By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, R.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to provide for a new silver coinage, and to regulate the gold and silver currency of this realm," the Master and Worker of Our Mint in London was authorised and empowered to coin, or cause to be coined, silver bullion into silver coins, consisting of crowns, half crowns, shillings, and sixpences, of the standard of eleven ounces and two penny weights of fine silver, and eighteen penny weights of alloy to the pound troy, and in weight after the rate of sixty-six shillings to the pound troy: and whereas in virtue of the powers so given, a coinage of crowns or five shilling pieces, shillings, sixpences, and other small silver monies, usually denominated Maundy monies, namely, fourpenny, threepenny, twopenny, and penny pieces (in addition to the coinage of the other denominations of silver monies), at the rate of sixty-six shillings to the pound troy, and of the standard fineness above-mentioned; every such crown or five shilling piece having for the obverse impression Our effigy or portraiture, with the inscription "Georgius III. D. G. Britanniar: Rex: F. D." and for the reverse the image of Saint George, sitting on horseback, attacking the Dragon with a sword, having broken his spear in the encounter, and the date of the year; and on the edge of the piece, in raised letters, the words "Decus et tutamen, anno regni," the year of Our reign being in Roman numeral letters; and every such shilling and sixpenny piece having for the obverse impression Our effigy or portraiture, with the inscription "Georgius III. D. G. Britanniar: Rex: F. D." and for the reverse the ensigns armorial of Our United Kingdom, contained in a shield surmounted by Our Royal Crown, the Rose, Thistle, and Shamrock, being placed round the shield with the word "Anno" and the date of the year, and the edge of the piece being marked with the graining used on the coins of His late Majesty; and every such silver monies usually denominated Maundy monies, namely, the fourpenny, threepenny, twopenny, and penny pieces, having for the obverse impression Our effigy or portraiture, with a similar inscription to the shilling and sixpence, and for the reverse the denomination of the money, encircled by an oak wreath surmounted by the Royal Crown, and having the date of the year; has been delivered from Our Mint to the Bank of England, and will be issued therefrom for the use of Our subjects: We have, therefore, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, thought fit to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, and We do hereby ordain, declare, and command, that the said pieces of silver money shall, from and after the day of the date of this Our Proclamation, be current and lawful money of Our Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and shall pass and be received as current and lawful money of Our said Kingdom, that is to say, such crown pieces as of the value of five shillings, the said shilling pieces as of the value of twelve pence, the said sixpenny pieces as of the value of six pence, and the said Maundy monies, namely, the said fourpenny pieces as of the value of four pence, the said threepenny pieces as of the value of three pence, the said twopenny pieces as of the value of two pence, and the said penny pieces as of the value of one penny, in all payments and transactions of money.

Given at Our Court at Carlton-House, the twenty-first day of March one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, in the second year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, R.

WHEREAS His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His late Majesty King George the Third, was pleased by His Royal Proclamations, bearing date the first day of July and the tenth day of October in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventeen, to ordain, declare, and command, that certain pieces of gold coin therein described, called sovereigns and half sovereigns, should pass and be received as current and lawful money of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and that every such sovereign should weigh not less than five penny weights, two grains and three quarters, and that every such half sovereign should weigh not less than two penny weights, thirteen grains and one quarter; and whereas the allowance made for reasonable wear by the said Proclamations has been found by experience to be too small for general practice: We taking the same into consideration are pleased, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, and We do hereby ordain, declare, and command, that, from and after the date hereof, every gold sovereign not weighing less than five penny weights, two grains and a half, and every gold half sovereign not weighing less than two penny weights, thirteen grains and one eighth, shall pass and be received as current and lawful money of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; every such sovereign as of the value of twenty shillings; and every such half sovereign as of the value of ten shillings, in all payments whatsoever.

Given at Our Court at Carlton-House, the sixth day of February one thousand eight hundred and twenty one, and in the second year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

3d March 1821.

NOTICE, MONEY WEIGHTS.

WHEREAS by an Act of the fourteenth Geo. III. cap. 92, it is directed that all weights made use of for weighing the gold and silver coins of the realm shall be tried and compared with the standard weights lodged in His Majesty's Mint, and that upon the same being found just and true a stamp shall be marked thereon by an officer appointed for that purpose: And whereas by a Proclamation, bearing date sixth of February one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, His Majesty has been pleased to order that the gold coins therein described shall not pass current under a certain weight:

Notice is therefore hereby given, to all persons requiring their weights to be stamped, that attendance will be given at the Weigher and Tellers Office, at the Mint, on Wednesday the fourteenth instant, and every subsequent Wednesday, between the hours of ten and three o'clock, for the receiving the said weights which are to be left with the said officer, and after the same have been compared with the weights in the Office, and found to be true and just, they will be marked with the following impression, viz. on one side, His Majesty's crest with the words "Royal Mint" and the date of the year of the Proclamation, and on the other side, the current weight of the denomination of the coin, and delivered to the owners on their paying the fee directed by the Act of Parliament of the fifteenth Geo. III. cap. 30, viz. one penny for every twelve weights so stamped or marked before the same are delivered. And all persons counterfeiting or selling forged stamps will be prosecuted as the Act directs.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 23d of February 1821,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board, a Memorial from the Commissioners for discovering the Longitude at Sea, in the words following, viz.

"WHEREAS by an Act of the fifty-eighth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for more effectually discovering the Longitude at Sea, and encouraging attempts to find a Northern Passage between the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans, and to approach the Northern Pole;" and by another Act of the present session of Parliament, to amend the said Act, it is provided, that for the encouragement of persons who may attempt the said Passage, or approach to the Northern Pole, but not wholly accomplish the same; we, the Commissioners for discovering the Longitude at Sea, may by our Memorial propose to your Majesty in Council, to direct and establish proportionate rewards to be paid to such person as aforesaid, who shall first have accomplished certain proportions of the said Passage or Approach:

And whereas it appears that the progress of discovery has already advanced on the Northern Coast of North America, and within the Arctic Circle, as far as 113 degrees of West Longitude, or thereabouts, from Greenwich; but has not arrived Northward, according to any well authenticated accounts, so far as 81 degrees of North Latitude:

We, your Memorialists, beg leave most humbly to represent these particulars for your Majesty's consideration, and to submit, with all humility, whether your Majesty may not be graciously pleased to establish the following scale of rewards, to be allotted according to the intentions of the said Acts:

1.—To the first ship belonging to any of your Majesty's subjects, or to your Majesty, that shall reach the Longitude of 130° West from Greenwich, by sailing within the Arctic Circle - - - £5,000

To the first ship as aforesaid, that shall reach the Longitude of 150° West from Greenwich, by sailing within the Arctic Circle, a further sum of - - - £5,000

To the first ship as aforesaid, that shall reach the Pacific Ocean by a North West Passage, the further sum of - - - £10,000

2.—To the first ship as aforesaid, that shall reach to 83° of North Latitude - - - £1,000

To 85°, a further sum of - - - £1,000

To 87°, a further sum of - - - £1,000

To 88°, a further sum of - - - £1,000

To 89°, or beyond, a further sum of - - - £1,000

And if your Majesty should graciously approve these proposals, we further, with all humility, submit whether your Majesty would not be pleased, by your Order in Council, to revoke, cancel, and annul His late Majesty's Order in Council, of the nineteenth March one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, establishing the scale of rewards therein contained, for the accomplishment of certain proportions of the said Passage or Approach."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve thereof; and His Majesty doth hereby establish the scale of rewards proposed in the said Memorial.

And His Majesty is further pleased, by and with the advice aforesaid, to revoke, cancel, and annul the Order in Council of the nineteenth of March one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, establishing the scale of rewards therein contained, and the same is hereby revoked, cancelled, and annulled accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

Crown-Office, May 1, 1821.

MEMBER returned to serve in this present PARLIAMENT.

Nearest of Kin of MICHAEL KING, deceased.

MICHAEL KING, late of Stourton, in the County of Wilts, deceased, having by his will bequeathed the rest and residue of his estate and effects to his nearest of kin; all persons who answer that description are desired to transmit statements, shewing their degree of kindred to the deceased, with proper certificates and documents, authenticating their claims (postage paid), to Messrs. Messiter, Solicitors, Wincanton.

ALL persons having any claims or demands on the estate of Sir Charles Bunbury, Bart. deceased, are desired forthwith to send the particulars thereof to Mr. Lee, No. 43, Lincoln's-Inn-Fields, London, Solicitor to the Executors, in order that the same may be examined and settled.

ALL persons having any demand against the estate of Dowager Lady Charlotte Burgoyne, late of Oxford-Street, deceased, are desired to send the particulars thereof forthwith to Mr. Robinson 41, Jernyn-Street, the Solicitor to her Administrators, or they will be excluded from all benefit therefrom, by a division of her property being made among her next of kin.

REPUBLIC OF COLOMBIA.

Paris, April 25, 1821.

THE Undersigned, Don Francisco Antonio Zea, having, in his capacity of Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary from the Republic of Colombia, granted to the Creditors of the said Government certain Debentures, in payment of their respective claims, bearing an interest of Ten per Cent. per Annum, the first instalment of which becomes due on the 1st of May next, hereby informs the holders of the said Debentures, that the said Government has not been able, as yet, to remit to the Committee appointed for that purpose in London, the Funds necessary to the payment of the said instalment. This delay is the unavoidable consequence of the great changes which have lately taken place, the seat of Government having been removed from Angostura to Cucuta, and the march and counter-march of troops having for a time interrupted the communication with the sea ports, but which has ultimately led to the conclusion of an armistice from which a happy termination of the war may be expected.

The Undersigned has much satisfaction in informing the Creditors of the Republic of Colombia, that he has received Dispatches from his Government, giving him the most positive assurance of the prompt remittance of the aforesaid Funds, which the aforesaid military movements had retarded.

FRANCISCO ANTONIO ZEA.

TO be sold, by public auction, by Mr. Aldridge, at his Repository, in St. Martin's-Lane, on Wednesday the 14th day of May instant, at the hour of One o'Clock in the Afternoon, pursuant to an order of the Commissioners in a Commission of Bankrupt awarded against William Eames, of the Haymarket, Horse-Dealer, Dealer and Chapman.

The further particulars and conditions of sale may be had by application to Messieurs Jones and Bland, Solicitors to the Commission, No. 34, Great Mary-le-bone-Street; Mr. Fisher, Solicitor, No. 1, Inner Temple Lane; and also of Mr. Aldridge, at his Repository in Saint Martin's Lane.

Upwoman and Sampford Peverell,—Devon.

IN pursuance of an Order of the Vice Chancellor, bearing date the 17th day of January last, in the matter of John Broom Farrant, a Bankrupt,—To be sold by auction, before the major part of the Commissioners, named and authorised in and by a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against the said John Broom Farrant, at the Angel Inn, in Tiverton, in the County of Devon, on Thursday the 10th day of May next, between the hours of Four and Five o'Clock in the Afternoon, the under-mentioned premises in lots, viz:

Lot 1. The fee simple and inheritance of all that messuage and tenement called Hill's tenement, in the occupation of Mr. Skinner, consisting of a good farm-house, malt-house, barns, stables, courtlages, &c. together with 96 acres, more or less, of excellent meadow, arable, pasture and orchard land in good cultivation, situate in the Parish of Upwoman, in the County of Devon, distant from Tiverton four miles, eight from Wellington, and six from Cullington, and nearly adjoining the Grand Western Canal, now navigable to Tiverton.

On the premises are inexhaustible lime rocks with three lime kilns, in which the lime burning business is carried on to a considerable extent, one moiety of these premises is subject to the life interest of a person aged about forty-six.

Lot 2. The fee simple and inheritance of all that messuage and tenement called Lee Ditch, and Roofless-Place, in the occupation of Mr. Jacob Fowler, containing by estimation sixty-six acres, more or less, of improvable arable meadow and pasture land, situate in the Parish of Sampford Peverell, in the County of Devon, distant six miles from Tiverton, and eight miles from Wellington, one moiety of these premises is also subject to the life interest of a person aged about sixty-three years.

For viewing the premises apply to the respective tenants, and for further particulars at the Offices of Mr. Strong, Solicitor, Tiverton; or to Mr. D. Warren, Solicitor, Wellington.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Topham v. Swindon, the Creditors of John Walker Topham, late of Westend, in the Parish of Fewston, in the County of York (who died in the month of December 1819), are, personally or by their Solicitors, to come in and prove their debts before Joseph Jekyll, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on or before the 4th day of June 1821, or in default thereof they will be preceptually excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against David Cohen Macnair, of Cornhill, London, Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, are desired to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Wednesday the 16th day of May instant, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Office of Messrs. Clare and Dickinson, 2, Frederick's-Place, Old-Jewry, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of certain goods, merchandise, and other effects, the property of the said Bankrupt, by public auction or private contract as they may think fit; and to the said Assignees paying the costs and expences of and relating to three attachments laid previously to the date of the said Commission, by or in the name of the said Bankrupt, for the recovery of certain debts due to his estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees laying any other attachments or commencing or continuing any other actions, suits, or other legal proceedings, for obtaining or enforcing payment of the same or any other debts or claims due or claimed to be due to the said Bankrupt's estate, and to their taking such other measures and employing such agents as they may think proper to act as they may direct, for the purpose of recovering and obtaining payment thereof; and to the said Assignees paying all such costs, charges, and expences as may be so incurred, and paying to any such agents and others such remuneration for their services in the premises as to them shall seem meet; and to the said Assignees paying the wages due to the said Bankrupt's clerk up to the date of his Bankruptcy; and to their making the said Bankrupt such allowance and remuneration for his services in the affairs of the said estate as they may think proper; also to the said Assignees guaranteeing and paying, out of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, the Solicitor's costs and charges and other expences already incurred and to be incurred in and relating to the defence and proceedings in two certain suits in the Court of Exchequer; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing and prosecuting or defending any other actions or suits, for the recovery of any monies, estate or effects belonging to or claimed as the property of the said Bankrupt; and to their submitting any actions, suits, proceedings, debts, claims, and demands as aforesaid to arbitration, or to their compounding for the same, or otherwise agreeing to any compromise or arrangement thereof, or to any matter relative thereto as they shall deem proper; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Mossop Haile, of Cheltenham, in the County of Gloucester, Hotel-Keeper, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Monday the 7th day of May instant, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, at the Office of Messrs.
