

son tendering the same shall bear the loss; but if any such piece so cut, broken or defaced, shall be of due weight, and appear to be lawful money, the person that cut, broke, or defaced the same shall, and is hereby required to take and receive the same at the rate it was coined for; and if any questions or disputes shall arise, whether the piece so cut be lawful coin, within the intent and meaning of His Majesty's Proclamations, it shall be heard and finally determined by the mayor, bailiff or bailiffs, or other chief officer of any city or town corporate where such tender shall be made; and if such tenders shall be made out of any city or town corporate, then by some justice of the peace of the county inhabiting or being near the place where such tender shall be made; and the said mayor or other chief officer and justice of the peace shall have full power and authority to administer an oath, as he shall see convenient, to any person for determining any questions relating to the weight and lawful currency of the said piece of coin.

Act of the Fourteenth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, Cap. 92, Sect. 4.

AND be it further enacted, by the authority aforesaid, that from and after the thirty-first day of December one thousand seven hundred and seventy-four, all weights to be made use of for weighing the said gold and silver coin, shall be regulated and ascertained by the duplicates or copies of the said standard weights of a guinea, of a shilling, and of the parts and multiples thereof respectively, lodged in the custody of the officer before mentioned (viz. the officer appointed by His Majesty for this purpose, in pursuance of a preceding clause of the said Act), and after having been tried and compared therewith, and found to be just and true, shall, in testimony thereof, be marked by the said officer with a stamp or mark, or stamps or marks, to be approved of by the Master of His Majesty's Mint, which stamps or marks the said officer is hereby directed to provide; and in order that the impression or impressions made thereby may be known to all His Majesty's subjects, the said officer is hereby also directed to publish a description of the same, by advertisement in the London Gazette, three times at least before the said thirty-first day of December one thousand seven hundred and seventy-four; and the said officer is hereby required, upon application made to him, at all seasonable hours, to stamp or mark, in manner aforesaid, all weights to be used for weighing the said gold and silver coin which shall be brought to him for that purpose, and which he shall find to be just and true according to the said duplicates or copies of the standard weights of a guinea and of a shilling, and of the parts and multiples thereof respectively, hereby directed to be lodged in his custody, without fee or reward, and without wilful delay; and from and after the said thirty-first day of December one thousand seven hundred and seventy-four, no other weights but such as shall be just and true, according to the weights with and by which they are hereby directed to be compared and ascertained, and shall be marked in manner before mentioned, shall be reputed or accepted in law to be true or of any effect for determining the weight of the gold or silver coin of this realm.
