

to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid on conviction by the said F. G. Phillpotts.

Whereas by an Act of Parliament, passed in the forty-third year of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled “An Act for permitting certain goods imported into Great Britain to be secured in warehouses without payment of duty,” it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the importer or importers, proprietor or proprietors, consignee or consignees, of any of the goods, wares, or merchandise, enumerated or described in the table thereunto annexed, marked (E), and which shall have been legally imported or brought into the port of London, to lodge and secure in a warehouse or warehouses to be provided for that purpose, any such goods, wares, or merchandise, under the joint locks of the crown and the merchant, without payment at the time of the first entry of the duties of customs due on the importation thereof: and it is by the said recited Act further enacted, that if the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty’s Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them shall deem it expedient, that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to any goods, wares, and merchandise, not enumerated or described in either of the tables annexed thereto, and should cause a list of such goods, wares, and merchandises, to be published in the London Gazette, then and from thenceforth, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions, of the said Act, shall extend to such goods, wares, and merchandise, in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said tables respectively, at the time of passing the said Act:

We, the undersigned, Lords Commissioners of His Majesty’s Treasury, pursuant to and in execution of the powers vested in us, in and by the said Act, do hereby declare, that it appears to us expedient that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to the article of legally imported or brought into the port of London (not being imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies); and that such ground madder should be added to the list of goods, wares, and merchandise enumerated and described in the table annexed to the said recited Act, marked (E), and that such ground madder should be lodged and secured at or in such warehouse or warehouses, under the regulations and directions of the said Act: and we do further declare, that from and after the publication of this our certificate in the London Gazette, conformable to the directions of the said Act, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions of the said Act shall extend, and be construed to extend, to all such ground madder in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the table annexed to the

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

Edinburgh, December 5, 1820.

THE Commissioners of the Northern Light-houses hereby give notice, that a light-house is erected upon Sumburghhead, in Shetland, the light of which will be exhibited on Monday the 15th day of January next, and will thereafter continue to be lighted every night, from the going away of day-light in the evening till the return of day-light in the morning.

The following is a Specification of the Position of the Light-house and Appearance of the Light, by Mr. Stevenson, Engineer to the Commissioners:

Sumburghhead Light-house is situate on the southern promontory of the main land of the Shetland Islands, in north latitude 59 deg. 52 min., and west longitude 1 deg. 15 min. The light-house, by compass, bears from Hangcliffhead, in Noss Island, S. W. by W.  $\frac{1}{4}$  W., distant twenty-one miles; from Fair Island N. E. by E.  $\frac{1}{2}$  E., distant twenty-six miles; and from the Island of Foula S. E. by S.  $\frac{1}{4}$  S., distant twenty-eight miles. In reference to these bearings, the light will be visible to the mariner from the southward, between Noss and Foula Islands.

This light will be known to mariners as a stationary light from oil with reflectors, and being elevated three hundred feet above the medium level of the sea, it will be seen like a star of the first magnitude, at the distance of six or seven leagues, and intermediate distances according to the state of the atmosphere.

By order of the Commissioners of the Northern Light-houses, (Signed) C. Cuningham, Sec.

Henry Walter Beauford, Clerk, Vicar of the vicarage and parish church of Eaton Socon, in the county of Bedford, do hereby give notice that by virtue of the powers contained in an Act of Parliament passed in the thirty-fifth year of the
