

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 17, 1821.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to Viscount Sidmouth, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, were presented by His Lordship to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

At a Meeting of Merchants, Bankers, Traders and others of London, held at the City of London Tavern on Thursday the 11th of January 1821, Sir Robert Wigram, Bart. in the Chair, the following Declaration was unanimously adopted.

WE, the undersigned Merchants, Bankers, Traders and others of London, feel ourselves imperiously called upon, in the present state of the country, to declare these our deliberate sentiments, earnestly and anxiously hoping that the evils which threaten us will, under Divine Providence, be averted, and that now, when no foreign enemy assails us, we may be permitted to enjoy, uninterruptedly, the blessings of peace.

We declare it to be our firm and unalterable purpose to uphold our venerable and happy Constitution, composed of King, Lords, and Commons, against all and every attempt to alter or subvert it, and to maintain in all its purity our holy and revered religion, feeling the most assured conviction that the greatest share of human happiness is to be derived from the one, and the best and strongest hopes of eternal felicity from the other.

We view with poignant regret and abhorrence the measures which abound to destroy these sources of present enjoyment and future consolation, and we trust the laws will be enforced to deter and to punish all who by their factious or blasphemous proceedings wish to deprive the subjects of this great and free country of these inestimable blessings; blessings handed down to us by our ancestors, cherished by the wise and virtuous of our own time, and, in our minds, suited to the welfare and happiness of the generations which are to follow us.

[Delivered by Sir Robert Wigram, Bart.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

SIRE,

WE, your Majesty's most faithful subjects, the undersigned Inhabitants of the County of Somerset, whose names have not been subscribed to any of the Addresses recently transmitted to the Office of your Majesty's Principal Secretary of State, from either of the Cities, Towns or Districts of the said County, now presume to offer to your Majesty the homage of our zealous attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person, and to the Throne and Constitution of the United Kingdom.

If, Sire, we have hitherto refrained from manifesting, by any aggregate public act, the sincere expression of our indignation at the proceedings which a malignant faction has directed to unsettle the minds of the unwary, and under specious banners, to attack all that is venerable and established we refrained, because we believed that the hardest efforts of faction, would, in a little time, be compelled to retire before the sense and loyalty of the great preponderating mass of your Majesty's subjects.

But now that we perceive that the clamour of the bad, and the forbearance of the good, have but added audacity to crime, we cannot longer withhold the declaration of our loyal and dutiful sentiments, thereby ranging ourselves on the side of order, morals and religion, and pledging ourselves to resist, by every possible means, the baneful progress of sedition and infidelity. And in thus enlisting ourselves, we entertain a full and perfect conviction (a conviction, which we humbly intreat your Majesty to cherish in common with us,) that we shall be supported by all the good, the reflecting, the sober and the intelligent, that is to say, by the virtual majority of the nation. Deeply sensible that their liberty and property is one with the security of the State, and that the genuine principles of Constitution, will ever be ~~best~~ guaranteed by the equitable administration of its laws, they will be little disposed to exchange, for a crude and untried system, the blessing of a Government which has borne triumphantly the test of time, and is justly the admiration of the civilized world.

That our existing laws embrace, in their provident and extensive range, every essential provision to assure to the subject the plenitude of a Briton's liberty and birthright, we have the fullest confidence; were it otherwise, we should look for the remedy, rather to the great national Councils which our Constitution recognises, than to the dogmas of an unprincipled faction, and assemblies where distress lends a too willing ear to the nostrums and imposture of seditious demagogues.

That your Majesty may long enjoy the blessing of a prosperous reign, and that such of your subjects as have been led astray from their duties, may be speedily brought back into "ways of pleasantness and paths of peace"—our fervent prayers are directed to the Throne of Him "by whom Kings reign and Princess decree justice."

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the undersigned Bailiffs, Principal and Common Burgesses, Freemen and others, Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Eye, and its Neighbourhood, beg leave most respectfully to offer to your Majesty the assurance of our devotion and attachment to your Royal Person and Government.

It is far, very far, from our desire to keep alive or inflame the present irritation of the public mind; we cannot consent, however, to remain altogether silent, lest our silence should be construed into an indifference to the welfare of our country, and to the permanency of its admirable institutions.

We, in common with the great body of your Majesty's faithful subjects, have witnessed with the utmost concern the open and too successful career of disaffection and infidelity; we are deeply sensible of the magnitude of those evils with which they threaten us, and we pledge ourselves most solemnly to resist their further progress by every honest and active means within our power, by our counsel, by our influence, and by our example.

We also beg to assure your Majesty that under the blessing of Providence, we place our reliance, at this conjuncture, in the wisdom and energy of your Majesty's Government, and that for our parts, we are ready, if occasion require, to co-operate with the legal and constituted Authorities in preserving inviolate that form of civil and religious polity which our envied country has so long and so happily enjoyed.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Mayor, Jurats and Freemen of the ancient Town of Rye, in the County of Sussex, beg leave to approach your Majesty with the most sincere assurances of attachment to your Royal Person and your illustrious House, and of veneration for the British Constitution as established both in Church and State.

In ordinary times we should have been happy in cherishing these sentiments within our own bosoms, and deemed all public expression of them needless; but the late rapid march of blasphemy and sedition, and the shameless front which a licentious press has assumed, appear to us to call impudently, on all good and loyal subjects, to express their deep abhorrence of those principles and practices which tend directly to tear asunder every social tie, and thus subvert the surest foundation of our happiness here, while by undermining our religious principles they would deprive us of all hope of consolation hereafter.

That your Majesty may long reign over a free, a loyal, and an united people, is the constant and fervent prayer of your faithful subjects.

WE, the undersigned Inhabitants of the ancient Town of Rye, beg leave to approach your Majesty with sincere assurances of our agreement in all the sentiments expressed in the above address.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Portreeve, Surveyors and Commonalty of the ancient Corporation of Beccles, beg leave to assure your Majesty of our sincere and hearty attachment to your Royal Person, and to the constitutional principles which placed your illustrious Family on the Throne of these Kingdoms.

The bold attempts which are making to destroy the form of Government under which we have attained our present pre-eminence as a nation, and the daring attacks which we have lately witnessed on the most sacred of our institutions have induced us, in these doubtful times, to offer to your Majesty this assurance of our loyalty.

Your Majesty will ever find us ready to support the just prerogatives of the Crown as the best means of securing the rights and liberties of the people.

We earnestly pray that your Majesty may long continue to reign over a free a loyal and a grateful nation.

Given under our Corporation seal the 8th day of February 1821. Thomas Farr, Portreeve.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the Hundred of Mutford and Lotingland, in the County of Suffolk, beg leave to approach your Majesty's Throne, with every sentiment of respect, and with that homage of affection which is due to your Majesty's Person and Government.

Attached as well by duty as principle to a Constitution founded on religion and loyalty, a Constitution which has flourished for ages, the pride of our own, and the admiration of other countries, we deeply regret to see the liberty of the press so prostituted as to attempt, by open blasphemy, to sap the sacred foundation of the one, and to bring contempt on the other.

But, Sire, under the auspices of Divine Providence, we trust the machinations of evil men will not prevail. We are resolved on no account to exchange the wholesome Laws and Constitution of England, cemented by the blood of our forefathers, formed in wisdom, and perfected by the experience of ages, for the wild chimeras and visionary projects of political speculators.

The specious pretexs and dangerous talents of such men may, for a time, mislead the multitude; but we are confident the loyalty, patriotism, and good sense of Englishmen will prove ultimately a sufficient antidote to their mischievous devices, and frustrate the ambitious hopes of those whose only aim is the elevation of themselves, even upon the ruins of the Altar and the Throne.

Being, however, fully aware of the impending danger, we will unceasingly employ ourselves, our fortunes, our influence, our examples and our energies in endeavouring to avert it, in neutralizing the poison which is attempted to be insinuated, and in inspiring our fellow-countrymen with a just appreciation of the blessings emanating from our Constitution in Church and State; and convinced that the free exercise of the pure religion we profess, the rational liberty we enjoy, and the advantages which a British Constitution bestows upon us, all depend upon the stability of your Majesty's Throne, we are resolved to use our utmost exertions to support and to transmit it unimpaired to our latest posterity.

To His Majesty George the Fourth.

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of Bungay, and its Vicinity.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Inhabitants of Bungay, and its Vicinity, beg leave to express to your Majesty our unfeigned and unalterable sentiments of attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

At this awful crisis, we feel ourselves irresistibly compelled to pledge ourselves to your Majesty that we will use our most strenuous exertions to counteract the efforts of a desperate faction which is now endeavouring, by every means within its power, to resist and subvert the lawful Authorities of the realm.

At a time when the most seductive artifices and the most illegal means are incessantly and industriously employed to alienate the obedience of the people from their Rulers, and their affections from their God; when liberty degenerates into licentiousness and liberality into infidelity and sedition, we feel it to be our bounden and paramount duty as affectionate and grateful subjects of this ancient and loyal Town and Neighbourhood, to lay before the Throne and the people of the United Kingdom our heartfelt declaration of loyalty to the Person of our Gracious Monarch, and of devoted attachment to our excellent Constitution in Church and State.

We are not unaware that a certain portion of difficulty exists and must exist among some classes of your Majesty's subjects; but we abhor the attempt which has been made to pervert the existence of those difficulties to the base purpose of casting obloquy upon your Majesty's Government. We trust to the bounty of Divine Providence to relieve us from them in its own good season, and we rely upon the wisdom of Parliament to devise such means as human foresight can provide to ensure the happiness and prosperity of the empire at large.

When we consider the magnitude of the contest in which we have been engaged, the dangers to which we have been exposed, and the efforts which have been made to turn all our domestic circumstances to the disadvantage of the constituted Authorities of this kingdom, we are humbly thankful to Almighty God, and grateful to the wisdom and energy of your Majesty's Government, which has preserved us from the calamities with which we have been threatened.

We are confident that the same paternal care and the same energy will still continue to be exerted on behalf of ourselves and the rest of your Majesty's subjects, and we are determined that nothing shall be wanting, upon our part, to second those measures which your Majesty may think fit to adopt, to secure to us the protection of the laws, the enjoyment of rational liberty, and the consolations of our holy religion.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Vicar, Magistrates, Presbyterian and Seceding Clergymen, Churchwardens and Inhabitants of the Parish of Billy, in the County of Antrim, humbly entreat permission to express to your Majesty our faithful and devoted attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person and Government, and our deep sense of the blessings which this nation has enjoyed under the mild and benignant reigns of the Sovereigns of your Majesty's illustrious House, and most signally under your Majesty's paternal and glorious sway.

At a crisis like the present when a mischievous and desperate faction is endeavouring, through the infidel and immoral agency of a licentious press, corrupting and inflaming the unsuspecting and thoughtless, to vilify whatever is great and good in the nation, to undermine and ultimately subvert the venerable institutions of our ancestors, which have for ages secured to us those liberties which have made us powerful and respected abroad, and safe and independent at home, and which it has been your Majesty's glory and pride to protect, we consider it our bounden duty to assure your Majesty of our immovable determination to support and defend with our lives and fortunes the rights of your Majesty's Throne, and the Laws and Constitution of our country, against all your Majesty's enemies, who, by being so must be ours; and we most fervently pray the Father of Mercies, in whom we trust, that he may be graciously pleased to grant your Majesty a long and happy reign over a free and loyal people, thankful to His Providence for the blessing.

Signed, January 16, 1821, for and by the unanimous desire of the meeting.

Thomas Bobington, Vicar.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Dumfries, beg leave at this most momentous crisis to approach the Throne, with sincere and devoted attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government.

Sire, we feel it our duty now to declare our full conviction that there is no nation under Heaven where the life and liberty and property of the subject are so effectually guarded as in this kingdom, or where so free and fair an opportunity is afforded to the inhabitants, without respect of persons, cultivating and enjoying whatever tends to exalt and adorn the character of man, in his individual state or social capacity.

Impressed with these sentiments we cannot but with deep regret and abhorrence, contemplate the dangerous and impious arts which are at present employed with mischievous activity, by evil-disposed persons in different parts of the kingdom, to bring into contempt and involve in destruction, all those venerable authorities and institutions, by which our laws are administered, and our liberties secured, and our holy religion maintained.

Sensible of the blessings which Divine Providence permits us to enjoy under the mild influence of the British Constitution, and willing to contribute our efforts to transmit the fair inheritance bequeathed by our ancestors unimpaired to our posterity, we embrace this opportunity of expressing our unanimous and determined resolution in the strength of the Almighty, to support, by all the humble means in our power, the Altar of our Religion, the Throne of our Sovereign, and the Constitution of our Country, against every attempt to degrade, or shake, or overturn them; disclaiming all partial and party feeling respecting matters, with regard to which conscientious minds may entertain a difference of opinion, we fervently pray that our Jerusalem may ever flourish in peace and prosperity, and that your Majesty may long reign over a free, a loyal, a religious and a happy people.

We are, may it please your Majesty, with profound respect, your Majesty's most devoted servants and loyal subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Dumfries.

Signed in our name, by John Crocheal, Moderator.

Dumfries, 6th February 1821.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the undersigned, the Clergy of the Deanery of Castlemartin, in the County of Pembroke and Diocese of St. David's.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Clergy of the Deanery of Castlemartin, in the County of Pembroke, and Diocese of St. David's, deem it incumbent upon us, in these times of peril, to convey to your Majesty our sincere and earnest assurances of inviolable fidelity and unshaken attachment towards your Majesty's Person and Government.

We are happy in being able to assure your Majesty that in no part of your Majesty's dominions is the spirit of loyalty more fervent than among our respective parishioners; and we trust we have few among them who would not treat with indignation and contempt the efforts of the factious and the clamours of the disaffected. Yet, although we trust that the sentiments of those committed to our charge are, with few exceptions, loyal and uncontaminated, we cannot but have witnessed (and we have done so with indignation and alarm), the delusion produced in many parts of your Majesty's dominions, by the industrious dissemination of licentious and disloyal publications, tending powerfully to sap the principles and taint the hearts of the uninstructed and the unwary; and which, unless restrained (which we trust with confidence they will be), by the energy and firmness of your Majesty's Government, would too probably end in the subversion of all that is holy in religion, and all that is valuable in social and domestic life.

We earnestly pray that the glorious Constitution of these realms may descend unimpaired to posterity, and that your Majesty's reign over an affectionate and faithful people may be long and prosperous, and happy.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the principal Inhabitants of the Towns of Antrim, Randalstown, Crumlin, and their Vicinity.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's faithful subjects, beg leave to approach your presence with the assurance of our inviolable attachment to your august person.

That while foreign nations are manifesting the greatest respect for the laws and constitution of these realms, and holding them forth as the standard most worthy of their imitation, we lament to notice the attempts which are making by some classes of your Majesty's subjects in the Sister Kingdom, to lessen the respect for the laws, and ultimately to subvert the established constitution of the country.

It is with great satisfaction we can assure your Majesty, that this part of your Majesty's dominions remains firm in its attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

We, therefore, humbly beg, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to accept this expression of our unalterable loyalty and attachment to your Majesty's Person, your illustrious House, and the unrivalled Constitution of these realms; and we humbly hope, that, under Providence, your Majesty may enjoy a long and prosperous reign, and that this empire may continue to maintain that pre-eminence among nations which it has attained since your Majesty assumed the Executive Power.

Borough of Portsmouth—Right of Election, Petition Notice.

Sir George Garrett, Kt.; the Reverend George Cuthbert, Clerk, and others, having on Friday the 26th day of January last, presented their petition to the House of Commons, setting forth: That on the 5th day of June 1820, the Select Committee appointed to try and determine the merits of the petition of Sir George Cockburn, G. C. B., complaining of an undae election and return for the Borough of Portsmouth, reported to the House, That it appeared to the said Select Committee that the merits of the said petition did in part depend upon the right of election, and therefore the said Committee required the counsel on both sides to deliver to the clerk of the said Committee statements in writing of the right of election for which they respectively contended; and that in consequence thereof, the counsel for the said petitioner, Sir George Cockburn, delivered in a statement as follows: "That the right of voting in the Borough of Portsmouth, as contended for by the petitioner, is in the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the said Borough only, such Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses being resident within the said Borough, and the limits and liberties thereof." And that the counsel for sitting member delivered in a statement as follows: "That the right of election of Burgesses to serve in Parliament for the Borough of Portsmouth is in the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the said Borough only." That upon the statement delivered in by the counsel for the said petitioner, Sir George Cockburn, the said Committee have determined, "That the right of election as set forth in the said statement is not the right of election for the Borough of Portsmouth, in the County of Southampton;" and that upon the statement delivered in by the counsel for the sitting member, the said Committee have determined, "That the right of election as set forth in the said statement is the right of election for the said Borough of Portsmouth." That your petitioners are advised that the right of election which has been so determined by the said Select Committee is not the ancient and true and legal right of election for the said Borough, and they are therefore not satisfied with the said determination of the said Committee, and are desirous of being admitted parties to oppose such right of election, and to have the benefit of the Statute in that case made and provided; Therefore, to prevent the judgment of the said Select Committee from being final and conclusive: I do hereby give notice, That the House has appointed Thursday the 10th day of May next, at Three of the Clock in the Afternoon, to take the said petition into consideration.

Given under my hand, the 13th day of February 1821.

WHEREAS it has been represented to the King, that much malicious mischief has of late been done to ships lying in the River Tyne, by evil disposed persons cutting away the ropes by which such ships were moored, and particularly, that in the night of the 28th ultimo, the towline by which the ship Ann, of South Shields, Mr. Thomas Bell, owner, was moored on the North side of the River Tyne, loaded, was feloniously cut, and about twenty fathoms thereof stolen and carried away by some person or persons unknown;

We, the undersigned, Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, pursuant to and in execution of the powers vested in us, in and by the said Act, do hereby declare, that it appears to us expedient that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to the article of
