

licely expressed, tending to destroy all subordination to lawful authority, beg leave humbly to approach the Throne with the declaration of our firm and unalterable attachment to the Constitution, and our determination to support the same to the utmost of our ability; and that we will on all occasions shew our allegiance to your Majesty, and our dutiful submission to all who act under your Royal Authority.

Signed in our name, by our appointment, and in our presence, this 9th day of January, 1821 years, by James Campbell, Resident Chief Magistrate.

[Transmitted by Charles Grant, Esq. of Elchies.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the President, Secretary, and Members of the Friendly Society of the United Parishes of Knockando and Mackallan, in the County of Moray, humbly beg leave to tender to your Majesty the assurance of our inviolable attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government, and the Constitution of these realms. At the present period, when doctrines the most vile and dangerous are in many parts of the kingdom openly disseminated, we cannot refrain from conveying to your Majesty an assurance of our determination to support and respect to the utmost of our power, and within our respective spheres, those Laws, and that Constitution, and Religion, in the enjoyment of which we and our fathers have long happily lived.

Signed in our name, by our appointment, and in our presence, this 10th day of January 1821 years, by James Maclean, Pres. and John Maclean, Sec.

[Transmitted by Charles Grant, Esq. of Elchies.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Right Worshipful Master, Wardens, and Brethren, of Free and Accepted Masons, of the Lodge, No. 331, at Charlestown, of Aberlour, in the County of Banff, at our annual Head Meeting assembled, beg leave to offer to your Majesty the assurance of our unshaken allegiance to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government, and our attachment to the Constitution, and that we are determined to support the same to the utmost of our power, against the machinations of the factious and deistical doctrines set up by designing demagogues, for the subversion of all good order and subordination, and against the best interests of this free and highly favoured nation.

Signed in our name, by our appointment, and in our presence, this 9th day of January 1821 years, and the seal of the Lodge is hereto affixed, by James Stuart, Master, and Peter Stuart, Sec.

[Transmitted by Charles Grant, Esq. of Elchies.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Right Worshipful Master, Wardens, and Brethren of Free and Accepted Masons, of the Lodge, No. 257, at Rothes, in the County of Moray, at our annual Head Meeting assembled, beg leave humbly to approach the Throne with the declaration of our firm attachment and allegiance to your Royal Person and Government.

We view with sentiments of indignation the attempts made by the artful and insidious, to undermine the foundation of all that we hold dear and valuable, as members of society and British subjects; and we take the present opportunity of conveying to your Majesty an assurance of our determination, so far as our humble abilities extend, to support and reverence that unrivalled Constitution under which we have hitherto enjoyed so many inestimable blessings.

Signed in our name, by our appointment, and in our presence, this 8th day of January 1821 years, by Peter Junkens, Secretary.

[Transmitted by Charles Grant, Esq. of Elchies.]

To His Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Bishop of Oxford, the Dean and Chapter of Christ Church, and the Archdeacon and Clergy of the Diocese of Oxford, humbly beg leave to offer to your Majesty the renewed assurance of our zealous and devoted attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person and Government.

Contemplating, as we do, with unfeigned sorrow and abhorrence, the insidious attempts which are made by evil minded men to mislead the judgment and enflame the passions of your Majesty's faithful people, to weaken their attachment to those Laws and that Authority which they have been hitherto accustomed to love and venerate, and to excite in their minds a restless spirit of discontent and dissatisfaction, we think that it becomes us to declare to your Majesty our firm determination to counteract, as far as lies in our power, designs which, if successful, would terminate in the destruction of all that we hold most dear and valuable.

As Ministers of the Gospel, it shall be our care, as it is our bounden duty, to cherish and cultivate in the minds of those who are committed to our charge, sentiments of order and obedience to lawful Authority, and of just and well regulated attachment to our admirable Constitution in Church and State; and it shall be our constant prayer to the Almighty Disposer of all events, that your Majesty's paternal designs for the welfare of your subjects, may be blessed with success; and that under your Majesty's mild and benignant sway, the security, prosperity, and happiness which we have so long enjoyed, may be continued to us and to our children.

Ed. Oxford.

In the name and on behalf of the Chapter,
Charles Henry Hall, Dean of Christ Church.

In the name on behalf of the Clergy of the Diocese of Oxford,

Phineas Pett, Archdeacon of Oxford.

[Transmitted by the Bishop of Oxford.]