

forth use the surname of Wade, instead of that of Baseley, and also bear the arms of Wade; and that such surname and arms may be borne by the issue of their marriage; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise His Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect;

And also to order, that this His Majesty's concession and declaration be registered in His College of Arms.

Whitehall, April 14, 1821.

The King hath been pleased to grant unto John-Hodgetts Foley, of Prestwood, in the parish of Swinford Regis, in the county of Stafford, Esq. second son of the Honourable Edward Foley, late of Stoke, in the county of Hereford, deceased, by Elizabeth-Maria Foley, his second wife, who was the only child of John-Hodgetts, late of Prestwood aforesaid, Esq. some time High Sheriff of the said county of Stafford, also deceased. His royal licence and authority that from motives of affectionate regard to the memory of his said late honoured mother, as well as to that of his aforesaid late maternal grandfather, he and his issue may take and use the surname of Hodgetts in addition to and before that of Foley, and bear the arms of Hodgetts quarterly with those of the noble family of Foley, such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise the said royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, April 12, 1821.
