Veneris, 11^o die Maij 1821.

WHEREAS the Select Committee appointed to try and determine the merits of the petition of Richard Spooner, Esq. and also the petition of Charles Lilly, Abraham Herbert, and others, freeholders of the county of Warwick, severally complaining of an undue election and return for the said county, have this day reported to the House of Commons, "That it appeared to the said Committee, that the merits of the said petitions did in part depend upon the right of election, and therefore the Committee required the Counsel on both sides to deliver to the Clerk of the Committee statements in writing of the right of election for which they respectively contended: that in consequence thereof, the Counsel for the said several petitioners delivered in a statement as follows; that the right of voting for Knights to serve in Parliament for the county of Warwick, is in the freeholders of the same county, whose freeholds are of the annual value of forty shillings, and duly assessed to the land tax, among whom are included, for the purpose of this right of voting, those freeholders whose freeholds are locally situate in the county of the city of Coventry, or at least such of the last-mentioned freeholders as are not freemen of or members of the Corporation of Coventry; that the counsel for the sitting member delivered in a statement as follows; that the right of voting for Knights of the Shire for the county of Warwick is in the freeholders of the county of Warwick only, and that no person in virtue of any freehold situate in the county of the city of Coventry, has any right to vote at any election of members for the county of Warwick: that upon the statement delivered in by the counsel for the petitioners, the said Committee have determined, that the right of election as set forth in the said statement is not the right of election for the county of Warwick: that upon the statement delivered in by the counsel for the sitting member, the said Committee have determined, that the right of election as set forth in the said statement is the right of election for the county of Warwick." I do hereby give this notice, in pursuance of the directions of an Act, passed in the twenty-eighth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for the further regulation of the trials of controverted elections or returns of members to serve in Parliament."

Given under my hand, the 11th day of May 1821.

CHARLES MANNERS SUTTON, Speaker.

Crown-Office, May 15, 1821.

MEMBER returned to serve in this present PARLIAMENT.

County of Down.

Matthew Forde, of Seaford, in the county of Down, Esq. in the room of the Right Honourable Robert Viscount Castlereagh, now Marquess of Londonderry.

Whitehall, May 12, 1821.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of Saturday the 5th instant, about eleven o'clock, some evil-disposed person or persons did wilfully and maliciously set fire to and destroy certain ricks of hay and straw, situate in the parish of Windlesham, in the county of Surrey, the property of the Reverend Henry Hammond, of the said parish, and also certain cart-sheds and a stable, situate in the said parish, the property of Mr. John Lane, of the same place;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felonies above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person actually setting fire to the said property in either of the above instances), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person or persons (except as aforesaid), who shall discover the said offender or offenders in either of the above-mentioned cases, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—The said reward to be paid on conviction by Mr. Mears, Solicitor, of Bagshot, in the said county.
