To the KING’s Most Excellent Majesty.

men, Magistrates, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Kildare, beg to be permitted to approach the Throne with expressions of our profound respect and affectionate duty to your Royal Person, of our unalienable loyalty to your Majesty, and of veneration for the Constitution under which we live.

We deeply lament that in our sister isle manifold instances have lately occurred of a licentious and impious use having been made of the invaluable liberty of the press, in attempts to degrade Royalty, to vilify and hold up to contempt the other branches of the Constitution, and to undermine our religious, moral, and political institutions; and we deem it due to ourselves, as faithful and loyal subjects, and sincere admirers of that Constitution, to declare that to our utmost we will uphold the dignity of the Throne, the just prerogatives of the Crown, the rights and privileges of the Houses of Parliament, and the due maintenance of the laws, as the best and most legitimate support of real and rational liberty.
