Admiralty-Office, April 28, 1821.

VICE-ADMIRAL SIR GRAHAM MOORE has transmitted to this Office a copy of a letter addressed by Captain Bruce, British Agent at Mocha, to Mr. Salt, His Majesty's Consul-General in Egypt, dated at Mocha, the 10th of January last, and communicating the successful termination of the expedition sent from India, under the orders of Captain Lumley, of His Majesty's ship Topaze, for the purpose of obtaining redress for the injuries which the British interests had suffered from the Officers of the Imaun, of Senna.

The squadron arrived off Mocha on the 3d of December, and the Agent having previously used every means to obtain redress without effect, the place was bombarded on the 4th, and an attempt was made to get possession of the North Fort, which failed, with some loss. On the 5th a parley took place, and the following day two hostages were sent off to the squadron with a promise that the British demands should be acceded to in fourteen days.

This period however elapsed without the arrival of a person with proper authorities from Senna; and after allowing further prolongations of the truce, on various excuses made by the Imaun's Officers, the squadron on the 26th commenced a brisk fire on the North Fort, and the enemy being driven out of it, a detachment of seamen and artillery was landed, who took possession of it, and blew it up, after spiking the guns and throwing out the carriages.

From the 26th to the 30th the squadron was employed in getting up to the South Fort, which was attended with great fatigue and labour, as it blew a heavy gale the whole time, and the men had to lay out warps under the enemy's guns at match-lock distance. A few shot were occasionally exchanged between the ships and the batteries, and many messages came off from the shore, but without leading to any result. On the 30th a fire was opened on the South Fort; it was breached and evacuated by the troops, and a party being landed from the squadron, it was totally blown up, and the guns spiked and carriages destroyed, as at the other Fort.

On the 2d of January, it being understood that Captain Bruce, the Agent, intended to return to India, leaving the blockading force, an Officer from Senna came off; and, producing his powers, acceded to all the terms of the new treaty proposed by the British, with the exception of two, which he assured the agent would also be agreed to after a reference to Senna; promising also that Hagie Futeh, the former Dolah of Mocha, by whom an offence had been committed against the English, should be delivered up to be treated by them as they should think proper. On the return of that Officer to the shore, he sent off all the articles signed and sealed by himself, and other members of Government, and a paper sealed in the same manner respecting Futeh's disgrace.

On the 4th, the Agent landed, and was received with every mark of respect; and the same day the Dolah was placed under confinement, and his property confiscated, being charged with deceiving the Imaun in regard to the demands of the English and the real state of affairs.

The greatest zeal, gallantry, and perseverance under fatigue were displayed by all the Officers and men in the expedition.

In the unsuccessful attack upon the north fort, on the 4th of December, His Majesty's ship Topaze had four killed and sixteen wounded (two of the latter since dead), and the Company's cruizers and artillery, four killed and eight wounded. Lieutenant R. G. Atkinson, of the Royal Marines, on board the Topaze, was killed, and Lieutenants William Moriarty and C. M. M. Wright, of the Navy, were wounded; Mr. C. P. Gill, Master's Mate, and Mr. Francis S. Burnett, Midshipman, of the Topaze, were killed; and Mr. Robert Ward and Mr. Williams Stephens, Admiralty Midshipmen, of the same ship, were wounded; Mr. Ward since dead.

The only casualties which took place on the renewal of hostilities were, one marine, of the Topaze, killed, and Lieutenant Jacob, of the Artillery, Lieutenant Wilson, of the Company's Marine, and one seaman burnt by the explosion of the mines, but reported as doing well.
