At the Court at Carlton-House, the 5th of May 1821,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to direct the distribution of any reward awarded by the Commissioners of the Customs or Excise to the Officers of the Army, Navy, or Marines, for apprehending smugglers, in such manner as His Majesty shall be pleased to appoint," it was enacted that in all cases wherein the Commissioners of Customs or Excise of England, Scotland, and Ireland respectively, shall award any sum not exceeding twenty pounds as aforesaid, to any officer, officers, non-commissioned officers, petty officers, seamen, or privates of His Majesty's army, navy, or marines, or acting under the orders of the Lord High Admiral, or of the Commissioners for executing the office of the Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, for any person so arrested, convicted, or committed to prison as aforesaid, the same shall be divided and distributed in such proportions, and according to such rules, regulations, and orders, as His Majesty shall, by His Order or Orders in Council, or by His Royal Proclamation in that behalf, be pleased to direct and appoint;

And whereas, in pursuance of the said powers, His late Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council of the seventeenth of September one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, to direct and appoint that the bounty money awarded for the arrest of any person or persons arrested, convicted and committed to prison, according to the provision of the laws above recited, by any officer or officers, non-commissioned officers, petty officers, seamen, or privates of His Majesty's army, navy, or marines, or acting under the orders of the Lord High Admiral, or of the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United

And whereas it is expedient that the said rules and regulations shall be in part altered, viz. so far as they relate to seizures made on shore by persons acting under the orders of the Lord High Admiral, or of the Commissioners for executing the office of the Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and that in lieu thereof other rules and regulations should be directed and appointed for the distribution of the reward granted in such case or cases: His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order that the said Order in Council of the seventeenth of September one thousand eight hundred and nineteen be henceforth revoked, so far as relates to sums awarded for seizures made on shore by persons under the orders of the Lord High Admiral, or the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and no further; and the same is hereby so far revoked, saving only as to sums awarded for seizures made prior to the date hereof, which shall be distributed according to the former Order:

And His Majesty is further pleased to direct and appoint that all sums awarded, saving as above excepted seizures made prior to the date hereof, by the Commissioners of Customs or Excise in England, Scotland and Ireland, to persons under the orders of the Lord High Admiral, or the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, for the arrest on shore of any person or persons for a breach of the laws as above described, shall be paid in the following proportions, to and for the benefit of the person or persons who shall actually make the arrest, viz.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to cause His Majesty's pleasure, hereby signified, to be duly complied with. Jas. Buller.

Veneris, 11<sup>o</sup> die Maij 1821.

WHEREAS the Select Committee appointed to try and determine the merits of the petition of Richard Spooner, Esq. and also the petition of Charles Lilly, Abraham Herbert, and others, freeholders of the county of Warwick, severally complaining of an undue election and return for the said county, have this day reported to the House of Commons, "That it appeared to the said Committee, that the merits of the said petitions did in part depend upon the right of election, and therefore the Committee required the Counsel on both sides to deliver to the Clerk of the Committee statements in writing of the right of election for which they respectively contended: that in consequence thereof, the Counsel for the said several petitioners delivered in a statement as follows; that the right of voting for Knights to serve in Parliament for the county of Warwick, is in the freeholders of the same county, whose freeholds are of the annual value of forty shillings, and duly assessed to the land tax, among whom are included, for the purpose of this right of voting, those freeholders whose freeholds are locally situate in the county of the city of Coventry, or at least such of the last-mentioned freeholders as are not freemen of or members of the Corporation of Coventry; that the counsel for the sitting member delivered in a statement as follows; that the right of voting for Knights of the Shire for the county of Warwick is in the freeholders of the county of Warwick only, and that no person in virtue of any freehold situate in the county of the city of Coventry, has any right to vote at any election of members for the county of Warwick: that upon the statement delivered in by the counsel for the petitioners, the said Committee have determined, that the right of election as set forth in the said statement is not the right of election for the county of Warwick: that upon the statement delivered in by the counsel for the sitting member, the said Committee have determined, that the right of election as set forth in the said statement is the right of election for the county of Warwick." I do hereby give this notice, in pursuance of the directions of an Act, passed in the twenty-eighth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for the further regulation of the trials of controverted elections or returns of members to serve in Parliament."

Given under my hand, the 11th day of May 1821.

CHARLES MANNERS SUTTON, Speaker.
