THE following Address having been transmitted to Viscount Sidmouth, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by Thomas Frankland Lewis, Esq. M.P. Recorder of the Borough of Radnor, has been presented by His Lordship to the King, and most graciously received :

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE the Recorder, Bailiff, Aldermen, and capital Burgesses of the Borough of Radnor, within the Principality of Wales, in Council assembled, beg leave in the most humble and dutiful manner to lay before your Majesty, the expressions of our loyal Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government; our devotion to the Constitution, at the Head of which you are destined to rule; and our heartfelt Affection and Veneration for the Establishment and Institutions of our Country.

In the tranquil and peaceful Situation in which we are placed, we are nevertheless not unconscious, that on all Occasions in which Public Feeling has been deeply interested, Attempts have been made by arifil designing Persons to mislead the judgment of the Public, and to guide their Wishes and Exertions towards the attainment of Objects which could end only in Anarchy and Confusion.

We therefore beg leave earnestly to assure your Majesty, that our humble Endeavours will be exerted to maintain and to obey the Law; that we look up to your Majesty, (whose Reign we pray God long to prosper) in the confident Hope, that we, in common with the rest of your Majesty's Subjects shall continue to enjoy the Blessings of Security and Tranquility, under the form of Constitution and Government, which our Ancestors have long enjoyed: though never in a purer form than under the mild and paternal Sway of the House of Brunswick.

That your Majesty may long and happily reign over loyal, peaceful, and prosperous Subjects, is our heartfelt and devoted Prayer.

The land is in the finest state of management; the farmhouse is substantial and convenient, and the outbuildings which have been built within the last ten years are most complete. The river Esk, which forms the southern boundary of the estate, with the exception of the before-mentioned small field which is separated by it from the remainder of the property, abounds with salmon-trout, and a weir for the purpose of taking them may be easily constructed. The turnpike-road from York to Whitby passes through the estate, which contains several beautiful situations for building upon. About one acre is covered with a thriving plantation of young forest-trees, and there is also a small quantity of well grown hedge-row timber, all of which, as well as the trees in the plantation, is to be taken by the purchaser at a valuation.

Vessels of any description, not exceeding 300 tons burden, can load and unload on the quay at the warehouse doors. The building is four stories high, and the rooms are spacious; the whole is in most complete repair, and well calculated for a granary provision warehouse, or any other purpose requiring conveniency of access by land and water. This property is freehold, except as to the quay, and is at present in the occupation of Messrs. John Elgie and Comers, and the Assignees of the said William Elgie. The quay has been erected subsequently to the building of the warehouse on the site of the harbour, with the permission of the High Court of Admiralty, but no lease of the site thereof having been obtained, a mere possessory right is the only title that can be given. This quay and a valuable crane thereon is to be taken by the purchaser of the warehouse at a fair valuation.
