TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 13, 1821.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to Viscount Sidmouth, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, were presented by His Lordship to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and faithful subjects, the Rector, Churchwardens, Vestrymen, and other Inhabitants of the Parish of Saint George, Hanover-Square, in the County of Middlesex, under a deep conviction that the present conjuncture calls imperiously upon every loyal man publicly to declare his principles and sentiments, beg leave to renew, in the most explicit terms, the assurance of our unshaken attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person, and to your illustrious House; and at the same time our fixed resolution to maintain, to the utmost of our power, the many blessings we enjoy under our excellent form of Government, and your Majesty's mild and paternal sway.

It has been the inestimable privilege of this kingdom to possess, during a long series of years, the purest religion, and a system of civil policy founded on laws established in wisdom and justice, and sanctioned by the experience of their protection and equity. These are benefits which we have enjoyed in a greater degree than any other nation, and by which we have lived a free and happy people. It is not therefore without the utmost indignation and disgust that we have witnessed the attempts which have been made, and are still making, to spread discontent and disaffection through the lower ranks of the community, to unfix and loosen every principle of subordination and order, to eradicate all respect for rank and station, and, as the surest means of effecting these purposes, to excite, by the most licentious publications, an open and contemptuous disregard of all moral restraint, and all religious obligation; in a word to deliver us up to all the horrors of a wild revolution.

In conjunction therefore with a large proportion of your Majesty's subjects, we feel it to be our duty to make, at the present crisis, this avowal of our sentiments, and to assure your Majesty that, so far as depends upon us, our most strenuous exertions shall not be wanting to uphold the dignity of the Throne, to preserve inviolate our incomparable Constitution, and to promote, in every way, the peace, the security, and the credit of the British empire.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

A loyal Declaration of the Inhabitant Householders of the Parish of St. Mary, Rotherhithe, Surrey.

WE should have deemed it sufficient to yield due allegiance to our Sovereign the King, and submission to the laws of our country, had not the perilous and obtrusive spirit of sedition demanded of every true friend to the State a public and fearless avowal of his attachments. Nor are we deterred from this disclosure by the clamours or even menaces of those who, loud and zealous in asserting their own right and ground of complaint, scruple not to calumniate the motives of others more loyal than themselves.

Ever anxious to uphold the popular part of a Constitution, the glory of England and the envy of Europe, we cannot at the same time witness, without disgust and reprobation, the attempts that are daily made, by active and shameless demagogues and by a licentious and sophistical press, to poison and alienate the minds of the lower classes of the community, by inculcating contempt for the person of the Sovereign, and for the constituted Authorities and Laws of the land; we behold with increased abhorrence these doctrines of anarchy and rebellion, accompanied and abetted by derision and blasphemy of our Holy Religion, and contumely and hostility towards its Ministers.

Against these portentous designs of treason and infidelity as Christians and as Englishmen we protest. We augur nothing from the triumph of such factions (however plausible their pretences may be) but the downfall of morality, liberty and social order, and with them the ruin of our country.

Timely therefore to avert such evils, we think ourselves imperatively summoned to declare our firm and united determination to support both Church and State to the utmost of our power, and as far as we are able to deliver down inviolate to posterity that mild and equitable form of Government under which we have lived in happiness and freedom, fearing God and honouring the King.

[Delivered by the Rev. Dr. Jones, Mr. Nelson, Mr. Courthope and Major Grice.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's faithful and loyal subjects, Inhabitants of the ancient Town of Castor, and its Neighbourhood, in the County of Lincoln, feel it our bounden duty, at this important crisis, to declare our sincere and devoted attachment to the Throne, and our invaluable Constitution, as by law established.

We view with detestation and abhorrence the vile and insidious arts of those desperate and wicked men who have disseminated blasphemy and sedition throughout the land, tending not only to corrupt and delude the minds of the ignorant and unwary, by bringing into contempt our holy religion, but ultimately to break the bonds of civil society, by subverting those salutary laws on the existence of which the liberty and happiness of all ranks depend.

Impressed with those feelings, and with the strongest conviction that the true interests of the people and the Crown are inseparable, we claim your Majesty's utmost confidence when we beg your gracious acceptance of an assurance that we shall ever be ready to rally round the Constitution formed by our ancestors, under which, by the blessings of Divine Providence, we have long enjoyed that civil and religious liberty which has been the pride of this country and the admiration of surrounding nations.

To maintain this Constitution against any factious and unprincipled innovation, and to transmit it unimpaired to posterity, is our firm determination, and that your Majesty may have a happy and glorious reign over a free and loyal people is our ardent prayer.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Common Council Men, Bailiffs, Burgesses and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Pembroke.

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, Common Council Men, Bailiffs, Burgesses and other Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Pembroke, in the Town Hall assembled, duly sensible of the necessity of all loyal subjects at the present moment avowing their attachment to the King and Constitution, beg leave to renew to your Majesty our professions of our unshaken allegiance and respectful regard for your Majesty's most sacred Person and Government, we have contemplated with concern and indignation the many and infamous artifices practised by the disloyal and disaffected to mislead the most numerous order of society, and to pervert their judgment from a due estimation of the Royal Character and Functions, and to give it a factious bias to vilify and degrade the Throne and all constituted Authorities; in the prosecution of their sedition they have attempted, by blasphemy and by a dissolution or rejection of all religious principles, to prepare the minds of the people to dissolve every bond of established Government. The spirit of turbulence and dissatisfaction which thus actuates the seditious to model new systems of government, to the subversion of that just, temperate and happy Constitution, endeared to us by the sanction of time, of wisdom and experience, impels us to express to your Majesty our sentiments of loyal and faithful veneration for our Sovereign, and that estimable Constitution by which crimes are repressed by law, and the stability of all property, public and private, and personal protection and security, are confirmed and upheld.

Whatever terror may attend the operation of the infatuated measures of the seditious, we trust, under the favouring superintendance of Providence, by a vigorous exposure of their devices, and by a formidable and patriotic opposition to their machinations, their delusions will soon cease to misguide any of your Majesty's subjects, or induce them either to treat revelation with contumely, or to attempt innovation in the existing form of Government and Laws.

We cannot therefore but declare our unaltered determination, in our respective situations in society, of supporting the Laws and constituted Authorities of the realm. And we earnestly hope that your Majesty, surrounded by the impregnable barrier of loyalty and affection of your subjects, will long continue to find your Throne secured to you for the enjoyment of your own personal dignity, splendour and happiness, and for the glory and prosperity of your people in every part of your dominions.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The dutiful and loyal Address of the Presbytery of Kincardine O'Neil.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Ministers and Ruling Elder of the Presbytery of Kincardine O'Neil, specially assembled, feel ourselves called upon, at this crisis, humbly to approach the Throne with renewed assurance of our ardent loyalty and attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

Blessed by Almighty God as this nation is, with institutions, sacred and civil, unrivalled and of inestimable value; enjoying, under your Majesty's mild and paternal Government, external peace, with the pure and impartial administration of wise and equal laws, we fondly hoped that, with ourselves, all your Majesty's subjects would have been filled with gratitude and veneration for these blessings, and with the most anxious wishes and cordial unanimity for their maintenance and preservation.

It is then with the deepest regret that we have witnessed systematic attempts, on every occasion, by factious and evil designing persons, to excite groundless discontent, to vilify our most revered institutions, to degrade all that are, by our Constitution, intrusted with authority, and to subvert the whole form of Government under which this nation has so long enjoyed an unexampled degree of prosperity and happiness.

But, while we express the deepest abhorrence of these practices, we have satisfaction in knowing that the people in general, under our charge, are yet untroubled by the contagion of those infidel and seditious principles so sedulously taught and disseminated, to the remotest part of the empire, by a licentious press; and we beg leave to assure your Majesty, that we will ever strive, with all zeal and fidelity, to preserve them from contamination, inculcating on them the fear of God, honour of the King, conscientious and peaceable obedience to the laws, and to those, under your Majesty, vested with authority.

That the Almighty may grant your Majesty a long, prosperous, and happy reign over a people grateful for the blessings they enjoy, and united in affection and fidelity to your Majesty's Person and Government, is the earnest prayer of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Ministers and Ruling Elder of the Presbytery of Kincardine O'Neil.

Signed, in our name, in our presence, and at our appointment, by James G. Garioch, Moderator.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, Individuals of the Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Inverkeithing, humbly beg leave to approach your Majesty with assurance of our inviolable fidelity and attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person, and to our glorious Constitution which your Majesty has so steadily maintained.

We feel that on occasions like the present it becomes the duty of every friend to his country, to come forward and avow his determination to support and maintain the principles of the British Constitution, to rally round the Throne to protect the religion and laws of our country from outrage and insult.

Relying with confidence on the wisdom and energy of your Majesty, and on those measures which your Majesty's present Ministers may continue to adopt, and on the unshaken loyalty and fidelity of your Majesty's subjects, we trust the worst enemies of their country may be soon roused to a sense of their delusion, and that they will unite with us in repressing any attempt to disturb the tranquility of the country, and supporting our Constitution which has been handed down to us from our ancestors, and that through the blessing of Divine Providence, may be handed down unimpaired to our latest posterity.

That your Majesty may long continue to reign in peace and prosperity over a loyal and happy people, is the earnest wish and ardent prayer of your Majesty's faithful and devoted subjects, who now humbly beg leave to lay these their sentiments at your Majesty's feet.

Signed, at Inverkeithing, this 29th day of January 1821 years.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects of the Town and Neighbourhood of Otley, in the West Riding of the County of York, beg leave to approach your Majesty with the unfeigned declaration of our attachment to your Person and Government.

We view with pain and disgust the attempts of the wicked and disaffected to spread delusion and discontent among the people, to vilify the administration of Justice, to bring into contempt your Majesty's sacred Person and Authority, and thereby to subvert the Laws and Government of the kingdom.

Fully sensible of the many blessings we enjoy under your paternal Government, we rely with confidence on your Majesty's wisdom and firmness, and we pledge ourselves, by every means in our power, to support the honour and dignity of the Throne, and to maintain inviolate our envied Laws and Constitution.

We have observed with abhorrence the freedom of the press, that best safeguard of our rights, perverted from its legitimate objects, employed to undermine those sacred principles which it ought to defend, and exerted in spreading the most gross and treasonable libels against your Majesty's Throne and Government.

We cannot but foresee the fatal consequences which must result from a passive acquiescence in those dangerous proceedings which, unless timely defeated, must inevitably lead us to anarchy and revolution, but we know that in spite of the efforts of the disaffected the great mass of the people are sound and untainted, that it is only in the apathy of the loyal that traitors place their hopes, and when once the voice of the people is put forth the clamour of faction will be silenced and overcome. On these grounds we feel it our duty to come forward at the present moment to declare our unalterable attachment to the Constitution under which we have the happiness to live, and our determination to maintain and defend it against all those who may ignorantly or wantonly strive to subvert it, and to assure your Majesty, if we should be called upon, your Majesty would find us prepared, in union with the great mass of your loyal and faithful people, to maintain the Altar and the Throne at the risk of our lives and fortunes.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, Inhabitants of the District of Beccles, in the Hundred of Wangford, beg leave to approach your Throne with the assurance of our heartfelt and inviolable attachment to your Majesty's Person and illustrious House.

At a time when a desperate faction, aided by a seditious and blasphemous press, is using its utmost exertions not only to bring into contempt your Majesty's Government, but to sap the foundation of our holy Religion, and to destroy all principles of morality and of civil society, we feel ourselves particularly called upon to express, in the strongest terms, our abhorrence of such endeavours, which, if successful, must involve our country in ruin.

At such a crisis we consider it our duty, firmly and fearlessly, under the sanction of the laws, to exert every means in our power to support the just rights of the Crown, and to maintain in its purity that boasted Constitution which has descended to us from our ancestors, and on the continuance of which not only our individual rights but the prosperity and happiness of the empire must depend.

May your Majesty long continue in health to preside over a people free and loyal, and sensible of the happiness they enjoy under your Majesty's mild and paternal Government.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the subscribing Heritors, Burgesses, Householdors, and Inhabitants of the Royal Burgh of Kirkaldy, and its immediate Vicinity.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the subscribing Heritors, Burgesses, Householdors, and Inhabitants of the Royal Burgh of Kirkaldy, and its immediate Vicinity, beg leave, at this important conjuncture, to lay at the foot of the Throne our sentiments of affection and respect for your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government, and of attachment to our happy Constitution as by law established.

These sentiments we have always cherished, but there are times when it becomes more imperiously the duty of faithful subjects to testify and to express them. Such we consider the present time to be, when, but lately, treason, and its natural offspring rebellion, reared their heads in different corners of the kingdom, when now, as well as then, seditious and disaffected persons have, by the most malicious efforts, endeavoured to create a spirit of discontent amongst your Majesty's subjects, to estrange the hearts of the less enlightened and unwary from your Person and Government, to overturn that Constitution so long the boast of our country, and the admiration of the world, and, as if all that were not enough, to destroy the foundations on which our better hopes and prospects are built.

It is, however, with much satisfaction we can assure your Majesty that, whatever success may have attended these unprincipled attempts elsewhere, the great body of this community do, by their conduct, denote a respect for the laws and religion of their country; and we trust that the good principles in which they have generally been educated, will continue to preserve them from the effects of that sophistry with which it is evident too many in other parts of the Kingdom have been deluded.

We deeply lament that, although the designs and efforts alluded to, have been in some measure checked and counteracted, mischievous exertions are still in activity, by means of the public press, and otherwise, to excite popular clamour and dissatisfaction. But we do not presume, as too many have done, to express our sentiments on the measures which ought to be followed in the present state of public affairs, because we are satisfied that the three estates of the kingdom will adopt that line of conduct which shall be deemed best calculated to maintain our inestimable privileges, and to promote the general welfare and prosperity of these realms; and, fully persuaded as we are of your Majesty's earnest desire to preserve to your subjects the continued possession of the manifold blessings enjoyed under your Majesty's paternal reign, and secured by that Constitution under which we are governed, we rely with confidence on the wisdom, temperance, and firmness of your Majesty's Councils, aided by the advice and assistance of parliament, to obtain these desirable ends.

That, in the full enjoyment of every comfort, your Majesty may long reign over a free, prosperous, and contented people, is, and shall be, our fervent prayer.

SIRE,

WE, the Foreman and Members of the present Quarter Sessions Grand Jury of the County of the City of Dublin, beg leave to assure your Majesty of our unfeigned attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government; a Government under which the laws of the land have been administered with such advantage to the nation at large, since your Majesty was called to the exercise of the Royal Prerogative.

At a time when our religion and our laws are assailed by every description of infidel, sanctioned by a licentious press, and aided by a wicked and designing faction; permit us, Sire, humbly to offer our most sincere assurances of our firm determination to stand or fall in defence of your Majesty's Royal Person, our Religion and our glorious Constitution.

SIRE,

WE, the Master, Wardens and Brethren of the Corporation of Carpenters, Millers, Masons and Bricklayers, Heilliers, Joiners, Turners, Plumbers, and Paviors of the Guild or Fraternity of the blessed Virgin Mary, of the City of Dublin, beg leave to approach your Majesty with sentiments of the highest veneration for, and attachment to, your Royal Person, and to convey to your Majesty this our most humble and dutiful address

We have beheld with dismay and abhorrence the pernicious efforts made in England, by blasphemous publications, to poison and debauch the minds of the youth of that part of your Majesty's dominions, and thus to fit them for the work of sedition and treason.

We have beheld, with detestation and abhorrence, the impure attempts made by so many of your Majesty's subjects, including several of the higher orders, to destroy the public peace, and to subvert our glorious Constitution, the purest on earth, and which your Majesty's illustrious Family was placed on the Throne to protect. Under the alarming circumstances, we think all your Majesty's loyal subjects called upon, by their duty to God, to their King, their country, themselves, and their posterity, to declare to the world (as we now do), a firm and fearless determination to form a bulwark around the Throne, to defend it, and our happy Constitution, against sedition and treason, or to perish in the attempt.

The dutiful and unanimous Address of the Seneschal, Magistrates, Clergy and other Inhabitants of the Town and Lordship of Roscrea, in the Town Hall assembled, the 30th day of January 1821.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Seneschal, Magistrates, Clergy and other Inhabitants of the Town and Lordship of Roscrea, in the County of Tipperary, in common with the loyal subjects of the realm, humbly beg leave to express our unalterable fidelity to the Throne, and our cordial attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, at a time when alarming attempts have been made, in several parts of the United Kingdom, to degrade the Monarchy, to subvert the Christian Religion and to destroy our happy Constitution; all of which, as far as in us lies, we are fully determined to support.

Signed on behalf of the meeting,

William Smith, Seneschal of the Lordship Town and Manor of Roscrea.

[Transmitted by His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

SIRE,

WE, your Majesty's faithful subjects, the Master, Wardens, and Brethren of the Corporation of Bricklayers and Plasterers, Dublin, perceive with alarm and deep regret that a spirit of irreligion and democracy has prevailed amongst a deluded portion of your Majesty's subjects; and, conscious that such principles, if successful, would bring destruction upon the lives, the liberties, and the properties of the peaceful and industrious we humbly tender our best services to your Majesty in support of the Laws and Constitution of the United Kingdom

But we still have the consolation of being enabled to assure your Majesty, that notwithstanding the mischievous activity of the agents of sedition, they have not hitherto been successful in corrupting the morals and abusing the credulity of the people of Ireland

Remote from the turbulent and polluted sources of sedition and of blasphemy, your Majesty's subjects in Ireland can calmly look on passing and on past events, and cannot find that period of British history in which liberty was more fully enjoyed and abused; nor in which parliament was more fully based upon the people's rights; and see in the machinations of the disaffected an arrogant and ignorant attempt to substitute some human absurdities for the divine precepts of Christianity, and some novel and fantastic theory for the renowned fabric of the British Constitution.

We therefore fervently pray the Divine Creator of All, long to continue your Majesty and your illustrious House in the just affections of a grateful people, and long to continue in parliament and the public councils that vigour and that wisdom which have raised the United Kingdom to unrivaled glory, and rendered the system of British legislation an admired and standard model for enlightened mankind.

Given at our Hall in the City of Dublin, this 23d day of January, 1821.

Charles Thorp, Master.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Lord of the Castle, the Sovereign, Burgesses, and Others, the principal Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Belfast.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's faithful subjects, beg leave to approach the Throne at the present period, when we deem it expedient that every man possessing loyal attachment to your august Person, steady adherence to our unrivalled form of Government, and honest patriotic feelings for the welfare of your kingdoms, should boldly profess his sentiments, and by an open declaration of them, proclaim his determination to support and maintain your illustrious House, and the Laws and Constitution of the realm pure and unimpaired.

With national pride, we may boast that Ireland at this moment stands conspicuous for her loyalty and tranquility: but, with deep regret we lament the spirit of insubordination and licentious disposition manifested amongst certain descriptions of persons in the sister country; promoted by the active agents of sedition, and sedulously encouraged by profane declaimers against established principles of morality and religion; her invaluable free press made the vehicle of treason; its powers directed to the destruction of the Constitution; and every advantage taken under the specious pretext of a reform of abuses, by ill-disposed and designing men, whose aim is to entrap the unwary and mislead the liberal.

In the hope and reliance that our professions of unalterable attachment to your Majesty, your Crown and Dignity, as they are sincere, may be acceptable; in the consciousness that our loyalty continues undiminished; and with an ardent prayer that your Majesty's reign, under Divine Providence, may be long, prosperous, and happy, we beg to subscribe ourselves your faithful and devoted servants and subjects.

Belfast, 30th Dec. 1820.

By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, R.

WHEREAS His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His late Majesty King George the Third, was pleased, by His Royal Proclamation, bearing date the twentieth day of November one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, to declare His Royal will and pleasure, that the Governors or Deputy Governors of Gibraltar and Malta should be authorised to issue Mediterranean Passes for the protection of ships belonging to His said late Majesty's subjects in those possessions, according to a certain form therein referred to, marked (C), under and subject to certain regulations and sureties therein set forth; and whereas doubts have arisen as to the term during which it was intended that the said Passes should remain in force; We taking the premises into Our Royal consideration, and judging it necessary to remove such doubts, have thought fit, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, to publish this Our Royal Proclamation, and We do hereby declare, that the Passes to be issued by Our Governors or Deputy Governors of Our said possessions of Gibraltar and Malta for the protection of ships or vessels belonging to Our subjects in Our said possessions, according to the form (C), and under the conditions set forth in the before-mentioned Proclamation of the twentieth of November one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, shall be and continue in force for one year from the day on which the same shall respectively be issued, and no longer; and that at the expiration of that term, the said Passes shall be delivered up to the said Governors or Deputy Governors for the purpose of being cancelled, as required by the said Proclamation of the twentieth of November one thousand eight hundred and nineteen.

Given at Our Court at Carlton-House, this twenty-second day of November one thousand eight hundred and twenty, and in the first year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 22d of November 1820,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the twenty-ninth of May last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder, arms, or ammunition, to the places therein specified, will expire on the thirtieth day of this instant November; and whereas it is expedient, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth day of this instant November), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place within the dominions of the King of Spain, or to any port or place on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places within the dominions of the King of Spain, or into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores; and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:"

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Chetwynd.

Duchy of Lancaster, Carlton-House, Feb. 6, 1821.

The King has been pleased to appoint Thomas Richmond Gale Braddyll, Esq. of Conishead Priory, to be Sheriff of the county palatine of Lancaster for the year ensuing.

Veneris, die 9^o. Februarij, 1821.

John Rowe Snow, Richard Young, and James Bull, having, on Monday the 5th day of February 1821, presented their petition to the House of Commons, setting forth: That on the 12th day of June 1820, the Select Committee who were appointed to try and determine the merits of a petition of Matthias Attwood, Esquire, and William Thompson, Esquire; and also the petition of certain other persons, Electors of the Borough of Callington, in the County of Cornwall, severally complaining of an undue election and return for the said Borough, reported to the House, that it appeared to the Committee that the merits of the petitions did depend in part upon the right of election, and that therefore the said Committee required the counsel for the several parties to deliver to the clerk of the said Committee statements in writing of the right of election for which they respectively contended. That in consequence thereof, the counsel for the petitioners, Matthias Attwood and William Thompson, Esquires, delivered in a statement as follows: "That the right of election is in persons seized of freeholds, whether resident or not, and in leaseholders being resident householders, and rated within the Borough." That the counsel for the petitioners, William Hender and others, delivered in a statement as follows: "That the right of election is in persons seized of freeholds, whether resident or not, and in leaseholders being resident householders, and rated and inhabitant householders paying scot and lot." That the counsel for the sitting members delivered in a statement as follows: "That the right of election is in freeholders of houses or lands within the Borough, resident or non-resident, and in beneficial leaseholders of entire tenements consisting of houses or lands, within the Borough, for years determinable on a life or lives, being resident householders for forty days before the day of election, and rated to the poor at forty shillings at the least." That upon the statement delivered in by the counsel for the petitioners, Matthias Attwood and William Thompson, Esquires, the said Committee have determined, "That the right of election as set forth in the said statement is not the right of election for the said Borough." That upon the statement delivered in by the petitioners, William Hender, and others, the said Committee have determined, "That the right of election as set forth in the said statement is not the right of election for the said Borough." That, upon the statement delivered in by the counsel for the sitting members, the said Committee have determined, "That the right of election as set forth in the said statement, is the right of election." That your petitioners are advised that the right of election which has been so determined by the said select Committee, is not the ancient and true and legal right of election, and they are therefore not satisfied with the said determination of the said select Committee, and are desirous of being admitted as parties to oppose such right of election, and to have the benefit of the Statute in such case made and provided. Therefore, to prevent the judgment of the said select Committee from being final and conclusive, I do hereby give notice, that the House has appointed Tuesday the 13th day of March next, at half an hour after Three of the Clock in the Afternoon, to take the said petition into consideration.

Given under my hand, the 9th day of February 1821,

CHARLES MANNERS SUTTON, Speaker.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Thomas Cape, of Leicester, in the county of Leicester, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, February 6, 1821.

WHEREAS it has been represented to the King, that much malicious mischief has of late been done to ships lying in the River Tyne, by evil disposed persons cutting away the ropes by which such ships were moored, and particularly, that in the night of the 28th ultimo, the towline by which the ship Ann, of South Shields, Mr. Thomas Bell, owner, was moored on the North side of the River Tyne, loaded, was feloniously cut, and about twenty fathoms thereof stolen and carried away by some person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually cut the said towline), who will give such information to Mr. George Potts, Market-place, South-Shields, the Secretary of the Unanimous, Nautical, and Amicable Insurances, as may lead to the conviction of all or any of the depredators, or of the persons buying or receiving the said towline, knowing it to have been stolen.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered by the Committees of the said Insurances, to any person (except as before excepted), who shall give such information to Mr. George Potts aforesaid, as may lead to the conviction.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, passed in the forty-third year of the reign of His Majesty, intituled "An Act for permitting certain goods imported into Great Britain to be secured in warehouses without payment of duty," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the importer or importers, proprietor or proprietors, consignee or consignees, of any of the goods, wares, or merchandise, enumerated or described in the table thereunto annexed, marked (E), and which shall have been legally imported or brought into the port of London, to lodge and secure in a warehouse or warehouses to be provided for that purpose, any such goods, wares, or merchandise, under the joint locks of the crown and the merchant, without payment at the time of the first entry of the duties of customs due on the importation thereof; and it is by the said recited Act further enacted, that if the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them shall deem it expedient, that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to any goods, wares, and merchandise, not enumerated or described in either of the tables annexed thereto, and should cause a list of such goods, wares, and merchandises, to be published in the London Gazette, then and from thenceforth, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions, of the said Act, shall extend to such goods, wares, and merchandise, in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said tables respectively, at the time of passing the said Act:

We, the undersigned, Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, pursuant to and in execution of the powers vested in us, in and by the said Act, do hereby declare, that it appears to us expedient that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to the article of legally imported or brought into the port of London (not being imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies); and that such ground madder should be added to the list of goods, wares, and merchandise enumerated and described in the table annexed to the said recited Act, marked (E), and that such ground madder should be lodged and secured at or in such warehouse or warehouses, under the regulations and directions of the said Act: and we do further declare, that from and after the publication of this our certificate in the London Gazette, conformable to the directions of the said Act, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions of the said Act shall extend, and be construed to extend, to all such ground madder in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the table annexed to the said Act, marked (E), at the time of the passing of the same Act.

Given under our hands at the Treasury Chambers, Whitehall, this 21st day of December 1820,

G. H. A. SOMERSET.

Navy-Office, February 5, 1821.

THE Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having appointed money for the payment of half-pay to Sea Officers, from the 1st October to the 31st December 1820, according to His Majesty's establishment in that behalf; these are to give notice, that the several payments will begin to be made at the Pay-Office, by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, at ten o'clock in the morning, on the following days, viz.

On the 12th, 13th, and 14th instant, to Admirals, Captains, and their Attornies.

On the 15th, 16th, 19th, 20th, and 21st instant, to Lieutenants and Chaplains, and their Attornies.

On the 22d and 23d instant, to Masters, Surgeons, and Purser, and their Attornies.

After which the lists will be recalled the first and third Wednesday in every month, that all persons may then and there attend to receive what may become payable to them, and bring with them an affidavit as required by Order in Council of 30th July 1819, the forms of which were published in an advertisement from this Office, dated 16th September 1819, and may be procured at the Office of the Treasurer of the Navy; and in case any of the said Officers should not be able to attend themselves, but employ Attornies for that purpose, that the said Attornies do produce the like affidavit from the persons they are employed by.

Where Officers are abroad on leave, their agents are to produce attested copies of such leave, before the half-pay can be paid.

And as by Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-fifth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for establishing a more easy and expeditious method for the payment of Officers belonging to His Majesty's Navy," it is enacted by the twentieth clause of the said Act, "that if any Commissioned or Warrant Naval Officer who shall be entitled to receive half-pay, and shall be desirous to receive and be paid the same at or near the place of his residence, he may apply to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, in London, to have such half-pay paid at or near the place of his residence, &c. in the manner pointed out by the said Act;" and by a further Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for enabling the Officers in His Majesty's Navy, and their representatives, to draw for and receive their half-pay," it is enacted by the first and third clauses of the said Act, "that if any Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who shall be entitled to receive any sum of money for or on account of his half-pay, shall be desirous of drawing a bill of exchange for the same upon the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill, he shall signify such desire, by letter, to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy; and that if any Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who shall be entitled to receive any sum of money for or on account of half-pay, shall be desirous of having his half-pay paid to him by extract at any of His Majesty's Dock-Yards where Clerks for the payment of wages for the Navy shall reside, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill or bill of exchange, he is to apply either to the proper Clerk, at the Navy Pay-Office, in London, or at the Pay-Office at such Dock-Yard, signifying such his desire;" notice is hereby further given, that the half-pay ending the 31st of December 1820, will commence paying on the 12th instant; and all persons desirous of drawing for or of having their half-pay remitted to them, may apply as above directed.

MEM.—Bills of exchange drawn under or by virtue of the Act above recited, are not liable to the stamp duty.

No persons residing out of His Majesty's dominions are entitled to the privileges of the Act.

J. W. Morton, Deputy Secretary.

Westminster Library.

ALL claimants on the Westminster Library, which is selling by auction, are hereby required to send in an account of their demands to Mr. Saunders, No. 39, Fleet-Street, on or before the 20th day of February instant, in default of which their claims cannot be received.
