

ment of a duty of eight per cent. ad valorem, over and above the duties charged on the like goods when exported from the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, to such foreign state in a British vessel; provided, however, that in cases where satisfactory proof shall be given that the said articles, when imported into such foreign state from the Island of Mauritius in British vessels, are charged with no higher duties than are charged on the like articles when imported in vessels of such foreign state; and that such articles when imported in British vessels are entitled to the same privileges and advantages with respect to warehousing and internal consumption or otherwise, as when imported in vessels of such state, then and in such case no higher duties shall be charged on the export of such articles from the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, in vessels of such foreign state, than shall be charged on the export of the like articles in British vessels to such foreign state:

It is, however, hereby further ordered and declared, that no foreign vessel, allowed by the terms of this Order to export a cargo from the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, shall be permitted to export such cargo to any of His Majesty's possessions, or to any other place than a port or place belonging to the state or power to which the vessel itself shall belong:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein*as to them may respectively appertain. Chetwynd.

Admiralty-Office, April 2, 1821.

The King has been pleased to appoint Thomas Harvey, Esq. C. B. Captain of the Royal Navy, to be Colonel of the Royal Marines, in the room of W. R. Broughton, Esq. deceased.

Admiralty-Office, April 5, 1821.

The King has been pleased to appoint Sir George Cockburn, G. C. B. Vice-Admiral of the Blue, to be Major-General of the Royal Marine Forces, in the room of Vice-Admiral Sir R. G. Keats.

Whitehall, March 22, 1821.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto George-Julius Buncombe-Poulett-Thomson, Esq. second son of John Buncombe-Poulett-Thomson, of Waverley-Abbey, in the county of Surrey, Esq.) and Emma-Phipps Scrope, spinster, only child and heir expectant of William Scrope, of Castle Combe, in the county of Wilts, Esq. His royal licence and authority, that, from and immediately after the solemnization of an intended marriage between the said George-Julius Buncombe-Poulett-Thomson and the said Emma-Phipps Scrope, they may assume and thenceforward use the surname of Scrope, in lieu of that of Thomson; that the said George-Julius Buncombe-Poulett-Thomson may bear the arms of Scrope, in lieu of his paternal arms of Thomson; and that such surname and arms of Scrope may be, in like manner, used and borne by the issue of the said intended marriage; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise His Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to order, that this His Majesty's concession and declaration be registered in His College of Arms.

Whitehall, April 13, 1821.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that as Mr. Thomas Burfitt, jun. of Maiden Bradley, in the parish of Wilts, was, about half past eight o'clock in the evening of Saturday the 7th instant, returning home from Warminster Market, and riding on the turnpike road at a place called Manswood, in the parish of Longbridge Deverill, in the said county, he was shot at by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown, and a slug or ball passed through his coat;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually fired at the said Thomas Burfitt) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Thomas Burfitt, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, passed in the forty-third year of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled "An Act for permitting certain goods imported into Great Britain to be secured in warehouses without payment of duty," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the importer or importers, proprietor or proprietors, consignee or consignees, of any of the goods, wares, or merchandise, enumerated or described in the table thereunto annexed, marked (E), and which shall have been legally imported or brought into the port of London, to lodge and secure in a warehouse or warehouses to be provided for that purpose, any such goods, wares, or merchandise, under the joint locks of the crown and the merchant, without payment at the time of the first entry of the duties of customs due on the importation thereof: and it is by the said recited Act further enacted, that if the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any three or
