A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, R.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to provide for a new silver coinage, and to regulate the gold and silver currency of this realm," the Master and Worker of Our Mint in London was authorised and empowered to coin, or cause to be coined, silver bullion into silver coins, consisting of crowns, half crowns, shillings, and sixpences, of the standard of eleven ounces and two penny weights of fine silver, and eighteen penny weights of alloy to the pound troy, and in weight after the rate of sixty-six shillings to the pound troy: and whereas in virtue of the powers so given, a coinage of crowns or five shilling pieces, shillings, sixpences, and other small silver monies, usually denominated Maundy monies, namely, fourpenny, threepenny, twopenny, and penny pieces (in addition to the coinage of the other denominations of silver monies), at the rate of sixty-six shillings to the pound troy, and of the standard fineness above-mentioned; every such crown or five shilling piece having for the obverse impression Our effigy or portraiture, with the inscription "Georgius IIII. D. G. Britanniar: Rex: F. D." and for the reverse the image of Saint George, sitting on horse-back, attacking the Dragon with a sword, having broken his spear in the encounter, and the date of the year, and on the edge of the piece, in raised letters, the words "Decus et tutamen, anno regni," the year of Our reign being in Roman numeral letters; and every such shilling and sixpenny piece having for the obverse impression Our effigy or portraiture, with the inscription "Georgius IIII. D. G. Britanniar: Rex: F. D." and for the reverse the ensigns armorial of Our United Kingdom, contained in a shield surmounted by Our Royal Crown, the Rose, Thistle, and Shamrock, being placed round the shield with the word "Anno" and the date of the year, and the edge of the piece being marked with the graining used on the coins of His late Majesty; and every such silver monies usually denominated Maundy monies, namely, the fourpenny, threepenny, twopenny, and penny pieces, having for the obverse impression Our effigy or portraiture, with a similar inscription to the shilling and sixpence, and for the reverse the denomination of the money, encircled by an oak wreath surmounted by the Royal Crown, and having the date of the year; has been delivered from Our Mint to the Bank of England, and will be issued therefrom for the use of Our subjects: We have, therefore, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, thought fit to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, and We do hereby ordain, declare, and command, that the said pieces of silver money shall, from and after the day of the date of this Our Proclamation, be current and lawful money of Our Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and shall pass and be received as current and lawful money of Our said Kingdom, that is to say, such crown pieces as of the value of five shillings, the said shilling pieces as of the value of twelve pence, the said sixpenny pieces as of the value of six pence, and the said Maundy monies, namely, the said fourpenny pieces as of the value of four pence, the said threepenny pieces as of the value of three pence, the said twopenny pieces as of the value of two pence, and the said penny pieces as of the value of one penny, in all payments and transactions of money.

Given at Our Court at Carlton-House, the twenty-first day of March one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, in the second year of Our reign.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE. R.

WHEREAS His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His late Majesty King George the Third, was pleased by His Royal Proclamations, bearing date the first day of July and the tenth day of October in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventeen, to ordain, declare, and command, that certain pieces of gold coin therein described, called sovereigns and half sovereigns, should pass and be received as current and lawful money of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and that every such sovereign should weigh not less than five penny weights, two grains and three quarters, and that every such half sovereign should weigh not less than two penny weights, thirteen grains and one quarter; and whereas the allowance made for reasonable wear by the said Proclamations has been found by experience to be too small for general practice: We taking the same into consideration are pleased, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, and We do hereby ordain, declare, and command, that, from and after the date hereof, every gold sovereign not weighing less than five penny weights, two grains and a half, and every gold half sovereign not weighing less than two penny weights, thirteen grains and one eighth, shall pass and be received as current and lawful money of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; every such sovereign as of the value of twenty shillings; and every such half sovereign as of the value of ten shillings, in all payments whatsoever.

Given at Our Court at Carlton-House, the sixth day of February one thousand eight hundred and twenty one, and in the second year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

3d March 1821.

NOTICE, MONEY WEIGHTS.

WHEREAS by an Act of the fourteenth Geo. III. cap. 92, it is directed that all weights made use of for weighing the gold and silver coins of the realm shall be tried and compared with the standard weights lodged in His Majesty's Mint, and that upon the same being found just and true a stamp shall be marked thereon by an officer appointed for that purpose: And whereas by a Proclamation, bearing date sixth of February one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, His Majesty has been pleased to order that the gold coins therein described shall not pass current under a certain weight:

Notice is therefore hereby given, to all persons requiring their weights to be stamped, that attendance will be given at the Weigher and Tellers Office, at the Mint, on Wednesday the fourteenth instant, and every subsequent Wednesday, between the hours of ten and three o'clock, for the receiving the said weights which are to be left with the said officer, and after the same have been compared with the weights in the Office, and found to be true and just, they will be marked with the following impression, viz. on one side, His Majesty's crest with the words "Royal Mint" and the date of the year of the Proclamation, and on the other side, the current weight of the denomination of the coin, and delivered to the owners on their paying the fee directed by the Act of Parliament of the fifteenth, Geo. III. cap. 30, viz. one penny for every twelve weights so stamped or marked before the same are delivered: And all persons counterfeiting or selling forged stamps will be prosecuted as the Act directs.

By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE. R.

WHEREAS His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His late Majesty King George the Third, was pleased, by His Royal Proclamation, bearing date the twentieth day of November one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, to declare His Royal will and pleasure, that the Governors or Deputy Governors of Gibraltar and Malta should be authorised to issue Mediterranean Passes for the protection of ships belonging to His said late Majesty's subjects in those possessions, according to a certain form therein referred to, marked (C), under and subject to certain regulations and sureties therein set forth; and whereas doubts have arisen as to the term during which it was intended that the said Passes should remain in force; We taking the premises into Our Royal consideration, and judging it necessary to remove such doubts, have thought fit, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, to publish this Our Royal Proclamation, and We do hereby declare, that the Passes to be issued by Our Governors or Deputy Governors of Our said possessions of Gibraltar and Malta for the protection of ships or vessels belonging to Our subjects in Our said possessions, according to the form (C), and under the conditions set forth in the before-mentioned Proclamation of the twentieth of November one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, shall be and continue in force for one year from the day on which the same shall respectively be issued, and no longer; and that at the expiration of that term, the said Passes shall be delivered up to the said Governors or Deputy Governors for the purpose of being cancelled, as required by the said Proclamation of the twentieth of November one thousand eight hundred and nineteen.

Given at Our Court at Carlton-House, this Twenty-second day of November one thousand eight hundred and twenty, and in the first year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 21st of March 1821,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to allow for three years, and until six weeks after the commencement of the then next session of Parliament, the importation into ports specially appointed by His Majesty within the Provinces of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, of the articles therein enumerated, and the re-exportation thereof from such ports," it is enacted that it shall and may be lawful, in any British ship or vessel owned and navigated according to law, or in any ship or vessel belonging to the subjects of any Sovereign or State in amity with His Majesty, to import into and export from such ports within the provinces of Nova Scotia or New Brunswick, as shall be specially appointed for that purpose, certain articles in the said Act enumerated, any thing in any law to the contrary notwithstanding; His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in Him by the above recited Act, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this order, and until further order made thereon, it shall be lawful, in any British built ship or vessel, owned and navigated according to law; or in any ship or vessel belonging to the subjects of any Sovereign or State in amity with His Majesty, to import into the port of St. Andrews, in New Brunswick, any scantling, planks, staves, heading boards, shingles, hoops, horses, neat cattle, sheep, hogs, poultry, or live stock of any sort; bread, biscuits, flour, peas, beans, potatoes, wheat, rice, oats, barley, or grain of any sort; pitch, tar, turpentine, fruits, seeds, and tobacco; provided that such articles shall, in all cases where the same shall be imported in foreign vessels, be of the growth, produce, or manufacture of the country to which the vessels importing the same shall belong; and that it shall be lawful in any British built ship or vessel, owned and navigated according to law, to export from the said port any of the said articles, either to the United Kingdom, or to any other of His Majesty's possessions.

A 2

And it is hereby further ordered, that it shall and may be lawful, in any British-built ship or vessel, owned and navigated according to law, or in any ship or vessel belonging to the subjects of any Sovereign or State in amity with His Majesty, to export from the port of St. Andrews, in New Brunswick, any gypsum, grindstones, or other produce or manufacture of the said province; and also any produce or manufacture of the United Kingdom, or of His Majesty's colonies or plantations in the West Indies, or any goods whatever which shall have been legally imported into the said province, provided that none of the said articles shall be exported from the port, above-named, to any foreign country or place, in any foreign vessel, unless such foreign vessel shall belong to the country to which the said articles shall be exported.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 23d of February 1821,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board, a Memorial from the Commissioners for discovering the Longitude at Sea, in the words following, viz.

"WHEREAS by an Act of the fifty-eighth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for more effectually discovering the Longitude at Sea, and encouraging attempts to find a Northern Passage between the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans, and to approach the Northern Pole;" and by another Act of the present session of Parliament, to amend the said Act, it is provided, that for the encouragement of persons who may attempt the said Passage, or approach to the Northern Pole, but not wholly accomplish the same; we, the Commissioners for discovering the Longitude at Sea, may by our Memorial propose to your Majesty in Council, to direct and establish proportionate rewards to be paid to such person as aforesaid, who shall first have accomplished certain proportions of the said Passage or Approach:

And whereas it appears that the progress of discovery has already advanced on the Northern Coast of North America, and within the Arctic Circle, as far as 113 degrees of West Longitude, or thereabouts, from Greenwich; but has not arrived Northward, according to any well authenticated accounts, so far as 81 degrees of North Latitude:

We, your Memorialists, beg leave most humbly to represent these particulars for your Majesty's consideration, and to submit, with all humility, whether your Majesty may not be graciously pleased to establish the following scale of rewards, to be allotted according to the intentions of the said Acts:

1.—To the first ship belonging to any of your Majesty's subjects, or to your Majesty, that shall reach the Longitude of 130° West from Greenwich, by sailing within the Arctic Circle - - - £5,000

To the first ship as aforesaid, that shall reach the Longitude of 150° West from Greenwich, by sailing within the Arctic Circle, a further sum of - - - £5,000

To the first ship as aforesaid, that shall reach the Pacific Ocean by a North West Passage, the further sum of - - - £10,000

2.—To the first ship as aforesaid, that shall reach to 83° of North Latitude - - - £1,000

To 85°, a further sum of - - - £1,000

To 87°, a further sum of - - - £1,000

To 88°, a further sum of - - - £1,000

To 89°, or beyond, a further sum of - - - £1,000

And if your Majesty should graciously approve these proposals, we further, with all humility, submit whether your Majesty would not be pleased, by your Order in Council, to revoke, cancel, and annul His late Majesty's Order in Council, of the nineteenth March one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, establishing the scale of rewards therein contained, for the accomplishment of certain proportions of the said Passage or Approach.

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve thereof; and His Majesty doth hereby establish the scale of rewards proposed in the said Memorial.

And His Majesty is further pleased, by and with the advice aforesaid, to revoke, cancel, and annul the Order in Council of the nineteenth of March one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, establishing the scale of rewards therein contained, and the same is hereby revoked, cancelled, and annulled accordingly. Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 22d of November 1820,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the twenty-ninth of May last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder, arms, or ammunition, to the places therein specified, will expire on the thirtieth day of this instant November; and whereas it is expedient, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth day of this instant November), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place within the dominions of the King of Spain, or to any port or place on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places within the dominions of the King of Spain, or into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council."

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. Chetwynd.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 12th of July 1820,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the first year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to continue until the fifth day of

" July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, An Act of the fifty-seventh year of His late Majesty, for regulating the trade and commerce to and from the Cape of Good Hope, and for regulating the trade of the Island of Mauritius," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, by any Order or Orders to be issued from time to time, to give such directions, and to make such regulations touching the trade and commerce to and from the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, and the territories and dependencies thereof, as to His Majesty in Council shall appear most expedient and salutary, any thing contained in an Act, passed in the twelfth year of the reign of His Majesty King Charles the Second, intituled " An Act for the encouraging and increasing of shipping and navigation ;" or in an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His Majesty King William the Third, intituled " An Act for preventing frauds and regulating abuses in the plantation trade," or any other Act or Acts of Parliament now in force relating to His Majesty's colonies and plantations, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament, law, usage, or custom to the contrary, in anywise notwithstanding ; His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this present Order, British vessels arriving at any port of the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or of the territories and dependencies thereof, from any country in amity with His Majesty, laden with any articles of the growth, production, or manufacture of such country (excepting all articles composed of cotton, iron, steel, or wool of foreign manufacture,) shall be permitted to enter and land their cargoes, and dispose of the same in the said ports, subject to such duties as may be there payable thereon :

And it is further ordered that British vessels arriving as aforesaid shall be permitted to export to any such foreign country in amity with His Majesty, cargoes consisting of any articles of the growth, production, or manufacture of the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or of the territories and dependencies thereof, or of any other articles which shall have been legally imported there, on payment of such duties as may be payable thereon :

And it is hereby further ordered, that vessels belonging to the subjects of any foreign state in amity with His Majesty, which foreign state shall allow British vessels to carry on trade as aforesaid between the ports of such state and the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or the territories and dependencies thereof, shall be permitted, in like manner, to import into the ports of the said settlements, or of the territories and dependencies thereof, from any port of the state to which such vessel shall belong, any articles of the growth, production, or manufacture of such foreign state (excepting all articles composed of cotton, iron, steel, or wool, of foreign manufacture), and to dispose of the same in the ports of the said settlement, or of the territories and dependencies thereof, on payment of the same duties as shall be payable on the like articles when imported from such foreign state in British vessels ; provided, however, that if, higher duties are charged on the export of such goods from any such foreign state to the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or the territories and dependencies thereof, in British vessels, than are charged on the export of similar articles to the said settlement, or the territories and dependencies thereof, in ships of such foreign state, a countervailing duty, of equal amount, shall be charged on the said articles when imported into the said settlement, or the territories and dependencies thereof, in vessels of such foreign state, over and above the duties payable on the like articles when imported from such state in British vessels.

And it is hereby further ordered, that every such foreign vessel shall be permitted to export a cargo consisting of any articles of the growth, production, or manufacture of the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or of the territories and dependencies thereof, or of any other articles which shall have been legally imported there, on payment of a duty of eight per cent. ad valorem over and above the duties charged on the like goods when exported from the said settlement, or the territories and dependencies thereof, to such foreign state in a British vessel ; provided, however, that in cases where satisfactory proof shall be given, that the said articles, when imported into such foreign state from the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or the territories and dependencies thereof, in British vessels, are charged with no higher duties than are charged on the like articles when imported in vessels of such foreign state, and that such articles, when imported in British vessels, are entitled to the same privileges and advantages with respect to warehousing and internal consumption, or otherwise, as when imported in vessels of such state, then and in such case no higher duties shall be charged on the export of such articles from the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or the territories and dependencies thereof, in vessels of such foreign state than shall be charged on the export of the like articles in British vessels to such foreign state :

It is, however, hereby further ordered and declared, that no foreign vessel, allowed by the terms of this Order to export a cargo from the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or the territories and dependencies thereof, shall be permitted to export such cargo to any of His Majesty's possessions, or to any other place than a port or place belonging to the state or power to which the vessel itself shall belong.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, passed in the forty-third year of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled "An Act for permitting certain goods imported into Great Britain to be secured in warehouses without payment of duty," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the importer or importers, proprietor or proprietors, consignee or consignees, of any of the goods, wares, or merchandise, enumerated or described in the table thereunto annexed, marked (E), and which shall have been legally imported or brought into the port of London, to lodge and secure in a warehouse or warehouses to be provided for that purpose, any such goods, wares, or merchandise, under the joint locks of the crown and the merchant, without payment at the time of the first entry of the duties of customs due on the importation thereof: and it is by the said recited Act further enacted; that if the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them shall deem it expedient, that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to any goods, wares, and merchandise, not enumerated or described in either of the tables annexed thereto, and should cause a list of such goods, wares, and merchandises, to be published in the London Gazette, then and from thenceforth, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions, of the said Act, shall extend to such goods, wares, and merchandise, in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said tables respectively, at the time of passing the said Act.

We, the undersigned, Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, pursuant to and in execution of the powers vested in us, in and by the said Act, do hereby declare, that it appears to us expedient that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to the article of legally imported or brought into the port of London (not being imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies); and that such ground madder should be added to the list of goods, wares, and merchandise enumerated and described in the table annexed to the said recited Act, marked (E), and that such ground madder should be lodged and secured at or in such warehouse or warehouses, under the regulations and directions of the said Act: and we do further declare, that from and after the publication of this our certificate in the London Gazette, conformable to the directions of the said Act, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions of the said Act shall extend, and be construed to extend, to all such ground madder in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the table annexed to the said Act, marked (E), at the time of the passing of the same Act.

Given under our hands at the Treasury Chambers, Whitehall, this 21st day of December 1820,

CONTRACT FOR COALS.

Navy-Office, April 6, 1821.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 19th of April instant, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying His Majesty's several Dock-Yards and this Office with Coals.

A distribution of the coals, and a form of the tender, may be seen at this Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.

Every tender must be accompanied by a letter addressed to the Navy Board, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £25 per 100 chaldrons of coals, for the due performance of the contract.

G. Smith.

Navy-Office, April 11, 1821.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Friday the 4th of May next, at twelve o'clock at noon, Commissioner Cunningham will put up to sale, in His Majesty's Yard at Woolwich, several lots of Old Stores, consisting of Old Canvas, Hammocks, Nets, Junk, Rope, Paper-Stuff, Shakings, Iron, &c. &c. all lying in the said Yard.

Persons wishing to view the lots, must apply to the Commissioner of the Yard for a note of admission for that purpose.

Catalogues and conditions of sale may be had here, and at the Yard.

G. Smith.

Navy-Office, April 11, 1821.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Wednesday the 2d of May next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, Commissioner the Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart. will put up to sale, in His Majesty's Yard at Portsmouth, several lots of Old Stores, consisting of Old Canvas, Hammocks, Junk and Rope in Paper-Stuff, Rattling, Rounding, and Seizings, Spun-Yarn and Rubbish, Old Iron, Slop Clothing, &c. &c. all lying in the said Yard.

Persons wishing to view the lots, must apply to the Commissioner of the Yard for a note of admission for that purpose.

Catalogues and conditions of sale may be had here, and at the Yard.

G. Smith.

To the Proprietors of East India Stock.

Ladies and Gentlemen,

WE beg leave to offer you our grateful acknowledgments for the honour you have conferred on us by re-electing us into the Direction. Trusting that the Proprietors will ever find us deserving of the confidence they have reposed in us.

We have the honour to be,
with great respect,
Ladies and Gentlemen,
your most obedient and very humble Servants,

John Bebb.
James Daniell.
William Fullarton Elphinstone.
John Inglis.
James Pattison.

East India-House, the 12th April 1821.

TO THE RIGHT HONOURABLE THE LORDS COMMISSIONERS OF HIS MAJESTY'S TREASURY.

WE, Commissioners appointed by an Act of the 26th Geo. 3. cap. 31, intituled "An Act for vesting certain sums in Commissioners at the end of every quarter of a year, to be by them applied to the Reduction of the National Debt," do hereby certify, that the Capital Stock which has been purchased by and transferred to us on account of the Public Funded Debts of Great Britain and Ireland funded therein consolidated, up to the 5th day of July 1820 inclusive, is as follows; viz.

Two capital freehold houses, situate in the Cliff, Lewes, and an excellent leasehold dwelling-house, being No. 3, Richmond-Place, Brighton.

Particulars may be had of W. R. James, Esq. No. 23, Ely-Place, London; or of the Auctioneers, Lewes.

To be peremptorily sold by auction, by Mr. Goodier, before the major part of the Commissioners named and appointed in and by a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued against Thomas Thorne, a Bankrupt, at the Red Lion Inn, in Heaton-Norris, in the County of Lancaster, on Friday the 27th day of April instant, at Five o'clock in the Afternoon, subject to such conditions of sale as will be then and there produced, and in such lots as may be then agreed on;

The complete and extensive printing works and bleaching works called the Reddish Mills, and the Wood-End or Top-Works, with two excellent dwelling-houses, eighteen cottages, and about fifty Lancashire acres of land, all freehold of inheritance, and situate in Reddish and Denton, in the County of Lancaster, and Brunnington, in the County of Chester, consisting of all that capital messuage or dwelling-house, well calculated for a family residence, with garden stocked with choice fruit trees, and suitable offices and conveniences, now in the occupation of Mr. James Fletcher; and also all those the printing-works near the said dwelling house, called the Reddish Mills, consisting of a large brick building, containing printing-rooms and stove, drying rooms, cooling-rooms, and all requisite wash-houses and dye-houses; and of another building containing a colour-shop, two print black-shops, a cutting-room, and a copperas-house; and of another building containing a shell-room and madder-house; and of another building containing a blue dipping-house, and an air drying-room over it; and of another building attached to a dwelling-house, and containing a drug-room, counting-house, and measuring-room, with an air drying-room over the same.

These works were late in the occupation of the said Thomas Thorp, and have every convenience either for a printing or bleaching establishment; they adjoin the river Tame, from which they have an abundant supply of water; and there are also on the grounds a large reservoir of spring-water, and two other reservoirs of river filtered-water.

And also all those thirteen several cottages near the said works, and in the occupation of the workmen lately employed by the said Thomas Thorp; and also all that other capital messuage or dwelling-house, with the gardens, stables, out-buildings, and other offices and conveniences, now in the occupation of Mr. John Norris; and also all those bleaching-works near thereto, called the Wood-End, or Top-Works, consisting of a large edifice, or building, containing a chemical room, with seven stone cisterns, drug-room, carthouse, two wash-houses, a mangle-house, calender-house, finishing-room, tin-room, two packing-rooms, two stove-rooms, a blacksmith's shop, and a counting-house, together with the water-wheel and pit-wheel attached thereto, cast-iron puffing-pans, hydraulic press, four stone cisterns, and various pipes and fixtures demised with these works; and also all those five cottages near thereto, now occupied by certain undertenants of Mr. Norris.

The last described dwelling-house and bleaching-works, with the fixtures and utensils, and also the five cottages and a part of the land after-mentioned, containing about thirteen acres, are held by Mr. Norris for two terms of years, of which about thirteen years are now unexpired, under two yearly rents, amounting to £501. per annum.

And also all those several closes, fields, or parcels of land, situate in Reddish aforesaid, and commonly called the Wilkin Field, the Large Meadow, the Great Meadow, Alder Park, Bleacher's Croft, Lee's Croft, Lee's Wood, Small Clough Field, and Large Clough Field, being the land belonging to the Wood-End estate, and containing, including the sites of the building thereon erected, and also the goits and reservoirs and a certain part of the bed of the river Tame, 18A. 3R. 28P. of land, of the Lancashire measure, or thereabouts; and also all those several closes, fields, or parcels of land, situate in Reddish and Denton aforesaid, and commonly called the Marler's Croft, the Brows, the Orchards, Davy Acre, part of Alder Meadow, part of Hewbottom and Devil's Walk, being the lands belonging to the Reddish-Mill estate, and containing, including the sites of the buildings thereon erected, and the goits and reservoirs, seven acres of land, of Lancashire measure, or thereabouts; and also all those several other closes, fields or parcels of land situate in Brinnington and Reddish aforesaid, and commonly called the Goose-Eye, the Cote-Field, the Twitchill, the field betwixt the New Wier and New Goit, Great Meadow and Strines, (being the lands belonging to the Strines' estate), and the Masters and Hewbottom, part of the Wood-End estate, and the Warth, part of the Reddish-Mill estate, and containing, including the sites of the buildings thereon erected, and also the goits and reservoirs, and a certain part of the bed of the river Tame, 25A. 0R. 20P. of land of the Lancashire measure, or thereabouts.

The Reddish-Mill estate and the Wood-End estate will be sold subject to a perpetual yearly chief rent of 241l. 7s. and the Strines' estate will be sold subject to a perpetual yearly chief rent of 90k.

The above estates are situated about five miles and a half from Manchester, and two miles from Stockport, and near excellent roads; they are within two miles distant of good collieries, and the Stockport and Aston Canal runs within one mile of them. The land is in a high state of cultivation, and the buildings are in complete repair. The whole of the above premises, except the land and hereditaments in the holding of Mr. Norris, are held by the said Thomas Thorp, under an agreement for a lease, about thirteen years of which are unexpired, under the yearly rent of 500l.

Immediate possession may be had of the dwelling-house occupied by Mr. Addison, and of the Reddish mills and works, and also of all the land, except the part held by Mr. Norris.

Further particulars may be had on application to the said Thomas Thorp, on the premises; or to Mr. John Thorp the younger, of Cheale; Mr. Christopher Grimshaw, or to Mr. Henry Richardson, of Manchester, the Assignees of the said Thomas Thorp; or to Messrs. Halstead and Ainsworth, Solicitors, for the Mortgagees, or to Messrs. Lingard, Vaughan and Lingard, of Heaton Norris, Solicitors to the Assignees, at whose Office a plan of the premises may be seen.
