lay before your Majesty the expression of our principles and sentiments in the present alarming aspect of public affairs.

We have seen with abhorrence and reprobation, the malignant assiduity with which infidels and factious men have laboured in circulating impious and disloyal publications for corrupting the piety, morals and patriotism of the people.

We lament that the influence of these publications, and of the insidious arts employed to recommend them to the ignorant and unwary, has been so successful; it has engendered in some districts of the empire a spirit of irreligion, discontent and sedition; it has occasionally issued in local acts of tumult and treason; and it is with the utmost disgust and sorrow that we have observed those evils extended and aggravated by another cause. There have not been wanting those, who casually possessing a temporary and adventitious power over the passions of the worthless among the people, and who, restrained by no consideration of decorum or duty, have directed, with baneful effect, doctrines the most revolutionary, and calumnies the most atrocious against all the highest dignities, authorities and establishments of the land.

Hence it is, that with the religion of the gospel reviled and derided, with the Throne insulted and threatened, and with all the constituted bulwarks of justice, law and liberty traduced and undermined, the Commonwealth is placed in danger.

It appears to us, therefore, that the crisis is now arrived when it behoves every friend of the Constitutional Monarchy of Britain, to stand forward avowing his determination to protect with all his energies its existence, and to defend from violation that rich treasure of blessings which it has secured for our country.

Under these impressions we earnestly entreat permission of your Majesty to present to your Majesty the unfeigned and cordial assurance of our devoted and steadfast attachment to the established Constitution, in Church and State, of our respectful and affectionate regard for your Royal Person and for the House of Brunswick, and of our unshaken trust, justified by our past experience, in the enlightened and paternal administration of the Government confided to the care of your Majesty: and we solicit leave at the same time to renew to your Majesty the pledge we have heretofore given, that we will continue to employ, in our Academical station, our most strenuous and unremitted exertions to fulfil all the duties which we owe to your Majesty, and to the youth of the nation who are intrusted to our charge.

We will labour to uphold among the youth the belief and the practical efficacy of that divine religion, which, while it is the most solid safeguard of the Throne of Sovereigns, is the most certain source of a kingdom's strength and happiness and glory. We will be earnest in our efforts to discourage the spirit of civil insubordination, licentiousness and faction, to inculcate the practice of a pure morality, and to inspire and strengthen that patriotism which leads to consecrate life and fortune to the safety and honour of the State, when the State, in a perilous conjuncture, requires the sacrifice.

In following out the accomplishment of these objects with perseverance and zeal, we indulge the animating conviction, that the more we shall thereby promote the best interests of your people, the more we shall gratify the wish that is dearest to your Majesty's heart.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Edinburgh, in general meeting assembled, humbly beg leave to approach your Majesty with renewed assurances of our unshaken fidelity and attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person, and to that Constitution which your Majesty has so steadily and so gloriously defended and maintained.

Unwilling, as we are, unnecessarily to obtrude upon your Majesty the profession of our loyalty, we feel that on occasions like the present, it becomes the imperious duty of every friend to his country to stand forward without delay and avow his firm determination to support the principles of the British Constitution, and to rally round the Throne to protect the religion and laws of the country from outrage and insult.

We have witnessed with the utmost indignation the foul attempts that have been made, by means of a licentious abuse of the press, to mislead the unwary and delude the ignorant, by circulating the most unfounded and mischievous calumnies against all the constituted Authorities of the realm. Relying however with confidence on the wisdom and energy of those measures which your Majesty will adopt, and on the unshaken loyalty and incorruptible fidelity of the great mass of your Majesty's subjects, we confidently trust that those misguided individuals who have unhappily been induced to countenance the designs of the worst enemies of their country, may, through the blessing of Divine Providence, be speedily roused to a sense of their errors, and that they will soon cordially unite with us in repressing any attempt to disturb the peace and tranquility of the country; and of zealously supporting that Constitution, to which, as it has been handed down to us from our ancestors, we are indebted for those blessings which as a nation we enjoy, and which it is our most anxious wish to transmit unimpaired to our posterity.

Lothian, Preses.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Noblemen, Deputy Lieutenants, Freeholders, Justices of Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Aberdeen, in a general meeting assembled, beg leave to convey to your Majesty, in the most dutiful and respectful manner, our sincere assurances of inviolable fidelity and loyal obedience to your Majesty, of firm attachment to our free and happy Constitution, the glory and the strength of this highly favoured nation, and of our unalterable resolution ever to perform faithfully and steadily, in our several stations, those sacred and important duties incumbent on us as good subjects, and as Christians who rejoice in having been taught, from the highest Authority, to "fear God and honour the King."

Impressed with these sentiments we cannot observe, without the deepest concern and detestation, the audacious perseverance with which the most blasphemous and seditious doctrines continue to be openly disseminated in some parts of the kingdom, tending, but too evidently, to corrupt and undermine the principles, religious and constitutional of the people of this country. We trust, nevertheless, in the gracious dispensations of an all ruling and merciful Providence, that the paternal vigilance of your Majesty, and the loyalty of a faithful people, may be so strengthened and confirmed, that these and all other dangers to the Constitution and peace of the country, and to that well regulated liberty, of which licentiousness and irreligion are ever the most dangerous enemies, may be happily and effectually averted.

That your Majesty may long reign the beloved Sovereign of a free and loyal people, is our most earnest and united prayer.

Signed in our name and by our appointment at Aberdeen, the 20th day of December 1820.

Huntly, Lieutenant.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, Common Councilmen and Freemen of the Borough of Plymouth, and Inhabitants thereof, and its Vicinity, humbly beg leave to approach the Throne with our most dutiful assurances of attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person, as the Head of that glorious and unrivalled Constitution under which it is our privilege to live.

We feel it a bounden duty to express to your Majesty our indignation at observing that great palladium of British liberty, the press, perverted to the grossest purposes of deception, and teeming with sentiments of disloyalty and irreligion, calculated to lay prostrate all our ancient landmarks, and to introduce anarchy and confusion into this favoured land, under the garb of a wild and visionary reform, and tending only to mislead the thoughtless and unwary amongst us.

Far be it from us, Sire, to raise our voices against the introduction of such judicious measures as might, wisely directed, have in view to renovate the venerable fabric of our Constitution, suffering perhaps in common with all institutions of human origin, from the lapse of years; but confidently trusting in the wisdom of the laws and your Majesty's paternal solicitude for the unimpaired enjoyment of all our legitimate rights and privileges, and deprecating from our hearts the daring innovations of malignant and misguided persons, who in contempt of all law, divine and human, would erect their own baseless structures upon the ruins of all that is dear to Englishmen. We feel irresistibly called upon to declare that we will oppose, by every means within our power, the spread of these pernicious, delusive, and destructive principles, and will support with our whole energies, and if necessary with our lives, the British Constitution, at once our pride and boast, and the envy and admiration of the world.

R. T. Squire, Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Master, Wardens, Searchers, Assistants and Commonalty of the Company, of Cutlers within Hallamshire, the Town Collector and his Assistants, the Twelve Capital Burgesses and Commonalty, and the Magistrates, Gentry, Clergy, Merchants and other principal Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Sheffield, in the County of York.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Master, Wardens, Searchers, Assistants and Commonalty of the Company of Cutlers within Hallamshire, the Town Collector and his Assistants, the Twelve Capital Burgesses and Commonalty, and the Magistrates, Gentry, Clergy, Merchants, and other principal Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Sheffield, in the County of York, feel it to be our bounden duty, at this eventful crisis, to tender to your Majesty the expression of our unabated attachment to the principles of the British Constitution, and our firm allegiance to your Majesty's Person and Government.

Convinced as we are of the Divine Authority of civil institutions, we have witnessed with horror and indignation the attempts of the "presumptuous and self-willed," to spread sedition and disaffection through the land, by endeavouring to disparage the truth of that sacred volume, on which alone our hopes of future happiness are founded, and which admonishes us, by the value of those hopes; to be subject to principalities and powers.

In connection with these unhappy occurrences,

It is with the deepest concern that we have witnessed, in many instances, an unexampled licentiousness in the British press, the freedom of which, duly exercised, constitutes a part of our national glory; but the factious and seditious abuse of which, we are constrained to enumerate among the most prolific causes of that infidelity and blasphemy, that insubordination and disaffection which we have beheld stalking with such appalling effrontery from one end of the kingdom to the other.

We beg, therefore, to assure your Majesty that no endeavours shall be wanting on our part to stem that torrent of infidelity and sedition which threatens to deluge our land; and we bind ourselves to each other and to your Majesty by this solemn pledge, to support the Constitution, the laws and the Throne of these Realms by all such means as future exigencies shall appear to us to demand. This avowal we are led to proclaim, not under the influence of any party feeling, but simply from the firm conviction that it is our duty at all times, and especially in disorganising times like the present, to act in full accordance with the spirit and letter of that injunction which commands us not only to fear God, but to honour the King.

That your Majesty may long continue to sway the sceptre of this United Kingdom, and may ever find a Throne in the hearts and affections of a dutiful and loyal people, is the cordial wish and fervent prayer of us, your Majesty's most obedient and faithful subjects.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor and Burgesses, Clergy, Gentlemen and other Inhabitants of the Town and Parish of Tiverton, in the County of Devon, and its Vicinity, humbly beg leave to offer to your Majesty, at the present crisis, the renewed assurance of our attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person and Government, and of our fidelity to that happy Constitution, in Church and State, which has long been the boast and glory of our country.

At a period when sentiments of disaffection, sedition and blasphemy, and the grossest calumnies and misrepresentations of all that has been ever held most venerable and sacred, are so generally disseminated through the country by the aid of a profligate and licentious press, and when factious and unprincipled men taking advantage of every circumstance, however calamitous or unfortunate which happens to engage the public attention, strive only to outvie each other in the language of slander, and invective against all the Constituted Authorities with the avowed object of creating disaffection in the minds of your Majesty's subjects and bringing the Constitution and Government into contempt, we consider it the imperious duty of all good men and good subjects, who wish to maintain and uphold the cause of order and social Government, and that particular system of general liberty, security and individual happiness which, amidst the severest pressure of external circumstances, all the people of this land must be conscious of having enjoyed, boldly and openly to oppose themselves to the vile arts and machinations, which malevolent and designing persons are thus continually exerting for the subversion of every thing we hold sacred and most valuable, and to call upon all classes of their fellow-subjects to unite with them by every means in their power for the maintenance, support and preservation of the Religion, the Laws and the Government of this Country.

And we ardently pray, that it may please the Supreme Disposer of all events to bless your Majesty's councils with wisdom and energy to defeat and overcome all the insidious and wicked designs of disaffection and disloyalty, and that this great and prosperous nation may be as happily united in peace as it has shown itself great and powerful in war, and that your Majesty like your revered Sire, may long continue to reign in the hearts of a loyal and affectionate people. John Worth, Mayor

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Merchants, Bankers, Manufacturers and others Inhabitants of the City of Glasgow, hasten at this juncture to approach the Throne, with the most heartfelt expressions of loyalty, respect and attachment.

Impressed with the deepest sense of the inestimable advantages we enjoy, we are determined, by every means in our power, to maintain their continuance; to dispel every delusion of the ignorant and to frustrate every design of the disaffected; to preserve inviolate the obligation to the laws, to enforce the energies of the Constituted authorities; to promote the tranquility and prosperity of the country; and to transmit unimpaired to posterity the innumerable and invaluable blessings of our unrivalled Constitution.

[Transmitted by Archibald Campbell, Esq. M. P.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Principal Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Sherborne, in the County of Dorset.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Sherborne, beg leave with all humility and respect to approach your Majesty at this alarming crisis, and to express the unaltered sentiments of our attachment to your Majesty's Person and to the Constitution, under which we have the privilege to live.

Grateful to a bountiful Providence for the happiness we enjoy under a free Government, and the impartial administration of wise and equitable laws, we are among those of our fellow-countrymen who love and revere the Monarchy, as the best safeguard of our invaluable Constitution, and we consider ourselves bound by every tie of duty, interest and affection to co-operate in our endeavours to transmit these invaluable blessings unimpaired to our latest posterity.

We desire never to forget, that to the principles of sound scriptural religion and rational liberty, implanted and fostered in the breasts of Englishmen, we have been indebted, under God, for a long series of years, for the preservation of our national independence, amidst the convulsions which have agitated and shaken to the very foundations, the Constitution and Government of other countries, and to contribute, as far as it is in our power, to give permanency both to our civil and religious institutions, to preserve inviolate the sacred obligation of our laws, to aid the energies of duly constituted Authorities, and to diffuse the influence of moral duties, we beg humbly to assure your Majesty, will ever be the first wish of our hearts and the leading object of our endeavours.

As subjects therefore deeply interested in the welfare of our Sovereign, we beseech your Majesty to accept this tribute of our attachment, earnestly imploring the Divine goodness to grant your Majesty a long and prosperous reign over a loyal and affectionate people.

[Transmitted by the Earl Digby]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses and Inhabitants of the Town of Bedford and its Vicinity.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, beg leave, under the present momentous circumstances, to lay before your Majesty the renewed assurances of our firm attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and to the inestimable Constitution of these realms as by law established.

We cannot but perceive, with the deepest concern, the seditious and treasonable arts with which the emissaries of delusion, faction and misrule are busied in sapping the foundations of religion, morality and good Government, we feel nevertheless the greatest confidence in stating to your Majesty our full persuasion, that the sterling integrity and good sense of the British nation are predominant, affording at once the best defence of the Throne and the Altar, the safest antidote against the licentiousness of the times, and the most certain security of the lives and liberties of your Majesty's peaceable and faithful people.

We consider it our duty publicly to declare our firm resolution to unite with the loyal and well disposed, in resisting every attempt to violate the public peace, and to support, by all the means in our power, your Majesty's just prerogatives.

We pray that your Majesty, as the legitimate source of authority, may long continue in peace and happiness to be the Guardian of our religion, our liberties and laws, and that we may be ever impressed with a due sense of those blessings which we enjoy under your Majesty's paternal Government.

William Walter, Mayor and Rector.

[Transmitted by the Mayor.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Inhabitants of the Borough of Leicester and its Vicinity, deem it our indispensable duty, at this period of public agitation, when silence might be construed into apathy, or into an acquiescence with the designs of the disaffected, to approach your Majesty with an assurance of our unabated attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

It is obvious that increased efforts are now making, by factious and designing men, to alienate the affections of the people from their Sovereign, to subvert the Constitution, to bring into contempt and ridicule the Christian religion, and finally to produce anarchy and confusion in the nation.

We have long observed that, in furtherance of their wicked designs, the disaffected have never failed to take advantage of passing events, and it is manifest to every reflecting mind, that, under the specious pretext of defending the honour of the illustrious individual whose conduct has lately been the subject of investigation, they are only seeking to attack, with more than ordinary boldness, the highest authorities of the realm, and, by thus misleading the well disposed and inflaming the passions of the ignorant, hoping more successfully and speedily to attain the accomplishment of their wishes.

The most powerful instrument employed to effect these wicked objects is a seditious and licentious press; no establishments, however venerable or holy, have escaped its malignant attacks; the Courts of Justice, the Parliament, the Throne, and the Altar, have been alike the objects of its licentious slander and abuse.

Whilst sedition and infidelity are thus actively at work, to look on with indifference were criminal; we therefore beg leave most humbly to express to your Majesty our firm determination to rally round the Throne in defence of your Majesty's sacred Person, to support our invaluable Constitution in Church and State, and, by every means in our power, to frustrate the designs of those enemies to our country, whose exertions in the cause of sedition and infidelity have lately become so daring; relying, as we do with the greatest confidence, on the efficacy of the laws, the purity of their administration, and the zealous support of all good men; and believing also, as your Majesty has been graciously pleased to observe on a recent occasion, that "implicit confidence is due to the virtue and loyalty of the great body of the nation."

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Mayor, Magistrates, Genfry, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Berwick-upon-Tweed.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's faithful subjects, beg leave most respectfully to approach your Throne, in order to declare our firm and unalterable resolution to support your Majesty's Royal Person and Government, and the Constitution of the United Kingdom, as by law established, both in Church and State.

In these eventful times, when the disciples of anarchy and blasphemy so unblushingly stalk abroad, and a species of delusion appears to have taken possession of some of our fellow subjects, we think it to be the paramount duty of every free born

Briton, and every lover of his country, to support the established Government, and that Constitution under which we so peculiarly enjoy the blessings of civil and religious liberty, and all those inestimable benefits which have so long been the glory of Englishmen, and the pride and grace of our dear, our native land.

It has at all times been the boast of this ancient and loyal Borough, which enjoys so many and such valuable privileges and immunities from the bounty of the Crown, and the princely munificence of your Majesty's Royal Predecessors, to stand forward in every period of danger and alarm to defend their Sovereign and their country; and at no time have we found it more imperiously to be our bounden duty to do so than at present, when attempts appear to have been made, by many factious individuals, under the mask of patriotism, to subvert that glorious Constitution under which our forefathers, ourselves, and our children have so long enjoyed and still enjoy the blessings of peace and good order, and all the endearing charities of domestic life.

Deeply impressed with these feelings, it is our firm determination and our fixed resolve to support the Throne and the Altar, and in every crisis to defend your Majesty's sacred Person, Authority, and Government, with the security of which are so inseparably connected the interest, the liberties, the glory and happiness of the British people.

Dated at Berwick-upon-Tweed aforesaid, this 11th day of December, in the year of our Lord 1820, and in the first year of your Majesty's reign. A. Compton, Mayor.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the evening of Sunday the 17th instant, about eight o'clock, a large barn, belonging to Mr Joseph Goldsmith, of Maidenhead, in the county of Berks, was wilfully and maliciously set fire to;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said barn), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the County Fire-Office, to be paid on conviction by their Agent, Mr. Thomas Foster, at Maidenhead, and a further sum of FIFTY GUINEAS is also hereby offered by the said Joseph Goldsmith, to any person (except as aforesaid), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, December 22, 1820.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that two anonymous letters have been conveyed to F. G. Phillpotts, Esq. the Mayor of Monmouth, through the medium of the post-office, bearing the Monmouth post mark; the one on Sunday the 3d instant, containing wanton and disgusting abuse and calumny towards him and his family; and the other on Tuesday the 5th instant, containing a direct threat to assassinate him;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in feloniously sending the letter last mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually wrote and sent the same) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid on conviction by the said F. G. Phillpotts.

WHereas by an Act of Parliament, passed in the forty-third year of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled "An Act for permitting certain goods imported into Great Britain to be secured in warehouses without payment of duty," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the importer or importers, proprietor or proprietors, consignee or consignees, of any of the goods, wares, or merchandise, enumerated or described in the table thereunto annexed, marked (E), and which shall have been legally imported or brought into the port of London, to lodge and secure in a warehouse or warehouses to be provided for that purpose, any such goods, wares, or merchandise, under the joint locks of the crown and the merchant, without payment at the time of the first entry of the duties of customs due on the importation thereof; and it is by the said recited Act further enacted, that if the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them shall deem it expedient, that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to any goods, wares, and merchandise, not enumerated or described in either of the tables annexed thereto, and should cause a list of such goods, wares, and merchandises, to be published in the London Gazette, then and from thenceforth, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions, of the said Act, shall extend to such goods, wares, and merchandise, in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said tables respectively, at the time of passing the said Act:

We, the undersigned, Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, pursuant to and in execution of the powers vested in us, in and by the said Act, do hereby declare, that it appears to us expedient that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to the article of legally imported or brought into the port of London (not being imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies); and that such ground madder should be added to the list of goods, wares, and merchandise enumerated and described in the table annexed to the said recited Act, marked (E), and that such ground madder should be lodged and secured at or in such warehouse or warehouses, under the regulations and directions of the said Act: and we do further declare, that from and after the publication of this our certificate in the London Gazette, conformable to the directions of the said Act, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions of the said Act shall extend, and be construed to extend, to all such ground madder in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the table annexed to the said Act, marked (E), at the time of the passing of the same Act.

Given under our hands at the Treasury Chambers, Whitehall, this 21st day of December 1820,

High Court of Chancery of Maryland, in the United States of America.

Oxley and Hancock versus the Heirs of Frank Leake.

(In Chancery, July Term 1820.)

IT is ordered by the Chief Judge of the Third Judicial District in this case, that the Creditors of the said Frank Leake be required to be, and appear in this Court, to be holden in Annapolis in July 1821, to receive their dividends on said estate, in default of which the said sum will be distributed among the heirs and representatives of said deceased, provided a copy of this Order be published in the National Intelligencer and in the London Gazette for the space of three months before that time.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause wherein John Plummer, Esq. is the plaintiff, and Ann Gillman and others are defendants, it is (amongst other things) ordered, that Samuel Compton Cox, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to whom the said Cause stands referred, should inquire who was the next of kin of the testator, Francis Robins Power, in the pleadings in the said Cause named, living at his death, and if any of them were dead when they died, and who is or are the legal personal representatives.—The said Francis Robins Power had, for some time antecedently to, and at the time of his death, in 1815, been a resident in the County of Cornwall, in the Island of Jamaica; previously to his departure from England, which was in or about the year 1806, he resided till the year 1802, at Holt, near Bradford, in Wiltshire, and after that period he was engaged in the firm of Messrs. Plummer and Co. Merchants, in London.—Any person or persons, therefore, who claim to be the next of kin of the said Francis Robins Power, living at his death, or the legal personal representative or representatives of such next of kin, who may since his death have departed this life, are requested forthwith to come in before the said Samuel Compton Cox, Esq. at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, and make out his, her, or their claim to be such next of kin or personal representative or representatives as aforesaid, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Scott against Salmon, the Creditors of Sir James Sibbald, late of Fulham-House, in the County of Middlesex, Baronet, deceased (who died in the month of September 1819), are by their Solicitors, to come in and prove their debts before John Edmund Doudeswell, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Order.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Wilson against Manchester, the Creditors of John Wilson, late of Whitby, in the County of York, Master-Mariner, deceased (who died in or about the month of August 1816), are by themselves, or their Solicitors, on or before the 23d day of January 1821, to come in and prove their debts before Samuel Compton Cox, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be pre-emptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause wherein Stotchewer Scott Stotchewer is the plaintiff, and Catherine Kent, and others are defendants, the Creditors of William Stotchewer, late of Cannon-Street, in the Parish of Saint Michael, Crooked-Lane, in the City of London, Esq. (who died on the 21st day of January 1811), are to come in and prove their debts before Francis Paul Stratford, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on or before the 12th day of February 1821, or in default thereof they will be pre-emptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause of Luxmoore against Hawkes, the Creditors of Thomas Hawkes, late of Whitefriars, in the City of London, Coal-Merchant, deceased, are forthwith to come in and prove their debts before John Springett Hailey, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against John Carr, late of Wortley, in the Parish of Leeds, in the County of York, but now of Savannah, in North America, and David Birmingham Tetley, of Armley, in the said Parish of Leeds, Merchants, Copartners, Dealers and Chapmen, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, on Tuesday the 2d day of January next, at Twelve of the Clock at Noon, at the Court-House, in Leeds, aforesaid, for the purpose of taking into consideration and determining upon what answer the said Assignees are to give to a certain letter lately received from a person acting as their Attorney, at New York, in the United States of America, relating to the said Bankrupts' Affairs, in the hands of George Coggill, their late Agent; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Charles Symonds and William Taylor, late of Watling-Street, in the City of London, Warehousemen, Calico-Printers, Dealers and Chapmen, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupts' estate and effects, on Wednesday the 3d of January next, at One in the Afternoon, precisely, at the Office of Mr. Steel, Solicitor, 88, Queen-Street, Cheapside, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying, out of the said Bankrupts' estate, certain costs and charges relating thereto, previous to the issuing forth of the said Commission; and also to their employing an accountant to investigate and make up the accounts and collect the debts due to the said Bankrupts, and make him a proper allowance or remuneration for the same; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling or disposing of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts as they shall think fit; and also to their commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for recovery of any part of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors of Thomas Roberts, late of Gracechurch-Street, in the City of London, Linen-Draper, deceased, are requested to meet the Trustees of his estate and effects, on Saturday the 18th day of January next, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon, at the Office of Messrs. Sweet, Stokes, and Carr, in Basinghall-Street, London, to take into consideration (pursuant to the resolutions of a former meeting held on the 21st of November 1814); and to assent to or dissent from the relinquishment to or in favour of the widow of the said Thomas Roberts, deceased, for the benefit of herself and family, of a certain reversionary interest in the sum of 1000l. Four per Cent. Bank Annuities, to which the said Thomas Roberts, deceased, in his lifetime was entitled; or to assent to or dissent from the said Trustees selling and disposing of the said reversionary interest in such manner as they shall think fit for the benefit of the Creditors of the said Thomas Roberts, deceased; and on other affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against John Williams, of Bishopsgate-Street-Without, in the City of London, Linen-Draper, Dealer and Chapman, are desired to meet the Assignee of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on the 3d of January next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, precisely, at the Office of Mr. James, No. 29, Bucklersbury, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling or disposing of the whole or any part of the stock in trade, fixtures, furniture, and other effects of the said Bankrupt, either by public or private sale, upon such credit, and taking such securities for the same, upon account of the said Bankrupt's estate as he shall deem expedient; and to assent to or dissent from his deputed any fit person to undertake the management of the estate, stock, and other property of the said Bankrupt, and to collect and receive the debts due and to become due to the said estate, and to his making such remuneration or allowance as he in his discretion shall think proper in respect thereof; also to authorise the said Assignee to pay the salaries and wages of the several clerks and servants employed by the said Bankrupt; and further to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Susannah Laycock and George Brooke, of the Minorities, in the City of London, Slop-sellers, Copartners, Dealers and Chapmen, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, on the 2d day of January next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon precisely, at the Office of Mr. Lake, No. 9, Cateaton-Street, in the City of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery of any part of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees making sale, by private contract or by valuation, or otherwise as they shall think fit, of the personal estate of the said Bankrupts, or any part thereof; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against John Wilson the younger, of Staincliff, in the Parish of Batley, in the County of York, Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Tuesday the 2d of January next, at Half past Twelve o'Clock, at the Office of Mr. John Battye, Solicitor, in Huddersfield, in the County of York, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees deputed the said Bankrupt or some other person or persons to collect the debts due to the said estate, and to the said Assignees making such remuneration and allowance in respect of and for such person or persons services as they the said Assignees in their discretion shall think proper; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery of any part of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.
