SATURDAY, JANUARY 20, 1821.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to Viscount Sidmouth, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, were presented by His Lordship to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously :

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Bishop, Archdeacon and Clergy of the County Palatine of Durham, having seen an Address purporting to be an Address to your Majesty, from "a Meeting of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders," of this County, feel it incumbent on us to declare that we abstained from attending at that meeting, and that we disclaim all participation in its proceedings.

If those proceedings had been confined to the only object for which the meeting was called, widely as our real opinions differ from them, it might be sufficient for us simply to record our dissent ; but since other high matters, the general state of the nation, grievances of various kinds under which it is said to labour, and the disastrous consequences to be apprehended from them to the power and tranquility of the empire, matters not in any way included in the proper business of the day, form a large and prominent part of the Address to your Majesty ; we cannot content ourselves without protesting against even the semblance of a right in persons convened for a very different object, to answer to your Majesty on these grave subjects, for the sentiments of any but themselves.

Very different, Sir, is the view we take of the real dangers of the times ; instead of dreading any "disastrous consequences" from the measures of your Majesty's paternal Government, we do indeed see cause of alarm and of profound affliction in the successful attempts of evil-minded men, by reviling and misrepresenting all those measures, to seduce the lower orders of your Majesty's subjects from their allegiance.

Much, doubtless, of the mischief has been caused by the rashness of headstrong declaimers, heedless or ignorant of the tendency of their own folly ; but much, likewise, (it cannot and ought not to be dissembled), must be ascribed to the too prevailing apathy of wiser and better men. While war raged around us the awakened energy of the nation repressed the hopes, if it silenced not the murmurs, of the disaffected ; but when, by the blessing of Providence, the anxious struggle with our foreign enemy was closed by the proudest series of triumphs which history records, security unnerved the vigorous and manly feeling which danger had excited ; the good were too ready to surrender themselves to the enjoyment of well-earned repose, and the bad were prompt to convert even the fruits of our constancy into snares for our destruction.

From that period, during the course of more than five turbulent years, every evil principle has pursued its career with increased and increasing boldness ; secret conspiracy and open violence have by turns invaded public peace ; the liberty of the press, the dearest possession of freemen, has been prostituted to the base uses of sedition, leagued with blasphemy and infidelity ; every topic which can mislead the judgment or inflame the passions of the multitude has been enforced, in all the varied forms of exaggeration or falsehood. Not only the imputed errors or deficiencies of human policy, but even the inflictions of Providence and the irresistible course of nature have all been employed with rancorous malignity, as means of exciting the populace to defiance of the laws, and hatred of their rulers.

But it is not the populace alone in whom the evil spirit of the times has wrought its baneful work ; we have seen, with feelings which we forbear to express, men of exalted rank and distinguished talents fostering and stimulating the discontents of the multitude ; availing themselves of delusions which they despise, and of vices which they reprobate, to forward the miserable objects of party ambition. We have seen in the highest places, instances of turbulence and contempt of lawful authority, which would disgrace the lowest.

These lamentable indications of corruption, these real grounds of anxious apprehension cannot have escaped the notice of the most careless observer, much less of a Prince ever watchful for the best and highest interests of his people. But we are eager, by thus publicly declaring our detestation of the evil principles which are at work around us, to bind ourselves, before the world, to a firm and uncompromising resistance to them. As Christian Ministers, we will labour to impress on all committed to our ministry, the solemn duty of obedience to Government, for conscience sake, as well as every other obligation of their Christian calling. As men and freemen, we pledge ourselves—and we call on every man who knows the nature of British liberty, and the value of British morals, to join us in the pledge,—to stand or fall by the ancient institutions of our country. Widely as the contagious frenzy has spread, we cannot doubt the soundness of the main body of this great nation; and we rejoice to read in your Majesty's recorded answer to others of our fellow-subjects, that this confidence reigns in your Royal bosom, and will continue to animate your Councils.

May it please Almighty Providence to bless those Councils! to inspire your Councillors with zeal, vigilance, and foresight,—above all, with courage and with constancy,—equal to the difficulties which beset their path! May the good be confirmed, and the evil reclaimed! So shall your Majesty enjoy the highest earthly reward a Patriot King can covet or receive,—the consciousness of securing the welfare, and calling forth the blessings, of a loyal, united, and virtuous people!

[Transmitted by the Bishop of Durham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Dean of the Collegiate Church of Saint Peter's, Westminster, together with the Lord High Steward, Deputy High Steward, High Bailiff, Deputy High Bailiff, Chief Burgesses, Burgesses, and Burgesses, Assistants of your ancient City of Westminster and Liberties of the same, beg leave to approach your Majesty with our renewed assurances of loyalty and attachment to your Majesty, and the Constitution under which we live.

Impressed as we are with a due sense of the national blessings which our forefathers and we have enjoyed under the Government of your Royal House, we anxiously hope to transmit them unimpaired to our posterity, as the best security to their principles, their virtue, and their happiness: and we cordially unite in the firm determination of supporting, to the utmost of our power, the established Laws of the realm in Church and State.

We pray that your Majesty may enjoy a long and prosperous reign, ruling in the hearts of a loyal and affectionate People.

Given under our Common Seal,

Dardis, Town Clerk.

[Presented by Viscount Sidmouth, the High Steward.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty of the Town and Hundred of Tenterden, in the County of Kent, together with the Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the said Town and Hundred, humbly beg leave to offer to your Majesty the assurances of our faithful and unalterable attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person and Government.

And we consider it to be our imperative duty to manifest this public declaration of our sentiments, at a time when we cannot view, but with horror and detestation, the daring and wicked attempts which are so industriously making throughout the country by evil-minded persons, as well by inflammatory and seditious speeches, as by impious and blasphemous publications, to impose upon and mislead the unwary and unenlightened portion of your Majesty's subjects, by endeavouring to alienate their dutiful affections from their Sovereign, and to lessen their veneration for our holy Religion, and thereby striking at the fundamental principles of our glorious Constitution, both in Church and State.

We therefore feel an eager desire at this present juncture, to declare to your Majesty our fixed and firm determination to check and suppress by every means in our power the growing spirit of sedition and blasphemy; to uphold and rally round the Throne, and to support the constituted Authorities of the realm.

[Transmitted by the Town Clerk.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Presbytery of Chanonry.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Ministers of the Presbytery of Chanonry, in Presbytery assembled, beg leave to approach the Throne with renewed assurances of the high respect and attachment we bear to your august Person and Government, at this important and critical period, when wicked and designing persons, shaking off all fear of God, reverence for our excellent Constitution and respect to those Laws, under which our fathers and we have enjoyed all the blessings and privileges which could reasonably be desired.

And while we behold with abhorrence in various parts of the kingdom sedition, infidelity and blasphemy actively at work, corrupting the morals of the people and subverting every virtuous sentiment and every honourable and British feeling with a view to disturb the Government of the kingdom, in Church and State, we bless God that none of those vicious and poisonous principles in their malicious effects have appeared among the people under our charge, and if they should discover themselves we shall use all our endeavours to counteract their baneful influence from misleading our people, by instilling into their minds the fear of God, love to the Sovereign, reverence for the Constitution, respect for the Laws, in Church and State, and submission to all in Authority.

That your Majesty may, under the protection of Almighty God, and enjoying the affections of your subjects, be blessed with a long and prosperous reign is the earnest prayer of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Ministers of the Presbytery of Chanonry.

Signed, in our name, at Fortrose, the 19th day of December 1820 years, by

Jas. Smith, Moderator.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Counsellors of your Majesty's Royal Burgh of Kirkcudbright, in Common Council assembled, humbly beg leave at this time to approach your Majesty to renew the expression of our loyalty, and to declare our sincere attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

Although living in a part of the kingdom where the great body of the people are truly loyal, and where those seditious and blasphemous publications which are said to inundate other parts of the empire are totally unknown, or known only by name, yet, when the Throne and the Altar are publicly insulted, we should consider ourselves unworthy of those inestimable privileges which as Britons we enjoy, did we not come forward openly to profess our loyalty, and to declare our determination to use all the means in our power to maintain our invaluable Constitution against every open or secret attempt that may be made to subvert the same.

We beg farther to assure your Majesty of our most fervent wish that your Majesty may long reign over a free, a loyal, a happy, and united people.

Signed, in our name, in our presence, and by our appointment, at Kirkcudbright, this 1st January 1821. John S. Shand, Provost.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Mayor and Aldermen, Clergy, Freemen, and Inhabitants of the Borough and Neighbourhood of Liskeard, viewing with the deepest concern the seditious and blasphemous efforts of an audacious and crafty faction to subvert the Constitution in Church and State, beg leave humbly to approach your Majesty and to express our most loyal, firm and unalterable attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

We deem it also our duty to avow our united determination, by the will of Divine Providence, to support, to the utmost of our power, your Majesty's Throne, and to maintain the integrity of our venerable, happy and glorious Constitution as by law established, against the sedition and disaffection which now threaten to destroy the peace and prosperity of this realm. W. Jope, Mayor.

[Delivered by the Earl of St. Germans, Recorder.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen of the Corporation of Huntingdon, in Common Council assembled, beg leave to approach your Majesty to express our unalterable attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person and illustrious House, at a time when designing and factious men, aided by the sophistry of a licentious press, are endeavouring to withdraw your Majesty's subjects from their allegiance, and to assure you that, as we are deeply sensible of the many inestimable blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and paternal Government, we will support by every means in our power our glorious Constitution as handed down to us by our forefathers, the pride of Englishmen and the envy and admiration of the world. That your Majesty may long reign over us as the guardian of our liberties and laws, and the Sovereign of a great and loyal people is our earnest and unceasing prayer.

Given under the common seal of this Corporation, the 26th day of December 1820.

John Arundel, Mayor.

[Transmitted by the Earl of Ancram and John Calvert, Esq. M. M. P.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, Inhabitants of the Town and Vicinity of Trowbridge, in the County of Wilts, beg leave to approach your Throne with a declaration of our most sincere and firm attachment to your Royal Person and Government.

We behold with grief and indignation the persevering endeavours of the malevolent and disaffected to subvert all good order, and to oppose and bring into contempt the constituted Authorities of this country: we lament the prevalence of sentiments equally seditious and profane, and we perceive with just abhorrence the industry by which the press is made an instrument to disseminate the principles of profaneness, impiety and disorder.

Excited by evils so pernicious and threatening, we unite with all the good and loyal of your Majesty's subjects in opposition to the factious and insidious, and in support of that most excellent Constitution, which, under the protection of your Royal House, has made us and our ancestors during many years a great, powerful and distinguished people.

That your Majesty may long reign over a united people is the sincere wish of us your faithful subjects.

[Transmitted by the Rev. George Crabbe, L. L. B.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The dutiful and loyal Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the Borough of Nairn.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, feel ourselves imperious called upon at this time to renew our expressions of fidelity to your Majesty's Person, and of firm and unshaken attachment to our justly revered Constitution.

We have perceived with equal astonishment and regret the insidious arts of a desperate faction, which aims at the overthrow of the Constitution and the subversion of the Royal Prerogative for their own selfish purposes of ambition, seizing upon topics of popular feeling for the factious purpose of exciting discontent and nourishing disloyal principles among the people, and making use of the licentiousness of an unprincipled press for diffusing the seditious poison which they hope will seduce the people from their allegiance, subvert the established order of society, and bring ruin and revolution over this once happy land. These, we lament to say, have been but too much countenanced and supported by many who do not partake in their schemes, who seek only to effect a change in your Majesty's Councils in the vain hope that they would be able, when in power, to direct and regulate the popular phrenzy, whereas the history of former times teaches this uniform lesson, that in changes effected by such means, the abettors of the most violent measures, and the promoters of the most radical changes never fail ultimately to crush their more moderate adherents, and overwhelm them in the same ruin with their more decided opponents.

While we lament these melancholy signs of the times, and the extent to which disloyal sentiments have been propagated, and the quarters from which they have proceeded, and while we regret that this unprincipled faction should derive strength from a seeming alliance with talents and property and worth to which their principles are so directly opposed; we repose at the same time the fullest confidence in the good sense of the well-disposed, in the vigour of your Majesty's Government, and in the attachment to our Constitution, and to your Royal House, which still distinguishes so large a portion of the people; and we indulge the sanguine hope that the present delusion which has misled so many will be quickly dispelled, and that those whose principles of loyalty have been shaken will soon again feel that the only safeguard of their happiness is the road of duty; and that the prosperity of the country can only be insured by a strict adherence to that precept of our holy religion whereby we are enjoined to fear God and honour the King.

Signed, in name and by appointment of the Town Council, by Sir William Gordon Gordon Cumming, Baronet, as Provost of the Borough, and the seal of the Borough is hereunto appended. W. G. Gordon Cumming, P.

To His Most Excellent Majesty KING George the Fourth, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, KING, Defender of the Faith, &c.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Provost, Magistrates and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Forres, in North Britain.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Provost, Magistrates and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Forres, in North Britain, beg leave to approach your Majesty with the renewed assurance of our fidelity and loyalty.

Sensible of the blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's paternal Government, we cannot regard but with indignation the insidious and unremitting efforts of a desperate faction to excite a spirit of discontent and disaffection throughout the kingdom.

At such a juncture we feel ourselves imperiously called upon to declare to your Majesty our firm attachment to the Throne, and our unanimous determination to support to the utmost of our power our glorious Constitution, as the safeguard of our civil freedom and of our national prosperity.

From a just confidence in the character of our country, we, at the same time, fondly hope that the present delusion will soon subside, and that, happy in the affections of an united and loyal people, your Majesty will be blessed with a long and a prosperous reign.

Signed, in our name, by our appointment and in our presence, at Forres, the 23d day of December 1820. J. A. Grant, Provost.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The dutiful and loyal Address of the Chancellor, Rector, Principal and Professors of His Majesty's Marischal College and University of Aberdeen.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Chancellor, Rector, Principal and Professors of your Majesty's Marischal College and University of Aberdeen, beg leave, with all becoming humility, to offer to your Majesty the most sincere and emphatic expressions of our unshaken loyalty and allegiance to your Royal Person and Government, and of our steady affection towards all the other branches of your illustrious House; we intreat your Majesty to be assured of our firm adherence to the British Constitution, equally removed from despotical power and democratical licentiousness, of our unalterable respect for lawful Authority on the one hand, and for the consequent obligations of cheerful obedience on the other, by whose reciprocal influence rulers and their people are united in the strongest and most endearing bonds, and of our inviolable veneration for our Holy Religion, whose spirit and express precepts place the Throne under the protection of Heaven, and secure to subjects the constant maintenance of their rights and liberties.

We beg leave humbly to represent that, as far as our observation has extended, the great body of the people in this northern part of your Majesty's dominions are actuated by a sincere spirit of loyalty, entertain a salutary and influential reverence for religion, and are firmly attached to that Ecclesiastical establishment from which so many religious and moral advantages have been derived.

We beg permission to assure your Majesty, that while we assiduously instruct the youth committed to our charge in all good literature, and liberal, and useful science, we shall never cease to inculcate on them awful reverence for God, unalterable loyalty towards our Most Gracious Sovereign, enlightened and invincible devotion to our most Holy Faith, and

That genuine and unsophisticated patriotism which characterises the members of a free State.

That the King of kings and Lord of lords may long preserve and protect your Majesty, direct your Councils and Government to the general welfare of the British nation, and render your reign long and prosperous over a free, a religious and a happy people, these are the fervent prayers of, Most Gracious Sovereign, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Chancellor, Rector, Principal and Professors of your Majesty's Marischal College and University of Aberdeen.

Signed, in the name and by appointment of the Faculty of said College, this 30th day of January 1821, by

Huntly, Chancellor; Fife, Rector; and
W. L. Brown, Principal.

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Selkirk, request permission to approach the Throne with renewed assurances of our loyalty, and of our unvarying attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

Admiring, as we do, that noble Constitution which has been for so long a period the pride and the boast of our native land, and grateful to Providence for the tranquility, the protection and the freedom which it has been the means of conferring on us; we have viewed with feelings of the deepest regret the unceasing efforts of the discontented and the factious to sap its foundations, while a licentious press has been rendered the instrument of misrepresenting without remorse the passing events in the history of our country; we have witnessed the most direct attempts to subvert the antient institutions of the empire, the principles of our Constitution, and even our Holy Religion.

We beg to assure your Majesty that, in this district, we shall ever hold ourselves ready to second, by every means within our power, the exertions of your Majesty's Government to uphold the Constitution; and when we look back with pride and exultation to the triumphs which gilded the history of our country during the late war, or contemplate the successful measures by which we have more recently been saved from internal insurrection, we are impressed with the fullest confidence in your Majesty's present Administration.

That the efforts of the seditious may be discomfited, that our Constitution may be preserved unimpaired for our descendants, and that your Majesty's reign may be long, and happy, and prosperous, is the sincere and fervent prayer of your Majesty's faithful subjects, who have now the honour of conveying their sentiments to the foot of the Throne.

Signed, in our name and by our appointment, by the Honourable William John Napier, our Preses, at Selkirk, the 5th day of January 1820 years,
W. J. Napier.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The loyal Address of the Magistrates, Town Council and other respectable Inhabitants of the Royal Burgh of Dingwall.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's faithful and dutiful subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, Councillors and other respectable Inhabitants of the Royal Burgh of Dingwall, beg leave at this momentous crisis to approach your Majesty with sentiments of attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, when impious, artful and licentious demagogues are using their utmost endeavours to subvert the principles of piety and morality, to promote sedition and to create in the minds of the misguided populace a spirit of opposition to all constituted Authority; it is high time for the honest and virtuous part of the community to rally round the Throne, and to declare their determined resolution, as far as in them lies, to support the Government as established by law, and to preserve the glorious Constitution of these realms from the rude attacks of violence and from the unhallowed touch of democracy; disaffection in this remote corner has hardly dared to lift its head, and if it exists at all is confined to a few of the lower ranks of society. Without going beyond our sphere, without pretending to dictate to your Majesty's Councillors, or to the two Houses of Parliament, we assure ourselves that the business of the nation, and every question of great public interest, will, as hitherto, be always decided with wisdom, moderation and justice, after undergoing a fair and candid discussion.

Colin Mackenzie, of Kilcoy, Provost.

[Transmitted by Colin Mackenzie, Esq.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty George the Fourth.

May it please your Majesty,

AT a period when Europe is convulsed and its kingdoms are the pray of factious cabals, we, the Portreeve, Merchants, Landholders and Residents of the ancient Borough and Port of Teignmouth, united in expressing our firm and unshaken attachment to your Majesty's Crown and Person, and our determination to uphold and support that glorious Constitution established by our ancestors and approved by ourselves.

We condemn those defamatory libels dispersed at home, and fouler calumnies circulated abroad, as dangerous to our internal peace and derogatory in our foreign relations to our national dignity.

On the wisdom of the Legislature we rely for ameliorating the burthens of a protracted warfare has entailed upon us, and to your paternal watchfulness we look for our future prosperity.

Sovereign of a mighty empire, you will never forget that seated on the Throne of your lamented Father, our hope is that you may emulate him in his virtues, be his rival in length of years, and reign like him in the hearts of your faithful subjects.

Accept then, Sire, this tributary homage of our devoted loyalty, and believe that as we fear God we honour the King.
Jacob Bartlett, Portreeve.

To His Most Gracious Majesty George the Fourth, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, KING, Defender of the Faith.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and faithful subjects, the Vicar, Churchwardens and undersigned Inhabitants of the Town of Wellingborough, in the County of Northampton, most humbly crave permission to present unto your Majesty our unfeigned assurances of devoted attachment to your Royal Person, and of our reliance on the wisdom of your Majesty's Councils and on the measures and integrity of your Government.

At other times we should have been reluctant to intrude ourselves upon your Majesty's notice, and have deemed it scarcely necessary to make professions of our fidelity and unswerving allegiance, but at the present juncture we feel it a conscientious act of duty to avow our unshaken adherence to those principles and institutions which our forefathers venerated, and to express our conviction, that it is only by steadfastness in support of the Altar and the Throne that in seasons of difficulty the country, under God, can be upheld.

Truly grateful for and sensible of the civil and religious blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's benignant and paternal sway, we cordially unite in supplications unto Him "by whom Kings reign," that your reign may be lengthened to us in happiness and prosperity.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Magistrates, Clergy, Gentry, Ship Owners, and other Inhabitants of South Shields and Westoe, beg leave to approach your august presence with the strongest assurance of our warmest attachment to your sacred Person and Royal Authority.

Having so recently offered an Address to your Majesty on your happy accession to the Throne of your Ancestors, we should not think it necessary again to make any declaration of our sentiments, could we shut our eyes to the exertions made by designing men to mislead the people and to dissatisfy them with our excellent Constitution, which it has been the exclusive privilege of Great Britain to possess, and the ardent desire of other nations to obtain.

Feeling as we do the inestimable value of living under a form of Government which secures to all ranks the utmost personal liberty consistent with the general interests of society, gives the strongest protection to the private rights of property, and the most ample toleration to religious opinion, we think we should be wanting in the duty we owe your Majesty and our country were we not openly to express our dutiful allegiance to your Majesty, and our detestation of the arts and calumnies continually used by unprincipled agitators to destroy in the minds of Englishmen their ancient veneration for these blessings.

We are sensible a change from war to peace has greatly affected all the interests of the country, landed, commercial and manufacturing, and we, who are principally Ship Owners, may truly say no class has felt that change more, but we are certain these great national interests are more likely to revive and flourish under the powerful protection of a Monarchy and Constitution, gradually formed by the experience and wisdom of ages, than it is probable they would be by any of the utopian schemes of the factious and disaffected.

Deeply impressed with these sentiments we think it right to stand forth at this crisis and declare, we will at all times to the best of our power support the dignity of your Majesty's Crown and the authority of the other branches of the Legislature, being fully persuaded we enjoy under your Majesty's paternal Government, and under a most equitable administration of the laws, as many public advantages as can be hoped for by the people of any nation.

Whilst thus unanimously declaring our ardent loyalty and attachment to your Majesty, as our King and Governor, we avoid all party feelings and offer up our sincere and ardent prayers that you, Sire, may long live to sway the sceptre of these kingdoms, and that all classes of your subjects may venerate their King and submit themselves to those that are put in authority under him.

[Transmitted by Nicholas Fairles, Esq.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal subjects, the Mayor and Aldermen, and undersigned Burgesses of the Borough of Warwick, humbly offer to your Majesty this our sincere declaration of inviolable attachment and fidelity to your Royal Person and Government. It appears to us most seasonable at this time to renew our profession of allegiance to your Majesty, when we cannot but perceive that the worst principles are insidiously and actively disseminated amongst your Majesty's subjects, when it is notorious that disaffection and irreligion prevail to an alarming extent throughout the empire.

We are too sensible of the important benefits we have derived from the accession of your Majesty's illustrious House to the British Throne, not to feel with sincerity that attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person which we avow; and we are too grateful for the protection which our excellent Constitution has afforded us, in the most perilous times of foreign war and domestic faction, not to use every endeavour to uphold that form of Government which the experience of other nations has shewn us to be the most capable of securing all the blessings of life. Notwithstanding the malignant designs of seditious persons, and that blasphemous spirit which has been promulgated by the abuse of a free press, it is with the highest satisfaction that we declare the firm conviction of our minds to be, that the great part of this empire yet retains its steady and undiminished loyalty; and for ourselves, we beg to repeat the assurance to your Majesty, that, as far as our exertions can avail, we shall at all times be ready to maintain inviolate that Constitution which has been transmitted to us by our ancestors, and to hand it down unimpaired to our latest posterity.

K. Greenway, Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Magistrates, Councillors, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Royal Burgh of Inveraray, humbly beg leave to approach the Throne with renewed assurances of our loyalty, veneration, and attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

We view with indignation and concern the attempts which have lately been made, by profligate persons, in various corners of the kingdom, under various pretences, to disturb us in the enjoyment of the protection, security, and comfort which we derive from a Constitution unrivalled throughout the world for freedom, order and energy; and should any attempt be made to extend these wicked machinations to the district in which we live, (where happily they hitherto have had little influence), we declare our firm purpose and determination to exert ourselves, collectively and individually, in repressing these, and in maintaining the authority of our King, our Laws, and the free exercise of our Religion.

John Campbell, Provost.

Inveraray, December 27, 1820.

[Transmitted by the Duke of Argyll.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Ayr, approach your Majesty to offer and renew our expressions of that attachment to your Royal Person and Government which we have so ardently felt, now feel, and shall ever cherish. We approach your Majesty with the proud sentiments of men addressing the Monarch of a free nation; of men exulting in that happy Constitution and those salutary Laws which guide alike the Sovereign and the people, and which, while they define that power and those prerogatives essential for the national honour and prosperity, secure to the humblest individual civil and religious liberty.

We have marked with painful anxiety and honest indignation the unremitting exertions of desperate men, who, by bold and false assertions, wilful misrepresentations and visionary propositions, have laboured to poison the public mind, to undermine all principle, and to destroy that just sense of subordination, without which civilized society must cease to exist. The press too, which, in the hands of good men, we have ever valued as the liberal channel of instruction and delight, has been converted, by the rancorous enemies of human happiness, into an engine of unqualified evil. The passions of the discontented and disorderly have been flattered and stimulated, the judgments of the weak have been bewildered and misguided, and the principles, civil and religious, of the thoughtless or ill-instructed, have been destroyed or perverted.

Venerating as we do, that fabric, that mixed Constitution, and those establishments, the matured result of the struggles and the wisdom of ages, grateful to our forefathers for those blessings which they bequeathed to us, and willing to believe that, as a nation, we are still worthy to enjoy those singular blessings, and under Providence still shall enjoy them, in despite of the apostate enemies of our country; with the help of God, we shall do our duty.

We well know the allegiance which, by the Laws and Constitution of our country, every subject owes to his King; but in times like these we offer to your Majesty the warm assurances of men resolved to the last to support the Throne, the true rallying point of civil order, and to maintain, unimpaired, and transmit to posterity that Constitution which has proved the strength and safeguard of the British empire, envied, imitated, but as yet unequalled, by all the efforts of an admiring world.

Signed, by our Preses, in our name, and by our appointment, at Ayr, the 30th day of December 1820.

D. Hunter Blair, Preses.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Clergy of the County of Moray, in a general meeting assembled, beg leave, at the present momentous period, to approach your Majesty with the assurances of our heartfelt and unalterable attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and of our veneration for the free and glorious Constitution under which it is our happiness to live. Deeply sensible of the invaluable blessings which, as a nation, we have so long enjoyed under the paternal rule of your illustrious House, we view with indignation and abhorrence the attempts made by the disaffected, in other parts of the kingdom, to poison those blessings, and to sap the foundation of civil society and religion amongst us, by the dissemination of blasphemous and seditious doctrines. We unite with one voice and one mind in the fixed determination to exert ourselves, by our influence, our example, and by every means in our power, to counteract these base attacks on all that we hold sacred, and to support the dignity of the Throne and the Laws against every enemy of either.

We trust that our envied and unrivalled Constitution will be safely maintained under the reign of your Majesty, and be transmitted unimpaired to latest posterity; and we fervently pray that your Majesty may long reign the beloved Sovereign of a free and a loyal people.

Signed, in our name and presence, and by our appointment, at Elgin, the 4th day of January 1821, by Fr. W. Grant, P.

[Transmitted by Francis Wm. Grant, Esq. M. P.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Magistrates and Town Council of the Royal

Burgh of Pittenweem, avail ourselves of one of our many valuable privileges, to approach the Throne, and to offer a renewal of our assurances of firm and unabated attachment and fidelity to our Sovereign, and to the institutions of our country, civil and religious, which have long secured to it a portion of freedom, happiness, and prosperity, the envy of other nations; and we beg leave to add, that, to secure these invaluable blessings, we shall consider no peril too great to be encountered, and no sacrifice too much to be made.

Lest it should be said that we unnecessarily intrude upon your Majesty, we think it proper to state our reasons for doing so: We have seen with deep regret a number of our countrymen led aside from the path of duty, and embarking in treasonable practices. Their daring and wicked schemes have been detected and defeated, but the agitated state of the country points out too plainly that the spirit of disaffection, though suppressed, is not extinguished. We should be weak indeed, were we to be lulled into security by the pretence that this agitation arises from the proceedings against Her Majesty the Queen. We unfeignedly regret the necessity for instituting these proceedings, but we can discover nothing in them that ought to make Britons forget the respect and allegiance due to the Laws, to the constituted Authorities, and to their Sovereign,—yet have all these been despised and insulted by many of the pretended friends of Her Majesty; we appeal to the system of intimidation acted upon so successfully during the trial, to the addresses, and to the answers to these addresses, and to the violent and unnatural demonstrations of joy on the termination of Her Majesty's trial. When we look to the result of that trial, we can only find that a majority of the Judges considered Her Majesty guilty, and that few of the minority ventured to assert her innocence. In this result there is surely no ground for exultation, and we are forced to conclude that concealed enemies, both to Her Majesty and the Constitution, have advised and promoted the proceedings which we deprecate and lament.

Viewing things in this light, we deem it the duty of every loyal subject to rally round the Throne and the Constitution. We observe a part of our countrymen endeavouring to impress your Majesty with a belief, that it is the wish of the nation you should dismiss your present Servants; we consider it right to apprise your Majesty that we, in common, as we trust, with a large majority of your dutiful and loyal subjects, entertain no such wish. We presume not to point out to your Majesty what line of conduct you should pursue, but we may be permitted to express our doubts whether it will tend to the welfare of the country, and to the stability of the Throne and Constitution, to change men who in times of imminent hazard and peril conducted your Majesty's Councils and arms to a fortunate and glorious result.

Voted at a meeting of Council, this 1st January 1821, and signed in our name, and by our appointment, by John Tod, Chief Magistrate.

[Transmitted by the Lord Advocate of Scotland.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Magistrates and Town Council of the Borough of New Galloway, in our Town-Hall assembled, humbly beg leave to approach the Throne with renewed assurances of unfeigned loyalty and attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and of our determination to support the Throne and the established Laws and Constitution.

We think it necessary to tender these assurances to your Majesty at the present time, because we have seen with much concern and regret, factious and designing men exerting themselves to mislead and seduce the allegiance of your Majesty's subjects, and to misrepresent and vilify your Majesty's Government, in order to introduce anarchy and confusion and overthrow the invaluable Constitution of these kingdoms.

We hope that the delusion has past its crisis, and that reason will soon resume her sway over the unprincipled licentiousness that has for a time agitated some of the fairest portions of your Majesty's dominions.

Relying on the wisdom and vigour of your Majesty's Councils and the loyalty and zeal of our fellow subjects, for maintaining and defending our liberties and laws, we ardently pray that your Majesty's life and reign may be long continued for the happiness and prosperity of the British empire.

Signed, in our name, in our presence and by our appointment, at New Galloway, the 23d day of December in the year 1820.

E. Gordon, Provost,

[Transmitted by the Earl of Galloway.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Magistrates, Town Council, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants, of the Royal Burgh of Tain, in general meeting assembled, beg leave humbly to approach your Royal Presence to express our firm and unalterable attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

Although resident in a distant corner of the empire, we are not less feelingly alive, than our more southern neighbours, to the attempts which are making in various parts of the country to disseminate principles which are subversive of religion and morals, and to sap the foundation of that Constitution which has long been the boast of this realm, and the envy of the other nations of Europe.

Deeply sensible of the many blessings which we enjoy, we beg humbly to express our confidence in the wisdom of the principles upon which your Majesty's Government has hitherto been conducted, and to avow our fixed determination, by every means in our power, to preserve and maintain our excellent Constitution as by law established.

Signed at Tain, the 26th day of December, 1820, and the seal of the Burgh is hereto appended.

[Transmitted by the Right Hon. William Dundas, M. P.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, Inhabitant Householdors of the Parish of Edmonton, humbly desire to approach your Throne with the assurances of our sincere attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person, and with the expression of our firm determination to maintain and uphold our excellent Constitution, as by law established.

We feel the fullest persuasion that it has been the instrument, under the blessing of Divine Providence, of supporting this nation through one of the most arduous contests in which it has ever been engaged, producing heroes whose matchless deeds have diffused its fame throughout the universe, and finally, conducting it to an unrivalled pitch of political consideration and glory, at the same time dispensing to every, even the humblest individual, that perfect security in person and property, in which genuine freedom consists.

Deeply impressed by these considerations, we view with proportionate abhorrence and detestation the malignant attempts so daringly made by the corrupt part of the press, to undermine that loyalty for which the people of this favoured country have been so justly famed, to subvert those enlightened, moral and religious principles which it has been their glory and happiness to profess, and to overthrow that invaluable Constitution which has been long and still is the admiration and envy of surrounding nations.

Grateful for the blessings which we have enjoyed under your Majesty's Government and that of your late much revered Father, we earnestly pray the Divine Mercy, that your Majesty may long continue to reign in the hearts of a free and loyal people.

The King has been pleased to approve of M. Lauturd-Vigola being allowed to exercise the functions of Consul-General at Gibraltar, for His Majesty the King of Sardinia, while awaiting the necessary formalities to obtain His Majesty's warrant of approbation.

Whitehall, January 11, 1821.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto Athelstan Maurice, of Ynysymaengwyn, in the county of Merioneth, Esq. third but only surviving son and heir of the Reverend Pryce Maurice, Clerk, some time Rector of Cylminn and Vicar of Towyn, both in the county of Merioneth aforesaid, deceased, who was the second son of Pryce Maurice, of Lloran, in the parish of Llan-Rhaidryn-Mochant, in the county of Denbigh, Esq. by Anne his wife, second daughter and coheir of Athelstan Owen, of Ynysymaengwyn aforesaid, Esq. and of Ann his wife, daughter and sole heir of Vincent Corbet, also of Ynysymaengwyn, Esq. His Majesty's royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may assume and from henceforth use the surname of Corbet only, and also bear the arms of Corbet, in compliance with a certain deed or settlement of his said great grandmother Ann, wife of Athelstan Owen, Esq. bearing date in the year 1758; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise His Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to order, that this His Majesty's concession and declaration be registered in His College of Arms.

Whitehall, January 12, 1821.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, between the hours of one and two o'clock in the morning of the 25th of December last, a great body of men, to the number of between three and four hundred, armed with guns, pistols, and other offensive weapons, feloniously assembled on the sea shore on Romney Warren, between the towns of Romney and Dymchurch, in the county of Kent, in order to be aiding and assisting in the illegal running, landing, and carrying away of foreign spirits, and other prohibited and uncustomed goods, from a certain boat, which was seized by some Officers and seamen of His Majesty's ship Severn, in the execution of which duty the said Officers and seamen were maliciously and feloniously fired at, and some of them wounded by the said armed men, so assembled as aforesaid;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in this felony, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the persons who actually fired at and wounded any of the Officers and seamen as above mentioned), who shall discover his accomplices therein, so that they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid), who shall discover the said offenders, so that they may be apprehended and brought to justice for the said felony, such reward to be paid on conviction by the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

Whitehall, January 12, 1821.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, between the hours of one and two o'clock in the morning of Sunday the 31st of December last, as Mr. Joshua Anderson, of the city of Carlisle, Surgeon, was riding on horseback, through Caldewgate, in that city, he was shot at from near the Royal Oak public-house, kept by Martha Hind, by some person unknown, and severely wounded in the face;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the outrage above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually shot at the said Joshua Anderson), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Joshua Anderson, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

B 2

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to repeal, or to amend, alter, vary, and enlarge, as far only as regards the supplying of the town and port of Liverpool with water, all or any of the powers of an Act, passed in the twenty-sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled "An Act for opening, making, widening, and altering certain streets, passages, and places within the town of Liverpool, in the county palatine of Lancaster, for supplying the said town with fresh and wholesome water; for removing and preventing nuisances and annoyances therein; for appointing additional market-places; and for extending so much of the powers of an Act, of the second year of His late Majesty, as relates to hackney-coachmen, chairmen, carters, and porters, to a certain distance beyond the liberties of the same town;" to incorporate certain persons, being subscribers to and proprietors of certain works in the town of Liverpool, called the Liverpool Corporation Water-Works, and to grant to such persons certain powers and authorities for better supplying the said town and port of Liverpool, and also for supplying the several townships of Everton, West Derby, and Toxteth-Park, in the county of Lancaster, and the shipping resorting to the township of Toxteth-Park, with good and wholesome water.

Henry Agard, Manager and Chief Clerk to the said Works.

LIVERPOOL DOCKS.

Dock-Office, Liverpool,
January 12, 1821.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Trustees of the Liverpool Docks intend to offer for sale, by public auction, at the Dock-Office, in Liverpool, on Friday the 9th day of February next, at one o'clock, assignments of the rates and duties of the said Docks, according to the provisions of the Act of the fifty-first of George the Third, to the amount of £20,000, in sums not less than £100 each, bearing interest at the rate of 5 per centum per annum, payable half-yearly in London or Liverpool, as may be most agreeable to the purchasers.

John Foster, Secretary.

East India Dock-House,
January 19, 1821.

THE Court of Directors of the East India Dock Company do hereby give notice, that a General Meeting of the Proprietors of the said Company will be held at their House, in St. Helen's-Place, Bishopsgate-Street, on Friday next the 26th instant, at twelve o'clock, being one of the Half-yearly General Meetings appointed by the Act of Parliament.

By order of the Court,
John Farran, Secretary

CONTRACT FOR OATS.

Commissariat Department, Treasury-Chambers, January 16, 1821.

SUCH persons as are desirous of contracting with the Agent for Commissariat Supplies to deliver 584,000 lb of Oats, at the Military Depôt in Tooley-Street,

may receive particulars of the contract at this Office, between the hours of ten and four, and deliver their tenders, sealed up and directed to the Agent for Commissariat Supplies, marking thereon "Tender for Oats," on or before Friday the 26th instant; but none will be received after twelve o'clock on that day; nor will any proposal be noticed unless made on or annexed to a printed particular, and the prices inserted in words at length; nor unless a letter be subjoined to such proposal, signed by two persons of known property engaging to become bound with the party tendering, in the sum expressed in the particulars, for the due performance of the contract.

East India-House, January 17, 1821.

THE Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, do hereby give notice,

That the Committee of Buying and Warehouses will be ready to receive proposals in writing, sealed up, on or before Wednesday the 21st February next, from such persons as may be willing to supply the Company with

British Iron;

And the Court further give notice, that the said Committee will be ready to receive proposals in writing, sealed up, on or before Wednesday the 28th day of March next, from such persons as may be willing to supply the Company with

Swedish Iron and Swedish Steel;

And that the conditions of the respective contracts may be seen upon application to the Clerk of the said Committee, with whom the proposals for the British iron must be left before eleven o'clock on the said 21st of February next; and with whom, in like manner, the proposals for the Swedish iron and steel must be left before eleven o'clock on the said 28th day of March next, after which hours respectively the Committee will not receive any tender.
