By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE. R.

WHEREAS We have thought fit to order that certain pieces of gold money should be coined, which should be called "sovereigns or twenty shilling pieces," each of which should be of the value of twenty shillings; and that each piece should be of the weight of five penny weights three grains and $\frac{2,740}{10,000}$ troy weight of standard gold; and that certain other pieces of gold money should be coined, which should be called "half sovereigns or ten shilling pieces," each of which should be of the value of ten shillings, and that each piece last mentioned should be of the weight of two penny weights thirteen grains $\frac{6,370}{10,000}$ troy weight of standard gold, according to the weights approved of and confirmed by Us in Council, in pursuance of an Act, made in the fourteenth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for regulating and ascertaining the weights to be made use of in weighing the gold and silver coin of this kingdom:" and We have further thought fit to order that every such gold sovereign or twenty shilling piece so ordered to be coined as aforesaid, shall have for the obverse impression Our effigy, with the inscription "Georgius IIII, D. G. Britanniar: Rex: F D." and for the reverse the image of Saint George armed, sitting on horseback, attacking the Dragon with a sword, having broken his spear in the encounter, and the date of the year, the edge of the piece to be marked with the new invented graining used on the coins of His late Majesty; and that every such gold half sovereign or ten shilling piece so ordered to be coined as aforesaid, shall have for the obverse impression Our effigy, with the inscription "Georgius IIII, D. G. Britanniar: Rex: F D." and for the reverse the ensigns armorial of the United Kingdom, contained in a shield surrounded by the Rose, Thistle, and Shamrock, and having the word "Anno" with the date of the year, and on the edge of the piece the new invented graining used on the coins of His late Majesty: And whereas pieces of gold money of the above descriptions respectively have been coined at Our Mint, and will be coined there, in pursuance of orders which We have given for that purpose: We have, therefore, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, thought fit to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, and We do hereby ordain, declare, and command, that the said pieces of gold money respectively so coined, and to be coined as aforesaid, shall be current and lawful money of the Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and shall be called "sovereigns or twenty shilling pieces" and "half sovereigns or ten shilling pieces," and shall pass and be received as current and lawful money of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; and every of such sovereigns not weighing less than five penny weights two grains and an half, and every of such half sovereigns not weighing less than two penny weights thirteen grains and one-eighth, shall pass and be received as current and lawful money of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, every such sovereign as of the value of twenty shillings of lawful money of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and every such half sovereign as of the value of ten shillings of like lawful money, in all payments whatsoever.

Given at Our Court at Carlton-House, the fifth day of May one thousand eight hundred and twenty one, in the second year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 5th of May 1821,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the twenty-second of November last, for prohibiting the exportation of gunpowder, arms, or ammunition, to the places therein specified, will expire on the thirtieth day of this instant May; and whereas it is expedient, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth day of this instant May), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place within the dominions of the King of Spain, or to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar), or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places within the dominions of the King of Spain, or into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:"

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Buller.

By Authority of Parliament,

THOMAS NETTLESHIPP, Clerk of the Grocers' Company,

ARMY CONTRACTS.

Commissariat Department, Treasury-Chambers, June 4, 1821.

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons desirous of contracting to supply the following articles for the use of the Army, viz.

FORAGE, viz. Oats, Hay, and Straw, to His Majesty's Cavalry in Barracks, and Oats in Cantonments and Quarters, in the several Counties in North Britain,

That the deliveries are to commence on and for the 25th day of July next; that proposals in writing, sealed up and marked "Tender for Army Supplies," will be received at this Office on or before Friday the 29th of June instant; but none will be received after twelve o'clock on that day.

Each proposal must have the letter which is annexed to the tender properly filled up by two persons of known property, engaging to become bound with the party tendering, in the amount stated in the printed particulars, for the due performance of the contract; and no proposal will be noticed unless made on a printed tender, and the prices expressed in words at length.

Particulars of the contracts may be had upon application at these Chambers, between the hours of eleven and five; and at the Office of Deputy Commissary-General Young, Edinburgh.

Office of Ordnance, May 26, 1821.

THE Principal Officers of His Majesty's Ordnance do hereby give notice, that they will be ready to receive tenders in writing, on Friday the 15th day of June next, from such persons as may be desirous of purchasing

Five hundred tons of unserviceable Brass Ordnance.

The metal may be viewed by persons desirous of becoming purchasers, upon application to John Geurt, Esq. Storekeeper, or to either of the other respective Officers of the Civil Department at the Royal Arsenal at Woolwich, any day previous to the 15th of June next.

Tenders will be considered for the whole or part of the five hundred tons, but no tender will be admitted for a smaller portion than fifty tons.

No draft will be allowed in weighing the ordnance.

The expence of conveying the ordnance to the wharf in the Royal Arsenal, and shipping it from thence into the vessels or craft which the purchasers may provide to receive it, will be defrayed by the Board.

Payment of the purchase-money will be expected on delivery of the metal to the purchasers.

No tenders will be admitted after twelve o'clock on the 15th June next; and the terms and conditions upon which the sale will be made, may be known upon application at the Secretary's Office, in Pall-Mall, any day between the hours of ten and four o'clock.

By order of the Board,

R. H. Crew, Secretary.

No. 17714.

Office of Ordnance, May 28, 1821.

THE Principal Officers of His Majesty's Ordnance do hereby give notice, that proposals will be received at their Office in Pall-Mall, on Monday the 11th day of June next, from such persons as may be willing to undertake the supply of Bread, Meat, and Flour, for service of the Company of Gentlemen Cadets at Woolwich, for a period of three months.

The bread, meat, and flour to be of the best sort and quality; the bread to be of the best household, and according to a pattern loaf which may be inspected at the Cadets Barracks at Woolwich.

Further particulars, together with the terms and conditions of the contracts, may be known by application to Colonel Ford, the Lieutenant-Governor of the Royal Military Academy at Woolwich, and also at the Secretary's Office, in Pall-Mall aforesaid, any day between the hours of ten and four o'clock; where the proposals must be delivered, sealed up, and indorsed "Proposals for Bread and Flour, or Meat, as the case may be;" but no proposal can be admitted after the 11th of June, at twelve o'clock at noon of the same day; neither will any tender be noticed, unless the party making it, or an agent in his behalf, shall attend.

By order of the Board,

R. H. Crew, Secretary.

East India-House, June 6, 1821.

THE Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, do hereby give notice,

That the Quarterly General Court of the said Company, appointed to be held at their House, in Leadenhall-Street, on Wednesday the 20th instant, is made special, for the purpose of receiving a report from the Committee appointed to inspect the East India Company's bye-laws, and of considering certain propositions therein contained, for altering bye-law, cap. 1, sec. 1, and for repealing bye-laws, cap. 12, sec. 1 and 2, and for ordaining a bye-law, instead of those proposed to be repealed.
