

Whitehall, June 8, 1821.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed George Phillips, of Narbeth, in the county of Pembroke, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, June 9, 1821.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of Friday the 1st instant, a barn with the thrashing and winnowing machines, and a straw-house and stable, the property of Mr. John Russell, of Low Heworth, in the county of Durham, were destroyed by fire, and from the circumstances there is the strongest reason to suspect that the same were maliciously set on fire;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felonies above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said premises), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH

And, as a further encouragement, the following rewards are hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence, viz. the sum of FIFTY POUNDS by the said John Russell, and a further sum of FIFTY POUNDS by the Heworth Association for prosecuting felons.

COURT OF CLAIMS.

THE Right Honourable the Commissioners appointed by His Majesty's Commission to hear and determine all claims of services and offices to be performed at the Coronation of His Majesty, and of fees to be received for the same, will meet again, on Saturday next the 16th day of June instant, at twelve o'clock at noon, in the Painted Chamber at Westminster, to dispose of such petitions as have not been already heard and determined.
