

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

SATURDAY, MARCH 10, 1821.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, March 9, 1821.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Majesty will hold a Levee at Carlton-House, on Wednesday the 21st instant, at two o'clock.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, February 26, 1821.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Majesty will hold a Drawing-Room at Buckingham-Palace, on Thursday the 22d of March next, at two o'clock.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to Viscount Sidmouth, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, were presented by His Lordship to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the undersigned Nobility, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Wilts, beg leave to approach the Throne with renewed assurances of our ardent and unabated attachment to your Majesty's sacred person, as well as to that glorious constitution, of which your Majesty has ever shewn yourself the faithful guardian and protector.

Alarmed, but not dismayed, at the present disturbed state of our country, we have viewed with grief and abhorrence, the wicked industry of factious agitators, aided by a corrupt and licentious press, to subvert all religion and order, and to destroy the very foundations of civil society.

Against such nefarious attempts, we pledge ourselves to exert our most vigorous and unceasing endeavours, and to promote that loyalty to our Sovereign, and that willing obedience to the laws, which have hitherto been the peculiar boast and protection of our country.

That your Majesty may long reign over us, the beloved Father of a great and loyal nation, is our fervent prayer.

[Here follow the Signatures.]

[Transmitted by the Earl of Pembroke and Montgomery, K. G.]

To His Most Excellent Majesty KING GEORGE the Fourth.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the undersigned Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Gloucester, beg most humbly to assure your Majesty of our unalterable devotion and attachment to your Majesty's royal person and government; and we feel more particularly called upon to make this declaration at the present period, when the kingdom has been agitated, and our glorious and invaluable constitution threatened with destruction, by the machinations of evil disposed persons: We observe with indignation the attempts that are making to mislead the unwary, and to alienate the affections of your Majesty's subjects; and we cannot but view with the utmost alarm, the freedom of the press perverted from its legitimate objects, employed to undermine those principles which it ought to defend, and exerted in propagating the most false and seditious libels against your Majesty's Government and throne.

We are aware of the fatal consequences which must flow from a passive acquiescence in these dangerous proceedings; but we feel assured that, in spite of the efforts of the disaffected, the great mass of the nation remains sound and untainted.

Upon these grounds we consider it our duty to stand forward at the present moment, to declare our inviolable attachment to your Majesty, and our firm determination to support the constitution under which we have the happiness to live.

[Here follow the Signatures.]

[Transmitted by the Duke of Beaufort, K. G.]