TUESDAY, JANUARY 2, 1821.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to Viscount Sidmouth, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, were presented by His Lordship to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Magistrates, Clergy, Citizens and other Inhabitants of the ancient and loyal City of Worcester and its Vicinity.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Magistrates, Clergy, Citizens, and other Inhabitants of the ancient and loyal City of Worcester and its Vicinity, beg leave to renew our assurances of fidelity to your Majesty's Person, and of firm and unalterable attachment to our invaluable Constitution, the foundation of our liberties, of general security, and of individual happiness.

Viewing the attempts which are so openly made by designing and violent men to produce a general contempt for religion and loyalty, to vilify the constituted Authorities of the State, and to degrade every thing which, as Britons, we hold sacred, we feel ourselves called upon at this juncture to express our abhorrence of all such endeavours, which, if successful, must involve our country in ruin.

We beg leave to assure your Majesty that at such a crisis we shall feel it our duty, firmly and fearlessly, under the protection of the laws, to exert all the means in our power to support the just rights of the Crown, and to maintain that equitable balance of the Constitution which best secures the prosperity and happiness of the empire.

Given in the Council Chamber in the Guildhall of the City of Worcester aforesaid, this 11th day of December 1820.

Francis Hooper, Mayor.

[Transmitted by the Earl of Coventry, Recorder.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most devoted and loyal subjects, the Inhabitants and Visitors of Sidmouth and its Vicinity, in the County of Devon, most humbly presume to offer to your Majesty our unfeigned assurances of dutiful submission to your Royal Authority, and sincere attachment to your sacred Person. We have witnessed with the deepest regret the flagitious attempts of irreligious and disloyal men to seduce the minds of the rising generation, and of the population at large, from the fear of God and the reverence due to our glorious Constitution.

Permit us to assure your Gracious Majesty, that our utmost exertions, at this alarming crisis, will invariably be directed to promote and encourage morality and virtue; and our lives and fortunes shall never be spared in the defence of your Majesty's Person and Government.

That your Majesty may long reign over us is our sincere and fervent prayer.

[Transmitted by Sir John Kennaway, Bart.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Councilmen of the Borough of Boston, in the County of Lincoln, in Common Hall assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Councilmen of the ancient Borough of Boston, beg leave to approach your Royal Person, gratefully sensible of the many blessing we enjoy, we see with anxiety and abhorrence the unprincipled efforts of the misguided and disaffected to disturb the peace of the realm and unsettle the happy foundations of our Constitution both in Church and State.

Your Majesty's sacred Person and the highest constitute Authorities are vilified and insulted, by seditious writings and inflammatory speeches, our excellent Laws most impartially administered are attacked and disregarded, our holy Religion blasphemously defamed, and the lower orders of society are insidiously and unwarily beguiled into the commission of the most daring and atrocious enormities.

While we feel guarded in our persons and property with the fullest enjoyment of rational liberty, while we see the strongest encouragement and incentives to virtuous industry, support and protection afforded to those around us who stand in need of it; we feel ourselves imperatively called upon to express to your Majesty the deep sense we entertain of these inestimable blessings, to offer to your Majesty this unequivocal testimony of our most zealous attachment and most dutiful regard, and to tender our best services for the maintenance of those civil and religious rights so inseparably connected and identified with the safety and preservation of the British Constitution.

Given under our common seal, at the Guildhall of the said Borough, the 14th day of December, in the year of our Lord 1820.

[Transmitted by the Earl of Brownlow.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The dutiful and loyal Address of the Inhabitants of Ashford, in the County of Kent.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Inhabitants of Ashford, feel it incumbent on us to express our unshaken attachment to the Constitution and your Royal Person.

We cannot but lament that the first year of your Majesty's reign should have been marked with an increase of seditious and blasphemous publications, which threaten to overturn the institutions of our forefathers, and unless timely checked and resisted will we fear destroy the dearest rights and privileges of Englishmen, as they have widely propagated those loose principles and dangerous opinions that have been so pernicious in other countries, but which as yet have been so happily suppressed in our own.

We feel, Sir, that in the present state of the country silence may be considered as disloyalty, and supineness a crime, we therefore entreat your Majesty to accept this dutiful address, and to be assured that we will use our utmost endeavours to stem the torrent of profaneness and disobedience so prevalent in many parts of your Majesty's dominions, and that we have a deep abhorrence of every thing that has a tendency to lessen our veneration for the Legislature, the Altar, and the Throne.

We are convinced of the combination of impiety and sedition, and that the surest means of depriving us of our most valued birthrights are, to create disaffection to your Royal Person, to assert our freedom by licentiousness, or in any ways to encourage the wild spirit of the times.

We join, as we believe, a large majority of your Majesty's subjects in prayers to the Almighty, that your reign may be prosperous, and that your Majesty may transmit to your Successors the Constitution unimpaired, the Sceptre unsullied, and the people contented and happy, and devoted to the Crown.

[Transmitted by Sir Edward Knatchbull, Bart.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful subjects, the Inhabitants of the Borough of Reading, being of opinion that existing circumstances demand from every loyal man an open declaration of his sentiments to your Majesty and to the country, most humbly beg to assure your Majesty of our unshaken fidelity to your Majesty's Person and Government, and of our steady attachment to the British Constitution.

We prize our liberty as highly as can any of our fellow subjects, but convinced that nothing would more certainly deprive us of that blessing than disobedience to the laws and to those who are constitutionally placed in authority over us, we have witnessed with grief and indignation the success of falsehood and revolutionary arts in deluding the uninformed and unwary, and the increasing audacity of a most malignant, irreligious and seditious press, which does not scruple to ascribe corruptness of motive and wickedness of design to all who are exalted in the State, and by the foulest slanders to excite, in the ignorant, hatred and contempt towards the sacred Person of your Majesty, the hereditary Counsellors of the Crown, and all that should command the reverence and affection of a free and religious people.

We are, therefore, determined to oppose these alarming evils, and to support our venerable and sacred institutions to the utmost of our power; and we trust that the same wisdom and firmness in your Majesty's councils, which, under Divine Providence, maintained the independence and the honour of our nation against the most appalling foreign force, will, with the united exertions of the loyal, preserve our Constitutional Monarchy inviolate, and defend our invaluable rights from intestine enemies.

William Stephens, Mayor.

[Transmitted by the Rev. Dr. Wire, Vicar of S. Lawrence, Lancelot Austwick, Esq. and William Stone, Esq.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, Manufacturers and principal Inhabitants of the Town and Parish of Halifax, assembled at a general meeting called by the Constables for the purpose, in compliance with a requisition, beg leave again to tender to your Majesty those assurances of loyalty and fidelity which our duty and inclination lately induced us to offer to you on the happy accession of your Majesty to the Throne of your Ancestors.

At the moment when the blessings of peace ought to have healed and obliterated the miseries of contention, we lament to have seen rebellion and sedition waging an insidious and dangerous warfare against the vitals of the State.

We lament, Sir, to see a disappointed faction employing a corrupt and infamous press to blaspheme our God and revile our King, feeding and inflaming the worst passions of a deluded portion of the people, and thus endeavouring to seat itself on the ruins of the Throne and of the glorious Constitution of the British Empire.

We are afflicted, Sir, but not appalled, by this unhappy situation of our country, our reliance is on your Majesty and in your Government, in that firmness and vigour which have so highly distinguished your glorious career, and in those councils on which your Majesty has so auspiciously relied, in the justice of that cause which is the cause of God and man.

And we dutifully assure your Majesty, that you may confide in our perfect allegiance and most zealous support, in defence of that Throne and of that form of Government which, erected and framed by the wisdom and valour of former ages, have conferred such inestimable blessings on the British Empire.

Thomas Horton, Chairman.

[Transmitted by Thomas Horton, Esq.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's faithful and devoted subjects, the Mayor, Deputy Recorder, Jurats and Common Council men of your Majesty's Town and Parish of Maidstone, in the County of Kent, request permission to approach your Majesty with renewed expressions of affectionate attachment to your Person and Government.

Deeply impressed with the important occurrences of this eventful period, we have hitherto put a restraint upon our feelings from a strict regard to the immutable principles of justice, but we can no longer dissemble our detestation at the unprecedented and disgraceful scenes which are passing around us, especially do we regret the necessity of recording our indignation at opinions and declarations of late so unsparingly promulgated, more particularly by the daily press, declarations which speak in no doubtful terms of the overthrow of all that is venerable and great amongst us, and whose invincible tendency has been to foment sedition and make the ears of your Majesty's subjects familiar with treason. Aware of the infatuation which unhappily exists in the minds of many of our fellow subjects, we embrace the opportunity thus publicly to disavow to your Majesty any participation in their intentions and feelings, and we earnestly pray, that they may awake before it be too late to the designs of factions and interested men, who having made them instruments of accomplishing their own desperate purposes, would leave them helpless and unpitied victims amidst the ruins of the Throne and the Altar.

We cannot conclude without assuring your Majesty of our resolute determination to assist in stemming the tide of blasphemy and sedition which is rapidly undermining the whole frame of society, and we pledge ourselves to the maintenance of that unrivalled Constitution, whose integrity is the legitimate safeguard of the just prerogative of the Crown and the liberties of the people.

John Wise, Mayor.

[Transmitted by Joseph Berens Esq. the Recorder, and A. W. Roberts, and Samuel Wells, Esqrs. M. M. P. for the Borough]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

SIRE,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, Inhabitants of the Parish of Ealing, in the County of Middlesex, respectfully beg leave to approach the Throne with the fullest assurances of our attachment and allegiance.

Thankfully appreciating the blessings which emanate from our admirable Constitution, it is natural for us to look with an eye of jealousy and apprehension upon whatsoever may tend to its injury or subversion; it is with feelings, therefore, of the deepest abhorrence and indignation that we have beheld the active and systematic attempts of evil minded and designing men, to bring into disrepute all that is estimable amongst us, to annihilate all that is dear to us and to throw into confusion that beautiful order of things which has hitherto been our pride, our comfort and our protection.

Under the auspices of these desperate and unprincipled adventurers, that which is politically, when in honest and upright hands, our greatest blessing, has been converted into a signal curse; assuming the fair and alluring mask of freedom, a portion of the press has of late rioted in the most dangerous and extravagant licentiousness; honour, worth and sanctity have been no safeguard, the Altar, the Throne, the Laws and the judgement seat have day by day been vilified and insulted; and the loyalty, religion and morality of the country have been scared by the open justification of vice, by the prodigal maintenance of blasphemy and by the unwearying patronage of sedition.

Deeply do we lament these evils, strongly do we see the necessity of counteracting them, and considering the only mode of repelling the dangers with which we are environed, to be the decisive union of all those who are sensible of the blessings of order, of the obligations of society and of the value of christianity, we feel it to be an imperative duty to raise our voices in firm and resolute support of our Monarch in humble yet determined aid of our religion.

Unequivocally therefore do we venture to assure your Majesty of our allegiance to that Throne of which your Majesty is the lawful possessor, of our love for that Constitution of which your Majesty is the Chief Magistrate, and of our veneration for that faith, and that Church of which your Majesty is the head and defender.

[Transmitted by the Rev. J. L. Young.]

To His Most Excellent Majesty the KING.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Inhabitants of your Majesty's Town of Tullamore and its Vicinity, in Ireland, ask leave to lay at the foot of the Throne, the unaffected expressions of our sincere loyalty and dutious attachment to your Majesty's gracious Person and Government. The solid peace for which these countries panted, and with which Heaven has, in mercy blessed them, it would be ungrateful to forget, Sire, is the result of brilliant victories which crowned the matchless perseverance of your people, achieved the deliverance of Europe, and have inscribed the Regent's magnanimous administration of the mighty resources of this empire, in the unfading records of these portentous times. We recur, Sire, with a affectionate gratitude to a period of your Majesty's Government as Regent of this empire, when gloom approaching to despondence, was exchanged for splendour and glory, because we would testify that our expressions of loyalty and devotion to your Majesty, are the faithful dictates of hearts not insensible to mercies of which the dispensation was committed to your Royal Person, by the Almighty Ruler of the World.

We have hitherto cherished in silence, the cordial impression of these mercies, and we should not now give it utterance, had not the clamours of an unprincipled faction, by usurping the title of the public voice, left the faithful adherents of the Throne and Constitution, no other alternative than that of openly avowing their sentiments. We will not, Sire, suffer our loyalty to be compromised by too great an averseness from obtruding ourselves upon your Majesty's notice.

We view, Sire, with mingled horror and indignation, the efforts of that faction to subvert the Throne and dissolve the Constitution. We have seen them, with an unholy zeal, heaping contempt on the Constituted Authorities, and vilifying all that in this empire is illustrious, great and noble. The most venerable tribunals have not been spared: loathsome calumny and disgusting aspersions have been poured upon them. Malignant in the object of their cruel attempts, they are remorseless in the means. Blasphemy itself, has been published, and they have abetted the blasphemers. But though we are not ignorant of the pernicious power of these poisoned weapons, we regard the virulent discharge of them without dismay. These assaults are impotent, because our august institutions are secure in the stability derived from their purity and their independence. Every fresh attempt to depreciate, has only served to endear them to the thinking part of your people; every effort to debase, has only entwined them more closely round their affections. Your loyal people cling, Sire, with a refreshing consciousness of their excellence, to institutions of which the world does not possess a parallel, and of which the tried integrity in the administration is a subject of admiration to the present, of imitation to future ages.

We have only farther to pray, that He by whom Kings reign and Princes decree justice, will continue to your Majesty his Providential protection, and that he will not remove you hence, until he will have seen you ripe for a Crown of endless glory.

[Transmitted by the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Bailiff and Burgesses of the Borough of Bewdley, in Common Council assembled, deeply impressed with a conviction that the present moment calls upon us to stand forward in support of our King and country, humbly beg to approach your Majesty with assurances of our loyalty and attachment.

We view with sorrow and indignation the base and wicked attempts lately made by factious persons to alienate the affections of your Majesty's subjects, by the most unwarrantable attacks upon the proceedings of your Majesty's Government.

Whilst we firmly rely upon your Majesty's paternal care, and the wisdom of your councils, for the adoption of such measures as may tend to check that spirit of licentiousness and disorder at present so prevalent in this country, we assure your Majesty that no exertions shall be wanting on our part, to support your Majesty in the exercise of your just prerogatives and the due execution of the laws, convinced that in so doing, we shall best contribute (under the blessings of Providence), to the security of our invaluable Constitution.

Given under our common seal, at the Guildhall, in the said Borough, the 18th day of December 1820.

Slade Baker, Deputy Recorder.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Master, Assistants and Members of the Trinity House of Leith, intreat permission to approach the Throne, with the expression of our sincere attachment and loyalty to your Majesty's Person and Government.

Deeply sensible of the numerous blessings arising from our excellent Constitution in Church and State, we are firmly resolved, both as individuals and as a Corporation, to resist every attempt that may be made by the ignorant or the wicked to undermine the foundation on which it rests.

Appreciating as we do, the wise and parental spirit which has characterized the administration of public authority, under your Majesty's auspices, and venerating the constitutional exercise of the high power belonging to the Sovereign of these realms, we will not fail to obviate and counteract, to the utmost of our ability, the insidious arts practised by the malignant and disaffected to detract from the reverence which ought to be entertained for the Royal Person and prerogative.

That your Majesty may long reign over a great, a free, and prosperous people, disposed to fear God and honour the King, is our heartfelt and constant prayer.

Signed and sealed by order of the House.

John Hay, Master.

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble and loyal Address of the Magistrates and Town Council of the City of Brechin, North Britain.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Magistrates and Town Council of the City of Brechin, in Council assembled, beg leave humbly to approach the Throne with expressions of our unvaried love and attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

We are anxious at this moment to address your Majesty, when many of your people, misled by the intrigues of wicked and factious men, are attempting to poison the public mind with opinions subversive of all Government, and highly prejudicial to the best interests of this free and happy Kingdom.

We approach your Majesty with the deepest reverence for your Royal Person, and for the British Constitution, which confer upon all your subjects so many blessings. We will continue to use our utmost exertions in support of your Throne, and that Constitution under which we live.

That your Majesty may long continue to reign peaceably and prosperously over a loyal and happy people, is the sincere wish of your attached subjects who have now the honour of laying their sentiments at the foot of the Throne.

Signed, in our name and by our appointment, by the Provost of the said City, at Brechin, the 20th day of December 1820 years.

Colin Gillies, Provost.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Provost, Magistrates and Councillors of the Borough of Jedburgh, beg leave, at the present crisis, humbly to approach your Majesty, with renewed expressions of our warmest attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person, and to offer this public declaration of our veneration for the Throne and the Constitution of the Country.

While we lament and detest that spirit of sedition, discontent and infidelity which has of late been so much propagated, and by which all that is valuable in the State and sacred in religion has, in the most daring manner, been assailed, we solemnly pledge ourselves, by all lawful means, to use our most vigorous exertions to defeat the designs of those who are disposed to disturb our public tranquillity, or to manifest more hostile attacks against that Constitution under which the nation has so long flourished, and your Majesty's subjects have enjoyed more blessings, civil and religious, than have fallen to the lot of any other nation.

That your Majesty may long reign over a loyal, free, and happy people is our most fervent prayer to Almighty God.

Signed, in name and by appointment, at Jedburgh, the 21st day of December, in the year of our Lord 1820, and the seal of the Borough is hereto affixed. George Wilson, Provost.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The dutiful and loyal Address of the Presbytery of Langholm, County of Dumfries.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal subjects, the Ministers of the Presbytery of Langholm, feel it to be our duty, at the present crisis, to testify, in this way, our attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

We have witnessed with much concern, and we strongly deprecate the spirit of disaffection lately become so prevalent, from what we would term the violent and unconstitutional speeches of the opposition in both Houses of Parliament, and the infamous scurrility and misrepresentation of a licentious press.

As teachers of religion we deplore the infidel sentiments that are sedulously disseminated, and that have contributed more than any other cause to excite the feelings which have of late been but too openly manifested; for it must be evident that when men renounce their allegiance to God, they will also betray their King and country: and would not those to whom we allude rejoice to overturn the Altar, the Throne and the Constitution, when they scoff at religion, insult their King, and bring such railing accusations against the Men who, under an All Wise and Overruling Providence, and supported by your Majesty, have saved their country, and in whom, we will venture to say, the good sense of the nation still confides.

With every good citizen and loyal subject, we reprobate the address and petition of the Common Council of the City of London, than which a greater insult could not be offered to Majesty, and which it behoves all who wish well to their King and country publicly to condemn; nor can we refrain from reprehending severely the insolence of certain Members of the opposition upon the late prorogation of Parliament; for if such conduct in the Representatives of the people pass unnoticed, what may be expected from the people themselves.

We rejoice, however, to think that, whatever be the views of a few factious demagogues, and to whatever lengths a few ignorant and deluded men might allow themselves to be carried, the great bulk of the people in this, and in almost every quarter, conscious of the blessings they enjoy under an enviable Constitution and under your Majesty's paternal sway, will heartily unite in protecting your Majesty's Person and Government, and in transmitting our rights and privileges unimpaired to future generations.

We fervently pray that Almighty God may confer on your Majesty every spiritual and temporal blessing, and that your reign over a free, a loyal, and a united people, may be long, happy and prosperous.

Signed, in name, presence, and by appointment of the Presbytery of Langholm, at Langholm, this 19th day of December 1820, by William Berry Shaw, Moderator.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Ministers of the Presbytery of Garioch.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Ministers of the Presbytery of Garioch, in Presbytery assembled, beg leave, at the present crisis of appalling excitement and agitation of the public mind, to lay at the foot of the Throne our hearty assurances of steady attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and our unalterable veneration for the unvalued Constitution, in Church and State, with which this highly favoured nation was blessed by Almighty Providence at the glorious revolution, and which, under the paternal Government of your illustrious Family, has been in a steady course of gradual improvement ever since that memorable era.

We regard with mingled grief and abhorrence and no small degree of alarm, the daring spirit of resistance to all authority, divine and human, which distinguishes the present from all former periods of the history of Great Britain; and we pledge ourselves to exert our humble efforts to inspire all with whom we are connected, with the same sentiments of loyalty which we ourselves feel, and the same temper of peaceable submission to the Laws of our country in which we have lived, and as it becomes Christian Pastors are firmly resolved to die.

May He, who stilleth the noise of the seas and the noise of their waves, speedily still the tumult of the people, and make all the subjects of this great empire deeply sensible of the incalculable value of those national blessings which Providence has seen meet to bestow on no other people, and may He grant to your Majesty a reign as long and happy as it has hitherto been glorious.

Signed in our name and by our appointment, at Chapel of Garioch, this 13th day of December 1820, by Pat. Mitchell, Moderator.

[Transmitted by the Moderator.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's faithful subjects, the acting Magistrates of your ancient Burgh of Inverness, humbly request to lay at the foot of the Throne an assurance of our unshaken attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government, and our respect and veneration for the British Constitution, conceiving it our duty as loyal subjects to do so at a period like the present, when many of our people, misled by the intrigues of wicked and factious men, are endeavouring to disseminate political opinions which we consider subversive of all government, and destructive of the best interests of this great, free, and happy empire.

While we thus approach your Majesty with these expressions of our firm and loyal attachment, we humbly beg leave to add that we will employ our utmost exertions in support of your Majesty's Throne, and of that Constitution so wisely and happily framed, for conferring on all your subjects the most important blessings—blessings which your Majesty's people in this part of your dominions justly value, and which, we are persuaded, they are anxious to transmit to their posterity unimpaired.

We conclude with our fervent prayer that your Majesty's reign may be long, peaceful, and happy over a free and loyal people.

Signed in our presence and under our authority (the seal of the Burgh being appended), at Inverness, the 18th day of December 1820 years, by Ja. Robertson, Senior Acting Magistrate of the Royal Burgh of Inverness.

[Transmitted by the Senior Magistrate.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Rector, Churchwardens, Overseers, and other Inhabitants of the Parish of Hanwell, in the County of Middlesex, beg leave to express our most cordial attachment to your Majesty's Person, and our firm and determined support of the Government both in Church and State; hoping that this manifestation, though from an humble village, will not be unacceptable to your Majesty, and being confident that there are thousands of villages in your Majesty's dominions whose inhabitants entertain the same sentiments, and who, we are persuaded, will come forward to evince them. We feel ourselves especially called upon to make this avowal at a time when, by means of a polluted and licentious press, every thing venerable both in our religious and judicial institutions have been virulently and audaciously assailed; this is more particularly exemplified in some of our daily publications, whose columns teem with falsehood, calumny, and sophistry, tending to bring all Constituted Authorities into contempt, and to excite in our country rebellion and revolution and all their attendant miseries. Untainted by those impious and seditious doctrines, we feel it our duty to testify our unshaken attachment to a Constitution, which, under the blessing of Almighty God, hath raised this kingdom to a situation of eminence and glory unparalleled in the annals of history.

[Delivered by the Rev. Dr. Wolmsley and Colonel Clitherow.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Magistrates and Town Council of the Burgh of Maxwelltonne, in Common Council assembled, beg leave most humbly to approach your Majesty at this momentous crisis, and to declare our abhorrence at the machinations of turbulent designing men to spread disaffection, and alienate the minds of your Majesty's subjects from their allegiance to your Person and Government. At the same time we assure your Majesty of our unalterable attachment, and declare our firm determination to use every legal means in our power, in support of your Majesty's Throne and the Constitution of these realms, which has stood the test of so many ages, and been the admiration and envy of other nations.

P. Forsyth, Provost.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

Edinburgh, December 5, 1820.

THE Commissioners of the Northern Light-houses hereby give notice, that a light-house is erected upon Sumburghhead, in Shetland, the light of which will be exhibited on Monday the 15th day of January next, and will thereafter continue to be lighted every night, from the going away of day-light in the evening till the return of day-light in the morning.

The following is a Specification of the Position of the Light-house and Appearance of the Light, by Mr. Stevenson, Engineer to the Commissioners.

Sumburghhead Light-house is situate on the southern promontory of the main land of the Shetland Islands, in north latitude 59 deg. 52 min., and west longitude 1 deg. 15 min. The light-house, by compass, bears from Hangcliffhead, in Noss Island, S. W. by W. $\frac{1}{4}$ W., distant twenty-one miles; from Fair Island N. E. by E. $\frac{1}{2}$ E., distant twenty-six miles; and from the Island of Foula S. E. by S. $\frac{1}{4}$ S., distant twenty-eight miles. In reference to these bearings, the light will be visible to the mariner from the southward, between Noss and Foula Islands.

This light will be known to mariners as a stationary light from oil with reflectors, and being elevated three hundred feet above the medium level of the sea, it will be seen like a star of the first magnitude, at the distance of six or seven leagues, and intermediate distances according to the state of the atmosphere.

By order of the Commissioners of the Northern Light-houses,

(Signed) C. Cunningham, Sec.
