A PROCLAMATION,

Appointing a Day for the Solemnity of the Coronation of His Majesty.

GEORGE, R.

WHEREAS by Our Royal Proclamation, bearing date the sixth day of May one thousand eight hundred and twenty, We did (amongst other things) publish and declare Our Royal intention to celebrate the Solemnity of Our Royal Coronation upon Tuesday the first day of August then next ensuing, at Our Palace at Westminster: and whereas by Our Royal Proclamation, bearing date on the twelfth of July following, We thought fit to adjourn the said Solemnity until Our Royal will and pleasure should be further signified thereon: and whereas We have resolved, by the favour and blessing of Almighty God, to celebrate the said Solemnity upon Thursday the nineteenth day of July next, at Our said Palace at Westminster; We do by this Our Royal Proclamation give notice of and publish Our resolution therein; and We do hereby strictly charge and command all Our loving subjects whom it may concern, that all persons of what rank or quality soever they be, who either upon Our letters to them directed, or by reason of their offices and tenures, or otherwise, are to do any service at the time of Our Coronation, do duly give their attendance at the said Solemnity on Thursday the nineteenth day of July next, in all respects furnished and appointed as to so great a Solemnity appertaineth, and answerable to the dignities and places which every one of them respectively holdeth and enjoyeth; and of this they or any of them are not to fail, as they will answer the contrary at their perils, unless upon special reasons, by Ourselves under Our sign manual to be allowed, We shall dispense with any of their services or attendances.

Given at Our Court at Carlton-House, this ninth day of June one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, in the second year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, R.

WHEREAS John Earl of Stair was duly elected and returned to be one of the sixteen Peers of Scotland, to sit in the House of Peers in the present Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and is since deceased; in order to the electing another Peer of Scotland to sit in his room, We do, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, issue forth this Proclamation, strictly charging and commanding all the Peers of Scotland to assemble and meet at Holyrood-House, in Edinburgh, on Thursday the second day of August next, between the hours of twelve and two in the afternoon, to nominate and choose another Peer of Scotland, to sit and vote in the House of Peers of this present Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the room of the said John Earl of Stair, deceased, by open election, and plurality of voices of the Peers that shall then be present, and of the proxies of such as shall be absent (such proxies being Peers, and producing a mandate in writing, duly signed before witnesses, and both constituent and proxy being qualified according to law), and the Lord Clerk Register, or such two of the Principal Clerks of the Session as shall be appointed by him to officiate in his name, are hereby respectively required to attend such meeting, and to administer the oaths required by law to be taken there by the said Peers, and to take their votes; and immediately after such election made and duly examined, to certify the name of the Peer so elected, and sign and attest the same in the presence of the said Peers the electors, and return such certificate into the High Court of Chancery of Great Britain. And We strictly charge and command that this Proclamation be duly published at the Market-Cross at Edinburgh, and in all the county towns in Scotland, twenty-five days, at least, before the time hereby appointed for the meeting of the said Peers to proceed on such election.

Given at Our Court at Carlton-House, this ninth day of June one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, in the second year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 9th of June 1821,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 38, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend the ballot or enrolment for the local militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order in Council, to direct that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia shall take place; but that such ballot and enrolment shall remain and continue suspended for the period specified in any such Order of Council, and from time to time, by any like Order or Orders in Council, to continue such suspension so long as His Majesty shall deem the same expedient, any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding: and whereas by an Order in Council, made the seventh of June last, it was ordered by His Majesty in Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia should take place for the space of one year from the twenty-seventh of June last, but that the ballot and enrolment for the local militia should remain and continue suspended for the space of one year from the said twenty-seventh of June last: and whereas it is deemed expedient to continue such suspension of the ballot and enrolment for the local militia for the space of one year from and after the twenty-seventh day of this instant June; it is, therefore, ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia do take place for the space of one year from and after the twenty-seventh day of this instant June, but that the ballot and enrolment for the local militia do remain and continue suspended for the space of one year from and after the said twenty-seventh day of this instant June.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, R.

WHEREAS We have thought fit to order that certain pieces of gold money should be coined, which should be called "sovereigns or twenty shilling pieces," each of which should be of the value of twenty shillings, and that each piece should be of the weight of five penny weights three grains and  $\frac{2,740}{10,000}$  troy weight of standard gold; and that certain other pieces of gold money should be coined, which should be called "half sovereigns or ten shilling pieces," each of which should be of the value of ten shillings, and that each piece last mentioned should be of the weight of two penny weights thirteen grains  $\frac{6,870}{10,000}$  troy weight of standard gold, according to the weights approved of and confirmed by Us in Council, in pursuance of an Act, made in the fourteenth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for regulating and ascertaining the weights to be made use of in weighing the gold and silver coin of this kingdom:" and We have further thought fit to order that every such gold sovereign or twenty shilling piece so ordered to be coined as aforesaid, shall have for the obverse impression Our effigy, with the inscription "Georgius III, D. G. Britanniar: Rex: F. D." and for the reverse the image of Saint George armed, sitting on horseback, attacking the Dragon with a sword, having broken his spear in the encounter, and the date of the year, the edge of the piece to be marked with the new invented graining used on the coins of His late Majesty; and that every such gold half sovereign or ten shilling piece so ordered to be coined as aforesaid, shall have for the obverse impression Our effigy, with the inscription "Georgius III, D. G. Britanniar: Rex: F. D." and for the reverse the ensigns armorial of the United Kingdom, contained in a shield surrounded by the Rose, Thistle, and Shamrock, and having the word "Anno" with the date of the year, and on the edge of the piece the new invented graining used on the coins of His late Majesty: And whereas pieces of gold money of the above descriptions respectively have been coined at Our Mint, and will be coined there, in pursuance of orders which We have given for that purpose: We have, therefore, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, thought fit to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, and We do hereby ordain, declare, and command, that the said pieces of gold money respectively so coined, and to be coined as aforesaid, shall be current and lawful money of the Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and shall be called "sovereigns or twenty shilling pieces" and "half sovereigns or ten shilling pieces," and shall pass and be received as current and lawful money of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; and every of such sovereigns not weighing less than five penny weights two grains and an half, and every of such half sovereigns not weighing less than two penny weights thirteen grains and one-eighth, shall pass and be received as current and lawful money of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, every such sovereign as of the value of twenty shillings of lawful money of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and every such half sovereign as of the value of ten shillings of like lawful money, in all payments whatsoever.

Given at Our Court at Carlton-House, the fifth day of May one thousand eight hundred and twenty one, in the second year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 5th of May 1821,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the twenty-second of November last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder, arms, or ammunition, to the places therein specified, will expire on the thirtieth day of this instant May; and whereas it is expedient, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth day of this instant May), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place within the dominions of the King of Spain, or to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Straights of Gibraltar), or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places within the dominions of the King of Spain, or into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition," and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:"

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Butler.

Westminster, June 8, 1821.

THIS day, the Lords being met, a message was sent to the Honourable House of Commons by the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, acquainting them, that The Lords, authorised by virtue of a Commission under the Great Seal, signed by His Majesty, for declaring His Royal Assent to several Acts agreed upon by both Houses, do desire the immediate attendance of the Honourable House in the House of Peers to hear the Commission read; and the Commons being come thither, the said Commission, empowering the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and several other Lords therein named, to declare and notify the Royal Assent to the said Acts, was read accordingly, and the Royal Assent given to Commission in the South Shropshire Regiment of Yeomanry Cavalry, signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Salop.

Thomas Lecke, Gent. to be Lieutenant, vice George Jeffreys, resigned. Dated 8th May 1821.

Whitehall; June 9, 1821.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of Friday the 1st instant, a barn with the thrashing and winnowing machines, and a straw-house and stable, the property of Mr. John Russell, of Low Heworth, in the county of Durham, were destroyed by fire, and from the circumstances there is the strongest reason to suspect that the same were maliciously set on fire;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felonies above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said premises), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH

And, as a further encouragement, the following rewards are hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence, viz. the sum of FIFTY POUNDS by the said John Russell, and a further sum of FIFTY POUNDS by the Heworth Association for prosecuting felons.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, passed in the 57th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to enable Peltro William Tomkins, of New Bond-street, in the city of Westminster, Engraver to the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, to dispose of his collection of paintings, drawings, and engravings, together with several copies of certain books therein mentioned, and the lease of the premises called the British Gallery of Pictures, by way of lottery," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for the said Peltro William Tomkins, his executors, administrators, or assigns, and he and they is and are thereby authorised and empowered to sell and dispose of the collection of paintings, drawings, and engravings, and the several pieces composing the same, together with certain copies of Thomson's Seasons and the British Gallery of Pictures, in two series therein mentioned, then unsold, and also the lease of the premises, No. 54, New Bond-street, by way of chance as in the said Act particularly mentioned, under certain restrictions and regulations therein specified, which said lottery was to be drawn according to the said Act, by a state lottery that should consist of 16,550 tickets, that should be drawn between the 1st day of August then next ensuing the passing of the said Act and the 1st day of December 1820:

And whereas by another Act, passed in the first year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to extend and amend an Act, passed in the 57th year of His late Majesty, to enable Peltro William Tomkins, engraver, to dispose of his collection of paintings, drawings, and engravings, together with several copies of certain books therein mentioned, and the lease of the premises called the British Gallery of Pictures, by way of lottery," it was enacted, that so much of the said recited Act as enacts, that the said 16,550 prizes therein mentioned should be determined by the drawing of any state lottery that should consist of 16,550 tickets or upwards, and that should be drawn in London between the 1st of August then next and the 1st day of December 1820, should be and was thereby repealed; and that the said 16,550 prizes should be determined by the drawing of any state lottery that should consist of 16,550 tickets or upwards that should be drawn in London between the 1st day of December 1820 and the 31st day of March 1821; and that if no such state lottery should be drawn before the 31st day of March 1821, then and in such case it should and might be lawful for the said Peltro William Tomkins, his executors, administrators, or assigns, at any time between the said 31st day of March and the 1st day of August 1821, to determine the said 16,550 prizes by a separate lottery, under the regulations therein mentioned; and it was thereby provided, that in case the said prizes and engravings should be determined by a separate lottery, notice thereof should be given by the said Peltro William Tomkins, his executors, administrators, or assigns, in the London Gazette, forty days at least previous to the drawing of such lottery:

Now, in pursuance of the said recited Acts, and the powers and authorities vested in me as is hereinabove and in the said recited Acts mentioned, I, the said Peltro William Tomkins, do hereby give notice, that such separate lottery, to determine the said 16,550 prizes above mentioned, will be drawn on the 24th, the 28th, and the 31st days of July next, at Coopers'-hall, in Basinghall-street, within the city of London.—Dated this 8th day of June 1821.
Peltro William Tomkins.

Office for Taxes, Somerset-Place,
June 9, 1821.

PURSUANT to Acts, passed in the forty-second and fifty-third years of His late Majesty's reign, notice is hereby given, that the price of the Three per Centum Reduced Bank Annuities, sold at the Bank of England this day, was £76 and under £77 per Centum.

By order of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes.
Matt. Winter, Secretary.
